HOOVER SIGNS TARIFF BILL AS BORAH IN SENATE SEEKS CUTS BY FLEXIBLE CLAUSE

NEW DUTIES GO INTO EFFECT

The President's Action Made Hawley-Smoot Bill Law at Midnight.

SIX PENS FOR CEREMONY

VOTE ON MOTION TODAY

Smoot Confident That Stocks Will Rise—George Twits Him on Effect of Act.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—In the presence of the Republican leaders who charted the measure through its long and weary course in Congress, President Hoover just before 1 o'clock this noon placed his signature on the 1930 tariff bill. The act, known as the Hawley-Smoot law, becomes effective at 12:01 A. M. tomorrow, but the first operations of the highest rates in the 141 years of American protective tariff history will actually begin when the custom houses open at 8 A. M., Eastern Standard Time.

The ink of the President's signature on the historic document had not dried when reaction against its "excessive rates on products bought by the farmer" appeared in the Senate. Senator Borah, accepting the suggestion of President Hoover made in his statement Sunday that he would employ the flexible tariff provisions of the new law to adjust inequities in rates, offered a resolution calling upon the Tariff Commission to investigate the difference in cost of production here and abroad on cement, shoes, furniture and farm implements. Consideration went over until tomorrow on account of the absence of Senator Smoot, chairman of the Finance Committee.

The action of Senator Borah was accepted as a forerunner of similar resolutions by Democratic-Insurgent Republican coalitionists that would appear as evidence of protest against the new act and as bases for campaign attacks.

Ceremony of Signing Bill.

Outside the Executive offices a depressing rain fell in torrents as the President signed the much-discussed bill. Six pens were used by Mr. Hoover in affixing his signature at just one minute before 1 P. M. The pens will be presented to Senators Smoot, Watson, Shortridge and Representatives Hawley, Treadway and Bacharach, the Republican conferees on the tariff.

Messrs. Smoot, Shortridge, Hawley and Treadway were present. Mr. Watson was detained by duties in the Senate and Mr. Bacharach was in New Jersey to vote in the Senatorial primary.

The President had announced that he would write his signature at 12:45 P. M., but a delay ensued while the group waited for Senator Watson's arrival. When he did not come, the ceremony proceeded. Secretary Mellon, Francis X. A. Eble, Collector of Customs, and the President's three private secretaries also were witnesses.

Mr. Hoover's part in the ritual consisted in writing "Approved June 17, 1930, at 12:59 P. M." on the bill, and "Herbert Hoover."

He looked up and smiled as he blotted the name carefully. No photographs of the signing were permitted and only a few newspaper men stood at the door of the President's private office.

The engrossed bill reached the White House at 10:20 A. M. from the treasury, to which department it was referred yesterday for examination and for inspection for possible typographical errors. Fifteen minutes later the bulky document lay on the President's desk.

Immediately after the President approved the measure Ogden L. Mills, Under-Secretary of the Treasury, was notified and set in motion the machinery for making the act effective.

Borah's Motion for Inquiry.

Senator Borah had his resolution read just about the time the President had made the bill a law. There was a demand by other Senators for the inclusion of other items. Senator Borah declined to accept amendments, but consented to delay consideration. While the Old Guard may object to adoption, there are enough coalitionists and independents to force through the resolution.

It reads:

Resolved, that the Tariff Commission is hereby directed to in-

Belgian Government Protests To Washington on the Tariff

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BRUSSELS, June 17.—The Belgian Government, through Prince de Ligne, its Ambassador at Washington, has sent the United States Government a note protesting against the new tariff.

The note points out that the trade balance between the two countries is already unfavorable to Belgium and cannot fail to become more so when the new duties are enforced. It calls the attention of the United States Government to the unfortunate effect this would have on the economic relations of both nations.

PERIL TO WAR DEBTS SEEN IN OUR TARIFF

European Critics Fear Difficulty in Making Payments if Trade With Us Is Curtailed.

BRITONS CALLED TO FIGHT

London Paper Stresses Need for Unity Like That Which Met Germany in 1914.

By EDWIN L. JAMES.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—With the Wall Street stock slump dragging London's rather lifeless market after it, and the new American tariff to face, British ideas today on American financial and economic leadership resemble the weather. It is raining hard.

Very much ink continues to be spilled over the increase in American tariffs. The Morning Post today calls on "all men of British blood, wherever they may live, to unite against this peril as they united against the German peril in 1914."

Indeed, if the new law does not prove a bad thing for the United States, almost all European prophets will be wrong. The real point of the debate appears to be whether other countries should adopt retaliatory tactics or should wait until Uncle Sam sees the error of his ways.

Economic Union Now Stressed.

Out of the mass of comment one gathers that the new restriction of the American market against foreigners will lend impulse to the movement for European economic arrangements and to the growing demand in Britain for empire trade unity. But it is fair to state on behalf of America's tariff makers that, while a good deal is being heard these days about retaliation, the real strength behind both movements is the idea that the economic union represented by the United States has worked well. Of course, this object lesson existed without the new tariff, and whether or not the Hawley-Smoot measure makes it a brighter example remains to be seen.

Those who call themselves economists hold that the higher wall around American markets will seriously affect the settlement of war debts. They argue that there is not enough gold in the world to pay America; therefore America must be paid by loans from America and by goods sold in America. If loans decrease, as is expected, then more must be paid in goods. If it is men-

Stocks Struggle Higher, but Close Weak; Grain and Cotton Prices Rally Sharply

A tired stock market, still showing the effects of the violent derangement of the day before, struggled yesterday to regain its composure. Price movements were highly irregular and the net result was a partial recovery in a few of the pivotal stocks and a further decline in some groups, including the coppers, against which fresh pressure was exerted.

The grain and cotton markets rebounded sharply after Monday's decline, while sugar, coffee, copper, zinc and lead prices broke again on renewed selling. The rally on the grain and cotton exchanges did much, however, to dispel the gloom resulting from the acute unsettlement in these markets on Monday.

Domestic corporation bonds, reversing their trend, pointed downward yesterday, showing the sharpest decline in some weeks. This weakness was in striking contrast to the course of United States Liberties, the three issues of which went into new high ground for the year.

All in all, the day's activities in the securities and commodity markets were extremely confusing. The stock market, upon which interest was centred to a large extent in Wall Street, passed through three definite phases. Almost the entire list on the New York Stock Exchange was depressed at the opening as an overnight accumulation of selling orders reached the market. This selling was of impressive size, with large blocks of the principal trading vehicles changing hands. Much of the early liquidation represented the elimination of impaired margin accounts, while there was voluntary selling by holders all over the country.

The market showed signs of strength as soon as the early selling orders were executed, and from about 11 until 2 o'clock there was a brisk rally. Then buying interest began to diminish and the market turned dull, remaining so until about twenty minutes before 3 o'clock, when another rush of selling struck the market causing a sharp reaction which erased the greater part of the earlier gains. The market was breaking widely when the closing gong ended the belated selling movement.

A total of 5,018,600 shares changed hands on the Stock Exchange, against 5,657,320 shares the day before. Fifty representative stocks, according to the compilation of THE NEW YORK TIMES, showed a net gain on the day of 96 cents.

The money market was somewhat firmer, the rate for call funds advancing to 3 per cent after renewing at 2½.

VAUSE IS PICTURED AS DEFRAUDING POOR; SOBS AS TRIAL OPENS

The Former Judge Shaken as He Faces Irate Victims of $400,000 Failure.

JURY BOX QUICKLY FILLED

Tuttle Charges Jurist Advised Finance Company, "Insolvent" From Start, to Evade Laws.

WALSH BEFORE GRAND JURY

Crain Says Chairman Went Abroad With Sinclair Aide and Then Granted 4 Permits to Him.

Former County Judge W. Bernard Vause of Kings was described as the guiding genius behind a corporation which was formed for no other purpose than to coax savings from the poor and which was "insolvent from the day it started" at the opening of his trial yesterday for mail fraud before Federal Judge Alfred C. Coxe and a jury which was chosen in a little more than two hours.

United States Attorney Tuttle made the charge in outlining the manner in which the government hopes to connect the former Kings County jurist with the $400,000 failure of the Columbia Finance Corporation, which resulted in the indictment of Mr. Vause, his brother, Louis N. Vause, and eight co-defendants, three of whom have pleaded guilty and will appear as witnesses for the prosecution.

The United States Attorney promised to prove that the former judge, who was weeping at his counsel table, had received a salary of $125 or $150 a week from the Columbia Finance Corporation, paid to Louis Vause and turned over by him. The glowing literature promising easy riches to investors and depositors was approved by Mr. Vause, who also advised officers of the company on how to evade the supervision of the State Banking Department by subterfuges and technicalities, Mr. Tuttle charged.

Seven per cent dividends were paid to stockholders and 6 per cent interest was paid to depositors, although the company was earning no money, Mr. Tuttle said, because former Judge Vause advised that that was the "best form of advertising." When fake loans and bogus assets failed and the bubble was about to burst, according to Mr. Tuttle, Mr. Vause told his fellow-defendants to rely on his "influence and position to fix things."

Finally, in desperation, Mr. Tuttle said, the former judge turned to Arthur H. Montgomery, an ex-convict, to help stave off the impending debacle.

Vause Weeps in Court.

Mr. Vause, who as a county judge was noted for the severity of the sentences he imposed and who once advocated the whipping post for criminals, did not relish his new rôle of defendant at the bar of justice. He sat through most of the session weeping, with his disheveled head cradled on an arm and several times half rose from his chair only to be restrained by his brother, Dr. Frank Vause, who, though not a defendant, sat beside him throughout the day.

When he tottered out of the court room leaning heavily upon his brother's arm, into a corridor crowded with irate depositors and stockholders of the defunct finance corporation, he cringed before their recriminations and looked wildly from side to side, mumbling:

"I am so tired, so tired, so tired."

His entrance into the court room at the opening of the trial, after his Arms Export to Russia Is Under Embargo, State Department Ban on Planes Reveals

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Through the abandonment by the Glenn L. Martin Company of Baltimore of plans to sell twenty twin-motored bombing airplanes at a cost of about $2,000,000 to Russia, it has become known that the United States Government has adopted a policy amounting to an embargo on the export of arms, munitions and military airplanes to the Soviet Union.

Reports from Baltimore that the projected sale had fallen through were followed today by admissions at the State Department that it had vetoed the arrangement on May 14 through a letter to the Martin company, stating that it "views with disfavor" the exportation of armaments to Russia, inasmuch as the United States has no diplomatic relations with the government. The department said today, however, that commercial planes might be exported to Russia. The action was taken for the department by Joseph Cotton, Under-Secretary of State, as Acting Secretary of State in the absence of Secretary Stimson, and without referring the matter to the White House. However, it was revealed today that the policy, which heretofore has gone unannounced, was decided upon six months or more ago, when an inquiry was received from an American company as to the feasibility of selling submarines to the Russian Government.

The decision means that Russia, in the matter of exportation of military equipment from the United States, is placed even more beyond the pale than China. By resolution of Congress the President is empowered to impose embargoes on the shipment of military supplies to Latin-American countries and to China. At present such restrictions are in force against Nicaragua and China, but to both countries exportations may be made on specific license from the State Department to the governments.

In the case of Russia there can be no such shipments, even to the government. Moreover, this policy has been adopted on broad grounds.

That the embargo was due to the absence of diplomatic relations was generally accepted as more of a formal than a substantial reason. In fact, it was tacitly admitted in official circles that it was due "to certain recent developments."

What these were were not disclosed. In some speculation there was a tendency to assert that possibly the disturbed conditions in India and Afghanistan across the Russian border have led to some request, formal or informal, from Great Britain. Other views were that the policy was based on the broad grounds that Russia might become a disturbing factor in the world.

CITY SETTING STAGE FOR BYRD'S ARRIVAL

With Expedition Nearing Port, Committee Will Meet Today to Review Tomorrow's Plans.

GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA HERE

With the City of New York and the Eleanor Bolling, the ships bringing Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd and his companions home, approaching New York, the stage will be set here today for the city's official reception to the explorers tomorow.

While members of Admiral Byrd's family and the families of his associates are assembling in the city in preparation for their trip down the bay tomorrow morning, when the Admiral's ships will reach Quarantine, the city authorities will complete final details of the reception program, one of the most elaborate ever prepared in honor of returning heroes.

At the same time various official and civic organizations will be at work on plans of their own to honor the leader of the Antarctic expedition and his associates.

Members of the Mayor's committee on reception of distinguished guests, headed by Grover A. Whalen, and representatives of cooperating organizations, including city departments, the army, navy, naval militia and National Guard, will meet again today to review the details for the reception.

Following the reception by the city Admiral Byrd and his companions will be guests of honor at a luncheon of the Advertising Club. In the evening the Merchants' Association will give a dinner in the Admiral's honor at the Hotel Astor.

Program for Reception.

The detailed program for tomorrow's reception, as made public by the Mayor's committee yesterday, follows:

9:00 A. M.—Steamers Macom, Riverside and Manhattan will leave Pier A for Quarantine. On board these boats with Grover A. Whalen, chairman of the Mayor's committee, will be the immediate families of Rear Admiral Byrd, officers and crew; representatives of the army and navy, members of the Mayor's committee and newspaper men. Police Department Band will be on the Macom. Fire Department Band on the Riverside.

10:00 A. M.—The City of New York and the Eleanor Bolling will arrive at Quarantine.

10:30 A. M.—Admiral Byrd and officers will be taken on board the Macom. Crew will be taken on board the Riverside.

10:50 A. M.—Marine column headed by Captain R. Drace White, Supervisor of the Harbor, and Eugene F. Moran, chairman of the marine committee, will take its place in the rear of the Macom. Riverside and Manhattan and proceed in columns of two boats up the bay. The Coast Guard patrol will form a lane for the procession.

11:10 A. M.—Governors Island will fire a salute of thirteen guns for Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd

11:20 A. M.—Water salute by fire boats.

11:30 A. M.—Arrival at Pier A.

11:40 A. M.—Column of troops of United States soldiers sailors and marines, New York National Guard and Naval Militia, with a color guard of the Sons of the

NAVAL TREATY WINS IN COMMITTEE TEST

Motion by Johnson to Defer Action Till Hoover Submits Papers Lost, 14 to 4.

VOTE SET FOR MONDAY

Favorable Report Expected for Early Call of Special Session —Copeland Against Pact.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The forces favoring the London naval treaty won a notable victory in the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations today when, by a vote of 14 to 4, with two Senators not voting, the committee defeated a motion by Senator Johnson, one of the anti-treaty leaders, to postpone action on the compact until President Hoover had disclosed to the committee all the documents and other data bearing on the negotiation of the London naval treaty. Two Progressive Republican leaders, Senators Borah and La Follette, were included in the majority against postponement.

Administration leaders interpreted the vote as definitely ending the controversy involving the documents which Secretary Stimson, by direction of the President, refused to submit to the committee, on the ground that to do so would be incompatible with the public interest.

The anti-treaty forces may make one more effort to get the documents, probably by means of a resolution, from the floor of the Senate. Such a resolution, declare administration leaders, will be as decisively defeated as was the move in committee.

When the committee convened Senator Johnson moved that the treaty be laid aside pending receipt of the documents and other data bearing on the negotiations prior to and during the London conference. There was a brief debate and then the vote on the motion. It follows:

FOR THE MOTION—4.
Republicans—3.
Johnson Moses Robinson (Ind.)
Farm-Labor—1.

AGAINST THE MOTION—14.
Republicans—7.
Borah Reed Vandenberg
Capper Fess
Gillett LaFollette
Democrats—7.
Swanson Robinson (Ark.) Harrison
Pittman Walsh (Mont.) George
Wagner

Not voting—Black, Democrat; Goff, Republican.

Vote on Report Arranged.

With the controversy involving the treaty documents disposed of, the matter of the report to the Senate was called up by Chairman Borah. After several suggestions, it was agreed to draft the report in time for the committee to vote on it Monday. This assures the treaty being on the calendar by the time Congress adjourns and ready for immediate consideration when the extra session of the Senate convenes.

A minority report signed by Senators Johnson, Moses, Robinson of Indiana and Shipstead may be presented in considerable detail. The majority report, on the other hand, is expected to be one of the shortest ever submitted on a compact of such importance.

One more Senator announced himself as definitely in the opposition when Senator Copeland, Democrat, of New York said he had decided to vote against ratification of the treaty. Senator Copeland described the treaty as a "counterfeit" and said the country had been misled into thinking its ratification would mean a reduction in naval armament, as well as a reduction in taxation. Neither case was true, he asserted.

Before adjournment the Foreign Relations Committee requested Senator Borah to confer with Secretary Stimson with a view to making public the documents bearing on the treaty which have been supplied to the committee and which are not included in those withheld by direction of the President.

ROOSEVELT AVOIDS PROHIBITION STAND BEFORE PARTY HEADS

Norman Mack and Albany Mayor Insist That Dry Issue Must Be Squarely Met.

SYRACUSE GETS CONVENTION

State Committee Picks Sept. 29 for Gathering and Senator Wagner for Keynote Speaker.

SEES POWER CONTEST OVER

Governor Declares This the Outstanding Achievement of His Administration.

By W. A. WARN.

Special to The New York Times.

ALBANY, June 17.—Despite an avoidance of any reference to prohibition by Governor Roosevelt in his address this afternoon to the Democratic State Committee, Norman E. Mack, National Committeeman, and Mayor John Boyd Thatcher of Albany openly advocated a stand for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, and a leader close to the Governor declared, "Governor Roosevelt should speak out now, or the Republicans may steal the issue from us."

The Democratic State Convention will meet in Syracuse on Sept. 29, at noon, under a resolution offered by Tammany Leader John F. Curry and adopted by unanimous vote of the committee.

Governor Roosevelt was escorted to the Ten Eyck Hotel, where the committee met, and was received with a great burst of applause. He reviewed the achievements of his administration, urged the party workers to "tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth" to the voters, to the end that another Democratic victory may be won in the election this Autumn, but he said not a word about prohibition, a topic uppermost in the minds of a majority of the party leaders present.

Awaits Convention to Give Stand.

The attitude of Governor Roosevelt, as interpreted by prominent Democrats who profess to be conversant with his views, is to wait for the Democratic State Convention before he takes a personal stand on prohibition. This attitude is not pleasing to a majority of the leaders or the Democratic rank and file, even though they are not unmindful of the fact that the Governor, who is possibly a prospective candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1932, may have controlling personal reasons for watching his step in 1930.

Some of the most influential leaders within the State organization, however, are in the Governor's corner on the prohibition issue. They believe that the Democrats in this State, regardless of what the Republicans do, can depend on the local party's general reputation for thorough wetness to corral the bulk of the wet vote in a contest with the Republicans.

If their strongly supported opinion prevails, the Democratic prohibition plank may not be wetter than action on this issue by the Republican State Convention, which will be held first, would seem to render necessary.

Stiglemeier Brings Up Subject.

The first expression on prohibition came from John C. Stiglemeier, chairman of the Erie County Democratic Committee, who said that the 1931 Legislature might be asked to rescind the ratification of the Eigh-

Dr. Frank Boynton, Educator, Is Killed In Automobile Crash on Long Island

Special to The New York Times.

BAY SHORE, L. I., June 17.—Dr. Frank Boynton of Ithaca, N. Y., nationally known educator and writer, was fatally injured here tonight in an automobile accident in which two friends were critically injured, while motoring to Central Islip, L. I., where he was scheduled to be the principal speaker at the dedication of the new Central Islip High School.

Dr. Boynton died of a fractured skull in the private hospital of Dr. George King about 8 P. M., fifteen minutes after the mishap. With him in the automobile were Joseph Meyers, principal of the Central Islip High School, who was driving, and Mrs. Meyers, who was in the rear seat with Dr. Boynton. The nature of Mr. and Mrs. Meyers's injuries was not made public at first, but fears were felt for Mrs. Meyers's recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers had met Dr. Boynton at the Long Island Railroad station here and were driving him to Central Islip. They drove east on the Bay Shore-Islip Boulevard, in a drizzling rain which made the roads slippery.

At the intersection of the boulevard and Brentwood Road, a heavier car, driven by Joseph Zapulla, 21 years old, of Brentwood Road, Bay Shore, and carrying his brothers, Julius, 16 years old, and Henry, 12, as passengers, came south on Brentwood Road and crashed into the rear of the Meyers automobile, hurtling it into a ditch. None of the three Zapulla brothers was injured. The Meyers car was wrecked.

Coroner Grover Silliman held an inquest immediately after the accident, at which Zapulla admitted that his machine had struck the other car, but asserted that he was not to blame for the accident.

Dr. Boynton was 67 years old, having been born in Potsdam, N. Y., April 29, 1863.

He had been superintendent of schools in Ithaca since 1900. In 1927 he was second vice president of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association and in 1928 he was elected to the presidency by acclamation.

Other positions he has held are: Superintendent of Churches in Ithaca; principal of the Union School and Academy at Webster, N. Y.; principal of the Ithaca High School and chairman of the committee from the Associated Academic Principals of New York State, having had charge of the 1900 and 1905 editions of the Regents' Syllabus.

He was appointed by the chancellor of New York University to arrange a course of study for high schools in New York State. Since 1907 he has been a member of the State Examination Board.

MORROW WINS BY 125,000; FORT, DRY, ADMITS DEFEAT, PLEDGES SUPPORT TO RIVAL

DWIGHT W. MORROW.
Winner of Republican Nomination for the Senate in New Jersey.

FRELINGHUYSEN IS TRAILING

Envoy in Senate Race Has 220,166 in 2,098 Districts, Fort 66,416.

CARRIES EVERY COUNTY

Shows Commanding Strength From Start for Both Long and Short Jersey Terms.

OPPOSES SIMPSON IN FALL

Dwight W. Morrow, Ambassador to Mexico, won the Republican nomination for United States Senator at the primary election in New Jersey yesterday.

Running as an advocate of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and return of liquor control to the individual States, Mr. Morrow was victorious over Representative Franklin W. Fort, dry candidate backed by the Anti-Saloon League, and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, another wet.

Mr. Morrow swung into a commanding lead early in the count, with every report from various parts of the State—even from the heart of the dry territory, where Mr. Fort was expected to display his strength—disclosing Mr. Morrow in the lead. With the Morrow lead piling up as the tabulation increased, Representative Fort, who was running ahead of former Senator Frelinghuysen, conceded his defeat shortly before midnight.

Mr. Morrow ran for both the long and short-term nomination, but had no difficulty at all in swamping John A. Kelly, his sole opponent for the short term. Mr. Kelly also ran for the long-term nomination and was far behind the three other candidates.

Fort Promises Aid in Fall.

Mr. Fort, who has remained hopeful that the returns from the rural, dry districts would bring him within striking distance of the Ambassador, sent this telegram to Mr. Morrow just before midnight:

"Please accept my sincere congratulations and the assurance of my earnest support throughout the election campaign. I have not the slightest doubt that you will be a fine and distinguished addition to the United States Senate."

Mr. Fort seemed downcast at the result and when asked to comment merely said: "Well, obviously The Literary Digest poll was right, after all." He referred to the recent prohibition vote conducted by the magazine which showed New Jersey overwhelmingly wet.

Frelinghuysen to Aid Also.

Former Senator Frelinghuysen listened to the returns over the radio at his home in Far Hills and not long after Mr. Fort conceded defeat, he, too, admitted the Morrow victory.

"Ambassador Morrow has won a remarkable victory and the Republican voters have emphatically decided that they wish him to be their candidate," he said. "It is up to all the Republicans in New Jersey to back Mr. Morrow for victory in November."

Mr. Frelinghuysen sent this telegram to the Ambassador:

"You have won a decisive victory and I send you my hearty congratulations. I will give you my wholehearted and earnest support in the campaign for election."

With practically two-thirds of the vote of the State recorded, Mr. Morrow had more than a three-to-one lead over his nearest opponent, Mr. Fort, and with the ratio of returns continuing his plurality was expected to reach 125,000. These figures, for 2,098 out of the 3,304 districts in the State gave:

Morrow 220,166
Frelinghuysen 25,46

Mr. Kelly's vote was not tabulated.

On the basis of these returns Mr. Morrow appeared to have carried every county including those in the southern part of the State known for their dry sentiment, where Mr. Fort had been expected to show formidable opposition to the Ambassador.

Because of the unusual interest in the Senatorial contest, the tabulation of returns in several county and local primary fights was held up. Final returns on these fights was not expected until today.

The primary contest was fought out mainly on the wet and dry issue and was viewed in many parts of the country as a test of prohibi-

CANNON 'CONVICTED,' TINKHAM DECLARES

Representative Assails Bishop in House for His Refusal to Testify.

ACCUSES HIM OF FALSEHOOD

Members Break Into Applause as Speech Is Concluded, None Rising to Defense.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Bishop James Cannon Jr., who refused to tell the Senate lobby committee of the uses of $48,300 contributed to him in his fight against Alfred E. Smith in 1928, was termed "convicted in the eyes of all honest men of having appropriated that money to his own uses" in a speech in the House today by Representative George Holden Tinkham.

A majority of the 200 members who heard the indictment of Bishop Cannon, the first made on the floor of either house since his political activities became a topic of general discussion, burst into applause at the conclusion of the speech. A large number crowded around the Representative from Massachusetts to congratulate him, although none had risen either to challenge him or to answer questions which he propounded. Representative Charles O'Connor of Oklahoma rose once during the speech, but took his seat without comment.

The House's silence was maintained despite Representative Tinkham's assertion that the "conviction" would stand "until Bishop Cannon has made, under oath and subject to cross-examination, under duress or otherwise, a statement of when, where and for what purposes he expended the $48,300 entrusted to him by Mr. Jameson, for which he has made no accounting."

"However, in view of the peculiar

CITY PLANNERS MAP PIERS FOR BIG SHIPS

Port Does Not Need Either to Cut Inland or to Extend Bulkhead Lines, Report Says.

7 LOCATIONS PROPOSED

2 on West Shore of Manhattan, 3 in Jersey and One Each in Staten Island and Brooklyn Favored.

The port of New York has piers to accommodate more ships of the 1,000-foot type than are now afloat, and has sites available for such piers for more large ships than are proposed without changing pierhead lines or cutting into the waterfront, according to a survey of the regional plan of New York and its environs made public yesterday.

The committee making the survey recommended that Manhattan build large piers on the west shore between Forty-second and Fifty-ninth Streets; that the Bay Ridge channel off South Brooklyn be widened to facilitate the use of the waterfront by large liners; that the present docks be operated more efficiently; that New Jersey facilities be developed to make direct interchange between railroads and ships more efficient, and that facility of communication with various parts of the city be the first consideration where pier construction is undertaken.

Seven Sites Proposed.

The seven sites suggested for piers for big liners follow:

West side of Manhattan between Forty-fourth and Fiftieth Streets.
West side of Manhattan, between Duane and Christopher Streets.
South Brooklyn, between Bay Ridge and Gowanus Bay.
East Shore of Staten Island.
Bayonne and southerly Jersey City.
Northerly Jersey City.
Weehawken.

Use of this available land would avoid the expense of cutting inshore, the committee declared in its closing statement, which said:

"As there is ample room for dock extension in places where the land areas are adaptable for providing the needed areas for communication, it would be unwise to incur the enormous expense of extending facilities inland where the price of land and the built-up conditions of the area are serious impediments."

Analyzing the sites suggested, the committee said in part:

"In the first of these sections there is room to construct two additional piers as projected some years ago by the Dock Department. The second section is entirely developed, but with piers and slips of insufficient size to accommodate 1,000-feet ships, and nine of the piers in this section are now used by different railroads. The South Brooklyn and Staten Island sections are already almost fully developed. Nearly all of the Jersey City portion of Section 5 is devoted to railroad purposes, extending from the Greenville Terminal of the Pennsylvania Railroad on the south to the Lehigh Valley Terminal on the north.

"Sections 6 and 7 are both devoted to railroad uses today. It is seen therefore that only a small portion of this potential area is actually available for new improvements which can be devoted to general commerce. One such improvement is under consideration by the Port Authority and Jersey City, adjacent to the old Morris Canal basin. This would provide three 1,200-foot piers and one 1,000-foot pier. Its location has also been indicated on the map, even though its realization would require the changing of the present shore line."

Would Shift Freight Piers.

The committee recommended that other facilities be provided for freight ships which now dock on Manhattan, thus opening to passenger lines sites readily accessible to the main business and hotel districts. This would mean for the west side of Manhattan a development of facilities for the large liners and the shifting of railroad piers to other locations.

Sites for piers for large liners should be selected on the basis of central location rather than of immediate cost of construction, the committee pointed out, using the Staten Island piers as an example of an unwise venture in which availability was not considered.

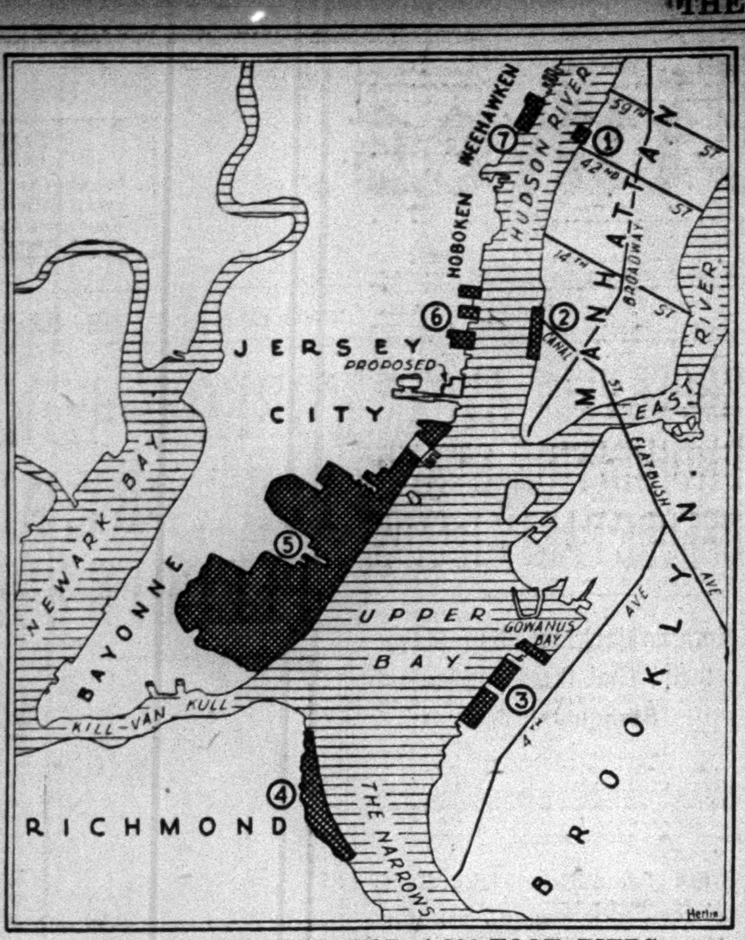
It is not anticipated that the main dock system on the Hudson River will extend further north than Fifty-ninth Street, the report declared.

"Regional plan proposals for Manhattan piers are limited to indicating the development of large piers between Forty-second and Fifty-ninth Streets to serve important passenger liners," the committee said. "The method of their development should be based on the final decision of the War Department in regard to changes in the pierhead line. A widening of the Bay Ridge Channel off South Brooklyn as proposed by the Port of New York Authority in February, 1930, to facilitate the use of this waterfront by large steamers will be included in the regional plan proposals.

Brooklyn Belt Line Urged.

On the Brooklyn side of the upper bay north of the Erie Basin and on the lower East River the opportunities for improvement, as on the west side of Manhattan, are mainly in extending facilities already created. To make the present docks more efficient is more important than to extend the dock system in such locations. A continuous marginal railroad north of the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn was shown on the graphic plan and would be the most important factor in increasing efficiency.

"On the New Jersey side of the river there is room for more improvement in the form of entirely new construction of dock facilities, especially on the Bayonne frontage. These require to be harmonized in the highest degree practicable with the railroad termini in New Jersey. The graphic regional plan shows that there is probably no improvement of more importance to the region, including New York City, than an extension of the facilities on the New Jersey side of the river offering direct interchange between rail and steamship. In particular, the possibilities of expansion of new piers on the east waterfront of the Bayonne peninsula have been too long neglected and should be exploited by means of a great public enterprise."



SITES SUGGESTED FOR 1,000-FOOT PIERS.

The lined areas on the map show areas on the Hudson River and upper bay where, according to the Regional Plan of New York, 1,000-foot piers can be located without changing present shore or pierhead lines. These areas are: 1. West side of Manhattan, between 44th and 50th streets; 2. West side of Manhattan, between Duane and Christopher streets; 3. South Brooklyn, between Bay Ridge and Gowanus Bay; 4. East shore of Staten Island; 5. Bayonne and southerly Jersey City; 6. Northerly Jersey City; 7. Weehawken.

Brothers, Parted 57 Years, Talked on Radio; Phone Joins Connecticut and Australia

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 17 (AP).—Two aged brothers living 10,000 miles apart for fifty-seven years were reunited for forty minutes today by the agency of radio telephone.

Fifty-seven years ago John Hayes, one of thirteen children in the family, left his home in South Manchester, Conn., to seek his fortune in Australia. Until three weeks ago no word was ever received from him. Then the only other surviving member of the family, Thomas Hayes, a Manchester resident, received a letter from John, who lives at Parramatta, Australia, twenty miles out of Sydney.

Arrangements were made for the brothers to talk with each other by short-wave radiophone between station W2XAF of the General Electric Company here and 2ME, short-wave station of Amalgamated Wireless Australasia, Ltd., Sydney. The conversation was broadcast by WGY.

Thomas Hayes is 73 years old and John is three years his senior.

John asked about countless relatives and friends, most of whom have been dead for many years. Thomas inquired about John's family and learned that the Australian brother is a widower with one son and five daughters. Another son was killed in the war. John suggested that Tom send out one of John's boyhood sweethearts to Australia for a second wife.

They inquired about each other's weight. Thomas said he weighed 230. John said that his own weight was "eleven and a half."

"Tons or pounds?" inquired Thomas.

"Eleven and a half stone," John answered.

"How much is that?" asked Thomas.

"Fourteen pounds to the stone. Make it 161 pounds," John explained.

After forty minutes of conversation both called a halt, promising to write often and exchange photographs.

TAKES STAND IN FIGHT TO KEEP BOY VIOLINIST

Miss Lackey, Guardian, Denies Father's Charge That Health of Ricci Is Threatened.

Mary Elizabeth Lackey, assistant to Louis Persinger, violin teacher, began testimony yesterday before Supreme Court Justice Valente in her effort to defeat the suit brought by Pietro Ricci, California bandmaster, to end her guardianship of his sons, Ruggiero, 10-year-old violin prodigy, and Giorgio. The suit is based on allegations that Miss Lackey caused a contract to be drawn up by which she was to get half the earnings of the two boys until they were 21, and that she is impairing Ruggiero's health by exploiting him in public. Specialists have testified that ten concerts in ten weeks in ten different cities, contracted for in behalf of Ruggiero, will injure the child.

Miss Lackey testified that after she had spent her own time and money on the boys and had interested Frederick H. Bartlett of Chicago, director of the Sinclair Oil Company, so that he paid $1,000 for their education and support, the father demanded that the contract signed in 1927 be canceled, although the mother of the boys wanted them to remain with her. She was appointed guardian in California the following year. She testified that with Mr. Bartlett's contributions and her own funds she has provided a home for the boys containing a rest room and sleeping porch and a garden in which to play. She said they mingled freely with other boys, although Giorgio had to be restrained at times because of the boy's disposition to use his fists too frequently.

Miss Lackey contradicted the testimony of Mr. Bartlett that he withdrew his support after hearing of her contract. She said she brought Ruggiero here because his father wanted him to appear before the New York public and have the same career as Yehudi Menuhin, boy violinist.

Ruggiero appeared more healthy before and after his concerts than at any other time, Miss Lackey said, for which reason she did not believe his public appearances harmful. After his concert at Ann Arbor he received offers aggregating more than $1,000,000, but she decided on the contract for ten concerts at $2,500 each because they did not involve simply a percentage of the profits.

WHALEN RECEIVES MEDAL.

Young Men's Trade Group Extols His Handling of Reds.

Every one should be required to give some of his time to civic affairs, former Police Commissioner Grover Whalen said yesterday at a luncheon of the Young Men's Chamber of Commerce, when that group had presented a gold medal to him for meritorious service. The organization, which was formed only a year ago, intends to give a similar medal each year to the citizen whose activities have been the most beneficial to the city. Mr. Whalen won the first award.

In making the presentation Robert Patterson, president of the chamber, particularly praised the former commissioner's handling of the Communist problems. "In your dealings on those occasions," he said, "we feel that you stepped out of your character and did a great service to the citizens in general and to business in particular."

VIAFORA ENDS LIFE; ARTIST LONG ILL

Caricaturist Dies by Shot While Wife, Mme. Giaparelli, Is Giving Singing Lesson.

Gianni Viafora, Italian caricaturist, committed suicide yesterday afternoon in the bathroom of his nine-room suite in the Hereford Apartments, 310 West Seventy-ninth Street, by shooting himself in the right temple with a revolver. According to his wife, Gina Giaparelli, former Metropolitan Opera singer, he had been ill of heart disease for several years.

Mme. Giaparelli, who retired from active opera work about ten years ago and has since devoted herself to teaching, told the police that early yesterday afternoon she was busy with a student. She heard a crash, and, thinking that her husband might have petulantly thrown a glass of medicine on the floor, sent her maid to investigate. The maid found the body.

BUTLER SEES PERIL TO AMERICAN IDEALS

Asserts Old World Despotism Threatens Nations From Canada to Argentina.

ADVOCATES CLOSER TIES

Joins Wilbur and Others in Paying Tribute to Prestes—Hoover Sends Greetings.

The Americas "from Canada to Argentina" are "desperately challenged" and face a "threat of despotism" from the nations of the old world, a menace which can only be met by a complete pan-Americanism, cooperation not only in material things but "in things of the mind," Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, declared last night at a dinner at the Hotel Commodore in honor of Dr. Julio Prestes de Albuquerque, President-elect of Brazil.

"In the next hundred years these Americas should so develop their common associations that they should in fact become the 'Old World' and able to offer their institutions and examples to the 'New World' in Europe," Dr. Butler said.

In common with Dr. Butler, four other speakers, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior; Senator Tasker L. Oddie of Nevada, Frank C. Munson, president of the Munson Steamship Lines, and David Lawrence, who addressed only a radio audience, extolled the amity between the United States and Brazil, praised the Brazilian President-elect and urged a closer interrelationship between North and South America. The guest of honor responded briefly in Portuguese, stressing the "lasting value of American brotherhood." His address was translated by S. Gurgél do Amaral, the Brazilian Ambassador to the United States.

Given under the auspices of the Pan-American Society and the American Brazilian Association in cooperation with the Merchants' Association, the dinner was the only official ceremonial in New York in honor of Dr. Prestes.

600 Attend Dinner.

Six hundred guests, representing President Hoover, the State Department, the army, the navy and shipping and business interests, attended the dinner. Though many of his listeners did not understand his words, Dr. Prestes received a prolonged ovation at the end of his speech.

"The circle of human interest goes around the globe only from east to west," Dr. Butler said. "But times are changing, and have changed. Between north and south we are witnessing closer relationships. Not only commerce, industry and finance with the powerful links they forge, but more recently the electric spark is doing something for which we have been waiting centuries.

"A century ago the Monroe Doctrine was the basis of our foreign policy. See how times change. The primary statement of that doctrine was that we in America could ban the extension to us of the political system of Europe. There is now no such thing as the political system then existent and has not been for years. It has gone the way of all flesh, together with the Metternichs and the Talleyrands. Today Europe is younger than we are. It is hard for Americans to realize, but our system of government is the oldest in the world. Despotism is eight or ten years old in Spain, Fascism, eight years old in Italy; Sovietism, fourteen years old in Russia, and so on."

Foresees Vast Changes.

This change in governments has resulted in imposing a "severe responsibility" on the Western Hemisphere, a responsibility, "first of all, of knowing and understanding each other." The barrier of language must be overcome and "these peoples to the south of us must be made more than names upon a map."

"Great things are going on," Dr. Butler continued, "things which may very easily transform in the next generation the whole face of civilization."

Forty per cent of the world "is living under despotism," he added. "They do not share our faith or believe in our form of government. But from Canada to Argentina our principles are the same, and they are challenged, desperately challenged; our ideals, our social and political order. They challenge us with sarcasm and some bitterness."

The answer to such a challenge is found only in full cooperation in cultural, social, economic, financial and commercial relations, Dr. Butler concluded.

Voices President's Gratitude.

Secretary Wilbur expressed for President Hoover, who designated him to speak at the request of Mr. Munson, the President's gratitude for the visit of Dr. Prestes to this country.

Mr. Wilbur agreed with Dr. Butler that in cooperation is found salvation and the assured happiness of both North and South America. He spoke of the advances in "chemistry, physics, biology and modern medical science" as steps toward a fuller mutual appreciation and understanding.

"Unless we have ideals, standards, we are not going to know happiness and satisfaction," he concluded.

Senator Oddie, who was a delegate in Rio de Janeiro last Summer to the Pan-American Highway Congress, praised Brazil and her President-elect, spoke of the "decided stimulus" given to highway development in South American countries and predicted a "great inter-American highway which will connect North, South and Central America in a few years."

The response of Dr. Prestes was carried by land wire to the General Electric Company in Schenectady, where it was broadcast by a short-wave station to listeners in Brazil. The other speeches with the exception of that of Mr. Lawrence were translated into Portuguese and then broadcast, similarly.

"It is an obligation," Dr. Prestes declared, "to maintain and increase the reciprocity of interests which tighten the bonds of friendship" between the United States and Brazil, to "raise a structure of lasting value for American brotherhood. Our generation has as one of its great duties the carrying on of this policy, with order and progress, defending the principles of the civilization which the countries of this continent hold in trust for the greater security of liberty and justice."

Mr. Lawrence spoke over a nation-wide radio hook-up of the National Broadcasting Company. He talked in a room adjoining the grand ballroom, where the dinner was held. He reviewed the political and economic history of Brazil and praised the President-elect.

Mr. Munson in his speech of introduction said he brought a "message of friendship." Warren D. Robbins, Minister to San Salvador and special representative of President Hoover, offered a toast "in Brazilian coffee" to the present President of Brazil, Washington Luis, and to Dr. Prestes. Señor Amaral responded with a toast to President Hoover. Mr. Munson read a telegram from Governor Roosevelt expressing his regrets at his inability to attend the dinner and sending his regards and best wishes to the guest of honor.

Dr. Prestes spent the morning in walking about the city with his naval aide, Commander A. T. Beauregard, U. S. N. He will leave New York this morning at 9 o'clock from the Pennsylvania Station to go to Philadelphia, where he will receive the degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Pennsylvania. He will return to the city this afternoon or tonight and is expected to attend a theatre tonight. The rest of his stay in New York will be spent informally.

Morgan to Spend $1,000,000 Improving Park in Glen Cove

Special to The New York Times.

GLEN COVE, L. I., June 17.—J. P. Morgan will spend $1,000,000 to improve Morgan Memorial Park, the public shore-front resort here, it was revealed tonight at a meeting of the Glen Cove City Council.

Mr. Morgan, acting through a board of trustees, established the park several years ago as a memorial to his wife. Since that time the park has been leased free of charge to this city.

A letter received by the City Council tonight said, "the trustees will, at their own expense, prepare a plan for the development of the park. If the city authorities approve the plan as submitted, the trustees will carry out the work at their own expense."

The communication was signed by Henry S. Morgan, son of the financier. The cost of the improvements was put at $1,000,000.

NAMES PROSECUTOR AS ELLIOTT PLOTTER

One of Four Defendants Says on Stand Barnitt Was a 'Higher-Up' in Kidnapping.

ALL EVIDENCE IS IN

But Arguments and Motions Are Expected to Keep Case From Jury Until Tomorrow.

Special to The New York Times.

PATERSON, N. J., June 17.—Prosecutor J. Vincent Barnitt was named by one of four defendants in testimony this afternoon as one of the "higher-ups" in the kidnapping of Willard H. Elliott, Passaic banker. Mr. Barnitt was in court when the unexpected testimony was given by Joseph A. Jackovicz, on trial with three others for conspiracy to kidnap Mr. Elliott.

Both sides rested shortly after Jackovicz left the stand. It is not expected that the case will go to the jury before Thursday, however, as motions by defense counsel were not completed this afternoon and, after their completion tomorrow, each side will require at least an hour to sum up.

Jackovicz repudiated statements which he made to the police at the time of his arrest, maintaining that they were made under duress.

The court sustained objection by Assistant Prosecutor James M. Dunn to a question as to whether Jackovicz had been asked by Mr. Dunn not to "say anything about Barnitt to the grand jury." The witness was next asked if Mr. Dunn told him the names of the "higher-ups" he sought.

"Yes," the witness replied, "he mentioned Harry Weinberger, Frank Campbell, Joseph Weinberger, Harry Kuller and Barnitt."

"Is this man, the prosecutor, the Mr. Barnitt to whom you refer?" he was asked, and he replied in the affirmative.

Upon objection by Mr. Dunn, the court refused to permit the witness to give the details of the conversation relating to Mr. Barnitt.

Mr. Elliott, former vice president of the Hobart Trust Company, was kidnapped while driving his car to work a year ago, held prisoner for several days, and then released. The defendants, in addition to Jackovicz and Kuller, are Joseph Bongiorno and Angelo Lapaduro.

JOKE WEDDING BINDING.

Georgia Supreme Court Reverses Annulment Obtained by Bride.

ATLANTA, June 17 (AP).—Marriage in the State of Georgia, says the Supreme Court, cannot be dissolved without just cause even if entered into in jest.

The court so decided in reversing a decree of a Superior Court, which had favorably decided a suit in behalf of Rena Berry to annul her marriage to Richard Maddox Hand, of Rome, Ga. Records said that Miss Berry, 15, and Hand, 19, were married at 11 P. M. last August after a dinner dance" in a spirit of hilarity, braggadocio and levity," both giving incorrect ages. Hand appealed the suit to the high court.

"While the marriage was agreed to in a spirit of levity," the Supreme Court said, "'society in general is concerned in all marriage contracts and, therefore, they cannot be set aside lightly and without cause."

SENATE CONFIRMS FORBES.

Massachusetts Man New Envoy to Japan—Legge and Teague Voted On

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The Senate today confirmed the nomination of W. Cameron Forbes of Massachusetts, former Governor General of the Philippine Islands, to be Ambassador to Japan.

The Senate also confirmed the reappointments of Chairman Alexander Legge and Charles C. Teague of California to the Farm Board for terms of six years. Senator McKellar, Democrat, of Tennessee, opposed action on Mr. Legge. The report prevails that both Mr. Legge and Mr. Teague may retire after another year of service.

operations of his mind," Mr. Tinkham concluded, "it is doubtful whether even under oath and subject to cross-examination he would make a clear and unequivocal statement or explanation of the expenditure of Mr. Jameson's money."

The Representative reviewed the lobby committee's investigation into Bishop Cannon's activities. He set forth twelve questions which he said the Bishop did not answer, questions that touched emphatically on his alleged stock speculations.

"A refusal of Bishop Cannon to answer the committee's questions," Mr. Tinkham said, "can give rise only to sinister implications in the mind of any honest man."

Referring to the recent Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Church, South, at Dallas, Texas, where Bishop Cannon confessed to having transgressed, ethically, in participating in politics and in stock transactions, Mr. Tinkham said:

"If that great Church of which he is a Bishop had been in full possession of all the facts presented to the Senate Lobby Investigating Committee and here reviewed, it is inconceivable that he would have been continued by it as one of its spiritual leaders."

Two subjects were interlocking, Mr. Tinkham said, these being "Bishop Cannon's violation of the Federal corrupt practices act and his refusal to account for the expenditure of the $48,300."

Refers to Jameson Gifts.

He explained that Bishop Cannon had solicited E. C. Jameson, a New York insurance man, for aid in conducting the fight of the Anti-Smith Democrats in Virginia, receiving $65,300, mostly in cash, and then charged:

"That although up to Jan. 2, 1929, the committee of the Anti-Smith Democrats, of which Bishop Cannon was chairman and for whose work 'throughout the Southern States' in the 1928 national elections he had solicited and received money from E. C. Jameson, had filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives under the Federal corrupt practices act four reports of its receipts and expenditures, including expenditures made in the State of Virginia, no mention was made in any one of these four reports of the receipt of any money from E. C. Jameson, whose first contribution to Bishop Cannon was made in September, 1928; and it was not until Mr. Jameson's contributions to Bishop Cannon were made public through another source that a report was filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives of the receipt of any money whatever from him.

"Then a fifth report filed by Bishop Cannon's organization on Feb. 15, only after Mr. Jameson's contributions had been made public through another source, reported the receipt of only $17,000, notwithstanding that $65,300 had been contributed by Mr. Jameson."

Noting that Bishop Cannon had telegraphed to Mr. Jameson on Feb. 12, 1929, asking him to report his contributions as having been divided, $17,300 to the headquarters committee of the Anti-Smith Democrats and $48,000 to the Virginia committee of the organization, Mr. Tinkham charged that "the report on this item made by Mr. Jameson was actually the report of Bishop Cannon."

Tinkham Lists 12 Questions.

The twelve questions which Representative Tinkham said had not been answered touched upon speculations and allegations concerning the Bishop's financial affairs. They follow:

"1. Why he wished the money contributed by E. C. Jameson paid in cash?

"2. Why he wholly concealed until Feb. 15, 1929, the receipt of the money he had received from E. C. Jameson to carry on 'active work throughout the Southern States to secure the defeat' of the Democratic nominee?

"3. Why on Feb. 15, 1929, he reported the receipt of only $17,000, when $65,000 had been received from Mr. Jameson?

"4. Why he took occasion belatedly to report the receipt of this $17,000 on Feb. 15, 1929, when the Federal Corrupt Practices act under which act the report was made did not require a report at that time, but only on 'the first and tenth days of March, June and September,' and also between the tenth and fifteenth days, and on the fifth day next preceding the date on which a general election is to be held, and also on the first day of January?'

"5. Why in his telegram of Feb. 12, 1929, to E. C. Jameson, instructing Mr. Jameson what to report to the Senate committee appointed to investigate Presidential campaign expenditures concerning Mr. Jameson's contributions to him of $65,300, he states, 'This will correspond exactly with our official reports,' when he knew at the time that he sent that telegram that it could not correspond with his official reports, because no official reports had been made of those contributions, either under the Federal law or under any State law; and if it was not in his mind to make it correspond with such report as he might make, and did make several days later, to the clerk of the House of Representatives?

Asserts Report Was Required.

"6. Why he should have stated in his telegram of May 13, 1930, to the chairman of the Senate lobby investigating committee that he had made no report of the receipt and expenditure of the $48,300 said to have been spent in Virginia, because no report was required by law, when a report of this money was clearly required under the Federal corrupt practice act?

"7. Why he did not include in the reports filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives the expenditures alleged to have been made in the State of Virginia with $48,300 of the money received from Mr. Jameson, since in these reports appear other expenditures made in the State of Virginia?

"8. Whether or not at the time he was receiving money from E. C. Jameson, he owed any money to Kable & Co., or Harry L. Goldhurst, who operated a 'bucketshop' and who subsequently was prosecuted and convicted by the United States Government for using the mails to defraud and with whom Bishop Cannon is now known to have had extensive transactions shortly before his receipt of contributions from E. C Jameson?

"9. Whether or not he had any dealings with one Joseph Radlow, a partner of Harry L. Goldhurst, who, subsequently, it is stated, organized, with said Harry L. Goldhurst, a 'bucketshop' under the name of the Cosmopolitan Fiscal Corporation, and who also was later convicted of using the mails to defraud?

"10. Whether or not he had dealings with the Cosmopolitan Fiscal Corporation organized by the said Joseph Radlow and Harry L. Goldhurst?

"11. Whether he incurred any financial obligations in connection with extensive stock options signed by the said Joseph Radlow and executed Oct. 4, 1928, when he was receiving contributions from E. C. Jameson?

"12. Whether any of the money received from E. C. Jameson was used by him on account of any personal indebtedness?"

Assails "Conspiracy" Charge.

A flat answer to the charge by Bishop Cannon that he had been embarrassed by "Roman Catholic interests conspiring against him" also was made by Representative Tinkham, who took upon himself responsibility for the charges which the lobby committee attempted to investigate, adding:

"They were made by me, an Episcopalian, whose ancestors came to this country as Pilgrims in 1620, and who were firm in their conviction that Church and State should be separate, a conviction which I have inherited.

"If his transactions would stand the light of day, if there was no taint of scandal or illegality in connection with the use which he made of this money, to preserve such reputation as he may enjoy and to clear his name, he should have welcomed the opportunity to make an explanation, to disapprove the charges made against him and to confound his alleged enemies and he owed it to the Church which he officially represents and which recently re-elected him to his exalted office to do so."

Cannon Calls Tinkham a 'Coward.'

WASHINGTON, July 17 (AP).—In a statement telegraphed from Louisville, Ky., Bishop James Cannon Jr. today termed Representative Tinkham a "blustering cowardly Congressman for attacking him on the floor of the House under immunity from prosecution for libel.

"When Congressman Tinkham shall give to the press over his personal signature the statements reported by the press as made by him today on the floor of the House of Representatives, where he is immune from prosecution for false, libelous statements," Bishop Cannon wired: "He may command the respect of honorable men; but making such attacks on the floor of the House, where he knows his immunity from prosecution, brands him as a blustering, cowardly Congressman appealing especially to his wet Roman Catholic voters to retain him in office."

REVOLUTION BEGUN IN SOUTHERN BOLIVIA

Rebels Sack Custom Station on Argentine Border and Start March Northward.

FORMER DIPLOMAT LEADER

Force Said to Be Composed of Indians and Communists—Telegraph Wires Cut.

RISING HAD BEEN EXPECTED

Movement Seen as Result of Former President's Plan for Re-election by Changing Constitution.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BUENOS AIRES, June 17.—Dispatches from La Quiaca on the Argentine-Bolivian frontier report the capture of Villazon, just across the line in Bolivia, by revolutionists organized by several Bolivians who had been exiled in Argentina.

Roberto Hinajosa, former secretary of the Bolivian Legation at Rio de Janeiro, is reported to be the leader of the revolutionary forces. He was discharged from the Bolivian Diplomatic Service several years ago when the Brazilian Government declared him persona non grata because of his activities in organizing Communists in Brazil.

Villazon is nothing more than a frontier customs station on the international railroad from Buenos Aires to La Paz and is usually guarded by about a dozen police and customs guards. The report received here says the rebels had little difficulty in capturing the building which serves as a police post, and after sacking several more important buildings of the town they started a march toward Tupiza.

The rebels are reported to have left small forces at several strategical points and to have cut telegraph wires. Señor Hinajosa's force is said to be composed of Indian farmers and Communists, of which there are many in Bolivia, their propaganda among the Indians having caused the national government considerable trouble on more than one occasion.

Expected Several Weeks.

The revolutionary outbreak had been expected several weeks, prominent Bolivian politicians in Argentina, Chile and Peru having made no secret of their intention to start an armed movement against former President Siles. It is the outcome of long dissatisfaction with the Siles administration, brought to a head a month ago by his resignation from the Presidency so that his political followers could have the Constitution amended to permit his re-election.

Señor Siles issued a decree about two years ago saying that reasons of State made it imperative that he assume limited dictatorial powers, since which time he had been governing without Congress. When it came time to call elections to choose his successor, he said that the reasons of State which made it necessary that he become dictator now made it a patriotic duty that he remain in the Presidency to guide the country through its difficulties.

More than 300 army officers signed a proclamation saying the army would not permit him to violate the Constitution, which prohibits a President from succeeding himself. Shortly thereafter he placed his resignation in the hands of the Cabinet, which he had just reorganized, instead of in the hands of Congress, as the Constitution provides.

Cabinet Backs Siles.

The Cabinet issued a statement asserting that the country demanded Señor Siles remain in the Presidency and that a Constitutional Congress would be called to amend the Constitution to permit his re-election.

Abdon Saavedra, former vice president, who is among the exiles in Buenos Aires, after failing in efforts to be recognized by the Cabinet, telegraphed the Chief of Staff of the Bolivian Army he was going to Bolivia to assume the Presidency. Señor Hinajosa has been a close associate of Señor Saavedra and he is believed to be working under Señor Saavedra's guidance.

Former President Bautista Saavedra is closely watching the situation with another group of exiles at Arequipa, Peru. The outcome depends on the influence which the 300 dissatisfied army officers have on the army.

Three Persons Wounded.

BUENOS AIRES, June 17 (AP).—For the present Bolivian régime, the Chargé d'Affaires here, Pinto Escalier, confirmed the capture of Villazon by the rebels, which he had learned by telegram from the Bolivian Consul at La Quiaca.

Señor Pinto Escalier said he had heard nothing direct from the Bolivian Government about the insurrection.

The Argentine Vice Consul at Villazon, Bolivia, also confirmed the news of the outbreak.

Dispatches indicated that the movement had been confined to Southern Bolivia, but Señor Hinojosa's agents on the contrary asserted that only the three Southern States of Sucre, Potosi and Tarija had failed to respond.

Argentine customs officials at La Quiaca blocked an attempt to run arms and ammunition for the insurgents over the frontier. They confiscated more than 20,000 rounds of ammunition and forty-six rifles, besides a trunkload of pamphlets urging the Bolivian Army to "declare a social revolution."

Señor Hinojosa, who had been secretary of the Bolivian Legation at Rio de Janeiro, was said to have been discharged from the diplomatic service because of his radical sympathies.

Señor Pinto Escalier said he believed it would be easy for Señor Hinojosa and his followers to march through the sparsely settled country of lower Bolivia to the railway town of Tupiza, where he was reported advancing.

Economic depression is largely responsible for Bolivian political agitation and is due chiefly to the drop in the price of tin, a metal which is bread and butter to Bolivian exporters.

Washington Legation Denies Revolt.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The Bolivian Legation, by direction of its government, denied tonight reports of an outbreak in that country.

"The Bolivian Legation," it was announced, "has just received a cable from its government instructing it to deny the news coming from La Quiaca, where it was supposed a subversive attack had taken place. The condition of the country cannot be more peaceful than now."

Unofficial reports from Buenos Aires that a revolution had been started in Bolivia lacked confirmation at the State Department, where no dispatches had been received bearing upon the situation.

Resignation Seen as Coup d'Etat.

The sudden resignation of President Hernando Siles on May 28, closely following upon the difficulties with Paraguay over the Chaco controversy, created a political furore in Bolivia. The resignation has been regarded as a coup d'état engineered by the President and his newly appointed Cabinet and designed to provide a means to keep him in the Presidency for another term, contrary to the Constitution of the country.

Dr. Siles's term was to close on Aug. 6, but he instructed his Cabinet to call elections for June 28 to choose delegates for a national convention in July to draw up a new constitution. The keystone of this new constitution, it was indicated, was to be a clause permitting the President to succeed himself.

A few months ago Dr. Siles issued a decree suspending indefinitely the Presidential elections. In this decree he stated that the national welfare demanded that he remain at the helm. A number of army officers protested, but the President replied by reforming his Cabinet, including two Generals who were sympathetic to his ideas.

Political opponents whom President Siles had deported two years ago became active upon learning of the new developments. Foremost among these is the Vice President, Abdon Saavedra, who has been living at Buenos Aires. He announced his intention of returning to La Paz to assume the Presidency, as provided for in the Bolivian Constitution in case of the death, resignation or abandonment of the President. Señor Saavedra said that he would complete Dr. Siles's term and would then call a general election.

Brock and Schlee Set New 14-Hour Record In 2,112-Mile Jacksonville-San Diego Flight

By The Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 17.—Having set a new record in the westbound crossing from Jacksonville, Fla., to San Diego, Edward F. Schlee and William A. Brock, transcontinental aviators, took the air tonight at 5:11 o'clock (Pacific Time), on the return trip, hoping to reach the Florida seaport within thirty hours of their hoff-off westward at 5:04 (Eastern Standard Time).

They arrived here at 3:55 P. M., having flown the 2,112 miles in 13 hours 55 minutes 30 seconds.

"We had good weather all the way across," said Brock, "except over Arizona, New Mexico and Imperial Valley. We had to dodge storms in those areas. The last was a dust storm over Imperial Valley."

Refueling of the big Lockheed-Vega plane began almost as soon as the occupants left the machine. The fliers decided not to change the lubricating oil in the 450-horsepower Wasp engine.

"Let's let good enough alone," said Brock with a laugh. "The motor is working fine."

Schlee grinned and agreed.

The aviators said they had maintained an altitude ranging from 2,000 to 8,000 feet and averaged 152 miles an hour.

A crowd of 250 gave the two a cheer as they landed. They came in rapidly and landed two minutes after appearing over the field.

Westward bound the aviators were first reported at 11:10 A. M. over Abilene, Texas, thirty-eight minutes later they passed over Big Springs.

Their monoplane carried 450 gallons of gasoline at the take-off from Jacksonville, had 187 gallons on landing here and took on 353.

Brock and Schlee cut more than seven hours off the east-west record made by Lieutenant James H. Doolittle, flying in 1922 from Jacksonville to this city.

The west-to-east record is held by Major T. C. Macauley of San Diego. He made the run from San Diego to Jacksonville in 1919 in 19 hours and 10 minutes.

Captain Frank Hawks made the round trip from New York to Los Angeles and back in January, 1929, in 43 hours and 59 minutes, taking a longer route than that between Jacksonville and San Diego.

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla., June 17 (AP).—William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee took off here for San Diego without incident, their monoplane skimming down the beach for half a mile before rising and heading into the west.

For good luck Schlee wore the same pair of tan and white sport shoes he wore when another monoplane, the Pride of Detroit, carried them safely across the Atlantic Ocean and Europe to Tokyo in 1927.

DETROIT, June 17 (AP).—Schlee and Brock not only hope to set new speed records by crossing the continent twice in 24 hours but also plan the most exhaustive tests yet made of two important flying accessories—a new two-way radio set, believed to have in proportion to its weight the longest range of any set yet developed, and the gyroscopic "artificial horizon," an instrument designed to help a pilot maintain his lateral position when flying "blind."

HOUSE LEADERS WANT CAMPAIGNS WATCHED

Snell Resolution Proposes Appointment of Committee to Note Candidates' Expenditures.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—The House probably will not adjourn until it has constituted a special committee to watch the campaign expenditures of aspirants for House seats during the coming Congressional campaigns.

Evidence that leaders want an eye kept on the spending of money by Congressional candidates developed today when Chairman Snell of the Rules Committee introduced a resolution proposing that Speaker Longworth name a special committee of five for that purpose.

The resolution provides that the committee investigate and report not later than Jan. 1, 1931, the campaign expenditures of candidates of "both parties," incorporating in the report the names of persons, firms, associations or corporations subscribing to the respective candidates' campaign coffers, not only as to money "but as to the use of any other means or influence including the promise or use of party patronage."

The resolution does not restrict the committee to any amount for its own expenses, but its instructions are broad and far-reaching. The body is empowered to sit during adjournment of Congress, in the District of Columbia or anywhere else throughout the United States deemed necessary.

SEES SOLUTION NEAR IN LINGLE MURDER

Chicago State's Attorney Says "Definite Evidence" Is Now Ready for Grand Jury.

MAYOR THOMPSON ASSAILED

Minority Leader in Legislature Lays Trouble to Politics—Attacks Ruth H. McCormick.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 17.—"High hope" for the solution of the assassination of Alfred J. P. Lingle, reporter for The Chicago Tribune, and a plan for the coordination of all investigating bodies that are seeking to drive gangsters and criminals from Chicago were announced tonight by State's Attorney John A. Swanson.

"I have officially been given to understand that definite evidence will be made available for the grand jury in this murder," Mr. Swanson said.

The prosecutor and John H. Alcock, Acting Police Commissioner, are scheduled for a conference tomorrow, probably after the City Council meeting, at which it will be determined if Alcock is to remain in temporary command of the police force.

Swanson's plan calls for the renting of a Loop office, which all public bodies and all civic and semi-official agencies may use as a headquarters or clearing house, and which would offer every aid to the City Council and City Civil Service Commission in the prospective investigation of the Police Department.

Chief Investigator Pat Roche and a staff of Assistant State's Attorneys will be assigned there and will devote their entire time to investigations and preparation of evidence for grand and petit juries.

Mr. Swanson conferred during the day with Chief Justice D. J. Normoyle of the criminal court, who ordered a grand jury investigation of the Lingle murder and corollary matters. It was after the conference that Mr. Swanson made his optimistic statement about solution of the Lingle case.

Acting Commissioner Alcock said he would lend all the power of his office to the City Council in its proposed investigation.

"There'll be no dilly-dallying by the Police Department," he asserted, "neither with gangsters nor in other police work. Little is going to be said, but much is going to be done by the Police Department.

Legislator Assails Thompson.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17 (AP).—Politics was named today as responsible for Chicago crime by Michael Igoe, Chicago Democrat and minority leader, in attacking Mayor Thompson and Ruth Hanna McCormick at the reconvening of a special session of the State Legislature called by Governor Emmerson to give financial relief to the metropolis of the State.

Unless there were a clean-up of corrupt gang politics in Chicago, no program for the financial relief would have any lasting value, Mr. Igoe asserted in arguing the merits of a bill for abolishing the Cook County Board of Assessors.

"You can pass all the bills you want, but if we do not clean out these cesspools of political corruption it won't better the situation any," he said.

"I know everybody is afraid to do what ought to be done because of politics. We've been able to chase certain rats into their holes and now we want to stand guard so they won't come out.

"If we want a connection between the hoodlums and gangsters who have been terrorizing Chicago and politics we don't have far to look. We have a Mayor in Chicago who should be held responsible."

Mr. Igoe declared that in the present furor following the murder of Alfred Lingle, the Chief of Police and the Chief of Detectives had been made "the goats for the Mayor."

"Connected with the rotten chief of the City Hall," continued the Democratic leader, "is Little Red Riding Hood (Ruth Hanna McCormick), who wants to carry the Republican standard into the United States Senate."

Army Increases Automatic Arms.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The increase of automatic and semi-automatic firearms in the infantry was shown today in a statistical study by the War Department, which gave the proportion of such weapons in a regiment to hand-operated magazine rifles as 1 to 303.3 as of May, 1917, whereas under tables of organization recently approved the proportion will be 1 to 4.5. In May, 1917, the infantry regiment had six machine guns and 1,820 rifles. It had no automatic rifles. Under the new organization there will be 64 machine guns, 162 automatic rifles and 1,852 rifles.

23 Vessels in Marine Parade.

Detailed plans for the marine parade were made public yesterday by Mr. Moran. The twenty-three vessels participating will assemble off Quarantine at 9:45 A. M. The fleet commodore will be Captain R. Drace White, U. S. N., Supervisor of the Port of New York. He will be on board the U. S. S. Vigilant.

The participating vessels will proceed up the bay, led by the destroyer Fox, the Macom, the Vigilant, the Riverside and the Manhattan, followed by Admiral Byrd's ships. On passing Pier A, North River, each of the participating vessels will sound three blasts, continue up the Hudson, break formation and proceed on her way. All boats in formation will be decorated.

The course traversed by the marine pageant will be patrolled by Coast Guard vesels. The patrol boats will form in columns on each side of the parade. Commander W. F. Towle of the Coast Guard will direct the patrol forces.

Following are the vessels which will form the marine pageant:

IUKA, United States Navy.
PENOBSCOT, United States Navy.
PENTUCKET, United States Navy.
ACTIVE, United States Navy.
CHAPMAN BROTHERS, Merritt, Chapman & Scott Corporation.
FRANCIS J. REICHERT, Reichert Towing Line.

JOSEPH A. MESECK, Meseck Towing Lines, Inc.
RUSSELL 18, Newtown Creek Towing Company.
HELEN L. TRACY, Tracy Towing Line.
SYSTEMATIC, Tice Towing Line.
NATALIE MAE, Todd Shipyard Corporation.

The committee in charge of the marine pageant has requested that all craft in the harbor dress ship and that dock and waterfront property be decorated wherever practicable.

Admiral to Be Interviewed.

Following the luncheon at the Advertising Club, Admiral Byrd will receive members of the press at 3 o'clock at his headquarters in the Hotel Biltmore.

The party of Virginians who are to participate in the reception to the explorers arrived in the city yesterday and went to the Hotel Vanderbilt. Among those in the party are: Governor John Garland Pollard and his daughter, Miss Susanne Pollard; John Garland Pollard Jr., Charles P. Pollard, Miss Cornelia Gregory, Miss Gertrude Murrell, J. Fulmer Bright, Mayor of Richmond; J. Stewart Bryan, E. A. Hultz, Mr. and Mrs. T. McCall Frazier, Colonel Peter Saunders, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia; Colonel John A. Cutchins, Acting Chief of the Governor's staff; Colonel John W. Williams, personal aide to the Governor, and Mrs. Williams; Lieut. Gov. James H. Price, James Sinclair Brown, Speaker of the House of Delegates; Richard S. Wright, member of the Senate; Daniel L. Porter, member of the House, and Joseph S. Denny, member of the House.

Additional relatives and friends of the men connected with the Byrd expedition arrived yesterday. Most of them are staying at the Biltmore.

Mrs. Richard E. Byrd is expected to join the party today and will rest at the Biltmore for the celebration tomorrow. Mrs. Eleanor Bolling Byrd, mother of Admiral Byrd, will accompany other members of her family who are coming from Virginia.

Mrs. Alton Parker, wife of one of the pilots, and Mrs. Carl Petersen, wife of the radio operator, are already at the Biltmore. Mrs. Ashley McKinley is there with Captain McKinley, who flew with Admiral Byrd over the South Pole. Mrs. Braathen, whose son, Christopher Braathen, is one of the ski men, arrived in this country several weeks ago from Norway and has joined the party at the hotel.

Mrs. Charles Lefgren of Washington, whose husband is Admiral Byrd's secretary, will arrive this evening. Miss Margaret Rice, a friend of Lawrence Gould, the meteorologist, is expected from Grand Rapids, Mich., today, and Mrs. Harry Adams, wife of the mate on the Eleanor Bolling, will come from Bethlehem, Pa. Mrs. Harold I. June, whose husband was pilot of the flight over the South Pole, will arrive from her home at Coscob, Conn., tomorrow morning, as will Mrs. Joseph de Ganhal of Bronxville, whose husband is mate on the City of New York, and Mrs. Frank Melville of Lynn, Mass., wife of Captain Melville of the City of New York, who is staying with Mrs. S. N. Groves at 373 Ninety-first Street, Brooklyn.

Plane Mounted at Astor.

As a tribute to Admiral Byrd and his associates, who are to be fêted at the Hotel Astor tomorrow and twice next week, a Fairchild cabin monoplane, the sister ship of the Stars and Stripes, from which the Antarctic wastes were photographed, was mounted yesterday on the marquee of the hotel to remain on public view until July 1.

In addition to the Merchants' Association dinner in honor of Admiral Byrd at the Hotel Astor tomorrow night, there will be a luncheon in the Admiral's honor at the hotel on June 25, given by the American Arbitration Society, while on the evening of the same day the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America will give a dinner in the Admiral's honor. On June 28 a dinner will be given at the hotel by the Newspaper Club of New York City in honor of Russell Owen, correspondent of THE NEW YORK TIMES with the Byrd Expedition.

Mary Daly, aviatrix, will take off tomorrow morning in her Taper-Wing Speed Waco biplane from Roosevelt Field, carrying a message of welcome from the Newspaper Club to Mr. Owen, which she will drop on the deck of the incoming City of New York. She will also drop a message to Bernt Balchen, who is a personal friend and knew her in Chicago.

Many distinguished men and women and editorial celebrities have signified their intention to attend the dinner to Mr. Owen, among them being Secretary of War Hurley, Assistant Secretary of War Davison, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ingalls, William Randolph Hearst, Adolph S. Ochs, Louis Wiley and many others. Kent Cooper, general manager of The Associated Press, will be spokesman for the newspaper profession. Will Rogers will be the toastmaster. Among those participating in the musical program will be Mme. Schumann-Heink.

Ex-Gov. Byrd Will Fly to Sea With Uncle to Greet Admiral

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Former Governor Harry F. Byrd of Virginia and an uncle, Mr. Doyle, will fly to sea on Thursday in a navy plane to greet the explorer and his companions.

The plane, a Sikorsky amphibian, will be piloted by Lieutenant Rutledge Irvine. It will fly from Anacostia Naval Air Station tomorrow to the Naval Aviation Base at Valley Stream, L. I. From Valley Stream it will fly to sea on Thursday and alight beside the Eleanor Bolling and the City of New York. The fliers will go aboard the City of New York to welcome the Admiral.

Two other Virginians are to be in the party, Colonel W. D. Newbill, State Adjutant General, and Commissioner H. G. Shirley, chairman of the Virginia State Conservation Board.

HOOVER RECEPTION FRIDAY.

Byrd Party Leaves Here for Capital at Midnight Tomorrow.

Following tomorrow's honors here for Rear Admiral Byrd and his companions, the party will leave on a special train at midnight for Washington, where they will be received at the White House. The reception will be at 12:30 P. M. Friday.

An hour later at the New Willard Hotel Admiral Byrd and his companions will be guests of honor at a luncheon given by the trustees of the National Geographic Society.

In the evening they will attend a gathering at the Washington Auditorium, where President Hoover, members of the diplomatic corps and officers of the army and navy will be present. The expedition's motion picture "With Byrd at the South Pole" will be shown. The picture will have its première showing at the Rialto Theatre in this city tomorrow evening.

June 21—Reception in Richmond, Va., by Governor Pollard.

June 23—The New York Chamber of Commerce will give a luncheon for Admiral Byrd at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

The Norsemen Lodge 878, F. and A. M., will give a dinner at the St. George Hotel, Brooklyn, in honor of Bernt Balchen, at which Admiral Byrd will be present.

Admiral Byrd will broadcast between 9 and 10 o'clock the same evening over the Columbia broadcasting studio under the auspices of the Tide Water Oil Company.

June 24—Admiral Byrd and his party will leave New York on a United States destroyer for Albany to be received by Governor Roosevelt. The party will return to New York by train at night.

Dinner to Admiral Byrd by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Astor.

June 26—Luncheon to Admiral Byrd by the Bond Club at the Bankers Club.

Following the luncheon, Admiral Byrd and the members of the flying staff, including Harold I. June, Dean Smith, Bernt Balchen, Captain Alton Parker and Captain Ashley McKinley, will go to the dedication of the Floyd Bennett Airport.

June 27—Admiral Byrd will go to Boston for a reception.

June 28—Luncheon to Admiral Byrd by the Paramount Publix Corporation.

Dinner to Russell Owen by the Newspaper Club of New York at the Hotel Astor.

Dinner to Admiral Byrd by the New York Athletic Club at the clubhouse.

July 1—Admiral Byrd will go to Philadelphia for a reception.

July 7—Luncheon to Admiral Byrd by George Palmer Putnam.

Dinner by Charles V. Bob at the Metropolitan Club.

July 11—Admiral Byrd will go to Chicago for a reception.

On the way to the Nassau County reception on July 3 Admiral Byrd will stop at Oyster Bay and place a wreath on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt before visiting Roosevelt Field, the scene of his preparations for the flights over the North Pole and to France, as well as for the expedition just completed.

Those who will accompany Admiral Byrd on his visit to Nassau are Dr. Lawrence Gould, Bernt Balchen, Harold I. June, Captain Ashley McKinley and Captain H. H. Railey, Admiral Byrd's representative in New York.

BYRD FETE ON RADIO FOR THE ENTIRE NATION

The entire nation will be able to listen in on the reception tomorrow to Rear Admiral Byrd and his companions as a result of the elaborate arrangements made for broadcasting the program. National Broadcasting Company microphones will convey the greetings and Admiral Byrd's responses to all corners of the nation.

An NBC tug, with short-wave transmitter aboard, will meet the City of New York and the Eleanor Bolling, the Byrd ships, off Quarantine and accompany them on the run up the harbor.

Once the Admiral has landed, NBC announcers, stationed at vantage points along the parade route, will paint word pictures of the greeting. This broadcast, in which a mobile transmitter will follow the official car from Pier A to City Hall, is expected to continue from approximately 11 o'clock until 12 noon, Eastern Daylight Time.

Two hours later, at 2 o'clock, a series of greetings to Admiral Byrd, including talks by Mayor Walker and Grover A. Whalen, chairman of the reception committee, will be broadcast over a large NBC network from the headquarters of the Advertising Club, where a luncheon is to be given for Admiral Byrd and his companions. Speeches by Charles E. Murphy, president of the club, and Charles C. Green, former president, are scheduled to be heard.

This broadcast is also due to last for an hour. In addition to the regular NBC associated stations which will transmit the program, WOR, Newark, has been added to the network for the event.

At night the program of the Merchants Association dinner to Admiral Byrd at the Astor will be broadcast. Admiral Byrd himself is scheduled to speak during this program, which will be heard between 10 and 11 P. M. Others who will speak at the dinner are Governor John Garland Pollard of Virginia, Lawrence M. Gould, Byrd's first officer; Willis H. Booth, president of the Merchants Association; Lincoln Cromwell, vice president, and Mayor Walker or another official New York representative.

Both WEAF and WJZ are to carry this broadcast.

The morning program will be carried also by WNYC. Special arrangements have been made to broadcast the events from the Macom as the municipal tug bearing the Mayor's Committee down the bay leaves Pier A and on her return at the head of the marine welcoming procession.

Byrd's Ships 126 Miles Out.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

ON BOARD THE BARK CITY OF NEW YORK, At Sea, June 17.—Admiral Byrd's flagship, the City of New York, and the steamer Eleanor Bolling, the supply ship of his Antarctic expedition, were 126 miles south-southwest from Ambrose Lightship at noon today. Their position was Lat. 38:27 degrees N., Long. 74:37 degrees W.

QUEENS BANK HEARING BEGUN BY GRAND JURY

Federal Body's Inquiry Into the Affairs of Elmhurst National May Be Extended to Others.

With new indictments of bank officials expected and the possibility foreseen that other banks in Queens and Brooklyn might be drawn into the scope of its inquiries, a Federal grand jury investigation was started yesterday into the affairs of the Elmhurst National Bank as they stood before the arrest last January of Albert Hansen, former president of that institution.

Assistant United States Attorney James E. Wilkinson said he would present to the grand jury today the report of the government investigators who have conducted an inquiry into the affairs of the Long Island National Bank of Astoria as they were prior to the reorganization of that bank last October.

Mr. Wilkinson said he expected further indictments of persons formerly connected with both of these banks, and added that it was possible that the grand jury hearing would extend to other banks not previously mentioned.

For the investigation into the Elmhurst bank more than thirty witnesses have been subpoenaed. Hansen, who is charged with the embezzlement of $5,000 from the account of a banking firm in Manhattan and with appropriating $1,000 held in the Elmhurst bank for an estate, is under joint indictment with Douglas Miller, a note broker, of Englewood, N. J. The total sums stolen are put at about $700,000. Hansen, who pleaded guilty and was released in bail of $7,500, will be used as a government witness, according to Mr. Wilkinson, to testify against Miller, who pleaded not guilty. The trial of Miller was scheduled to start in the United States District Court yesterday, but was put over until July 15 by Judge Inch.

In the case of the Long Island National Bank, which will come up before the grand jury today, three former officials are under arrest charged with embezzlement. They are William H. Siebrecht, former president; Francis X. Ongaro, former cashier, and Harold Casner, former assistant cashier. None has as yet been indicted. Embezzlement of $140,000 was charged against the three men, but restitution of all but $35,000 has been made, according to Mr. Wilkinson.

Plans New Pipe Line in Mexico.

Engineers of the Mexican Eagle Oil Company, a Royal Dutch-Shell subsidiary, are planning a pipe line to be laid from the northern district of the State of Vera Cruz to Mexico City, about 235 kilometers. It is proposed also to erect a refinery in Mexico City. It is estimated that the line will cost between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000.

CITY REPUBLICANS PUSH REPEAL PLEA

Harbord Committee Votes Wet Plank—Bans Modification as Weakening the Cause.

DEFERS ACTION ON PRIMARY

Report Assailing Nomination System as "Rich Man's Game" Is Put Over to Next Meeting.

The New York County Republican Advisory Committee, of which General James G. Harbord is chairman, voted almost unanimously last night for a resolution urging repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, but voted down a second resolution advocating modification of the Volstead act on the ground that its adoption would lessen the force of the declaration for repeal.

The committee took this action at a meeting at the Hotel Astor on a report of its subcommittee on legislation, headed by former State Senator Martin Saxe. The repeal resolution will be presented to the Republican County Committee tomorrow night and its adoption by a large majority is expected.

The committee also received a report from its subcommittee on elections, of which Abraham S. Gilbert is chairman, recommending repeal of the direct primary law and the substitution of nominations for all offices by party conventions. The committee will act on this report at its next meeting.

Dry Opposition Lacking.

Expected dry opposition to the report of the subcommittee on legislation did not materialize. Mr. Saxe read the subcommittee's report and the two proposed resolutions, one of which declared for repeal and the other for modification of the Volstead act by Congress fixing a legal alcoholic content of liquor which would be in fact intoxicating and empowering each State to permit the manufacture and sale of liquor not exceeding that content.

Mr. Gilbert offered a substitute for the second resolution. This resolution proposed the modification of the Volstead act by limiting its application to interstate and foreign commerce, reserving to each State the right to determine the alcoholic content of alcoholic beverages manufactured and sold within that State. Mr. Gilbert offered a legal argument in support of his contention, but his substitute failed.

On motion of former Justice Gustave Hartman, the committee decided to vote separately on the two resolutions proposed by the subcommittee.

Emory R. Buckner, former United States Attorney, speaking for the repeal resolution, declared that adoption of the modification resolution would weaken the force of the repeal declaration. A flat declaration for repeal, he declared, would have much greater force if unaccompanied by a declaration for modification, even if repeal of the amendment could not be brought about immediately.

"If the iron heel of despotism is on your neck," he said, "it will do no good to say that you cannot rid yourself of the heel at once and in the meantime ask that an O'Sullivan rubber heel be substituted."

The repeal resolution was adopted by an overwhelming majority in a viva voce vote. Apparently only two members of the committee voted against it. The modification resolution was then rejected by nearly as large a majority.

Direct Primary Attacked.

The report of the subcommittee in condemning the direct primary read:

"The direct primary law, so called, has been tried in this State for nearly twenty years. It has concededly failed to accomplish what its proponents claimed for it. The voters have not availed themselves of the opportunity afforded by the law to participate in the selection of candidates for public office. It has not improved the calibre of candidates for public office. It has not destroyed the power of the so-called bosses or the machine.

"On the contrary, the experience which we have had with the direct primary law has demonstrated the accuracy of practically every argument presented in opposition to the enactment of that law. It was pointed out, and time has proven, that the direct primary in its last analysis is a rich man's game, presenting the scandalous condition of the expenditure of vast sums of money to procure nominations for public office. It has resulted in the commission of flagrant frauds at the primary polls. It has impaired the usefulness of political parties.

"Originally enacted in this State as a State-wide measure, it has been amended so that it no longer applies to State officers. It no longer applies to judges and serious efforts have been made to amend it further so that it shall not apply to city officers. We believe the time has come to repeal it altogether as useless and ineffective legislation.

"We therefore recommend that the Republican party of New York County urge the State convention to adopt a plank favoring a repeal of the direct primary law and, incidental thereto, a thorough and complete revision of the primary law."

Walker to Get a Union Card For Ground Breaking Today

When Mayor Walker appears as the principal speaker this afternoon to break ground at the new Psychiatric Hospital to be erected on the block north of Bellevue Hospital he will have a union card so he can operate the steam shovel.

Hospital Commissioner J. G. William Greeff, who will be the chairman of the exercises attending the ground breaking, received last night from the architects a union dues book showing that the Mayor's dues are paid up until the first of next year and that he is a member in good standing in the International Union of Operating Engineers. The book will be given the Mayor tomorrow, which, incidentally, is his birthday.

He admitted last night that he would be 49 years old tomorrow, but denied vigorously that he would "celebrate."

"I'm not celebrating any birthday at all," the Mayor said. "All the celebrating will be done by Admiral Byrd and his associates, and my birthday will be lost in that, as it should be. I think it's very nice of the Admiral to arrange his return on that day, however."

11 REDS FINED $25 EACH.

Mount Vernon Court Gives Them Alternative of Ten Days in Jail.

City Judge Jacob A. Bernstein of Mount Vernon fined eleven Communists $25 each or ten days in the Westchester County penitentiary yesterday for trying to hold a street meeting without a permit. Their counsel, Maurice M. Klein of Yonkers, threatened to seek a Supreme Court writ to compel Mayor James Berg to issue a permit for regular street meetings.

Mayor Berg said he would never grant a permit to the Communists.

Judge Bernstein declined to remit the fines after Mr. Klein said the defendants were political defendants and refused to grant a motion that they be paroled in the custody of their attorney for twenty-four hours. During the court proceeding Mr. Klein declared the judge was prejudiced.

The police showed that Mayor Berg had refused the permit and that the Communists issued circulars denouncing the Mayor and saying they would hold a meeting without approval.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., June 17.—The population of Irvington has doubled in ten years, according to the final figures announced today by Edwin Mortimer Harrison, census supervisor for Essex County, exclusive of Newark. The population of the town is listed at 56,110, as against 25,480 in 1920.

Completion of the Caldwell township tabulation within four days will end the task of census workers in the county, Mr. Harrison said.

SHOWS TORNADO LOSSES.

Red Cross Appeals for 300 Families in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

RED WING, Minn., June 17 (AP).—A Red Cross tabulation made today showed that tornadoes which struck in Minnesota and Wisconsin Friday affected 300 families and caused damage of more than $1,000,000 in the two States.

Mrs. E. R. Ellis, national relief chairman of the Red Cross, announced the figures in appealing to residents of the two States to raise $50,000 to aid sufferers in the storm districts.

Her survey showed seven dead and fifty-six in hospitals with serious injuries; scores slightly hurt; forty homes destroyed, sixty-five badly damaged; 100 barns destroyed, forty damaged; thousands of chickens and scores of head of live stock killed and hundreds of small farm buildings razed.

ROOSEVELT AVOIDS PROHIBITION STAND

By W. A. WARN.

teenth Amendment, adopted by the Republican Legislature in 1919. Then came the veteran leader, Norman E. Mack, who said:

"The party must come out for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. The time for straddles and half-way measures is past. We must go the whole route."

Mayor Thacher's expression on the subject was given in an address before the Democratic women here for the committee meeting at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Caroline O'Day, vice chairman of the Democratic State Committee, given by the women's division of the Albany County Democratic organization.

When Governor Roosevelt declared to the State committee that "the issues will be expounded by candidates for State offices," State Senator Bernard Downing said, "I know of one," in a stage whisper audible in all parts of the room.

The Governor merely smiled and the committee vigorously applauded.

The business before the State committee was transacted speedily and without a hitch. John F. Curry, the new Tammany chieftain, who was elected a member of the State committee at the meeting, and John H. McCooey, the Democratic leader of Kings, were vigorously applauded as they arose to offer resolutions. The Tammany leader received an ovation.

Convention Committees Named.

On motion of Frank Briarly, Tammany leader of the Fifteenth Assembly District, the committee adopted a resolution creating a committee to select temporary officers for the convention, composed of Messrs Curry and McCooey, Secretary of State Edward J. Flynn, party leader in the Bronx; John A. Henry, leader in Erie, and Harlan W. Rippey, leader in Monroe. Senator Wagner will be picked by the committee for temporary chairman and keynote orator of the convention.

Edward S. Dore, head of the Tammany law committee, will be chairman of a committee of thirty-five, authorized by the State committee to draft a tentative platform for the State convention.

The committee adopted resolutions in memory of Assemblymen Maurice Bloch and Peter J. Hamill, former leaders of the Democratic minority in the lower house; James J. Hagan, Tammany leader of the Seventh, and Edmund P. Holahan, Tammany leader of the Twenty-first Assembly District, and other members of the State committee who have died since the committee met a year ago in January.

Prior to the meeting Messrs. Curry, McCooey, Flynn, John A. Theofel, leader of Queens; State Chairman Bray, National Committeeman Mack and several of the prominent up-State leaders went to the Executive Mansion for luncheon, at which a decision was reached to pick Syracuse for the meeting of the convention.

While the announcements may be withheld for some days, it is understood that at conferences held last night and today the Governor has reacted favorably to the request of Leader McCooey of Kings for the appointment of Albert Conway of Brooklyn, State Superintendent of Insurance, to fill the vacancy on the Kings County bench created through the resignation of W. Bernard Vause, and the request of Leader Theofel of Queens that Municipal Court Justice John A. Hetherington be named as Surrogate of Queens to succeed the late Richard S. Newcombe.

It was reported that Thomas C. Kadien Jr., Assistant District Attorney in Queens, was being considered for Justice Hetherington's place.

The appointment by the Governor of Dr. Walter N. Thayer as State Commissioner of Correction within a few days was also said this evening to be assured.

The Governor's Address.

Governor Roosevelt said in part:

"It is not within my province at this time to lay down the issues between the parties during the Autumn of 1930. Those issues," he said, "will be delimited by the State conventions and expounded by whomever the candidates for State office are four months hence."

Declaring that the committee had the right to be happy over the "practical and progressive series of accomplishments during the past eighteen months," the Governor said:

"This period has continued and added to the long series of advances in the science and practice of government during the long administration of my distinguished predecessor, Governor Smith. * * * On the subject of water power, an economic and political contest lasting twenty long years has terminated in a way which I am confident will bring tangible benefits to every household throughout the State of New York in the years to come. The principle of State development of State-owned resources for the primary benefit of the consuming public has at last been acceded to by the Legislature. There is no doubt in my mind that the people of this State understand and will continue to support this basic principle which will prevent private exploitation of public property. * * *

Republicans Criticized.

"Hand in hand with water power goes the general subject of the control of utilities. I am confident that the Public Service Commission today again is functioning in the purposes for which it was originally organized under Governor Hughes in 1907. This is not enough.

"New theories and new business practices have grown up, so that now many utilities claim the essential right to earn far more than a reasonable rate of return on their investment. They have tried to wipe out any distinction between a public utility and a wholly private corporation engaged in wholly private enterprises. They seek in many instances to earn not 7 or 8 per cent but 30, 40 and 50 per cent on a large portion of their investment. A legislative committee appointed a year ago brought in a series of proposed changes in the law, 90 per cent of which changes would have served no useful purpose whatsoever, and left the basic question just where it was before. The proposals of the minority members of this committee appointed by me were disregarded by the Republican leaders, but I am not surprised, for under the present conditions of Republican leadership it requires at least two or three years before public opinion compels these leaders to accept any progressive proposal, whatever it may be, if it happens to be made by a Democrat."

The Governor further criticized the Republicans for what he termed an attempted "violation of the Constitution" in disregarding the amendment providing for an executive budget and in seeking "definitely and deliberately to become budget-makers with the Governor." He said the decision of the Court of Appeals against the Republicans, "which terminated a drag-down and knockout fight between the Republican leaders and myself, has established once and for all the functions of the Legislature on the one side and the Governor on the other, as intended by the framers of our Constitution."

Labor Legislation.

Referring to labor legislation, he said: "It took years of hammering before we got a reduction in the hours of labor for women and children in industry. This year that reduction was strengthened and improved by the amendments to the labor law which will result in half holidays in our industrial and commercial establishments. By the same token, while a year ago the Legislature had not yet seen the light, this year they capitulated in the law prohibiting the granting of temporary injunctions in industrial disputes without notice of hearing; also, in the matter of occupational diseases we obtained some grudging, half-hearted amendments which go at least a part of the way toward the attainment of a great goal of social justice.

"Along the same line it is worth noting that it was the Democratic party which first came out squarely in favor of relief against old-age want in its platform of 1928. Last year the Legislature on my urging took the first steps toward this great essential need and this year passed what is the beginning of actual relief."

The Governor also pointed out that a commission was soon to start its work on judicial reform.

Favors Home Rule.

Of the Democratic attitude toward improvement of town and county government, the Governor said, "Our position does not in any way ask for the consolidation of counties but does ask for legislation to let local governments put through reforms based on good business organization if and only if the communities themselves so desire. It is a practical application of the Democratic belief in home rule."

Taking up the question of prison and hospital housing, he related that "as a result of surveys by my administration we fixed on a definite dated—the year 1935—by which time a proposed program would give to the State adequate accommodations for all of the patients and prisoners in its charge. This involved the outlay of approximately $100,000,000. In spite of definite efforts to try to play politics with the whole subject, the past Legislature gave us appropriations of $30,000,000 toward this end.

"Nevertheless, by doing this out of the surplus of the State, instead of by a bond issue, as recommended by me the previous year, these buildings appropriated for this year will be built out of current funds * * * Thus the surplus in the State Treasury has been materially reduced."

He declared the Republicans had given in and "authorized the submission to the voters this Autumn of a fifty-million dollar State institutions bond issue" only because they feared increases of taxes or stoppage of building.

He quoted an agricultural leader of the West as saying that "The State of New York in the past two years has accomplished more practical results for the relief of the farmer along the line of lower taxes, better education and more good roads than has the Federal Government or any other State of the Union in the past ten years.

"The Legislature deserves all possible credit for passing the agricultural bills and appropriations, but at least some credit should be given to the Governor's Agricultural Advisory Commission, which met first in November, 1928, as an unofficial committee appointed by me, and that time—two months before any legislative leader had even thought of the proposals—laid down what has since become the law.

"Certain measures proposed by the Democratic party in their 1928 platform or by me subsequently, have been as usual pigeon-holed in the Legislature. Bills, for instance, to strengthen and safeguard our elections have never seen the light of day." Among these he mentioned the bill to provide a four-year term for Governor, but added that "on the whole, however, the accomplishments have far and away outweighed the failures.

"On strictly administrative side the State Government has had to initiate an enormously enlarged organization for the construction of public works of all kinds and during the past year and a half the progress of State contracts has shown a marked speeding up." * * *

Saying that he wanted no glossing over or claiming of undue credit for the administration, he declared, however, that it was the duty of the committee members to see to it that the truth is told to the voters of this State this Summer and Autumn.

"Let us remember that we will be confronted by partisans who on many occasions will tell a part truth with the clear intention of giving a distorted or false picture of the actual situation. That is why I emphasize the request that the whole truth be told. Half a truth is often worse than a deliberate lie.

"Make it clear that your campaign is directed against the Republican leadership which continues to play politics, to emphasize non-essentials, to straddle or shut their eyes to real issues, refusing to come out squarely and definitely pro or con on proposals which affect and involve the individual lives of the men, women and children of this State.

"The records show that the Democratic platform is not regarded either by Democrats or other citizens of the State as a mere scrap of paper. It has been a definite declaration of purpose to accomplish certain things in certain ways. That will be our attitude in the future, as it has been in the past."

COMMENDS RECORDS OF MOFFAT AND POST

Citizens Union Calls Work in Assembly Best Among New York's Representatives.

TWO NEGROES ARE PRAISED

Perkins and Rivers, New Republican Members, Characterized in Survey as Valuable.

Assemblymen Abbot Low Moffat, Republican, and Langdon W. Post, Democrat, are rated among the best of New York City's representatives in the Assembly by the committee on legislation of the Citizens Union in a report on the records of the Manhattan and Bronx Assemblymen, made public yesterday.

The report commended Lamar Perkins and Francis E. Rivers, the two new negro Republican members, and characterized them as valuable additions to the Assembly. The individual record reports follow:

New York County.

ALTERMAN, MEYER (Dem.), Seventeenth District—Capable and industrious, with an unusual degree of effectiveness. His record continued well above the average.

BRODERICK, JOSEPH H. (Dem.), Thirteenth District—Intelligent new member, who failed to develop initiative in his first year.

BYRNES, JOHN A. (Dem.), Twelfth District—Intelligent and active in a limited field, without impressive results.

CARLIN, FRANK A. (Dem.), Fifth District—By experience and ability a potential leader. Though more active this year, his opportunities were not translated into proportionate results.

CUVILLIER, LOUIS A. (Dem.), Twentieth District—Exceeded his own previously unparalleled record for mass production of bills. His relentless barrage of criticism and suggestion at times hit the mark, but more often was ill-considered and futile.

DOOLING, JAMES J. (Dem.), First District—Elected to a vacancy, he took little part in the session.

FALK, ALEXANDER A. (Dem.), Twenty-third District—Maintained an active, conscientious interest, though the results were not above the average.

HIGGINS, JOSEPH T. (Dem.), Fourteenth District—Is potentially qualified and displays energy at times, but has not developed forcefulness with experience, accomplishing little.

KAHAN, HENRY O. (Dem.), Eighth District—Illness prevented his attendance for a time. Possesses some ability, but it is not employed with good judgment or effect.

LEFKOWITZ, LOUIS J. (Rep.), Sixth District—Capable, industrious and effective. In his third year undertook a great deal and accomplished much. Has become one of the Assembly's most valuable members.

MANDELBAUM, SAMUEL (Dem.), Fourth District—Again applied himself with consistent earnestness, was helpful frequently and made a record well above the average.

MITTLER, BENJAMN B. (Dem.), Twenty-second District—New member, who took a lively interest and displayed some originality, though the results were not above the average.

MOFFAT, ABBOT LOW (Rep.), Fifteenth District—Handled important legislation successfully. Particularly well informed and helpful in solving Port Authority merger problem. One of the few city members possessing genuine ability and the energy to apply it.

PERKINS, LAMAR (Rep.), Twenty-first District—A new, capable member who adapted himself readily to legislative work and employment, a quiet effectiveness that brought his first-year record well above the average.

POST, LANGDON W. (Dem.), Tenth District—Applied himself diligently and developed this year genuine worth and influence in legislative matters. Did much good work and rates near the top among the city members.

RIVERS, FRANCIS E. (Rep.), Nineteenth District—A valuable addition to the Assembly. Extremely able, industrious and effective. Attained a degree of success unusual for a first-year man.

SCHWARTZ, WILLIAM (Dem.), Sixteenth District—New member. Elected to a vacancy, he took an intelligent interest but was neither more active nor effective than the average first-year man.

STREIT, SAUL S. (Dem.), Seventh District—Applied himself with intelligence and diligence this year and at times was decidedly effective. Has improved his record steadily and it now rates well above the average.

THEODORE, MILLARD E. (Dem.), Second District—New member with average first-year record.

Bronx County.

ALBERT, HERMAN M. (Dem.), Fourth District—Has not developed with experience. Took an unimportant part in the session.

BERG, JULIUS S. (Dem.), Third District—An intelligent and fairly active member who again failed to obtain results in proportion to his experience.

DEVANY, JOHN A., Jr. (Dem.), Eighth District—A new member who gave close attention but who sponsored objectionable special bills that did not make a good impression.

EBERHARD, NICHOLAS J. (Dem.), First District—Has had long experience and was attentive at this session but failed to bring his record above the average.

McGRATH, CHRISTOPHER C. (Dem.), Sixth District—Developed some initiative and was rather more effective than formerly.

REIDY, JOHN F. (Dem.), Seventh District—Is experienced and has ability but was not as active as formerly, his record falling below the average this year.

SAMBERG, HARRY A. (Dem.), Fifth District—Attentive, with limited effectiveness, continuing an average record.

SMITH, WILLIAM F. (Dem.), Second District—Succeeded this year in advancing bills of minor importance he sponsored, but has not as yet brought his record above the Assembly average.

R. E. HOLZ IS PRAISED BY SALVATION ARMY

Retiring After 46 Years, He Gets Tributes From Walker and Commander Booth.

Commissioner Richard E. Holz, retiring commander of the Eastern territory of the Salvation Army, after a career of forty-six years, was applauded by 1,500 of his colleagues and was praised in messages from all parts of the country last night at a farewell meeting in the Salvation Army Centennial Memorial Temple, 120 West Fourteenth Street.

Many speakers, including Major William Deegan, Tenement House Commissioner, who represented Mayor Walker, paid tribute to Commissioner Holz. Commander Evangeline Booth sent a farewell message of eulogy and congratulations from Lieut. Gov. Lehman, Governor Larson of New Jersey, Governor Cooper of Ohio, Senator Copeland, Henry W. Taft and many others were read.

Commissioner Deegan praised the work of the Salvation Army during the period following the war when the organization was active in relieving unemployment. Mayor Walker's letter of greeting to Commissioner Holz, which was read by Mr. Deegan, follows in part:

"The city of New York is enriched by the presence of such men as yourself who give of their service unselfishly for the benefit of their fellowmen and for the raising to a higher level the community in which they live. You have contributed many years of your life to the well-being of the citizens of this city, and on their behalf I desire to express appreciation and venture to hope that the remaining years of your life will be happy in the memory of deeds well done and a life well spent.

"Accept my congratulations on your successful career and your entrance into a well-deserved rest."

Commissioner Holz, in his farewell address, said he came to America looking for romance and adventure and had found it in plenty. Through nearly five decades, he said, he had seen the Salvation Army rise from "ignominy and obscurity to a position of influence and usefulness."

Colonel Alfred A. Chandler, chief secretary of the Eastern territory, presided. Music was furnished by the staff band. Mrs. Holz accompanied the commissioner and shared honors with him.

GLASS OFFERS BILL TO NIP SPECULATION

FOR RESERVE ACT REVISION

Greater Share of Reserve Bank Profits Would Go to the Member Institutions.

STATE BRANCHES BACKED

Secretary of the Treasury Would Be Removed From Reserve Board Under Measure.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, one of the authors of the Federal Reserve act and Secretary of the Treasury in the Wilson Administration, introduced in the Senate today his long-promised bill designed to prevent speculation in the stock market, and to revise the National Bank and Federal Reserve acts so as to give the Reserve member banks a greater profit from the earnings of the Federal Reserve Bank.

The Senator's bill appeared just as the stock market was undergoing another decline, such as originally inspired him to suggest the need of more stringent banking laws to make it more difficult for banks to lend money ond securities and thereby lessen speculation. One of its important provisions is that removing the Secretary of the Treasury from membership on the Federal Reserve Board.

Senator Glass calls his bill of over 3,500 words the "banking act of 1930" and says its purpose is "to provide for the safer operation and more effective use of the assets of national banking associations, to regulate inter-bank control, to prevent undue diversion of funds into speculative operations, and for other purposes."

For State-Wide Branches.

Senator Glass proposes to give national banks the same powers enjoyed by State banks; restricts chain banks but authorizes State-wide branch banks and increases the interest rate that can be charged by national banks to the legal rate of the State, or 1 per cent greater than the Federal Reserve Bank discount rate. A system is proposed to restrict loans that may be made by national banking associations to brokers and members of the Stock Exchange.

Another section would set up a plan by which the earnings of the Federal Reserve System would be distributed to a greater degree than 6 per cent to the member banks, and a portion of the surplus of the system would go into the Federal Treasury as an additional franchise tax.

Senator Glass issued a statement explaining the bill's twelve provisions. He said he did not expect any action at this session, but hoped to make it the chief banking legislation in the short session next Winter.

The subject will be brought before the public by the investigation of the Federal Reserve System by a special Senate committee recently authorized by Senator Glass's resolution. This subcommittee of the Banking and Currency Committee, consisting of Senators Glass, Walcott, Townsend, Bratton and Norbeck, will begin hearings early in December, and, as the result of evidence then obtained, Senator Glass believes the situation will be prepared for action on his bill.

Explains Purposes of Bill.

Of the various sections, Senator Glass said:

"The first gives the title of the act. Section 2 undertakes to give the national bank the same general powers as are exercised by State banks, except where experience has limited them by law as expressly set forth in the national bank act and the Federal Reserve act and amendments thereto. Public opinion seems now to sanction the giving to all banks the same powers, and restricting the use of banking powers which have proved to be dangerous, or which are likely to prove so.

"Section 3 undertakes to restrict chain banking by a prohibition upon the right of any corporation, association or partnership or an attaché of any such corporation, association or partnership to vote the shares at the election of officers or in the decision of questions by bank directors. This is an entirely new proposition and may encounter resistance in the colurts; but it has been submitted to very able legal authority and approved.

"Section 4 is intended to authorize State-wide branching by national banks; but restricts the privilege to those States which authorize State banks to engage in branch banking within the State.

"Very likely this restriction will be removed so as to permit national banks to engage in State-wide branch banking, regardless of the requirement of States. This is a matter which has been vigorously litigated; but the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States appear to authorize such privilege to national banks as agencies of the Federal Government.

As to Interest Rates Charged.

"Section 5 is intended to liberalize the provision with respect to interest rates to be charged by national banks. It permits such banks to charge interest either (1) at the rate allowed by existing law, namely the rate allowed by the law of the State where the bank is located, or (2) at a rate 1 per cent above the Federal Reserve Bank discount rate in the Federal Reserve District where the bank is located, whichever is the greater.

"If no rate is fixed by the law of the jurisdiction where any such bank is located, then it may charge a rate not in excess of 7 per cent, or 1 per cent above the Federal Reserve Bank discount rate, whichever is the greater.

"The reason for this change is that in periods of actual distress, when credits and currency are in eager demand, the discounting is actually precluded for all the member banks of thirty-five States, except at a distinct loss to the member banks.

"For example, thirty-five States limit by law the rate of discount to 6 per cent or less. When the exigencies of the case demand an increase in the Federal Reserve Bank rate to 6 per cent, and sometimes 7 per cent, the member banks of these thirty-five States are unable to rediscount their eligible paper at the Federal Reserve banks except at a loss.

"This proposed amendment would give the member banks a margin of at least 1 per cent at all times. This is rather opposed to the long-time theory of the Bank of England to the effect that the rediscount rate should always be a shade above the market rate; but England does not have to contend with the dual system of banking which afflicts this country.

Denies Rate Need Be Uniform.

"In this connection it may be said that it clearly, if not avowedly, was never the intention of Congress that the rediscount rate of the Federal Reserve Banks should be uniform throughout the country, since credit demands and conditions in various States and sections are by no means in accord.

"The rediscount rates, it is urgently contended by the best economists as well as experienced practical bankers, should be somewhat governed in the several regions by the varying conditions and by the rate of discount permitted to be charged by member banks, but the administrative authorities of the Federal Reserve System have persistently ignored this important consideration which Congress clearly had in mind when the law was enacted.

"Section 6 restricts the amount of loans by a national banking association to brokers, members of the Stock Exchange, finance companies, investment trusts or similar institutions and to the affiliates of such associations, to 10 per cent of the paid-in and unimpaired capital stock of the association and 10 per cent of its unimpaired surplus funds.

Further Check on Brokers' Loans.

"Under existing law, loans upon certain types of obligations (including those drawn in good faith against actually existing values and secured by goods or commodities and those arising out of the discount of commercial paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same) are not subject to any limitation based upon the capital and surplus of the association.

"Under the proposed amendment, these provisions would no longer apply to loans made to the persons and corporations above enumerated. In the case of affiliates, which include moneyed corporations and others owned or controlled by the association or by the shareholders of the association who own or control a majority of its capital stock, Section 6 imposes a further limitation—namely, that the total obligations of the affiliates to the association shall not exceed the 10 per cent limitation mentioned or the amount of their paid-in and unimpaired capital stock, whichever may be smaller.

"Section 7 requires affiliates of national banking associations to make and furnish to the Controller of the Currency reports of the condition at the same time similar reports are submitted by the associations, in order that a more complete knowledge of the affairs and operations of the associations may be obtained. A penalty is provided for failure to make and transmit the reports.

"Section 8 proposes a different distribution of the earnings of the Federal Reserve System to member banks. Existing law limits member banks to a dividend of 6 per cent on their stock in a Federal reserve bank, and authorizes the accumulation of a surplus of 100 per cent by the Federal Reserve Bank, and, thereafter, an addition to the surplus of 10 per cent per annum.

"The alteration proposed provides that, after the payment of 6 per cent dividend to the member banks, 25 per cent of the net earnings of the Federal Reserve Bank shall be set aside until such surplus fund shall equal 100 per cent of the subscribed capital, after which such remainder of this particular 25 per cent shall go into the Federal Treasury as an additional franchise tax.

"The remaining 50 per cent of the net earnings of the Federal Reserve Bank shall be distributed pro rata to the member banks under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board.

"Section 9 requires condition reports to be made and furnished by affiliates of State banks admitted to membership in the Federal Reserve System. These reports correspond to the condition report required under Section 7 of the affiliates of national banking associations, and the purpose of the reports is the same.

For Change in Reserve Board.

"Section 10 simply eliminates the Secretary of the Treasury as a member ex officio of the Federal Reserve Board. As a matter of fact, the Secretary of the Treasury has so many important duties, frequently of a complex nature, as to preclude his active participation in the proceedings of the Federal Reserve Board.

"Moreover, it has become evident that the Treasury Department, without any essential reason, is exercising a disproportionate, if not dominant, influence on the policies of the Federal Reserve Board. This was never intended to be the case, and the fact should not persist.

"Section 11 undertakes to prevent member banks from borrowing on their direct note at Reserve banks or their lending funds to brokers for speculative purposes. Banks may continue to borrow on their straight commercial paper, and relend to brokers; but this evasion of the spirit of the Federal Reserve act cannot be averted except by a repeal of the provision of the Federal Reserve act, which permits borrowing on the direct note of member banks. This may later be proposed if the frightful abuses which have hitherto occurred shall persist. It very likely will be proposed in any event.

"Section 12 seeks to give savings deposits a prior lien on a part of the assets of nationals, and these banks are required to hold savings bank securities up to an amount equal to the amount of such savings."

TO GATHER ERLANGER DATA

Counsel for Charlotte Fixel to Scan Hotel Records Here and Abroad.

A blanket commission to take testimony from hotel employes in ten European countries and towns and cities of the United States concerning the status of Charlotte Fixel, who is seeking to contest the will of Abraham L. Erlanger, theatrical manager, was granted yesterday by Surrogate Foley on application by Max D. Steuer, counsel for Miss Fixel. She contends she was the common-law wife of Mr. Erlanger.

Surrogate Foley fixed Oct. 20 as the date of the trial as to her status, which must be determined before she may contest the will.

The surrogate directed that the report containing the depositions be submitted by Aug. 20. The commissioners will be selected by Mr. Steuer and Harry Epstein of 62 William Street, who represented Mr. Steuer in court yesterday. Isidor Kresel, counsel for Saul J. Baron, temporary administrator of the estate, appeared for the estate.

CITY BREVITIES.

James Soler, a native of Argentina, has been called to serve for the Summer as pastor of the Spanish-speaking congregation at the Church of the Transfiguration, 74 West 126th Street, by the Board of American Missions of the United Lutheran Church of America, it was announced yesterday.

The establishment of an evening school consisting of twenty-five classes in the New Utrecht High School building in Brooklyn was recommended yesterday by school officials to the budget committee of the system.

More than 150 alumni of the University of Indiana attended a dinner last night in honor of President William Lowe Bryan in the Fraternity Clubs Building, 22 East Thirty-eighth Street.

C. W. CULKIN MADE HEAD OF PENSIONS DIVISION

Former Sheriff and Friend of John F. Curry Is Appointed to $8,000 Post.

The appointment of former Sheriff Charles W. Culkin, Tammany leader in the Third Manhattan Assembly District and a close personal friend of Tammany Leader John F. Curry, as chief of the division of pensions of the Department of Finance, a post paying a salary of $8,000, was announced yesterday by Controller Charles W. Berry.

Mr. Culkin succeeds Edmund P. Holahan, formerly Tammany leader of the Twenty-first Assembly District, who died about a month ago. When Mr. Culkin retired on Jan. 1 as Sheriff of New York County, after serving a four-year term at $15,000 annually, he was succeeded by Thomas F. Farley, Democratic leader of the Fourteenth Assembly District and former County Clerk.

Mr. Culkin is president of the Monroe Lamp and Equipment Company, 314 West Fourteenth Street. He has held various public offices, including that of chief clerk of Special Sessions and Deputy Commissioner of Records in the Surrogates' Court.

On April 7, 1909, he resigned as chief clerk of Special Sessions, eleven days after he had been suspended following his arrest on a charge of grand larceny after William Travers Jerome, the District Attorney, alleged that he had been unable to account satisfactorily for $1,933 of a total of $6,000 collected in fines. The money was paid in full to the City Chamberlain on the day after Mr. Jerome made his charge, and it was said later that the prosecutor had probably acted too hastily.

On Dec. 14, 1913, Surrogate Cohalan ordered that Mr. Culkin's services in Surrogates' Court be dispensed with so as to reduce the payroll. Mr. Culkin refused to quit and Judge Cohalan ordered Controller Prendergast to stop his pay. Subsequently a Supreme Court order reversed Judge Cohalan's order.

HISTORIC PEPYS HOME TO SERVE AS COLLEGE

Impington Hall Is Given by Jam Firm to Cambridgeshire for Village Education Project.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—A new use for country houses which are too large and expensive to be maintained under existing taxation has been found in Cambridgeshire in connection with a village college movement started there. Impington Hall, historic home of the Pepys family, was presented to the Cambridgeshire Education Committee today by the firm of Chivers and Sons, Ltd., as a memorial to John Chivers, the founder of the jam firm.

Impington Hall will form the nucleus of a village college for the area of Histon and Cottenham, from which village the head of the Pepys family, Lord Cottenham, takes his title.

The house was begun about the middle of the sixteenth century by John Pepys. It includes a central hall and gallery and is still substantially what it has been for the last 300 years, though there were additions in 1862 and 1909.

Allusions to Impington in Samuel Pepys's diary begin on July 15, 1661, with "Rode to Impington, where I found my old uncle sitting all alone like a man out of the world."

The educational authorities do not intend to alter the old buildings, which are in a good state of preservation and include many beautiful paneled rooms with seventeenth century ceilings.

Survey Party Reaches Trinidad.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PORT-OF-SPAIN, Trinidad, June 17.—Frederick Simpich and his photographic survey party from the National Geographic Society arrived here last evening by the New York, Rio and Buenos Aires airliner Argentina. They expect to remain in Trinidad four or five days before proceeding with their aerial survey of Della Orinoco. They are accompanied by officials of the air transport company and friends.

MACDONALD TO HOLD PARLEY ON JOBLESS

Premier Invites Party Leaders to Cooperate in Measures to Relieve Unemployment.

COOL TO LIBERALS' OFFER

Gives No Encouragement to Plan for Emergency Session—Local Officials Promise Aid.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—Premier MacDonald was anything but encouraging today to the efforts of David Lloyd George and others to commit him to an emergency parliamentary session on unemployment.

When the House of Commons reassembled today the Premier said, in answer to a question, that the government would not delegate to any committee its responsibility on matters of policy, finance and administration.

Meanwhile Mr. MacDonald held an important meeting today with local officials from all parts of Britain, and before the day ended he had obtained the promise of their cooperation in speeding up employment plans. Several officials complained bitterly of the inadequacy of government grants for employment schemes, but the general attitude was helpful and there was free interchange of suggestions.

The Premier told the local officials that the present industrial condition of Britain was as grave as that which followed the Napoleonic wars.

"A certain event which took place yesterday in New York is bound to have its repercussions here sooner or later," he said. "We are facing an abnormal condition of unemployment which is due primarily, not to our internal arrangements, but to the world economic and financial crisis."

Mr. MacDonald warned against spending money recklessly, but he urged that quick action was imperative, adding:

"We ask you to use your experience to tell us how you think schemes can be produced and expedited in order that our less fortunate fellow-citizens may find themselves next Winter a little warmer and more comfortable than they otherwise would be."

One resolution suggested by Sir William Ray of the London County Council was that local and national governments should give definite preference to British industry as against foreign products. Others, notably the Scottish delegates, suggested work on roads and railroads, while the Lord Provost of Edinburgh suggested building a new Forth Bridge.

It was clear, however, that the delegates had no concerted plan in mind. The only large scale suggestion came from Herbert Morrison, Minister of Transport, who reminded the meeting of the hundred road bridges which needed strengthening and the hundreds of dangerous road corners which needed to be eliminated. That task, he said, could provide useful work for thousands.

LONDON, June 17 (AP).—The Labor Government tonight invited the Conservative and Liberal parties to cooperate in dealing with the emergency situation in Britain's unemployment problem, which has steadily grown more acute. Premier MacDonald met Stanley Baldwin and David Lloyd George, former Conservative and Liberal Prime Ministers, in th ePremier's room at the House of Commons this evening. It is understood they discussed the preliminaries for a conference intended to formulate unemployment relief measures on which all parties can agree.

The situation will be debated again in the House of Commons tomorrow, and it will also be the main business at a meeting of the Parliamentary Labor party, whose left wing plans once more to challenge the government on its unemployment policy.

THREAT TO HANKOW EASED

Nationalists Claim Recapture of Changsha, Yochow—Kwangsi Troops Turn East.

TSINAN REPORTED OCCUPIED

Brawling Troops Rouse Fears in the Nationalist Capital—Feng Destroys Lunghai Airbase.

By HALLETT ABEND.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

SHANGHAI, June 17.—The lull in major military operations has been marked by a great concentration of Nanking Government forces on the Lunghai front in evident preparation for a drive against the Northerners in the Lanfeng area. Nanking claims successes against the Communists at Tayeh and other Yangtse points, where gunboats are effective, and C. T. Wang, Foreign Minister, publishes a declaration that the Northern coalition is on the verge of collapse and that, therefore, all the legations owe to Nanking the support that would accrue by their removal southward from Peking.

Meanwhile Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang says he has captured Siping, Yencheng and Suiping, important points on the Peking-Hankow railway zone, though this is not confirmed.

The pressure on Hankow from the South has been relieved, the "Ironsides" and Kwangsi armies having turned eastward into Kiangsi, Nanchang and Kiukiang apparently being their objectives.

Nanking now admits abandoning the telegraph stations in seventeen counties of Southern Kiangsi because of Communist disorders.

With two of the Japanese who were assaulted at Soochow on the point of death, two Chinese riot leaders were executed today.

Wounded and unpaid soldiers in the city of Nanking are brawling and causing apprehension in the capital. One of them threw a bomb into a crowded theatre, but it did not explode. The offender was executed by the military.

Drive Rebels From Changsha.

HANKOW, June 17 (AP).—It was reliably reported today that the Nanking forces had recaptured Changsha, capital of Hunan Province, from the Kwangsi Province rebel troops. The Kwangsi rebels took Changsha on their northward march upon the sister cities of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang, but were turned back just short of their objective.

Nanking authorities emphatically asserted that their forces south of Wuchang had routed the Kwangsi rebels and had retaken the city of Yochow. Gunboats of the Nationalists were said to have played an important part in the operations at Yochow.

Although none of these reports could be verified, it seemed evident that the Nanking forces had sharply defeated the central column of the Kwangsi forces which have been marching upon the sister cities.

Destroys Eleven Nanking Planes.

PEKING, June 17 (AP).—Troops belonging to the army of Yen Hsi-shan, Northern leader, were reported today to have occupied the important city of Tsinan. No details were available.

Claims by the Northern coalition that Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang's cavalry for a second time had destroyed the Nanking air base on the Lunghai Railway front were confirmed today by foreign reports reaching here.

Eleven airplanes, some of them just shipped up from Shanghai, were destroyed, seven being set ablaze and the rest hacked to bits with swords. Communiqués issued here announced the capture of two Nanking armored trains operating in that sector.

New Customs Raids Planned.

TIENTSIN, June 17 (AP).—The crisis brought about on Monday by the seizure of the customs facilities here by representatives of Yen Hsi-shan, Governor of Shansi and one of the leaders in the newly proclaimed "National" Government with its capital at Peking, continued today.

Both Colonel Hayley Bell, the Nanking appointee as Commissioner of Customs, and Bertram Lennox Simpson, author and journalist, whom Yen has named as new commissioner, marked time awaiting a reply to Colonel Bell's cablegram to the Inspector General of Customs at Shanghai seeking instructions.

Ex-King Michael Passes Third Form Tests; Will Enroll in Army Next Fall When Nine

Special to The New York Times.

BUCHAREST, June 17.—Little Crown Prince Michael has recently passed his third form tests in the Rumanian national schools. On his ninth birthday, in the Autumn, he is to be enrolled in the army as a recruit, in a Sinaia mountain regiment. Two days after his enrolment he will be promoted to a corporal.

A year later, when he has passed his fourth form examination, Michael will go to a military academy, where he will start learning French. At present, he speaks only English, the language used by the royal family in private, in addition to his native Rumanian.

In Parliament today the new civil list for the royal family was introduced. King Carol is to receive 40,000,000 lei [$240,000] a year, Dowager Queen Marie 20,000,000 lei [$120,000], Queen Helen 7,000,000 lei [$42,000] and Crown Prince Michael also 7,000,000 lei.

George Bratianu today appeared in the Chamber, the first Liberal to do so since the exodus of the party some months ago. In a speech M. Bratianu reproached the official Liberal party for its attitude toward King Carol, emphasizing his loyalty and that of his followers.

SEGRAVE'S BODY CREMATED.

Large Crowd Attends Memorial Service at St. Margaret's, Westminster.

LONDON, June 17 (AP).—The body of Sir Henry Segrave, who died of injuries received when his speedboat, Miss England II, was wrecked on Lake Windermere, was cremated today at Golder's Green.

The ceremony was attended by Lady Segrave, Sir Henry's parents and Lord Wakefield.

At the same hour a large crowd assembled in St. Margaret's Church, Westminster, where a memorial service was held for the dead sportsman.

KINGSFORD-SMITH BALKED.

Weather Report Again Delays Take-Off From Dublin—Flier to Wed.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BALDONNEL AIRDROME, Dublin, June 17.—Major Charles Kingsford-Smith was unable to start today in the Southern Cross on his transatlantic flight. The weather report showed conditions admirable for one-third of the way across the Atlantic, but very bad beyond that.

Major Kingsford-Smith is optimistic over the prospect of starting Thursday morning.

DUBLIN, June 17 (AP).—Major Charles Kingsford-Smith is expected to give up aviation after his Atlantic flight and marry Miss Mary Powell of Melbourne. He will sell the veteran Southern Cross and will return to Melbourne.

A friend said today that Major Kingsford-Smith met Miss Powell while he was on a steamship going to Australia, and that it was love at first sight.

The aviator has telephoned from London to Melbourne several times to chat with his future wife, and he has arranged for an affectionate message to be sent her when the Southern Cross takes off for the United States.

HAPSBURGS. LOSE CLAIM.

Court Rejects Suit to Recover Estates in Former Austrian Poland.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WARSAW, June 17.—The Hapsburg family has finally lost in the Supreme Court its claim against the Polish State to recover its estates in former Austrian Poland, the value of which is estimated at several million dollars. In execution of the treaty of Saint Germain, Poland confiscated all the property belonging to the Hapsburgs in that territory.

The Archdukes Friedrich, Albrecht and Joseph, who are now Polish citizens, maintained that only dynastic estates could be confiscated under the treaty and not the private property of individual members of the family.

Now the Hapsburgs intend to claim indemnification from the former allied powers.

WORLD BANK PLANS MAXIMUM LIQUIDITY

Investing Committee Decides, It Shall Have Greater Mobility Than Any Other Bank.

$155,000,000 NOW ON HAND

Europeans Oppose Stand Taken by Americans That Employes Should Not Get Contracts.

By CLARENCE K. STREIT.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BASLE, Switzerland, June 17.—The investment policy of the Bank for International Settlements is to be one of "extreme" liquidty, reducing its "frozen" funds to a minimum and allowing it much greater mobility of action than any other bank has. This basic principle was decided upon today by the investing committee which the board named yesterday.

Except for this announcement, strict secrecy was maintained on the decisions taken by the committee which ended its work this afternoon. The committee, composed of Montagu Norman, Emile Moreau and Dr. Hans Luther, governors, respectively, of the Banks of England, France and Germany, and of Signor Beneduce, director of the Bank of Italy, met with Gates W. McGarrah, president of the world bank; Leon Fraser, vice president, and Pierre Quesnay, director general.

The above basic policy, it was explained, will naturally be subject to modification as future experience warrants. It will be applied immediately to the funds which the bank already has on its hands, amounting to about $155,000,000.

Reich Pays In $30,000,000.

The bank, it was announced today, received yesterday the first payment by Germany of a sum of about $30,000,000, representing the monthly fraction of the reparations annuity under the Young plan. This means Germany has started paying at the first possible opportunity, for the bank was not open for business at the previous session of the board.

In addition to this sum, the bank's present funds consist of a deposit of $100,000,000, which Germany has already made as required, and $25,000,000, which the Swedish National Bank turned in after floating its section of the first slice of the reparations loan.

The question of whether the staff of the world bank will be employed with or without contracts has been left to the next meeting of the board to decide. The discussion on this point yesterday, however, indicates there is but a very small chance of the American members winning their contention that the American system of hiring without contract should be adopted.

All the European members oppose it, arguing the contract system is necessary, not only because it is customary in all European central banks, but because they doubt the possibility of getting good men to renounce their present jobs and move to Basle without contracts.

Mr. McGarrah and Mr. Fraser have made a strong fight for the American system on the ground that contracts weaken the incentive of men to do their best work and that they proved unsatisfactory when given to employes in the office of the Agent General for Reparations Payments. The best compromise they seem likely to get is that employers of the world bank will be hired on probation for a few months before getting their contracts for several years.

Oslo's Participation Delayed.

The board's decision yesterday to invite the central banks of twelve European countries to subscribe to the stock of the world bank leaves only two important European countries outside—Norway and Spain—unless Turkey is counted as European. Aside from the fact that the issuance of such invitations is left entirely to the board's discretion, specific reasons prevented each of the above countries from being included in the invitations decided on yesterday, though all of them have already shown interest in subscribing to the bank's stock.

The charter of the Bank of Norway will have to be changed before it can be a subscriber. Moreover, Norway, it will be recalled, was one of the three States which brought up at the last League of Nations Assembly the question of establishing a connection between the League and the world bank. Though it subsequently withdrew the motion, the question has had political repercussions in Norway and the Bank of Norway decided it would be best not to ask for the necessary change in its charter until after the approaching parliamenatry elections.

As for Spain and Turkey, neither of them are yet on a gold basis, a condition which is required before a country not directly interested in reparations can subscribe to the stock of the bank. Pressure by the board was directly applied yesterday on Yugoslavia and Portugal to the effect that they must stabilize their currencies before being allowed to subscribe, and this applies indirectly to Spain and Turkey.

The Bank for International Settlements is, moreover, required to deal with central banks and Turkey has no such bank, though its desire to subscribe to the Basle stock may now lead it to establish one.

Britain to Build 10 Naval Craft In First Year Under New Treaty

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—The British naval building program for 1930, which will be announced by A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, in the House of Commons next week, will provide for three cruisers, four destroyers and three submarines, it was learned tonight.

This will be the first building program under the London naval treaty, but Mr. Alexander has found it advisable to limit his program to one year, instead of announcing the entire five year plans immediately. The so-called "escalator clause" in the naval treaty would render a five-year announcement inexpedient, in Mr. Alexander's opinion, since a sudden increase in building by France or Italy might necessitate a complete revision of the British program.

400 CARS OF LUMBER BURN.

Fire at Silesian Station Is One of Many in Poland Due to Drought.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WARSAW, June 17.—Four hundred carloads of lumber were destroyed by fire at the railroad station at Pawontow in Polish Upper Silesia near the German frontier.

Fire brigades, assisted by a regiment of soldiers, dug deep trenches to keep the fire from spreading to the forests near the station belonging to the Prince of Pless. Nevertheless the flames reached German territory. The damage was about $500,000.

Another big fire was reported from Northern Poland near Wolkowsky, where 1,700 acres of pine forest were ablaze. News of serious fires is being received from all parts of Poland, which is suffering from a drought and high temperatures not experienced in June for many years. Temperatures last week ranged from 82

PROVINCES DEFYING VIENNA OVER PABST

STYRIA ALSO REBELLIOUS

Offer of Citizenship in Defiance of Ban Adds to Danger, With the Heimwehr in Ugly Mood.

By JOHN MacCORMAC.
Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

VIENNA, June 17.—The expulsion on Sunday of the German chief of staff of the Austrian Heimwehr, Major Waldemar Pabst, as an undesirable alien who was indulging in illegal political activities in Austria, though welcomed in the majority of newspapers, has aroused a dangerous temper in the Heimwehr.

Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg, commander of the Upper Austrian Heimwehr, after declaring that Major Pabst had been expelled because "the Bolshevist Mayor of Vienna" [Dr. Seitz] rejected his appeal, calls the government's act in expelling him "as inexplicable as it is outrageous" and commands his men to stand by quietly for orders.

Both Dr. Steidle, the Generalissimo of the Heimwehr, and his deputy, Dr. Pfrimer, have launched violent attacks on Chancellor Schober for ordering the deportation of the notorious German counter-revolutionary, Dr. Steidle describing Major Pabst's compulsory airplane flight to Venice at the cost of the State as "martyrdom."

The pro-Heimwehr Governor of Tyrol, Dr. Stumpf, and the Tyrolese local government are in revolt against the action of the Federal Government in Vienna. They sent a member of their government to Dr. Schober yesterday to demand immediate revocation of the order of expulsion.

A secret conference was held at Leoben yesterday, under the protection of the pro-Heimwehr Governor of Styria, Dr. Rintelen, of all Heimwehr leaders to deal with what a Heimwehr communiqué calls the "illegal expulsion of our chief of staff." The decisions taken, according to the communiqué, were absolutely secret. Major Pabst's post was entrusted to his deputy, Herr Rauter.

At a general muster of the Tyrol Heimwehr yesterday at Innsbruck violent attacks were made on the Chancellor and the statement was made that the Heimwehr would not rest until the injustice done to Major Pabst was remedied by his recall. Baron Morsey, Mayor of Hohenbrugg in the Province of Styria, telegraphed offering to grant Major Pabst Austrian citizenship in defiance of the Central Government.

An embarrassing political situation has been created by the insubordinate attitude of Tyrol and Styria towards Vienna as it is within the bounds of possibility that Mayor Pabst will accept some of these suggestions and return to one of the Austrian Federal States, placing the central government in great difficulty. It is doubtful whether Vienna's authority would reach far enough to obtain the rearrest and expulsion of Mayor Pabst from an outlying province having a pro-Heimwehr Governor. All police and military precautions are being fully maintained.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PARIS, June 17.—Jean Charles Millet, grandson of Jean François Millet, the painter of "The Angelus" and "The Man With the Hoe," was sentenced today to a year in prison and fined $2 for giving worthless checks and for fraud.

The case was brought in the court at Melun separately from charges against Millet of selling as his famous grandfather's work numerous pictures in the elder Millet's style painted by a modern artist, Paul Cazot. These charges will be preferred later, as the Millet case is complicated by numerous side issues which were made the basis of today's hearing.

Among the complaints brought today are charges by the Thompson Galleries of London concerning three Daumier drawings and one painting by Daumier and three Rodin statues which the Thompson Galleries commissioned Millet to sell in Paris and which he is said to have disposed of without remunerating the owners. Seven persons to whom Millet gave bad checks testified in court, all describing his convincing and amiable personality.

Millet himself appeared to take the proceedings in the light of a joke. Clad in conspicuous checked trousers and a flowing artist's tie, he appeared much at east but used a deferential tone in addressing the court.

"In America you would be liable to twenty years in prison for giving a bad check," the judge informed him.

"I shall know better than to give bad checks if I ever go there," Millet replied.

Judicial investigators have examined more than 100 witnesses in connection with the alleged false Millet paintings, but the inquiry is not yet completed and no date has been set for the trial.

WAKATSUKI EVADES TOKYO TREATY FIGHT

He Astonishes Japan on Return by Saying He Had Nothing to Do With Decision to Sign.

WON'T AID IN RATIFICATION

Reports to a Special Meeting of the Cabinet Today—15,000 Cheer Him at Kobe.

By WILFRID FLEISHER.
Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

TOKYO, June 17.—With the controversy between the government and the Naval General Staff out of the way, Reijiro Wakatsuki, Japan's chief delegate to the London naval conference, who had been making a leisurely trip home by way of Suez, returned to Japan today. He landed at Kobe from the steamer Kitano-maru amid the acclamations of a crowd of 15,000 who packed the waterfront.

Mr. Wakatsuki, in an interview, said:

"I wish to emphasize that I had nothing to do with the decision to sign the treaty, nor shall I have anything to do with its final ratification by the Privy Council. My task was to help make the treaty."

This statement created astonishment in government circles at Tokyo, which had hoped Mr. Wakatsuki would return openly to champion the treaty and help the work of ratification by the Privy Council.

Mr. Wakatsuki left Kobe tonight for Tokyo and is due here at 9 A. M. tomorrow. He will immediately call upon the Emperor at the imperial palace. He will then attend a special meeting of the Cabinet which has been called to hear him report on the London conference and at which measures for the ratification of the treaty will be discussed. It is expected the treaty will be turned over to the Privy Council for action at the end of the month.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken to protect Mr. Wakatsuki upon his arrival at the Tokyo station after being absent from Japan for more than six months. Twelve hundred policemen have been detailed for this purpose.

The Nichi Nichi, in an editorial, pays tribute to Mr. Wakatsuki, saying Britain and America had reached a previous understanding regarding their navies and that Japan had to meet their combined decisions single-handed. Mr. Wakatsuki fulfilled his mission admirably and brought honor to his country, the paper adds.

War Flier and Pupil Hurt in Crash.

Captain John O. Donaldson, American World War ace and head of the Newark Air Service, and John Powell, 23 years old, of the Hotel Hargrave, a New York student flier, were severely injured shortly before 7 o'clock last night when the training plane in which Powell was receiving a flying lesson crashed into the 35-foot embankment of the elevated motor highway leading from the Newark Airport to the Hudson Tube. The crash was attributed to motor trouble.

Captain Donaldson, who is the son of General T. Q. Donaldson of the United States Army, was taken to the St. James Hospital in Newark for treatment for lacerations and possibly a fractured skull. Powell suffered from shock and a broken right arm, and was taken to St. Barnabas Hospital in Newark. Both were expected to recover.

RUSSO-REICH PARLEY IN 'RAPALLO SPIRIT'

Friendship Reaffirmed by Both as 'Conciliation Conference' Begins in Moscow.

SOVIET TRIUMPH IS SEEN

Relations, Much Strained, Have Been Eased at Time When the Foreign Horizon Is Clouded.

By WALTER DURANTY.
Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MOSCOW, June 17.—The Russo-German conference has begun in an "atmosphere of Rapallo." From the Soviet viewpoint this is a notable diplomatic achievement, considering that the relations between the two countries for the last two years have been somewhat remote—and getting remoter—from the Rapallo spirit.

To an influential section of German opinion said spirit has seemed to become little more than a ghost from the past and it is only a few months since the best informed German newspaper writer on Russian affairs put the question whether the treaty of Rapallo, negotiated in the first flush of the "Nep" [new economic policy], has any serious meaning nowadays, when the "Nep" has been whittled down almost to the vanishing point by Stalinist policy.

The friction between the two countries may be said to have begun with the Shakhta sabotage trial, when German engineers sat in the dock with their Russian colleagues. Since then the breach seemed to widen as the Dawes and Young plans gradually brought Germany nearer to her former enemies in the West. The recent German-Polish agreement came as an unpleasant surprise to Moscow, and it was followed by the increased tariff against Russian grain two months ago, which roused the chief government organ, Izvestiya, to an indignant protest.

German Resentment.

On the German side there has been resentment over alleged Comintern [Communist International] activities in industrial disputes arising from the current world economic depression. It is felt also that the Soviet has shown little practical gratitude for the big State-supported credits which Germany granted at a time when others were reluctant and the Russian need was greatest. In addition, last year's affair of the Mennonite colonists of German stock made bad blood between the two countries for a sentimental but, from the German side, quite natural reason.

Finally, Germany appeared to believe or professed to believe or did believe that the Soviet five-year plan was an impossible chimera whose most probable consequences would be an economic crash, quite possibly with sweeping political results.

In short, one might say that during the height of the Soviet "Leftward swing" at the beginning of this year Russo-German relations were decidedly strained and Rapallo seemed a pallid spectre indeed.

March, however, brought a striking modification in the Kremlin policies, and succeeding months showed more and more that the five-year plan was less chimerical than Germany had supposed. The fact that American concerns and technicians of high standing not only seemed to believe in the "Pyatiletka," but were cooperating in growing numbers doubtless had an effect. Finally, it is possible that the introduction of the Young plan fixed for the time being Germany's relations with the West and gave her leisure, not to say a fresh motive, to turn her eyes Eastward.

Credit Scheme Operative.

It is also possible that the Soviet, strained to the limit of her endurance by the five-year plan, hoped or hopes for a renewal of the German State credit scheme, which it is worth noting, never entirely ceased to function despite the less cordial relations. At any rate, whatever the motives on either side, the fact remains that from March onward the two countries set themselves pretty seriously to the task of improving relations and reducing the causes of mutual friction by diplomatic conversations.

These conversations culminated a few days ago in a joint announcement about the opening of the so-called conciliation conference in Moscow. The announcement contained a reference to the "spirit of Rapallo," which in Germany apparently and here undoubtedly is regarded as a diplomatic success for the Soviet.

Izvestia's editorial on the following day was animated, if one might say so, by the smile of the cat that swallowed the canary, for at the moment when the Soviet was highly apprehensive about foreign affairs, the Polish war danger, Papal denunciation and the campaign against "Soviet dumping," Germany had put her signature to a document reaffirming the Rapallo friendship. To the unbiased observer it might indeed seem that Germany had made a useless discard of a valuable trump in the diplomatic game which began here yesterday.

The Soviet Government today issues a communiqué with the opening speeches of its representative, M. Stomanyakov, and Herr von Raumer. M. Stomanyakov stressed the fact that Herr von Raumer played an important rôle in the Rapallo negotiations and the German delegate replied:

"I wish to assure you that my viewpoint has not changed since the moment the Rappallo treaty was concluded."

It is significant that today's Izvestia states that there will be no discussion at the conference of "the political question"—meaning, of course, alleged Bolshevist propaganda or interference in German industrial disputes.

HAYS TO SEEK PEACE IN SOUND FILM WAR

Will Preside at Conference of Americans and Germans in Paris, Opening Tomorrow.

PATENT RIGHTS INVOLVED

Issue Is Complicated by Exclusive Grant to Warner Interests to Enter German Market.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PARIS, June 17.—Will H. Hays, arbiter of the American motion picture industry, reached France today on the Leviathan to attend a series of conferences between representatives of the American and German film industries which may have a far-reaching influence upon the future of sound and talking films.

Originally scheduled for St. Moritz, the scene of the meetings has been changed to Paris. A large delegation of officials of German electrical and film companies will arrive here early Thursday afternoon. The first session will be held later the same afternoon.

John Otterson, representing the Western Electric Company, and J. C. Graham, European manager for the Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation, are among the Americans who will attend. Mr. Hays has come to Paris at the earnest request of both parties to the controversy, and his aim will be to lay the foundation for sustained cooperation between the rival forces and thereby to prevent a dangerous world trade war in talking and sound pictures and projection machinery.

Will Discuss Patents.

The conferences also will try to solve the highly technical and involved question of patent rights, an issue which has kept American sound and talking films out of the German market for nearly a year and has caused a loss of many millions of dollars not only to the American industry but to German theatre owners as well.

The German market is one of the most important export fields, and it is the only one in which the Americans have been prevented from selling and installing American sound-reproducing apparatus. In England, France, Italy and other countries, most of the first-class cinemas are equipped with American sound apparatus.

The German sound film apparatus companies, Tobis and Klangfilm, with the backing of powerful electrical interests in Germany, aspire to share the world markets with the American industry. Amsterdam bankers, behind a group under the name of Kuchenmeister, have succeeded in obtaining control of all German sound film patents until 1935.

German sound-projection apparatus appeared in the German market and elsewhere at almost the same time as American equipment. A court fight soon developed, during which the Germans charged the American manufacturing concerns with the violation of certain of their patents. The German high courts later sustained the contention of their nationals, with the result that the Americans were forced to withdraw from Germany.

New Deal Complicates Issue.

Recently, however, the issue has become complicated by an arrangement negotiated by Warner Brothers-First National Pictures Corporation with the controlling Kuchenmeister group in Amsterdam, under the terms of which Warner-First National obtain exclusive rights to show their product in the German-controlled markets. This has barred all other American companies.

During a recent visit to Berlin Adolph Zukor was instrumental in arranging the conferences which are to begin here Thursday.

The Germans are coming prepared for a bitter struggle. They are credited with the decision to demand as a basis for opening their market to all American companies 3 per cent of the gross receipts from the projection of American sound and talking films in Europe.

A mutual understanding, dividing the German and other markets, is regarded as a probable outcome of the meetings. In this event, the American industry may find itself in the position of sharing a vast new source of income in a new branch of the film business in which it is now the unquestioned leader.

In a formal statement issued this evening, Mr. Hays expressed his hope that the conferences may advance mutual and sympathetic understandings and may promote "the will to cooperate."

"Sound has brought a new dimension to the screen and is bringing more problems for solution," Mr. Hays said. "Increasingly the need arises for a world view of the entire industry, if one is to keep these new developments in their proper focus. I shall accept the opportunities with great pleasure for a first-hand exchange of views with many of those who are contributing so much and so splendidly to the development of the motion picture art in Europe."

WOMAN DOCTOR HONORED.

Mme. Bertrand Fontaine Is First to Be Attached to Paris Hospitals.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PARIS, June 17.—A woman, for the first time, became a fully accredited physician attached to the Paris hospitals today when a jury of eminent doctors named Mme. Bertrand Fontaine as one of three candidates chosen from a long list of competitors.

Mme. Bertrand Fontaine is 34 years of age and has devoted her entire life to medical studies. She successfully passed the long series of examinations required for the post, having begun her studies as a pupil of the famous Professor Widal.

Mme. Bertrand Fontaine will become assistant to Dr. Abrams at the Hôpital de la Charité.

DISORDERS MARK HANGING OF ARABS

British Police Chief Is Wounded by Jaffa Rioters as 3 Die at Acre for Murder of Jews.

GENERAL STRIKE IN TOWNS

Police Clash With Students, Arrest 4 in Jerusalem—Arab Leader Pledges Peace.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

ACRE, Palestine, June 17.—Three Arabs, Fuad El Hedjazi, Mohammed Khalil Jumjum and Atta Ahmed Elzeer, paid the supreme penalty in the Acre prison this morning for having murdered Jews almost ten months ago during the riots, despite many efforts to save the condemned men.

Fuad El Hedjazi, who murdered his Hebrew teacher and another Jew in Safed and who was recognized by the daughter of the latter when he appeared at a hospital ward, was the first to be hanged, at 8 o'clock, attempts to obtain postponement of the execution on the basis of a confession of his brother having failed. Atta Elzeer, convicted of the murder of the noted Sephardic Rabbi Castel at Hebron, was hanged at 9 o'clock, his two wailing wives being among the relatives specially allowed in the prison environs. Mohammed Jumjum mounted the gallows an hour later.

Contrary to Oriental custom, the prison authorities first refused to hand over the bodies to the relatives for private burial, evidently fearing demonstrations, but the Arab Executive later undertook to prevent demonstrations and the bodies were turned over to the shrieking families for burial.

All day long a strong guard was maintained, the police forbidding the people to walk in the streets until 11 o'clock and military and police cordons guarding the prison, a medieval fortress deriving its name from St. Joan of Arc.

Arabs in all the towns observed mourning, the Arab Executive having proclaimed that the day should be henceforth observed as a memorial day, while at the same time exhorting all to keep calm. Nevertheless clashes with the police occurred this morning in Jerusalem and Jaffa.

Shops in Jerusalem Closed.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

JERUSALEM, June 17.—All Arab shops and offices were closed here today as a result of determined picketing activities because of the hangings at Acre. Near the Jaffa gate the pickets attacked an Arab car, declaring the chauffeur was a "blackleg" and threatening to lynch him, but Arab police, headed by a British officer, forcibly dispersed them.

At the Damascus gate a group of students began hanging black flags on the Arab Executive offices, facing the government offices, and clashed with the police, who used truncheons. Four Arab youths, including a teacher at St. George's Missionary School, were arrested.

At Jaffa this morning a British police captain, F. M. Scott, was severely beaten and stabbed in the head while trying to disperse a crowd in the principal square awaiting news of the hangings.

The general strike called by the Arab Executive was restricted to the principal towns, and building and road laborers did not participate.

A last-minute attempt to save the condemned was made by the Emir Abdullah of Transjordania, who, it was reported, flew in a special plane to Jerusalem last night, to see the High Commissioner, Sir John Chancellor.

A member of the Arab Executive who is opposed to the Grand Mufti said to your correspondent this evening:

"The executions will not directly or even indirectly bring about new disturbances, and, unless special and unforeseeable provocation arises on either side, no such disturbances will ever occur again."

The British police chief at Hebron, Captain Lamont, according to an Arabic newspaper, today summoned the highest Moslem ecclesiastic at Hebron and said:

"I hear that you are summoning your people to gatherings and that it is your intention to incite the people against the government. I hereby notify you that the police will not hesitate to fire upon provocative elements."

Einstein Asked for Mercy.

BERLIN, June 17 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency).—Speaking as Zionists and non-Zionists, Dr. Albert Einstein, Oscar Cohen, former Socialist member of the Reichstag; Rabbi Check and Ernest Toller signed a telegram that was sent today to Sir John Chancellor, High Commissioner of Palestine, urging him to pardon the three condemned Arabs as an action which would facilitate Arab-Jewish good-willing."

United States Also Deposits Ratification of Convention on Duties in Case of Civil Strife.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The ratification by the United States of the convention on the status of aliens and the convention on the rights and duties of States in the event of civil strife, both signed at the Sixth International Conference of American States at Havana in 1928, have been deposited with the Pan-American Union. With the ratification by the United States the convention on the status of aliens has now been ratified and is now in force between four countries, the other ratifying States being Brazil, Nicaragua and Panama.

The convention on the rights and duties of States in the event of civil strife has been ratified by Brazil, Mexico, Nicaragua and Panama in addition to the United States.

Announcement was also made by the Pan-American Union today that the government of Honduras has deposited the instrument of ratification of the Code of Private International Law, signed at the same conference, and of the deposit by Nicaragua of the convention of diplomatic officers, also signed at the Sixth International Conference of American States.

The Code on Private International Law has now been ratified by ten countries, as follows:

Brazil, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru.

The convention on diplomatic officers has now been ratified by Brazil, Mexico, Panama and Venezuela, in addition to Nicaragua.

CAIRO CABINET RESIGNS; WINS CONFIDENCE VOTE

Chamber Backs Premier's Stand on Constitution After He Gives Resignation to King.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

CAIRO, June 17.—A constitutional crisis was reached here today when Premier Nahas Pasha proceeded to the palace and tendered the resignation of his Cabinet. The terms of his resignation were not disclosed officially, nor has the resignation been accepted by King Fuad.

Tonight, however, contrary to all constitutional practice, Premier Nahas Pasha, at a sitting of the Chamber, asked for and obtained a vote of confidence. The vote was accorded unanimously.

Nahas Pasha, addressing the House briefly, explained the reasons for his resignation. It was due, he said, to the government's inability to lay before the Chamber a draft of a law intended to establish a Constitution for all time.

When the Cabinet assumed office, he declared, it pledged itself to defend the Constitution by surrounding it with a legislative wall in order to insure its continued life and growth. The Cabinet's inability to submit a draft of the law [through the King's action, although he did not mention this] rendered the Cabinet's resignation necessary, he said.

Nahas Pasha's speech was received in absolute silence, but subsequently several Deputies revealed in their speeches the high tension existing and their determination to continue the constitutional struggle. One speaker was called to order by the president for a veiled reference to the King when he declared "the people are ready to crush the biggest head in the country," in their effort to maintain the Constitution.

DENY VEGETABLE DUMPING.

Wholesalers Say Oversupply Exists Only in "Off Grade" Merchandise.

Wholesale vegetable dealers denied yesterday that more than 1,000,000 pounds of fresh vegetables had been thrown out as the result of a glutted market. While admitting that a surplus of vegetables was on hand, they explained that the oversupply existed only in off-grade merchandise and that the demand for first-grade fruit and vegetables equaled the supply.

Harvey Baum, general manager of the Atlantic Commission Company, denied emphatically that there was an oversupply of the first-grade vegetables. H. L. Huber, New York manager for the American Fruit Growers, Inc., said wholesalers were selling all of their shipments of vegetables. An official of Jill Brothers, Inc., produce merchants, also discounted reports of a seriously glutted market. He admitted there was a surplus, but said it was being dissipated by low prices. He said the situation would adjust itself when farmers realized that it was better to plow excess crops under the soil as prices paid for picking and shipping did not justify harvesting when an oversupply existed.

INDIA IS CALMER, VICEROY REPORTS

Official Statement Declares Opposition to Nationalist Campaign Is Growing.

TRIBESMEN CAUSE CONCERN

Seditious Propaganda Admittedly Going On in Peshawar District—Bombay Picketing Continues.

BOMBAY, June 17 (AP).—An official statement covering the Indian situation for last week, issued tonight, indicates that the government believes the unrest caused by the Nationalist campaign is diminishing.

"There are signs in some parts of the country," says the document, "that, although members of the Congress are in no way relaxing their efforts, misgivings have increased regarding their aims and methods among many who were at first inclined to view the civil disobedience movement with toleration, if not with approval.

"Active opposition on the part of those who frankly disapprove of it is steadily increasing with the belief that it is doomed to failure."

The statement declares that aerial operations have been successful in driving back individual forces of wild tribesmen on the Northwest Frontier, but admits that there is no material change regarding the general unrest in the Peshawar area.

The government announced that propaganda was being actively spread among the frontier tribesmen, the method being the dispatch among the tribes of "emissaries carrying baskets full of bloodstained clothing (in some cases procured with the assistance of local butchers) and other tokens of alleged wholesale massacre."

Another official announcement said that the Viceroy's new ordinance aimed at the prevention of intimidation has been applied in the Punjab.

Despite numerous arrests, to which the Mahatma Gandhi followers submitted without protest, other Nationalists today picketed foreign cloth shops and saloons in the European area of Bombay. The police began arrests immediately, hauling away the volunteers truckload by truckload.

Most of those arrested yesterday were sentenced to four months' rigorous imprisonment each. Sentences of six months' rigorous imprisonment were passed today on Messrs. Majrekar and Durandhar, joint secretaries of the Bombay Indian Congress committee, and Maneklal Gandhi, editor of the Congress Bulletin. They were charged with violating orders against processions.

The picketing campaign has greatly reduced the number of shops which sell toddy, the native liquor. Licenses sold at the yearly auction yesterday brought only about $750, as compared with $110,000 the previous year.

STATESMAN TO SOUND GANDHI ON COMPROMISE

London Herald Writer Denies Interviewer Is Empowered to Negotiate With Mahatma.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—George Slocombe, who in some Indian quarters has been described as the unofficial Ambassador in India of Prime Minister MacDonald, cabling to his newspaper, The Daily Herald, from Bombay tonight, says considerable interest has been aroused in Bombay today by reports that secret negotiations had been begun with Mahatma Gandhi.

The fact is, he says, that Sir Brabhashanker Pattani has received permission for an interview with Gandhi in the Central Yerovda prison, near Poona, with a view of discovering what possibilities of compromise exist.

Sir Brabhashanker is a veteran statesman who has administered the small State of Bhaunagar in behalf of the Young Maharajah. He is an old friend of Gandhi and, according to Mr. Slocombe, enjoys the confidence of the British Indian authorities. As an official of an Indian State, he is not involved in the conflict between the Government of India and the civil disobedience forces, and for that reason his suggestion that he talk things over with Gandhi was acceded to.

"There is no question of his being invested with an official mission," says Mr. Slocombe, "but I have good reason to believe that both the government of India and the government of Bombay attach some importance to his visit to Gandhi." This, Mr. Slocombe explains, is because it is believed the disobedience campaign is weakening and its leader might be found disposed to agree to calling off the movement in return for a generous gesture by the government, including general amnesty for political prisoners, though this optimism Mr. Slocombe fears, is somewhat premature.

Considers Canonization of Three.

VATICAN CITY, June 17 (AP).—The Congregation of Sacred Rites this morning resumed consideration of the cause for canonization of the blessed John Bosco, founder of the Salesian order, who was beatified last June. Also studied were the causes for canonization of Sir Thomas More, once Chancellor of England, and Cardinal John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester, England, in the sixteenth centtury.

REPORTS RUM FLEET IS PLYING COAST

Boston Newspaper Tells of Armada as Canada's Exports to St. Pierre Quadruple.

FLOW TO BERMUDA SOARS

Leaps From 222 Gallons of Whisky in May, 1929, to 14,542 in May This Year.

BOSTON, June 17 (AP).—The Boston Traveler today says that the new Canadian law prohibiting exports of liquor to the United States has sent "the most completely organized and equipped armada of rum ships ever reported" surging down the Atlantic seaboard. The Traveler quotes Captain William H. Munter of the United States Coast Guard and an unidentified wholesale bootlegger and says the pictures drawn by the two tally in nearly every respect.

As a result of the passage of the new law, The Traveler says, the centre of the rum-running industry shifted to the Atlantic, and ships capable of carrying loads of from 25,000 cases up, the paper says, now clear from St. Pierre and transfer their cargoes at points from 50 to 120 miles from the American shore to smaller, fast motor cruisers.

Operating with the fleet, The Traveler says, are these "mother ships" and light cruisers, fast scouting craft, unlicensed radio stations and an intricate spy system.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 17 (Canadian Press).—The islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, French possessions off the Newfoundland coast, are becoming increasingly the distribution base of liquor, particularly since Canada prohibited the export of this commodity to countries into which its importation was forbidden by law. The supplies which were formerly exported from Windsor, Ont., to the United States are apparently now being diverted to St. Pierre and Miquelon, with the result that the export figures from Canada to these islands show a large increase over last year.

In May, 1929, the Dominion exported 16,114 gallons of spirits to St. Pierre; last month the exports were 98,492 gallons, returns to the Department of National Revenue show.

Whether the island of Bermuda is similarly to become a base for distribution may be problematical, but the figures of exports to that British possession for May, 1929, were 222 gallons of whisky, and for May, 1930, 14,542 gallons.

The decrease in exports to the United States during the month was not very marked. The liquor export act did not become law until near the end of May; consequently there was a large rush of exportation during that period of the month when it was still lawful. It is expected that figures for June will show a distinct drop.

In May, 1929, Canada exported 94,980 gallons of whisky to the United States, and in May, 1930, 92,278 gallons. Of these quantities 54,722 gallons and 52,197 gallons, respectively, went from Windsor, Ont.

DANISH RULERS LEAVE FOR FETE IN ICELAND

27 Guns Boom as King and Queen Sail—Hosts Worry Because They Have No Guns.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

COPENHAGEN, June 17.—King Christian and Queen Alexandrine of Denmark left aboard the naval ship Niels Juel this afternoon to attend the Icelandic jubilee festivities. Thousands hailed the royal couple with cheers and a salute of twenty-seven guns from the fortifications thundered over the harbor and the town.

When the Niels Juel passed Elsinore, renewed salutes thundered. The royal couple will arrive in Iceland on June 25.

The Icelandic festivities will attract guests and official representatives from all over the world, bringing greetings to the world's oldest Parliament, which on June 26 1,000 years ago held its first meeting. Among the guests are delegates from the United States Congress and the British royal house and Government. The Norwegian royal house was to have been represented by Crown Prince Olaf, but doctors said he ought not to leave the Crown Princess until three weeks after her confinement.

The festivities will extend over three days and so many thousands are expected that many will spend the nights in a town of tents erected on historic Thingvalla Plain.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, June 17 (AP).—The question of saluting King Christian and others of the anniversary visitors for whom étiquette demands salvos of gunfire today formed a serious problem.

The simple reason is that Iceland possesses no guns.

Officials today were trying to arrange with the Danish warships Fylla and Hvibjoern to fire the required salute.

RAISE SUBMARINE IN TEST.

New London Base Officers Deem Experiment Successful.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 17 (AP).—Satisfaction was expressed today by officers of the submarine base with tests completed yesterday in Long Island Sound of submarine salvage equipment.

The O-4, which had been submerged in sixty feet of water, was raised to the surface by the steamer Chewink in six hours.

The O-4 ran to a location some distance from the Chewink and after settling to the bottom of the Sound, sent up a marking buoy to the surface. A diver from the salvage boat connected air hose to the submarine and made other connections which made possible the transfer of food, coffee and water to the crew of the submarine.

The submarine rose to the surface after air had been pumped by the salvage ship into its water-filled tanks.

DEBATE BROADCAST ON PRICE-FIXING BILL

B. H. Namm, Retailer, Assails Capper-Kelly Proposal, but Manufacturer Backs It.

UNECONOMIC, NAMM HOLDS

Milton Damman Says, However, Law Will Lower Costs for Goods of Higher Quality.

The Capper-Kelly bill now before Congress, which would enable manufacturers of trade-marked products to fix the retail prices of the products, was the subject of a debate over WOR last night between Milton Dammann, president of the American Safety Razor Company, who spoke in favor of the bill, and Major B. H. Namm, head of the Namm store, Brooklyn, who opposed the measure.

Maintaining that such a law was sound and highly beneficial, Mr. Dammann declared that "only where unbridled price-cutting dominates" are increase of output and lower cost jeopardized. As an example, Mr. Dammann cited the automobile industry, where the development of lower costs and higher quality has proceeded hand in hand with fixed prices.

"What is true of automobiles is true in every line," Mr. Dammann declared. "The producer of an identified product dare not make the price too high or the public will not buy. He is more concerned about a low price than any one else, for the lower the price the wider the market. It is claimed that to restrict price-cutting is to restrict competition. Just the opposite is true. Unrestricted price-cutting on standard goods eliminates competition by destroying competitors. Price maintenance increases competition among producers striving to win the approval of the public."

England and other countries have found the method embodied in the bill desirable and beneficial to the public interest, Mr. Dammann pointed out, urging that the United States follow the example.

Arguing that price fixing runs counter to the law of supply and demand, Mr. Namm opposed the bill as unfair, un-American and against the interests of the consuming public.

"Along with the great majority of retailers, I am opposed to price fixing because it will tend to destroy competition, and we still believe in the old doctrine that competition is the life of trade," Mr. Namm said. "This bill is against the interest of the general public and will raise the cost of living. It will foster monopolies among manufacturers. It will change the retailer from a buyer for the public to a selling agent for the manufacturer. It will prevent the prompt reduction of retail prices to keep pace with corresponding declines in manufacturing costs.

"It runs counter to the basic law of supply and demand," Mr. Namm added. "It will abolish free and open competition among retailers. It will discriminate between neighboring communities. It is class legislation, solely in the interest of the manufacturer and against the interest of the consuming public. It is opposed to the interest of labor and the farmer, as evidenced by their expressed opposition, and, last but not least, price fixing will tend to break down and destroy the initiative of American business."

CRAIN LINKS WALSH TO SINCLAIR DEAL

Says Chairman Went Abroad With Oil Official and Later Granted 4 Permits to Him.

CHECKS UP BANK ACCOUNT

Fails to Find Withdrawals to Pay for Fare—Appeals Board Head Before Grand Jury.

While William E. Walsh, Chairman of the Board of Standards and Appeals, was being questioned yesterday by the Federal grand jury, District Attorney Crain received information which, he said later, had enabled him to link Mr. Walsh's voyage to Germany last Summer with the action of his board in granting four gasoline and oil station permits to the Sinclair Refining Company and the Sinclair Consolidated Company.

Mr. Walsh and Thomas W. White, consulting engineer who represented the Sinclair companies before the Board of Standards and Appeals, occupied the same stateroom aboard the North German Loyd liner Bremen on her first sailing from this port, according to the District Attorney.

Mr. Crain said also that, while Mr. Walsh had paid $1,017 in cash for a round trip aboard the Bremen, the transcripts of his bank accounts showed no withdrawal anywhere near the date of the purchase of the ticket of any sum even approximating $1,000. The records showed that the Sinclair Refining Company, on June 28, 1929, had paid Mr. White $2,007.23 for his services. He also paid $1,017 for his passage aboard the Bremen, but gave the steamship a check for that sum.

White Is a Witness.

Mr. Crain's announcement of this new line of inquiry in his investigation of the Board of Standards and Appeals assumed added significance when it was learned that Mr. White was a witness before the county grand jury yesterday and that another witness examined was a cashier of the Sinclair Refining Company. Mr. White was reported to have told investigators outside the grand jury room that neither he nor his company had paid Mr. Walsh's passage on the voyage to Germany.

The District Attorney made the following statement about the new development in the inquiry:

"On July 27, when the North German Lloyd liner Bremen sailed on her maiden trip from New York, Thomas W. White, consulting engineer of the Sinclair Consolidated Company and the Sinclair Refining Company, occupied the same stateroom with William E. Walsh, chairman of the Board of Standards and Appeals.

"Prior to that the two companies had made five applications to the Board of Standards and Appeals for oil and gasoline stations. All except one of these applications was successful. [It was learned later that the unsuccessful application had later been withdrawn.] White represented the companies on these applications.

"On June 28, 1929, the refining company drew a check for $2,077.23 and gave it to White. On July 21 of that year Walsh paid $1,107 in cash to the Times Square Travel Bureau for a round trip on the Bremen. The next day White gave a check for a similar amount for his trip. Walsh's bank transcript shows no withdrawal between June 15 and July 21, 1929, of any sum near $1,000.

"I am making further inquiry and may be able to produce some testimony before the investigation now pending closes."

Walsh to Return Today.

Mr. Walsh was before the Federal grand jury for an hour yesterday and has been instructed to return for further questioning this morning. He was examined by Assistant United States Attorneys Lowell Wadmond and John A. Wilson. The chairman had spent about an hour presiding over the regular Tuesday meeting of the Board of Standards and Appeals, which he was compelled to leave before adjournment in obedience to the grand jury subpoena.

Mr. Walsh went to the Federal Building alone and told photographers there that he "did not fancy" being photographed as he had been "shot at enough." He refused to say anything about what had occurred in the grand jury room. Mr. Tuttle said later that Mr. Walsh had answered all questions asked him thus far and that his assistants, Mr. Wadmond and Mr. Wilson, had offered no criticism of his conduct before the grand jury.

Although Mr. Tuttle would not discuss the line of investigation followed while Mr. Walsh was a witness, it is known that the Federal grand jury is now seeking to learn the identities of persons with whom Dr. William F. Doyle split his $2,000,000 or more in fees received for work done before the Board of Standards and Appeals in behalf of applicants for various kinds of permits.

New Federal Grand Jury.

The June morning Federal grand jury took over the Board of Standards and Appeals investigation yesterday from the May grand jury which handed up the indictments against Doyle and a presentment calling for a more general investigation of the Doyle matter and also the activities of former Judge W. Bernard Vause, now on trial for using the mails to defraud.

Mr. Tuttle said that, in addition to Mr. Walsh, there would be two more witnesses before the grand jury this morning in connection with the inquiry. He said these witnesses were not public officials, but refused to disclose their identities.

District Attorney Crain presented to the grand jury yesterday testimony with respect to the so-called Brigulio case in which it has appeared that the Board of Standards and Appeals granted a garage permit in Woodhaven, Queens, despite strong objection by adjacent property owners, and even ignored a complaint sent to the Mayor and forwarded by him to the board.

The county grand jury also heard testimony in the case of J. P. Carey and his son Frank, who applied for a permit for the erection of an apartment house at the northeast corner of East Eighteenth Street and Cortelyou Road, Brooklyn. Carey and his son appeared as witnesses.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MADRID, June 17.—More than 2,000 children of Barcelona are suffering from effects of the sun, to which they were exposed in somewhat unusual circumstances.

Thirty thousand children were assembled for a Catholic open-air festival for which they wore masks as the only head covering. During the recital of prayers many of the smaller children found these unbearable in the hot sun and removed them. When the assemblage broke up it was noticed that hundreds of them were still in a praying position, suffering from sunstroke.

Many were treated at a hospital, but all are expected to recover.

BAR SILVER PRICE DROP IS SERIOUS FOR MEXICO

Aggravates a Situation Already Acute—Forthcoming Mining Congress Holds Hopes.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MEXICO CITY, June 17.—The latest drop in the price of bar silver in New York to about 34 cents gold a troy ounce has further affected Mexico's principal source of income and aggravated a situation which long since became acute.

The International Mining Congress will be held soon in this city to seek means to alleviate the situation in the silver market. Mexico is the leading producer of silver, with the United States second. Under normal conditions Mexico produces 100,000,000 ounces annually and the United States, 60,000,000 ounces.

Many Mexican mines, with official approval, have been closed down, with resulting distress for the miners. The accentuated situation due to the latest fall in the price of silver has become a problem brooking no delay.

Many Mexican silver mines do not conduct their own smelters. The transportation of thousands of tons of ore is a principal consideration in the financial reorganization of the Mexican National Railways.

FIVE JOIN EDISON CONTEST.

Competitors From Four Western States Are Announced.

Special to The New York Times.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., June 17.—Five State competitors in the second Thomas A. Edison scholarship contest, which will open late next month, were announced today by Frank R. Schell of the Edison Industries, West Orange. They are:

ARKANSAS—Flournoy W. Sims, Little Rock.
IDAHO—James Harold Wayland, Boise.
NEBRASKA—Darrett Hollister, Irvington.
OKLAHOMA—James H. Emory, Ada.
CONNECTICUT—George Dudley Mylchreest, Hartford.

The winner of the contest, in which boys from each State and the District of Columbia will compete, will receive a four-year technical college education. To date, sixteen boys have been named.

VAUSE IS PICTURED AS DEFRAUDING POOR

counsel, Nathan D. Perlman, had sought vainly for a postponement, was dramatic. He had not answered to his name when the clerk called the roll of the defendants, and after a moment's delay Mr. Perlman announced that, the "judge is coming."

Spectators clambered up on their seats. Those in the hall thrust their way past bailiffs to stand five deep along the rail around the counsel tables. A hush fell upon the room. Louis Vause, tall and heavy-set with lips which turn down so sharply at the corners that they form a semicircle, entered the court room first. He stalked nonchalantly through the crowd to his seat.

Although Mr. Vause has always worn glasses they were missing yesterday so that the blue circles beneath his bloodshot, staring eyes stood out prominently against the ashen pallor of his skin. His face was devoid of any expression and his eyes rolled as though they could not focus upon any object. It seemed as though he was trying to blot out the picture before them and convince himself that reality was false.

With the plodding uncertain steps of a somnambulist he walked over to his chair but did not at once sit down. His brother, Dr. Vause, thrust him gently into his place. Mr. Vause tossed his head far back and sat limply for a moment with his mouth wide open until Dr. Vause began to massage the back of his neck to soothe him. In a moment the distraught man arose from his seat and stared forward at the door of the court room as though bent on flight. Dr. Vause drew him back and the trial proceeded with the chief defendant seemingly on the verge of collapse, paying no attention to his surroundings.

Judge Coxe, a frown upon his face, seemed studying the behavior of the former county judge, who kept his own eyes averted. The faces of the court room crowd who had witnessed the spectacle were a study, too, but it was not pity that was written upon them. Men have gone on trial for murder with more composure than was shown by Mr. Vause.

The other defendants were interested but calm throughout the day in the sultry court room. They are, besides Louis Vause, Samuel Schuchman, William Rayman, Harry Cruso, Samuel Cruso and Max Barmack. So desolate was the demeanor of Mr. Vause that it received official cognizance from Mr. Tuttle in his examination of talesmen.

"If the behavior of one of the defendants should continue day after day, would it influence your verdict?" he asked several times.

Mr. Perlman also hinted that his client might be unable to take the witness stand in his own defense because of his condition.

Other questions revealed that Mr. Tuttle wanted no members of political clubs on the jury, and that Mr. Perlman and the lawyers associated with him in the defense were anxious to prevent victims of stock frauds from obtaining seats in the jury box.

The jury, as it finally was completed about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, was as follows:

HARRY F. GALL, clothing manufacturer, 226 East Nineteenth Street, foreman.
THOMAS A. JAMES, superintendent, 205 West Fifty-seventh Street.
A. J. MICHELBACKER, real estate operator, 200 West Seventieth Street.
EDWARD S. MORTON, salesman, 885 West End Avenue.
NORMAN INSLEY, barge captain, 120 East Eighty-third Street.
HUGH HEMINGWAY, real estate operator, 116 East Fifty-sixth Street.
GEORGE WILLIAMS, salesman, 3,810 Broadway.
WILLIAM STARK, painter, 3,378 Fort Independence Street.
JACOB POLANSKY, cloaks, 884 West End Avenue.
WILLIAM JAMES MORRIS, salesman, 6 West 107th Street.
ALFRED KATZ, agent, 501 West 110th Street.
MAX RICHTER, musician, 170 East Ninety-first Street.

As soon as the jury was sworn in Mr. Tuttle began his opening address. Eschewing all dramatics, with his back turned to the defendants, the United States Attorney outlined in a low voice the basis of the charges against them. The defendants, he explained, are being tried jointly on two indictments, one of twelve counts charging mail fraud, and the other charging conspiracy.

The object of the Columbia Finance Corporation, Mr. Tuttle said, was to wheedle dollars from the foreign population of the city for the furtherance of private speculations of its officers and directors, while giving the impression that it was "an honest, well-conducted financial institution."

Mr. Vause, in his capacity of County Judge furthered the illusion, Mr. Tuttle said, by delivering addresses every time a new branch office was opened in a congested section of the city. He allowed himself to be introduced as a "large stockholder," and according to Mr. Tuttle, said on one occasion that he wished he "had another $100,000 to invest in the company," although the government contends that he received a one-sixth interest in the corporation without putting up a dollar.

At first the company managed to pay dividends and interest out of fresh money brought in by "the come-on literature," Mr. Tuttle said. After the depression in the stock market last Autumn many depositors began withdrawing their money. The defendants, "concerned lest the arm of the law reach out," met to discuss the situation, Mr. Tuttle said. On this occasion, the prosecutor continued, Mr. Vause suggested that they establish a "main office" in Brooklyn "so that if anything happened he could take care of it by reason of his influence and position."

As a result the company rented a small room in Brooklyn and installed a telephone. The bankruptcy proceedings which developed finally were brought in Brooklyn and at that time Mr. Vause advised his codefendants "to tell as little as possible and leave my name out of it."

"'You have nothing to worry about; the Federal people aren't in this,'" Mr. Tuttle quoted the former judge as saying.

Before the crash came, however, false assets were written on the books of the company, as loans to certain business firms, Mr. Tuttle charged.

"But the money was all going out," Mr. Tuttle continued. "There was no source from which money could be made. If the people demanded the return of their money, obviously there would be a shortage. They did demand their money and Judge Vause's men came to him to get them out of their difficulty. He told them to redouble their efforts to get more money."

It was at this stage of the game that Mr. Vause turned to Montgomery, a former client who had served two years in Atlanta for mail fraud in another case, the prosecution charged. Montgomery would testify for the government that his aid in saving the company from ruin was sought by Mr. Vause, Mr. Tuttle said.

Although more than $400,000 had been paid into the company by small investors and depositors, Mr. Tuttle said it had less than $2,000 in its treasury when it failed and had been insolvent since the time it started.

When Mr. Tuttle finished his address Judge Coxe adjourned court until this morning when the first witnesses for the government will apppear. Mr. Perlman indicated he would delay his opening until the government's case is in.

Mr. Perlman's appearance as trial counsel was a surprise, for on Monday he had informed Judge Coxe he would not appear as counsel for the former judge at the trial. Robert H. Elder, a former Assistant District Attorney, and a friend of Mr. Vause, came to court apparently ready to undertake the defense of Mr. Vause, but declined to do so when he learned that no adjournment would be granted to permit him to familiarize himself with details of the case.

NO WONDER YOU FEEL SICK

When Constipation Gets Its Grip You Can't Keep Well. What You Need Is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

That tired feeling, that persistent headache, that bad breath are often symptoms of constipation.

There is only one thing to do—clean out your system. Do it now or you may be seriously sick. Your intestines are clogged because you have not eaten enough roughage. And there is no better roughage than that healthful, appetizing cereal—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is a natural food that brings natural results regularly. Its fiber content sweeps the intestines clean of poisonous wastes. Much better than habit-forming pills which become useless unless their dose is increased.

In addition, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is rich in iron. Scientific research has proved that practically all of this iron goes into the blood—bringing the glowing color of health to the complexion and strengthening the entire body. A wonderful way to enjoy keeping well!

You will like the nut-sweet flavor of ALL-BRAN. Ready-to-eat with milk or cream—fruits or honey. By letting ALL-BRAN soak a few moments in milk or cream, its rich flavor is brought out.

Use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in making muffins and hot breads. Recipes on the package. Sprinkle it into soups, on salads. Mix it in scrambled eggs or meat loaf, add it to every diet.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—recurrent cases, with every meal. Sold by all grocers. Served in hotels, restaurants, on dining-cars. It is the original ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The Romance of Adventure

ALTHOUGH history has shown that only a chosen few are destined to reach the heights of glorious accomplishment, the romance of adventure still holds the imagination, the hopes of most of us . . . some day the opportunity of high achievement will be ours . . . some day undying fame and fortune will beckon to us!

It is because Romance is so much a part of life itself that the daring and skill of others intrigue us as they did others of generations ago. For the adventurers of today have set for themselves a goal no less dangerous or less thrilling than did Marco Polo, Columbus, Livingston or Peary. The safaris of Martin Johnson and Carl Akeley, in deep African jungles, excite our imagination. The high courage and daring of Lindbergh and Byrd command our admiration.

Success has come to them because of the close attention devoted to the physical details of their ventures and undertakings, and in connection with this it is significant to know that the safaris of Martin Johnson and Carl Akeley carried with them a supply of Oakite for all necessary cleaning. The Nation's most prominent manufacturers of airplane motors, including that used in the plane in which Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh recently made their record transcontinental flight, use Oakite. Rear Admiral Byrd took a two-years' supply of Oakite with him for use on shipboard and for his headquarters in the Antarctic. The radiogram from his expedition tells its own terse story. And so, as in industry, Oakite plays its part in the Romance of Adventure!

MORROW PRAISES IDEALS OF ROTARY

He Tells European Delegation Business Aids International Understanding.

URGES FAITH IN OTHERS

Need to Believe in Honesty of Purpose Held More Important "Than Most Solemn Treaties."

Speaking at a luncheon for the European Rotary delegation to the international convention by the Newark Rotary Club at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark yesterday Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow declared that business promoted international understanding as it could not be promoted by any other means.

The Ambassador recalled that the last Rotary meeting he attended was in Mexico City, and that at that time the guests had discussed the promotion of international understanding by fair business dealings. He paid tribute to the ideals of Rotary, saying he understood their sixth object was the advancement of understanding and good-will among nations.

"As a somewhat inconspicuous member of a rather conspicuous business house," he said, "and since then as an amateur diplomat, I have found that the business of international understanding is being carried by business as it cannot be carried on by any other means.

"Business is exchange of goods for goods and of goods for services. Though we speak of bargaining as sordid, when men first begin to exchange, to trade or bargain, instead of using force to capture what they wanted, the first great challenge to barbarism had been made.

"Our relations with foreign nations are not very different from our relations with each other in family, church or State. They must be based on understanding. What a difficult thing it is to see that the other man may be honest as well as yourself!

"If we can live in our respective homes loyal to our cities, States and nations yet ready to attribute to other men an honest purpose, it is more important than the most solemn treaties we may sign on parchment."

Mr. Morrow received a rising ovation by the 500 men and women present as he was introduced by Mayor Congleton of Newark.

CARNEGIE FUND VOTES $425,000 LIBRARY AID

Corporation Grants During the Present Year Made to Help Liberal Arts Colleges.

The Carnegie Corporation of New York announced last night that $425,000 had been voted during the present year to enable liberal arts colleges in the United States to improve the effectiveness of their libraries in undergraduate teaching.

Previous grants in the same field have been made by the corporation in the last five years and twenty-nine colleges in the United States and the University of Hawaii at Honolulu received annual gifts over a period of two to five years. Most of these gifts were made following a survey of the library situation by a group of prominent educators which the corporation selected for that purpose.

About $50,000,000 was spent by Andrew Carnegie personally and by the corporation he set up in erecting free library buildings in the United States. An additional $4,000,000 was spent in erecting college library buildings. Two years ago the trustees of the corporation decided that aid should be offered to a selected number of colleges where, under modern methods of instruction which seek to acquaint the student with books rather than with a textbook, the libraries had demands beyond the limits of the annual budget. To determine library needs, the corporation called upon the group of educators headed by W. W. Bishop of the University of Michigan, and based its grants on the results of their investigation.

The colleges aided to date are:

Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga.
Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.
Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio.
Birmingham Southern College, Birmingham, Ala.
Beloit College, Beloit, Wis.
Bennington College, Old Bennington, Vt.

53 NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

$37,927,711 Will Be Cost of Construction Under Way, Architect Says

The Board of Education now has under construction fifty-three school buildings, representing a total outlay of $37,927,711, Walter C. Martin, school architect, announced yesterday in his monthly report on the state of building projects. Two buildings are under construction in Manhattan, eleven in the Bronx, fourteen in Brooklyn, twenty-two in Queens and four in Richmond. The total capacity of these buildings will be 75,675 seats. Ten playgrounds are also being completed.

Blueprints for contracts to be awarded this Summer are ready. They include elementary school plans for an expenditure of $5,093,000 for 11,786 sittings, and secondary and special school plans for an outlay of $10,800,000 for 10,030 sittings.

MORROW RIVAL FOR SENATE.
Miss Thelma Parkinson, Democratic nominee for the short term in New Jersey.

MISS PARKINSON SEES HARD BATTLE AHEAD

Democratic Aspirant for Senate Short Term Plans to Stump State in Campaign.

Miss Thelma Parkinson of Vineland, N. J., the unopposed Democratic nominee for the unexpired Senate term of Walter E. Edge, which ends on March 4, 1931, was about the polls most of the day watching the voting. She expressed herself as delighted at the early results and at the prospects of an interesting campaign.

"Today is plain sailing for me," said Miss Parkinson, "but the real fight begins tomorrow and lasts until the polls open in November. I will do my best to justify the confidence the people have shown in me and between now and November I shall cover the State in my campaign.

Miss Parkinson declared that she has not yet outlined her platform.

"I have always been interested in politics," said Miss Parkinson. "When I was graduated from Smith College I took up social welfare work for a while, but soon turned to politics as the means of securing the needed legislation to improve social conditions. From that start it was only a step until I was in the game up to my ears and now it would be impossible for me to give it up.

"Women, in my opinion, are a real necessity in politics. They bring ideas and a slant on government that men do not have and which make for better conditions. It has been successfully demonstrated many times that a woman can hold down a job and keep her home and family running smoothly and happily at the same time.

Miss Parkinson began her political career in 1922 when she was elected to the Democratic State Committee.

DRESSES ARE LONG, HATS BIG AT ASCOT

All Ankles Are Hidden in Royal Enclosure by Skirts Made of Vast Amount of Material.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—The revolution at Ascot, to judge by the women's dresses, was begun today. Young men who had never seen really long dresses and old men who had believed they would never see them again rubber their eyes when they reached the paddock or the royal enclosure. Not an ankle was visible. For millinery there were large flapping hats of some light, often diaphanous, material which swayed in the breeze and took all manner of shapes.

Despite most violent protests from the younger generation, fashion artists and costumers have prevailed again, and women of all ranks, from duchesses to typists, have obeyed their behest. The only uniformity in the fashion was in the length of the skirt.

There were women with gowns that flowed in the wind and others that fitted tightly to the modern slender form. There were frocks that might have stepped from illustrations of the days of the First Empire, with low-cut corsages and flowing brocaded skirts decorated in lace or flower borders. Alongside these excursions into the past century were styles which would have merited approval by austere Queen Victoria in the days of her widowhood, frocks with high necks supported by whalebone and bare arms concealed under long and uncomfortable elbow gloves.

Some women, remarked one fashion expert, had brought dresses with definite trains. Some women had to hold their skirts up for comfort, and the modern young misses appeared not to know just how to walk with their skirts touching their ankles.

Queen Mary, wearing a delicate shade of pink, was still faithful to the toque hat.

The Evening Standard describes the typical Ascot "uniform" as:

"A tight-fitting bodice of transparent muslin with a skirt which may be made in one of two ways: either it is a mass of narrow frills from waist to hem or is gathered at the waist and flows outward, measuring goodness knows how many yards in circumference around the feet."

The idea was repeated with variations in blue or delicate green, like lettuce, which, alongside a pink frock, gave the effect of a salmon salad.

As no society woman wears the same frock two days in succession at Ascot, something especially revolutionary is expected on Gold Cup Day.

While the wives were doing their best to start a fashion revolution at Ascot at least three Labor members of Parliament were doing their sartorial bit in the House of Commons. Tom Griffiths ventured as far as a light flannel suit. Major Graham Pole wore a white tall hat. Then entered Phillips Price, evidently from the playing fields, in a cream tennis shirt, wide open at the neck, worn with light flannels.

MORROW IS WINNER; FORT PLEDGES AID

tion strength. Mr. Morrow's victory, it was expected, would have a distinct repercussion in other localities and would tend to strengthen the wet sentiment within the Republican party, particularly in New York State where an effort is being made to put the party on record for the same stand as that voiced by the Ambassador.

Due to the prominence of the candidates and the drawing of the prohibition issue, the voting in the State yesterday attracted attention not only in this country but abroad, where Mr. Morrow's diplomatic duties have led him.

Morrow Telegraphs Rivals.

Mr. Morrow did not acknowledge his victory until well after midnight when he put down his volume of Herodotus to announce that he had sent this telegram to Mr. Fort:

"Mrs. Morrow and I deeply appreciate your message and thank you most heartily."

He sent a similar message to Mr. Frelinghuysen.

"Since the returns are not complete," he said at his home, "I shall make no general statement until tomorrow."

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, his son-in-law, and Mrs. Lindbergh were at the Morrow home in Englewood with other members of the family to hear the returns. Colonel Lindbergh arrived a trifle late, being held up by a late return from an airplane trip.

Mr. Morrow is expected to remain in New Jersey only a few days longer and then return to Mexico City to wind up his diplomatic duties there. He will return to New Jersey in ample time for the general election, when he will contest for the long term with former State Senator Alexander C. Simpson, who was unopposed for the Democratic nomination. Miss Thelma Parkinson of Vineland, also unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the short term, will contest with him for that place in the Fall elections.

Strong in Dry Territory.

In Jersey City, the headquarters of Hudson County, where Mr. Frelinghuysen had been viewed as a strong contender, Mr. Morrow ran ahead. The complete vote there showed: Morrow, 10,088; Frelinghuysen, 1,449, and Fort, 1,027. In Hudson County generally 410 out of a total of 612 districts gave Morrow 18,646; Frelinghuysen, 2,716, and Fort, 1,686.

Burlington County, rated as one of the genuinely dry districts, showed Morrow 3,127, Fort 1,526, Frelinghuysen 89. This tabulation was based on returns from 29 out of the 89 districts in the county. Gloucester, another dry county, gave Morrow 5,075, Fort 2,558, Frelinghuysen 477 with 33 of the 60 districts counted. In Salem, often characterized as the most arid district in the State, Mr. Morrow had a vote of 2,438 against 2,162 for Mr. Fort with 29 of the 34 districts tabulated. Mr. Frelinghuysen's vote was only 174.

In Essex County, home county of Mr. Fort, the Ambassador ran well ahead. His vote there with 190 of the 630 districts recorded was 14,894 to 4,334 for Fort and 2,573 for Frelinghuysen. Bergen, Mr. Morrow's home county, gave him 5,704 to 787 for Fort and 582 for Frelinghuysen with 45 of the 278 districts counted.

The vote in the last Senatorial primary election in the State, when Hamilton F. Kean won over Mr. Frelinghuysen and former Governor E. C. Stokes, was a little above 497,000.

Ambassador Morrow was quickly assured of the Republican nomination for the "short term" Senate seat, as his opponent, Mr. Kelly, was without much strength at the polls.

While the fight of Mr. Morrow for both long and short term seats necessitated the placing of his name on the ballot twice, his managers contended that he had lost few votes through confusion that might have arisen in this way. They said they had conducted an educational campaign among voters to meet this situation.

Prohibition Main Issue.

The battle at the primary booths was conducted mainly on the issue of prohibition, which was drawn up squarely when both Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen came out wet and Mr. Fort entered the race as an advocate of the Eighteenth Amendment. Mr. Morrow demanded repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and return of liquor control to the individual States, whereas Mr. Frelinghuysen sought Federal control under government sale.

Mr. Frelinghuysen sought to draw out his opponents on other issues such as the World Court, the London naval treaty, public utility regulation and "bossism," but he was unsuccessful in getting his adversaries to discuss them. Mr. Fort concentrated his entire campaign on the liquor issue and admitted that the country viewed the Republican primary as a kind of wet and dry referendum. Mr. Fort had the backing of the Anti-Saloon League in the race and relied for a large part of his strength on the "church" and rural vote.

Little disturbance was reported at the polling places, as the Senatorial campaign had been conducted without the customary bitterness that has marked campaigns in the State. In North Bergen, where a local municipal fight interested the voters, there were several arrests on minor charges, and in Middlesex County, where Democrats were contesting over members of the county committee, there was one free-for-all fight at a polling place. But no serious trouble was reported.

Candidates Vote Early.

The three leading aspirants for the Senatorial nomination went to the polls early and as they cast their ballots again voiced their confidence in the result of the primary. Mr. Morrow, accompanied by Mrs. Morrow, voted at the North Side Post Building in Englewood shortly after 10 A. M. They were greeted there by former Mayor Douglas G. Thomson, Morrow campaign manager.

Mrs. Morrow voted first and as she put the ballot in the box she turned toward her husband, behind her and said, "The rôles are reversed, I'm waiting for him." When photographers attempted to obtain pictures, the Ambassador asked them to hasten, saying that he did not want to hold up the line in the rear. Alfred Burke, Mr. Morrow's chauffeur, voted next in line.

Mr. Morrow's son, Dwight Jr., and his daughter, Elizabeth, also cast their ballots there. Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, his son-in-law, did not vote as he is not legally a resident of the State. Neither did his daughter, Anne, Mrs. Lindbergh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frelinghuysen voted about 11 o'clock in the Fifth Bridgewater Township in Somerset County, not far from the former Senator's estate. Mr. Frelinghuysen, looking out at the rain as he put his ballot in the box, said, "Well, this is Frelinghuysen weather." Mr. and Mrs. Frelinghuysen returned to their home later to hear the returns.

Representative and Mrs. Fort and their daughter, Barbara, voted at 140 Main Street, East Orange. After casting his ballot, Mr. Fort said:

"A month ago I felt I would be a loser, but today I feel confident of victory."

Thomas A. Edison, a Fort supporter, went to the Mandas flower shop on Main Street in West Orange to put his ballot in the box after driving from his home in Llewellyn Park. According to an announcement of the Morrow forces Mr. Edison is the only one of the ten in the family of the inventor backing the Representative. The others, the Morrow forces said, were supporting the Ambassador.

United States Senator David Baird Jr., leader of South Jersey, voted in the Seventh Precinct in Camden and expressed his confidence in a Morrow victory. The Republican nominee will contest in the general election for the seat now held by Mr. Baird.

One Morrow supporter who insisted that he be enabled to vote for the Ambassador despite a sudden attack of appendicitis was Dwight R. Williams of 40 Jefferson Avenue, Haddonfield, in Mr. Baird's territory. While being removed to a hospital in an ambulance, he ordered the doctor to halt at his polling booth so that he could vote. He was removed to the hospital later and his condition was said to be satisfactory.

The returns in the numerous county and local contests were slow in coming in due to the concentration of attention on the fight for the Republican Senate nomination. Chief interest in these centred on the battle for the Republican nomination for Congress in the district in Essex County vacated by Mr. Fort. In this battle Peter Cavicchia of Newark had the organization backing against Joseph Cassini and Meador Wright, the latter a Fort supporter. Wesley A. Stanger of Cranford, ran as a wet against Ernest R. Sackerman, the dry incumbent in Union County.

MRS. MORROW SILENT ON PRIMARY RESULT

She Took an Active Part in Campaign—Mrs. Frelinghuysen Also Refuses to Talk.

When the result of the Republican Senate primary in New Jersey was known last night an attempt was made to learn the reactions of Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen and Miss Margaret Fort, sister of Franklin W. Fort. It was said for both Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Frelinghuysen that they had "nothing to say." Miss Fort was not reached.

Mrs. Morrow has taken a particularly active part in the campaign. Although she said at the beginning that she was "not politically minded" and had always appeared a little doubtful as to whether her speeches would have a "truly important" effect on the campaign's outcome, she had maintained a busy schedule of appearances that have taken her to sixteen of the twenty-one New Jersey counties.

Miss Fort has also been active. As a member of the executive committee of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement she aided her brother when, after a spirited debate, a meeting of that organization at which she spoke passed a resolution endorsing Mr. Fort's candidacy. She, like Mrs. Morrow, has made appearances and addresses at meetings of women's clubs throughout the State.

WESTCHESTER PICKS CANDIDATES TODAY

Interest in Republican Convention Centres on C. D. Millard's Attitude on Liquor Issue.

Special to The New York Times.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 17.—The Westchester County Republican Committee will meet here tomorrow in its annual convention to designate candidates for the elections next Fall. Interest centres on the stand to be taken on the prohibition question by Charles D. Millard of Tarrytown, candidate for Representative. Those to be designated tomorrow are as follows:

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE—County Judge Frederick P. Close of Tuckahoe.
SURROGATE—George A. Slater, incumbent, of Port Chester.
COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE—George J. Werner, incumbent, of Rye.
REPRESENTATIVE, Twenty-fifth District—Charles L. Millard, Tarrytown.
REPRESENTATIVE, Twenty-fourth District—Benjamin L. Fairchild, Pelham, formerly a Representative.
STATE SENATOR, Twenty-fifth District—Walter W. Westall, incumbent, White Plains.
STATE SENATOR, Twenty-sixth District—Seabury C. Mastick, incumbent, Pleasantville.

Mr. Fairchild is well known as a wet. Friends of Mr. Millard declare he is personally a wet sympathizer, but it is considered questionable whether he will take a stand on the liquor question. It was reported today in political circles that the Westchester organization was not in harmony with the stand taken by Dwight Morrow in Jersey on the liquor question.

William L. Ward, leader of the Westchester organization, will preside at the convention.

RED ACTIVITIES RELATED.

House Committee Hears Laws on Propaganda Need Tightening.

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP).—Need for the strengthening of postal laws to prevent dissemination of revolutionary propaganda through the mails was detailed before the House committee investigating Communist activities today by Horace Donnelly, solicitor of the Postoffice Department.

Behind closed doors the committee heard several government officials on activities of Communists, including representatives of the intelligence services of the War and Navy Departments. N. H. Wilson told of the practices adopted by the Communists to resist activities of the regular army, the National Guard and the citizens military training camps. Lieut. Commander Herbert R. Hein of the navy submitted a confidential report on activities of Communists in navy yards and among the personnel.

Louis Domeratzky, chief of the regional information section of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Commerce Department, said that during 1929 exports valued at $85,008,000 were shipped to Russia from the United States, while the imports from that country amounted to $22,000,000.

AMERICANS SEEK DIVORCES.

John P. Emerick and David Carter File Suits in Paris Courts.

PARIS, June 17 (AP).—John P. Emerick, listed as an American citizen, filed suit for divorce today from Maria Gloria Lemgruben Emerick. Both have Paris addresses.

David Carter, residing here, applied today for a divorce from Jane Richmond Carter, whom he married in Bridgeport, Conn.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 17 (AP).—David Carter, who today applied for a divorce in Paris, was married here by Florence M. Nichols, Justice of the Peace, on April 23, 1925. On his marriage license Mr. Carter gave his name as Davis Carter, 24, of San Diego and his profession as musician. His wife's name was recorded as Jeanne Richmond, 27, a nurse, New York City.

PRIMARY VOTES FAIL AS TEST OF ISSUES

LACK NATIONAL IMPORT

Former May Face Combined Opposition of Democrats and Farmer-Laborites in November.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—No particular national significance is attached in political quarters here to the results of the Republican Senatorial primaries in Maine and Minnesota yesterday. In the Maine election Representative Wallace H. White won over former Governor Ralph C. Brewster. The victor in the Minnesota primary was Senator Thomas B. Schall, and his defeated opponent was the present Governor of the State, Theodore Christianson.

Messrs. White and Brewster are drys. Assuming that the former will be elected in the Maine elections in September, he will succeed a "near-wet," Senator Arthur R. Gould, who declined to be a candidate for renomination.

Toward the close of the campaign Mr. Brewster attacked the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill, while Mr. White, who had voted for it in the House of Representatives, contended that the industries of the State were well protected by the measure. The tariff issue, however, is not regarded as having had any marked effect on the outcome of the primary.

Representative White is a grandson of the late Senator William P. Frye of Maine and was the latter's private secretary when he was president pro tempore of the Senate. He is serving his seventh term in the House.

He is chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries and had a foremost part in the enactment of recent legislation for the control of radio broadcasting and encouraging American shipbuilding.

Senator Schall is one of the insurgent Republicans who aligned themselves with the anti-tariff coalition in the Senate. Governor Christianson, however, outdid him in the campaign by declaring that if he should go to the Senate he would feel at liberty to join with any party or coalition as he pleased.

The apparent impression made on Minnesota Republican voters was that Mr. Christianson was more "radical" than Mr. Schall, and it is believed he lost the support of a great many voters who were inclined to be opposed to Schall until the Governor went the latter one better in asserting insurgent and independent tendencies.

According to Minnesota people here there is likely to be an amalgamation of the Democractic and Farmer-Labor parties in the State with the object of selecting a candidate for the Senate against Schall. A hot contest took place in the Farmer-Labory party, but Einar Hoydale was unopposed for the Democratic Senatorial nomination. It is said that the successful candidate for the Senatorial nomination in the Farmer-Labor party will withdraw in favor of Hoydale.

TRUJILLO'S FOES DEPART.

Vasquez and Other Dominicans Taking Shelter in Porto Rico.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, June 17 (AP).—Politicians who opposed the election of General Rafael Leonides Trujillo, Dominican President-elect, are discovering that Porto Rico, protected by the American flag, has a very healthful climate.

Horacio Vasquez, whom General Trujillo removed from the Presidency last February by throwing the support of the army to the revolutionary movement headed by Rafael Estrella Urena, acting President, today departed for San Juan by airplane. He was accompanied by his wife and a niece.

A few hours later Angel Morales, former Minister at Washington, who ran for Vice President on the ticket against General Trujillo in the election on May 16, sailed for San Juan. Jose Alfonseca, former Vice President and political enemy of Senor Trujillo, began a "vacation" in Porto Rico last week.

Two former Vasquez Cabinet members and a Congressman who opposed General Trujillo's election, accompanied Senor Morales. They were Pedro Lluvees, ex-Minister of Justice; Martin Moya, ex-Minister of the Treasury, and Luis F. Mejia, a member of the House of Deputies.

The Government newspaper, La Opinion, made the following comment:

"The absence of these politicians, and likewise that of Senor Vasquez, will strengthen domestic tranquility in this country."

STUDENT AND GANG OF 4 ADMIT KILLING

Five Youths Planned Hold-Up of Cigar Store in Which Negro Was Slain Last January.

FACE 20 YEARS TO LIFE

Prosecutor Urges Second Degree Plea Because of Their Age—12 Lawyers Defend Them.

Five youths, members of a gang headed by a student in Blair Academy, Blairstown, N. J., who committed a series of hold-ups six months ago in this and neighboring cities, pleaded guilty to second-degree murder yesterday before Judge Koenig in General Sessions in connection with the shooting of an unidentified Negro last Jan. 29 in the hold-up of the cigar store in the Endicott Hotel, Columbus Avenue and Eighty-first Street.

The slayers, Alfonso Miresi, 19 years old, leader of the band, of 557 West Fifty-seventh Street; Joseph Gannon, 20, of 502 West Fifty-second Street; Harry Neubert, 19, of 583 Amsterdam Avenue; Frank Neves, 18, of 88 Amsterdam Avenue, and Robert D. Hayes, 18, of 31 Franklin Street, Newport, R. I., were remanded to the Tombs without bail pending sentence on Friday. The penalty is from twenty years to life imprisonment.

They were surrounded by twelve defense lawyers when Assistant District Attorney James E. McDonald, addressing Judge Koenig, explained that, although the defendants had been indicted for murder in the first degree, he was of the belief that because of their youth a conviction on this charge, which would mean death in the electric chair, would not be returned by a jury.

The prosecutor added that Miresi, the student, shot and killed the Negro, who had entered the store to make a purchase as Miresi, Neves and Gannon were about to leave, after holding up the clerk and another customer and robbing the cash register of $300. Neubert was the lookout.

Mr. McDonald also explained that Hayes, who remained outside in an automobile, had stolen the car for the hold-up of a Broadway restaurant, which the gang abandoned because of the large number of patrons in the place.

The round-up of the group came through the arrest of Neubert last March in connection with another robbery. He implicated the other four and their arrests followed. Miresi was taken into custody in his room at the academy. He was lodged in the county jail in Blairstown, pending his extradition to this city, but escaped, only to be recaptured.

Mr. McDonald also said that it was not until Miresi agreed to plead guilty that his confederates in the killing of the Negro, who had refused to throw up his hands on Miresi's demand, consented to enter guilty pleas to second-degree murder. Miresi smiled as the prosecutor denounced him as the leader of the gang of slayers.

CRAIN APPEALS FOR AID TO RECLAIM CRIMINALS

Urges Business Leaders, for Self-Protection, to Help Uplift Humanity.

An appeal to business leaders for aid in the rehabilitation of delinquents and criminals was made yesterday by District Attorney Crain at a luncheon of the Western Universities Club in the Railroad Club, 30 Church Street.

Mr. Crain said he had come from an office where there was no business depression, "the great crop of criminality being at full tide." The thought and ingenuity employed in consummating a criminal enterprise, he said, if applied to some legitimate project would increase the returns manyfold.

The District Attorney gave as some of the reasons for crime the thrill that comes with risk, the feeling of excitement and conditions that influence young men to band themselves together. He explained that major crimes were executed after deliberate planning rather than by quick impulses.

$500,000 BACK TAX UPHELD.

Lien Sustained on Philadelphia Homes Sold by Government.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 17.—Owners of about 600 homes in South Philadelphia, purchased from the Federal Government at the close of the war, must pay municipal taxes for the past decade the same as other property owners or face a Sheriff's sale, under a decision handed down today by Judge James G. Gordon Jr. in Common Pleas Court.

The total taxes due are estimated at more than $500,000. The homes were built by the United States Housing oCrporation for wartime workers.

Harry E. Myers, one of the owners, who asked the court to strike off the tax lien and stay the Sheriff's sale, contended that his property was not taxable because the title was still in the government's name, the property having been acquired under a contract requiring the payment of monthly instalments for about fifteen years.

The housing corporation did not contest the validity of the city tax, and Judge Gordon said the question already had been passed upon by the United States Supreme Court.

LAYS PUPILS' ILLS TO MISFIT TEACHERS

Dr. Andrus Tells Conference Improper Training Is an Obstacle to Health.

URGES FITNESS AS EXAMPLE

Prof. Bigelow Says Instructors Should Radiate Wellbeing—New Methods Advocated.

Special to The New York Times.

SAYVILLE, L. I., June 17.—Improper teaching methods and inadequately trained teachers and practitioners in school health work were assailed as the stumbling blocks in the progress of health education by most of the educators and physicians who addressed the meetings today of the American Child Health Association's conference, being held at Hotel Cedarshore here.

The need for properly trained teachers was emphasized by Dr. Ruth Andrus, director of child development and parental education of the University of the State of New York.

"Old maids, married or single men and women who are irascible and don't know how to take care of themselves, are hardly fit to teach health to school children," she said.

"The emotional development of the child must be considered in this program of health development in the elementary schools. A teacher who cannot take care of herself out of classroom can hardly be expected to do this job. This is a problem for the training schools. The tensity that results from such a teacher's work makes for robots. There is a type of social parenthood that makes for the true attitude of a teacher."

Professor Maurice A. Bigelow of Teachers College, Columbia University, urged the teachers to put into practice the concepts of health education which they teach. He asserted that teachers should themselves radiate the health for which their teaching program strives. Similarily, not only should broken down teachers be barred from classrooms, but teachers who could not control themselves should also not be allowed to teach mental hygiene, Dr. Bigelow pointed out.

Dr. Herbert J. Stack, supervisor of child safety in New York for the National Safety Council, said the present methods of teaching safety to school children were inadequate and antiquated.

"Teachers think that slogans, rules and stories suffice," Dr. Stack said. "These are very poor for this material. The children become so interested in the mechanics of the rote work that they lose sight of the lesson. Instead of the prevalent methods, teachers should use practice exercises like teaching to swim and showing the effects of doing the wrong things."

Present methods of teaching hygiene courses were censured by Dr. Delbert Oberteuffer, supervisor of health and physical education of Columbus, Ohio.

"The only way to put over health instruction," he declared, "is to teach a course made up of information gathered primarily from the life problems of the children, instead of on the basis of the say-so of experts. To this must be added those problems which are revealed by literature."

Criticism of the methods used in training doctors and teachers was expressed in an interview by Dr. Jen W. Gudakunst, director of the Detroit School Health Service. He said that as a result of the lack of teachers and doctors who are fully aware of school health problems, industries are complaining that large numbers of mentally and physically unfit persons are entering the business world.

"Large manufacturers," Dr. Gudakunst said, "are challenging health educators because so many employes are unable to do a day's work as the result of an abysmal ignorance of personal hygiene."

Dr. Haven Emerson of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, asserted that the home was most to blame for the illness of school children.

Dr. Clara E. Hays, assistant director of the division of medical service, American Child Health Association, has been appointed by President Hoover as a delegate for the United States to the Pan-American Children's Welfare Congress, to be held in Lima, Peru, next month, it was announced.

IT'S THE UNUSUAL that distinguishes a gown. Again, it's the unusual that sets Chesterfield apart.

STYLE in a gown, "chic" in a hat—and in a Chesterfield, Taste!

TASTE IS THE REAL REASON for Chesterfield's enduring popularity . . . the better taste of choice tobaccos, mild and ripe, blended and cross-blended to a rich delicacy of flavor, unique in a cigarette—in every sense of the word . . . "TASTE above everything".

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price.

PANICS ARE ONLY growing pains!

Some of America's biggest fortunes were founded in Hard Times. Will you reap the reward of your foresight when the Depression is over?

Modern Business

A FEW DAYS AGO, when stocks seemed headed for zero and brokers were advising customers to sell, one firm issued this remarkable bulletin:

"Panics are but growing pains. There never was a great industrial depression that was not succeeded by a revival of epochal proportions which registered the growth of the nation to even greater dimensions."

Optimism—or Vision?

This is not "optimism." Business will not be "back to normal by November"—perhaps not until a year later. Mark this fact well: the rise from the present level will be long and gradual. After the recessions of 1893, 1907 and 1919, the recoveries averaged 16 months before business attained normal volume.

But the turn—the beginning of the recovery—is due, and due soon. And the opportunities for financial progress which the next 16 months offer to the individual are more brilliant than they have been for nearly a decade.

Where the opportunity lies

At this moment, we are in the throes of a whole series of revolutionary transformations. Security prices are subject to new conditions. Small business units have been merged into big units. Industries have reached out into foreign markets. Production methods and sales methods have been revolutionized.

Enrollments received by the Alexander Hamilton Institute are 35% ahead of last year. In bad times the smartest men prepare for making more money.

American business needs, and needs desperately, executives with fresh minds and up-to-date equipment, men who understand these new forces and know how to use them. Men of this type will be richly rewarded. This depression means opportunity to them. Substantial success will be theirs in a few short years.

Announcing a new Course to meet the new conditions

The Alexander Hamilton Institute now offers an entirely new executive training Course for men who want to be the leaders of tomorrow.

It was prepared by the leaders of today—men whose authority is proved by incomes of $50,000, $100,000 and more. Here are the names of only a few of them:

ALFRED P. SLOAN, JR., President,
General Motors Corporation.

F. EDSON WHITE, President,
Armour & Company.

M. H. AYLESWORTH, President,
National Broadcasting Company.

JOSEPH P. DAY, President,
Joseph P. Day, Inc., Real Estate.

HON. WILL H. HAYS, President,
Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc.; formerly U. S. Postmaster General.

BRUCE BARTON, Chairman of the Board,
Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, Advertising Agents.

JOHN T. MADDEN, Dean,
School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, New York University.

DR. JULIUS KLEIN, The Assistant Secretary,
U. S. Department of Commerce.

GEORGE BALDWIN, Vice-Pres. in Charge of Sales, General Electric Company.

HUBERT T. PARSON, President,
F. W. Woolworth Company.

DAVID SARNOFF, President,
Radio Corporation of America.

DEXTER S. KIMBALL, Dean of the College of Engineering, Cornell University.

In preparing the new Course and Service we have drawn freely, without regard to cost, on the time and interest of these outstanding business statesmen. It is new, challenging, utterly unacademic, vibrant with the hard-bitten energy of men whose names are magic in the councils of modern business.

Send for the facts

We have prepared a new booklet which describes this new Course and Service. It is entitled "What an Executive Should Know."

SACKETT CRITICIZES HIGH COST OF POWER

URGES HELP FROM SCIENCE

He Also Suggests Experiment in Government Operation to Lower Price to Consumers.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BERLIN, June 17.—Contrary to reports circulated this afternoon that Frederic M. Sackett, United States Ambassador to Germany, had been persuaded by private power interests to withdraw a speech he had planned to give tomorrow afternoon at the "American Hour" of the World Power Conference here, he will deliver the speech as it was prepared a week ago and supplied to newspaper men at that time. Furthermore, in the light of today's reports, Ambassador Sackett authorized the publication of his address on Wednesday instead of Thursday.

Whatever interests may have been desirous of seeing the Ambassador alter his speech, which criticizes somewhat sharply the high distribution costs for power in relation to low production costs, the American committee of the World Power Conference, headed by O. C. Merrill, was highly gratified to learn the Ambassador had no intention of placing the committee in a position seeming to condone interference with words their guest had chosen to deliver.

Aid to Material Progress.

Ambassador Sackett will tell the delegates tomorrow, after a general greeting, that there was no more direct aid to material progress than rendering the use of electricity most widespread and economical.

"Each new invention and improvement has been enthusiastically described," he will say, "and the fact that we are dealing with the one great industry whose product is cheaper today that in pre-war times has been stressed as proof of efficiency in management and operation until the layman is constrained to marvel at the perfection of the service wrought. It is equally true, however, that one of the primary reasons for convening such a conference is to discuss and consider constructive criticisms in the field of its interests. As one who has shared the responsibilities of the early development of power service and retained an interest in its welfare, I venture a suggestion in the hope of contributing to the betterment of this industry of power supply.

"To state concisely, I know no other manufacturing industry where the sale price of the product to the great mass of consumers is fifteen times the actual cost of production. My purpose is sharply to define a weakness that calls for the keenest thought in your deliberations. Until the power business is brought in line with other industries in the relationship of its cost of production to the price paid by the consumer, there can be little justification for the thought that this great power industry is rapidly approaching perfection.

"Whether electric current is produced from water power with its stand-by plants or by modern steam units you have by constant improvement driven down thus far the cost of electricity until it can be fairly said an economical station produces current at from 3-10 to 4-10 of a cent per kilowatt hour. In most great centres of population, in America at least, consumers pay for household service at around 6 cents per kilowatt hour, fifteen to twenty times its cost. Such a discrepancy between the production cost and the delivery price gives a wide field for a study of the distribution engineer.

Field for Scientists' Work.

"It gives little satisfaction to the great mass of household consumers to point to the high construction costs required to serve the small user, to urge a large reduction in the price that is made for quantity service through a single installation or even to call the roll of reductions in delivered prices that have followed through the years. The fact remains that there is an extraordinary margin between the cost and sales price, to the reduction of which science may apply itself with greatest benefit to the people as a whole."

No one can scan the records of rapidly lowered costs of producing electric power without amazement at the results achieved, Mr. Sackett will say, adding that progress still may be made in lowering producing costs, although the margin on which to work is barely a fifth of a cent per kilowatt hour, which, when achieved by science and translated to the consumer's account, would be small. While the distribution of electric power has been greatly improved in quality and cost, he will stress that there remains so wide a margin between the cost of manufacture and the price to the consumer that here lies the hope of economies which will have a big public appeal.

"I have taken occasion to draw this parallel between cost and sale prices," he will say, "with a view to a situation which should claim the attention of the utility interests in America, where power development is almost exclusively in private hands. There exists in America a rapidly growing body of public opinion led by laymen of great ability which is demanding governmental competition in rates with private power enterprises. So drastic is the demand that it vocalizes with the thought that all water power forces should be government owned and operated. This public clamor cites with enthusiasm the delivered cost of certain municipally owned systems in neighboring countries as proof of the iniquity of charges for electricity by our privately operated plants.

"The conclusion is drawn, therefore, that if the national government owned and operated power sites upon its navigable rivers—interconnected as could be one mighty system—the benefits of lowered costs would readily be transferred to the consuming public. There is no precedent on which this theory can be based because the Federal government never engaged in the manufacture and sale of power.

Experiment Presents Problem.

"Only by experiment can public opinion be convinced as to the truth or falsity of the claims. Such an experiment as is being demanded involves a complete change of governmental policy in the methods of using and disposing of our natural resources of potential power. It would change our national policies because it draws the government on a large scale as an active competitor with private initiative.

"The parallel just drawn, showing a proportion of fifteen to one between the cost of the product and the sale price would seem to indicate that the experiment of reducing costs by government operation can be fully tried by limiting it to the operation of any modern steam plant with its distribution system. The complete experiment need not involve the subversive principle that the government should own and operate the water power sources of electricity.

"If this movement genuinely seeks an opportunity of securing lower rates for the small consumer and not solely subversive changes antagonistic to the present investment in the public utility field, the necessary actual experiment lies readily at hand. In the present state of the art genuine effort should be encouraged.

"It is the danger of a broader demand rising rapidly in America and perhaps other lands that gives value to the suggestion that industrial leaders aided by science should strive with renewed effort to conquer the ratio of fifteen to one."

In conclusion Mr. Sackett will praise the selection of Germany, with its tradition of the leadership of science, as the meeting place for the power conference.

BERLIN, June 17 (AP).—Ambassador Frederic M. Sackett tonight authorized a statement that despite objections by Samuel Insull, Chicago utilities magnate, he would deliver unchanged a speech he had prepared for tomorrow's session of the international power conference.

It had been earlier reported that the Ambassador, disliking Mr. Insull's protest, would withdraw the speech entirely and confine himself to conveying briefly President Hoover's greetings to the delegates.

Mr. Insull made no comment on the controversy.

INDICT WOMAN IN MURDER.

Grand Jury Also Accuses Ashkenas in Rothenberg Killing.

Indictments charging murder in the first degree were returned by the grand jury yesterday against Irving Ashkenas, 27 years old, a former chauffeur, of 173 Eldridge Street and Rose Halperin, alias Rosenberg, 28 years old, of 173 Hillside Avenue, Newark, in the killing last February of Jacob Rothenberg, a clothing manufacturer, during the garment strike.

Rothenberg, who kept an open shop, was fatally injured on Feb. 10. Ashkenas, reported to be one of a gang of strong-arm men in the employ of the strikers, is alleged to have felled him with a blow in the face at Broadway and Thirty-ninth Street. Ashkenas was indicted for second-degree manslaughter soon after the killing and was released on $10,000 bail.

The murder indictments against him and the woman, a reported employe of the strikers at the time of the attack, were returned last Monday as a result of admissions she was said to have made to three detectives in Montreal.

DRAFTS FIRE RULES FOR FILM STUDIOS

AIMS AT GREAT STRINGENCY

109 Regulations Govern the Use of Sprinklers, Filament, Exits, Flame-Proofing and Guards.

Increased stringency in Fire Department regulations covering the motion picture industry in this city is recommended in 109 revised or new regulations submitted yesterday to the Board of Aldermen by the committee appointed by Fire Commissioner John J. Dorman after the Pathé studio fire in Harlem last December.

The Board of Aldermen was requested to adopt the new regulations into the existing code of ordinances. The eighteen members of the committee included Fire Chief John Kenlon, several of his aides, members of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the New York Fire Insurance Exchange, the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, the motion picture industry and the Theatre Owners' Chamber of Commerce. It held fourteen conferences before making its report, which applies to every part of the motion picture industry in which fire hazards exist.

The report requests the amendment of the sprinkler rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals to provide automatic sprinklers in all studios; that all rooms in which film is handled shall have sprinkler heads every sixty-four square feet; that not more than ten reels of film shall be in one workroom for each operator present; that no film shall be carried on the studio stages except in cameras, and that film shall be stored in vaults with not more than 225 reels in a single cabinet.

All fabrics used to deaden sound in making talking pictures and all combustible "props" should be sprayed with flame-proofing material, the report says, except silk, satin, velvet and velour used in sets and included in the photographing of scenes. This provision is a direct outgrowth of the Pathé fire, which was supposed to have started from an overheated electric light coming in contact with a hanging drape.

Fire drills once a month, interior fire alarm systems and thermostatic alarm equipment with direct connection to the central fire alarm station or an approved private alarm company are recommended. All studios would be forced to employ at least one trained fire guard to inspect and maintain all fire-fighting equipment. No exit doors are to be fastened while the studio is in operation and no exit is to be obstructed. Exits shall be indicated by painted signs and each dressing-room section shall have two exits. Metal furniture is recommended for film cutting and mending rooms and the film storage vaults shall be built of eight-inch brick, the report urges. The total amount of film in any one studio would be restricted to 50,000 feet.

The committee reports that the proposed measures have the approval of the motion picture industry although it was recalled yesterday that some companies had objected to the expense involved in observing them. The Board of Aldermen referred the report to its committee on general welfare.

WOMEN BRISK BIDDERS AT POSTOFFICE SALE

$1 for Nine Pails of Pickled Mackerel Is Low Price—Silk Stockings in Demand.

One dollar for nine pails of pickled mackerel and $105 for a woman's seal skin coat were the extremes in the rush bidding yesterday at the auction sale of unclaimed articles and parcels accumulated in the New York Postoffice. The government got $7,824 for 794 lots.

An active bidder was Solomon Kargen, "the Mayor of Orchard Street and king of the pushcart dealers," who during the war, it was said, paid out between $4,000 and $5,000 at one of the sales. Yesterday he bought $636 worth of fountain pens, false teeth, dresses and other materials, "new, soiled and damaged."

Women in the large crowd were quick buyers of numerous lots of silk stockings and jewelry. Women also bought a lot of eight whiffletrees and ten martingales for $2, and 220 reptile skins for $20. Hairpins were readily sold to the women too. One woman acquired nine pieces of ten-carat jewelry for only $7. Several bidders became confused over an eighteen-carat wedding ring, the process of bidding being repeated three times. Finally it was sold for $4.

A batch of 140 radio tubes (not guaranteed) brought $13, and 116 boxes of Chanukah candles sold for $2. Forty books, "All About Going Abroad," were bought for $3, and 450 tubes of tooth paste brought $4. Seven dresses sold for $36 and twelve dresses sold for $19. Twenty-three pairs of dumb-bells were auctioned off for $13. Eighteen cartons of cigarettes brought $18. Ten dollars was paid for 135 rosaries, and $9 for 100 fraternity pins.

12 SHIPS RACE IN, BEATING NEW TARIFF

SOME FAIL OWING TO FOG

Olympic, Last in List, With Goods Worth $1,000,000, Has Only 30 Minutes' Leeway.

LOSING VESSELS DIVERTED

Heavy Payments at Custom House Include Levies on Supplies in Bonded Warehouses.

A large fleet of passenger and freight ships from ports all over the world steamed for New York yesterday in a race against time, with hundreds of thousands of dollars controlled by the rising tariff as the stakes for the winners. More than a dozen of the ships reached port safely and entered their cargoes at the Custom House under the old tariff rates, which were no longer in effect after last midnight.

Others, delayed by fog and the elements, or by positive inability to get to New York before today, gave up the attempt yesterday afternoon and wirelessed their offices that they would not get here in time.

Brokers and shippers did not have until midnight to slide their merchandise through under the lower tariff rate. The Custom House closes officially at 4:30 P. M. and goods entered after that are booked on the next day's ledger. As a last gesture to the hurrying ships yesterday custom officials delayed the closing time for an hour and all brokers who appeared at the building with bills of lading and cash in hand by 5:30 were able to gain handsome profits for their clients.

Two Losers in Race Are Due Today.

Three of the ships that failed to get in under the line were the Spanish liner Manuel Arnus, from Spanish ports; the Ward liner San Jacinto, from Mexico, and the Baltic American steamer Pulaski, from Danzig. The first two named are due today, and the Pulaski wirelessed yesterday that she could not reach port until Thursday.

The White Star liner Olympic from Southampton headed the fleet of ships in size and reached the technical limits of New York Harbor only thirty minutes before the "deadline." Other ships that entered New York before 5:30 were the Carillo from Porto Barrios, the Drottningholm from Gothenburg, the Edison from Piraeus, the Caracas from La Guayra, the Cefalu from La Ceiba, the Cottica from Barbados, the Henzada from Glasgow the Zarembo from Sierra Leone, the Lisbon Maru from Yokohama and the Dora from Montreal.

Several ships that called at Boston, Baltimore and other American ports before arriving here had entered their manifests in these ports and would not have been affected by the tariff rise at midnight. Other vessels that will reach here today, too late to take advantage of the last hour, are the Teno from South America, the Western World from Buenos Aires, the Santa Teresa from Valparaiso, the Sixaola from Santa Marta and the Munamar from Nassau.

Brokers Busy at Custom House.

The rotunda of the Custom House was busy yesterday as brokers stood with bills of lading waiting for steamships carrying their cargo to be posted. As soon as the vessel was posted as having entered Ambrose Channel the shippers filed their bills and officially entered the merchandise under the old tariff rates. When the Custom House opens for business at 9 o'clock this morning the new rates will be in effect, representing an estimated average increase of 13 per cent in duty on all imports.

While captains of ships and representatives of importers were rushing to the Custom House with papers, others were extracting goods from bonded warehouses to enter them under the lower rates. Officials of the Custom House sadi at 4 P. M. yesterday that the total amount paid up to that hour was $1,646,695.52.

These figures did not include goids brought on the Olympic, which, it was estimated, carried a $1,000,000 cargo.

More than a score of importers and agents were waiting at the building when the liner was reported off Ambrose lightship and hurried to the receiving desks in time to enter their cargoes on the government's books, filing indemnity bonds based on the estimated value of the cargo where bills of lading were absent. The Olympic has the distinction of being the last vessel to slip under the line on the old tariff rates.

Outstanding in the cargoes that arrived here in the past and have been reposing in bonded warehouses is a great lot of sugar, mostly from Cuba. An excess of sugar has resulted from the increase in duty. One shipping company is said to have chartered several freighters to rush consignments of sugar from Cuba, only to find the market glutted and the price so low that shipments could not be made.

Sugar Sells Off on Raised Tariff.

Raw sugar, protected by .23 cents more a pound in the new tariff schedule, reversed expectations in the New York market yesterday by sinking to a new low price for all time upon the news of the signing of the bill. The tariff increased the duty on raw sugar from 1.7648 cents a pound to an even 2 cents. Expectations were that this would strengthen the price of sugar in the New York market.

Instead of that, as soon as the flash came that President Hoover had signed the new bill raw sugar eased and Cuban, as well as Porto Rican and Philippine, sold at 3.27 cents a pound, duty paid. This is the equivalent of 1.27 cents a pound before paying the duty on Cuban sugar. The nearest approach to this low price in the history of sugar prices was last May, when a small amount of Porto Rican raw sugar was sold at the equivalent of 1.36 cents a pound before paying duty.

Refiners yesterday put into effect increases in the price of refined sugar to 4.60 and 4.70 cents a pound, compared with 4.50 cents, which had ruled on Monday.

It was considered likely that many cargoes would be diverted in the next few weeks to other countries, probably in South America, and that these would be sold there at losses aggregating hundreds of thousands of dollars.

SAYS HOOVER'S POLICY CALLS FOR NEW PARTY

Independent League Assails Tariff as Treason to Farmer and Consumer.

Severe criticism of President Hoover's approval of the tariff bill, coupled with a call for the formation of a new political party as the only means of protecting the interests of the people on the tariff and other issues, was expressed yesterday by the League for Independent Political Action, of which Professor John Dewey is chairman.

The statement, issued through Devere Allen, chairman of the league's executive committee, declared that, in fact, the signing of the bill by the President "has brought us considerably nearer the birth of a new political party."

The adoption of the bill by Congress and its signing by the President, Mr. Allen declared, "ought to demonstrate once and for all the futility of expecting any constructive statesmanship from either of the two old parties."

Asserting that the President's signature "involves treason to the farmer, who is supposed to benefit by the bill, and utter disregard for the best interests of the consumer and the exporting manufacturer," Mr. Allen declared that is it, in addition, "a slap in the face of foreign countries, and will contribute to the growing ill feeling between the United States and the rest of the world."

Instead of doing the courageous thing and vetoing the bill, Mr. Allen said, the President signed it, with the promise to right "all its iniquities" through readjustment by a tariff commission.

"This is a thoroughly evasive subterfuge," Mr. Allen charged, "and no one is taken in by it. The history of the present Tariff Commission, its debasement through political appointments, is not such as to inspire confidence in any new body, so long as our government is controlled by the servants of special privilege. It is not very likely that a President who fought so tenaciously for a purely political appointment to the Supreme Court will be able to keep politics out of a tariff commission."

HAAN SAYS AMERICA IS FORGETTING EUROPE

Declares Economic Difficulties of the War Have Not Been Solved.

By the passage of the tariff bill the United States has alienated the sympathy of all Europe, R. M. Haan, former proprietor of the Hotel St. Regis, declared last night before sailing on the Europa. Mr. Haan was appointed by Herbert Hoover in 1919 to go to Europe to establish the Hungarian Children's Relief in Budapest. He is now returning to Vienna after a brief visit here.

Mr. Haan asserted that America has forgotten Europe, her needs and the difficulties of the 250,000,000 people who will be affected by the tariff and who are still struggling with the problems of post-war reconstruction. The economic difficulties which the war created are not yet solved, he declared.

SPAIN TO FIX WHEAT PRICE.

Cabinet Promises Farmers No Foreign Wheat Will Be Imported.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MADRID, June 17.—The government has settled the wheat problem which has caused manifestations by farmers and farm laborers in the Castille wheat area, the resignation of more than 100 Mayors of cities in the wheat district near Palencia and which has engrossed the government all the week. The farmers urged a minimum price should be again fixed by the government and that immediate steps be taken to grant relief. This the government has agreed to.

It was learned tonight the minimum price will be from forty-six to forty-eight pesetas (the peseta is worth 19.3 cents at par) on 100 kilograms (about 220 pounds) depending on the class of grain. One of the methods suggested for relief is that the government should buy 50,000 tons of wheat.

The Minister of National Economy blames the present trouble on the de Rivera dictatorship, saying it permitted the importation of 800,000 tons of foreign wheat. The Cabinet has promised that no foreign wheat will be imported and that the army in Morroco will take all the Castillian wheat.

FRENCH ECONOMIST URGES TARIFF UNION

Europe Must Promote Its Own Welfare by Combining, Megle Asserts.

SPAIN CONSIDERS REPRISALS

Committee Ordered to Make Study of Effect of Bill There—Ambassador Voices Attack.

By CARLISLE MacDONALD.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PARIS, June 17.—With the attention of European business focused upon the new American tariff, each day brings forth a suggestion for "an adequate reply" to the American protectionism. The latest comes from Armand Megle, director of the National Office of Exterior Commerce of France, who, in a statement, urges the Continental nations to begin a serious discussion of a European customs union.

Only by such means, the economic expert asserts, will those countries hit by the new American duties be able effectively to retaliate.

Through its manifold ramifications in French industry and in the industries of most European countries, the National Office of Exterior Commerce is in a position of influence. Like a number of other well-placed persons, M. Megle makes his remarks with a calmness which was lacking in the first outbursts against the vote of Congress.

Rather than organizing against the United States, he says, France, Belgium, Germany, Holland, Italy and half a dozen other countries should meet and form a mutually beneficial tariff union, the members of which would enjoy special privileges in the form of lower duties. The members would also purchase their respective needs within the union if such purchases could be carried out without loss to the nation concerned.

"Is it not logical to assume," asks M. Megle, "that Continental nations will by the very nature of the problem end in uniting, not to fight a friendly power but to promote their own welfare? No matter what their desires may be now, necessity will eventually force them to defend their industries in this way."

Sees Principle at Stake.

Aside from its financial aspect, M. Megle considers the new American tariff to be a grave issue of principle for France.

"It is quite likely that French opinion will be so aroused as to demand measures of a reciprocal character, if not actual reprisals. Europe is a big market for American goods, but a market divided against itself is a fact of inestimable value to American industry. If Europe would only listen to the advice of the Briands, the Clémentels, the Loucheurs and the Le Trocquers and realize that with a European federation of States the United States would soon lower her flag!

"What is certain is that resentment among French business men will be great, especially at the present moment when our economic situation is not brilliant. The question now arises whether our Parliament and government can do otherwise than revise our own tariff schedules. It is a necessary consequence without doubt, but a deplorable one, since an armaments race, whether economic or military, has but one tragic conclusion."

In President Hoover M. Megle was inclined to see the only hope for Europe.

"President Hoover is a great European," he said. "He also is a great economist. We have been entitled to hope that the President would be influenced by repercussions on this side and veto the bill. Such was the ardent desire of all who wish to continue in friendy relations with the United States.

Points to Trade Balances.

"The new bill is all the more surprising when it is considered that the United States sells much more to Europe than Europe ships to the United States. For France alone, America's favorable balance of trade amounts to 4,000,000,000 francs a year."

Nearly all French organs of opinion anticipate the signing of the Hawley-Smoot bill by President Hoover. L'Homme Libre declares it is a veritable declaration of war which the United States has launched against Europe in the form of the tariff bill, while L'Ere Nouvelle predicts that the Republicans will soon regret their action when they find a general weakening in those markets where American goods are now being widely distributed.

Spain to Take Action.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MADRID, June 17.—The Spanish Government took direct action as a result of the passing of the new American tariff bill when the Council of Ministers, with Premier Berenguer presiding, voted tonight to assign to a committee already studying the revision of the commercial treaty with France an investigation of "the commercial conflict" with the United States. While the government asks for a report merely for its information, the wording of the official note leaves no doubt that some kind of retaliation will be taken as soon as the government has received recommendations from the committee.

Suggestions referred to from producers and exporters are for the termination of the modus vivendi which grants the United States favored-nation rights. For months such leading industrialists as the president of the Spanish Cork Association have suggested that because of what was said to be the unfairness of the American tariff and discrimination against Spanish products this privilege should be ended.

A committee of representatives of all Spanish chambers of commerce waited on Premier Berenguer today to ask termination of the modus vivendi with the United States. There has been considerable agitation for this action ever since the new American tariff was drafted. A speech by the Spanish Ambassador in Washington, Alejandro Padilla y Bell, was merely an expression of what has been an intense feeling here that if the United States was going to bar all Spanish agricultural product (which form the largest part of Spanish exports) Spain should not take this action without protest.

Before Señor Padilla's speech the Spanish Council of Ministers had already assigned to the Duke of Alba, Minister of State, the task of negotiating with the United States about admission of Spanish fruits and almonds, and stated, "If the outcome of these negotiations is not satisfactory, retaliatory measures will be taken."

Yancey Reaches Los Cerillos, Chile.

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 17 (AP).—Captain Lewis A. Yancey, the American good-will flier, arrived at Los Cerillos Airport here at two minutes after noon today from Quintero, where he took off at 11:10 A. M.

Crib in Which Hoover Slept Is Found in an Iowa Barn

Special to The New York Times.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, June 17.—Hidden in a cow stable where it had been used for years by setting hens, there was brought out today the crib in which Herbert Hoover slept more than fifty years ago.

Wilbur Watters, who bought the cradle at a public sale of the household effects of Jesse Hoover, President Hoover's father, was rummaging through the stable today when he came on the cradle and immediately had it taken to his home. He probably will present it to the museum proposed at Westbranch, President Hoover's birthplace, when it is organized to house the relics of the President's parents.

Mr. Watters does not recall what he paid for the crib, but he is certain that it was more than a dollar. All his children used it and when they outgrew the crib he placed it in the barn and forgot it.

HOOVER SIGNS BILL FOR NEW TARIFFS

vestigate the differences in the cost of production between the domestic article and foreign article and to report upon the earliest date practicable, upon the following articles:

Shoes, both men's and women's shoes; furniture, cement, hose, shovels, spades, scoops, forks, rakes, scythes, sickles, grass hooks, corn knives and drainage tools.

This request is made under and by virtue of Section 336, act approved on the 17th day of June, 1930.

Senator Borah later explained that his purpose was to find out whether the flexible tariff clause would be operative and "actually flexible." He noted that the President had mentioned "inequalities" existing in the new act.

"I want to find out just what can be done about ironing out the imperfections," Mr. Borah said. "If anything is to be accomplished in our lifetime through the flexible tariff provision, we ought to get busy at once.

"In my resolution I merely selected those items which I know something about, and the rates on which I believe are excessive. There will be more resolutions demanding action by the Tariff Commission, and the tariff may be remade through the commission if the provision is flexible and the commission's recommendations are accepted by the President."

He Summarizes Added Costs.

Senator Borah said that tariff experts had told him the new cement duty alone would cost American farmers $16,000,000, and that they would be compelled to pay $78,482,000 additional cost on shoes through the operation of the duty on hides. The increased cost of shoes to the entire American people, he said, would be $280,000,000.

The American farmer would have an added burden of $33,177,000 on cheap furniture as a result of the new law, while the added cost on the farm implements mentioned in his resolution would amount to $2,807,000, Mr. Borah asserted.

Before Senator Smoot left the chamber to participate in the White House signing ceremony Senator George twitted him on "tariff prosperity" conditions by reading reports from morning newspapers on the stock market decline.

"The tariff bill is presumed to be signed today, and the public has been notified that in the signing some several pens will be used," Mr. George said. "It might be a saving or economy to use only one pen and donate that pen to the distinguished junior Senator from Pennsylvania (Mr. Grundy) for safekeeping.

"I also ask to have inserted in the appendix of the Record the changes made in tariff rates as compiled by THE NEW YORK TIMES of Sunday, June 15, in Schedules 1 to 15 inclusive. This compilation notes only the changes made and does not give the rates, of course, where no changes have been made in the several schedules."

"Without objection, the compilation will be printed in the Record," Vice President Curtis declared.

Smoot Hopes Market Will Rise.

"In reply to what the Senator from Georgia has said, calling my particular attention to the articles which he has mentioned from different newspapers and stressing the fact that the decline in the stock market was due to the passage of the tariff bill," Senator Smoot remarked, "I wish to express the hope that the Senator from Georgia will be just as anxious, when the stock market recovers, to give credit to the tariff bill for that recovery, as he is now to blame the tariff bill. The stock market of course will recover.

"Oh, yes, no doubt it will recover," Mr. George said.

"Will the Senator be as anxious to note the fact of the recovery in the Record?" asked Senator Smoot.

"When the stock market shall recover, the Republican party will claim credit for it, of course," Senator George replied.

"The Republican party has not said anything about it," Senator Smoot asserted.

"And when the crops are bountiful as the result of good seasons, the Republican party will be equally quick to claim credit for it," Senator George rejoined.

PERIL TO WAR DEBTS SEEN IN OUR TARIFF

tioned to these critics that America prefers the exporting nations to sell elsewhere and pay her with the receipts, the answer comes that the indebted nations will in any case be selling on the world's markets in competition with America.

Certainly it would seem to be true that with Germany engaged to pay $500,000,000 annually through the Bank for International Settlements, two-thirds of which is to go to America, Germany must do it by borrowing or by selling goods abroad. It would appear logical that curtailment of Germany's share in the American market would not only affect her ability to make payments but, what is perhaps more important for the United States, would lessen her ability to buy in America. In other words there might well be a falling off in trade in both directions. But even so, as far as the war debt payments go, Washington may rely on the responsibility of Britain, France and Italy to pay if Germany does not.

Sees Hope for Britain.

The London Financial News, in an edition filled with columns of financial gloom, discovers for England a ray of hope in the new American tariff. In placing duties on certain raw materials it promises an increase in the American cost of production on some articles America exports in competition with England, and that looks good to this journal. It says:

"It may well happen that despite the heavier duties on finished articles which are Britain's chief exports to America, this country will not invariably be at a disadvantage. As the final product of tariff mongering in the United States has now been sent to President Hoover, the citizens of that country may rejoice in the possession of the latest and greatest example of fiscal folly the world has yet seen."

Referring to the new schedules, it says:

"Judged in their broader aspect, it is quite possible they will mark a turning point in tariff history. It may not be long before they produce a revulsion which will form the prelude to a movement throughout the world toward greater freedom of exchange."

The Morning Post says the American tariff of 1922 was directed chiefly against Britain and that the new law "reinforces that blow." This paper warns its readers not to be deluded by the hope of favorable operation of the revision clause because it never works that way. Great Britain, says The Morning Post, errs in the other direction by throwing her markets open.

"But," it says, "it would be contemptible to squeal or scold. Our duty is rather to take measures for our own defense. And here let us point out that the American tariff is directed not only against Great Britain but against all British dominions and colonies, and especially Canada. There we have something that ought to bring the empire together as it was brought together by the action of Germany in 1914. It is unfortunate, indeed, that just as then Germany thought she could discount British statesmanship so now the United States think they have nothing to fear from the weak and disunited economic policy of the British Empire. Canada has taken the first step to show they are mistaken. It remains for Great Britain to follow that excellent example."

E. P. Coyne, One-Time Lobbyist for Race Track Interests, Had Received Large Fees.

Edward P. Coyne, former County Judge of Livingston County, who died of tuberculosis at Saranac Lake on April 8, 1927, left nothing but $3,450 in insurance. All his personal effects and even the insurance policies could not be found. This was disclosed yesterday in the appraisal of the estate of the one-time lobbyist for the race track interests, who was shown in a legislative investigation in 1910 to have received at least $40,290 in two payments from The Jockey Club for services in opposing Albany legislation inimical to the race tracks.

The appraisal was filed by Edward P. Wood of Geneseo, named as executor in the will made in 1910, when, according to the nature of the bequests, the ex-judge expected to leave at least $100,000. Mr. Ward said that for some time before his death Judge Coyne had been supported by his brother, Paschal V. Coyne of Geneseo, who died shortly after his brother, and that no trace could be found of any of his effects. The insurance companies paid up, although the policies had been lost.

The will gave $50,000 for life to his daughter, Sarah E. Frost, of 225 Twenty-fourth Street, Jackson Heights, L. I., but this sum was reduced to $1,429 in the appraisal, while $24,000 to his mother-in-law, Sarah E. Dotty of the Hotel Belleclaire, was reduced to $686, and $10,000 to his brother, Paschal, shrank to $293. A legacy of $20,000 to Mr. Ward was reduced to $586.

Seelye Benedict, of Benedict & Benedict, insurance brokers, who died June 5, 1929, left an estate appraised yesterday by Deputy Tax Commissioner Stephenson at $2,752,219 gross and $2,200,511 net, of which $2,678,700 was in securities. His quarter interest in Benedict & Benedict consisted of $37,854 capital and $26,596 undivided surplus. After leaving $25,000 to his son-in-law, Henry W. Torney of 903 Park Avenue and $50,000 to his adopted granddaughter, Constance Torney, he gave the remainder of the estate to his daughter, Bertha B. Torney.

The securities included large holdings of insurance stock, among which were 4,800 shares Fidelity-Phoenix Fire Insurance Co., $476,700, and 240 Home Insurance, $140,400. He owned 3,000 shares National City Bank, $1,155,000; 400 Guaranty Trust, $400,000; 1,600 New York Title and Mortgage, new stock, $112,465, and 100 shares of old stock valued at $67,750. He held 2,400 shares Postum Company, appraised at $177,000.

URGES TARIFF REPRISALS.

Italian Press Calls for "Battle of Grain" and Higher Duties.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

ROME, June 17.—The press continues to discuss the new American tariff bill. The Tribuna, calling it a profound economic revolution," urges the government further to intensify the "battle of grain" at the cost of any sacrifice in order to free Italy from a foreign yoke consisting of the importation of American wheat.

The paper suggests new countries should be found to provide the wheat needed, like Katanga, in the Belgian Congo, and that Italy should purchase all the wheat she requires in Europe, Asia and Africa, avoiding America.

The Giornale d'Italia urges an increase of duties on all the products most typically American.

DENIES SUGAR DUTY 'JOKER.'

Smoot Explains 2-Cent Cut in Differential on Refined Product.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—No "joker" is contained in the new tariff act relating to the duty on sugar, Senator Smoot, chairman of the Finance Committee, who was in charge of the bill during its consideration by the Senate, said today when questioned concerning press dispatches to the effect that the bill contained a provision under which refined sugar would come in at a lower duty than that on raw sugar.

There is, however, he said, a reduction in the differential in the rate between raw and refined Cuban sugar in the new act of 2 cents per 100 pounds from the 1922 law. Under the 1922 act, the differential was 14 cents per 100 pounds, whereas under the new law it is 12 cents.

FIGURES PLUTO DUE NEAREST US IN 1988

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 17 (AP).—Professor Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard Astronomical Observatory, today announced that the discovery of photographic plates taken in 1919 of images of the new planet Pluto had enabled him to calculate a final period of 251.8 years for the trans-Neptunian body to complete its orbit.

Pluto will be nearest the earth in 1988, when it will be only thirty astronomical units distant, or 2,800,000,000 miles, about the distance of Neptune.

Professor Shapley's computations were based on telegrams received yesterday from N. H. Seares, assistant director of the Mount Wilson Observatory, where the plates were made. Mr. Seares's telegrams contained data prepared by Seth B. Nicholson and N. U. Mayall of the observatory staff.

Professor Shapley said that the four plates on which Pluto appeared were taken for another purpose. After the announcement of the planet's discovery on March 13 by the Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., and the subsequent plotting of a probable orbit, based on hundreds of reported observations from all parts of the world, the Mount Wilson scientists began a study of plates made years ago.

Their discovery of Pluto in the anticipated position, together with a recent similar discovery made at Brussels on plates taken in 1927, was regarded today by Professor Shapley as conclusive evidence of the planetary nature of the body. Professor Shapley said the planet's eccentricity is .2500. Its orbit is elongated and elliptical, while that of Neptune, the next inner planet, is almost circular.

The new orbit for Pluto, Professor Shapley said, reconciles all previous observations of the planet.

MISS MILBURN WED TO A. R. CONNELLY

Ceremony at Her Mother's Fifth Avenue Home Performed by Rev. John F. White.

BROTHER ESCORTS BRIDE

Her Sister, Frances, Is Her Only Attendant—Couple to Go to Europe on Wedding Trip.

Miss Eleanor Milburn, daughter of Mrs. F. McKenzie Milburn of 810 Fifth Avenue, was married to Albert Ray Connelly, son of John E. Connelly, also of this city, yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, performed by the Rev. John F. White, and the small reception that followed.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Arthur McKenzie Milburn. She wore a gown of ivory-colored satin made with a long train. The bodice had a deep V neck outlined with old rose point lace. Her veil of tulle was fastened on each side of the head with a small cluster of orange blossoms. Her only jewel was a rope necklace of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

Miss Frances Janetta Milburn was maid of honor and her sister's only attendant. Her gown was of aquamarine chiffon and she wore a horsehair hat of the same shade. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and lavendar larkspur.

John E. Connelly Jr. was best man for his brother. There were no ushers. Mr. Connelly and his bride will go to Europe on their wedding trip. On their return they will live in New Haven, Conn. He is attending Yale Law School.

By Major GUY C. CAMPBELL.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

HOYLAKE, England, June 17.—All the leading American golfers qualified today in the British open championship, and among the British there was only one prominent figure—Arthur Havers, the last home player to win the open championship—who failed to meet the test successfully. The other British players not only are safe but did so well today that they raised Britain's hopes of regaining the cup.

Archie Compston heads the qualifying list with an aggregate of 141; Henry Cotton is second with 143; W. T. Twine is third with 144 and Percy Alliss shares fourth place with Leo Diegel at 145.

This, of course, means little. The great thing is that Bobby Jones is safe with George Von Elm and others to back him up. The stage is set, the actors all know their parts and tomorrow the curtain will go up for the first day of the show—which is for three days only.

Horton Smith Not at His Best.

Of the Americans, Horton Smith was the first to start here and certainly he was not at his best. He began splendidly, taking the first four holes in 4, 4, 4, 3, perfect par golf. Then a tendency to pull appeared. This dogged his game for the rest of the round and was largely responsible for his 76.

At the fifth hole Smith pulled his tee shot; at the next he missed a two-foot putt and at the Dowie hole he was so far to the right with his tee shot that he couldn't get his 3. At the far hole he was bunkered to the right in 2. That meant four shots dropped and with a 4 at the ninth hole he had an outward score of 38.

Coming home it was much the same story. He started home as he started out, 4, 4, 4, 3, his 4 at the short eleventh being the result of an unlucky kick to the right which left his ball in the rough to the right of the green and which prevented him from getting a 3. Then the pull manifested itself once more at the fourteenth and fifteenth holes, each of which cost him a 5. He got his 4 at the seventeenth, but at the home hole he again pulled his second shot and took 5, which gave him a homeward half of 33 or 76 for the round and an aggregate of 151.

Macdonald Smith Shoots Well.

Four hours later came Macdonald Smith and he returned a fine score of 71 and an aggregate of 148. Unlike Horton he started badly with a 5 on the first hole and a 6 on the second, where he was in the rough off the tee, then was bunkered and took four more to reach the green. After that his golf, with the exception of a 4 at The Alps and a 5 at the sixteenth, was magnificent.

The American got a birdie 3 at the ninth to be out in 36, and he finished by holing a chip for a 3 at the home hole to be back in 35 and around in 71—truly a great recovery.

Von Elm was the next American out. He started just as MacDonald Smith was finishing—and started badly. The first hole cost him a 5, and then after a 4 at the second, he hit his approach to the long third far too hard, found the rough behind the green and took a 6.

Von Elm dropped another shot at the short fourth; another at the short seventh, where he took three to get down from seven yards, and a third at the far hole that made him 40 to the turn.

Then Von Elm pulled himself together for he started home in 4, 3, 4, 3, his 3 on the short eleventh being nearly a 2, for his long putt just sidled past the cup. He followed these with 5, 4, 5, 4, 4, to finish in 36 for a round of 76 and a total of 147, which put him among the leaders.

Moe Last American to Start.

The last invader to start was Don Moe. He had an off day, for nothing would go right. The result was that he took a 40 each way, which just made him safe to qualify.

In the meanwhile British golfers were doing well. H. Large of Grange Park went around in 73 for a total of 149. His score was equalled a little later by Hugh McNiel. Cyril Tolley lived up to his reputation by returning 75 for a total of 147, which Tom Green of Copt Heaton equalled with a fine round of 71. Then young Twine with a 76 added to his first score of 68 returned the really good aggregate of 144.

At Wallasey the interest, of course, centred first on Bobby Jones and then on Leo Diegel and Jim Barnes. As to Bobby's round I can do no better than say what he said of it himself to me later in the day.

"It was the worst round I have ever played in this country," he declared.

He had only one three in eighteen holes and four fives and one six. He was out in 40 and home in 37, but this 77 made him safe. So all was well; in fact, it is always a great thing to get rid of a bad round when it does not count.

Diegel started as if he were going to break all records. He reached the turn, by par the harder half of the two, in 36 and started home in 4, 3, 3. Then for some reason or other he went completely to pieces and on the next six holes had five fives and one 4, the 4 coming at the seventeenth.

But as in Jones's case this lapse did not affect his position and therefore did not matter. With Bobby Jones and George Von Elm he is one of the invaders the British have much to fear.

Late in the evening Jim Barnes returned a 73 and that made him safe at 150.

Leading Americans Remain.

HOYLAKE, England, June 17 (AP).—The best contenders from the United States—Leo Diegel, Jim Barnes, Horton and Macdonald Smith, professionals, and Jones, George Von Elm, Don Moe and F. C. Stevens Jr., the amateurs—tonight were in the select company of 112 who comprised the 100 lowest scores and ties for the hundredth place in the British open.

Others of the 290-odd who started yesterday are free to go home while the rest fight the real championship battle—seventy-two holes of medal play—during the coming three days.

Bobby Jones was tied with six others for twentieth place in the qualifying lists. He was not a golfing machine today as he scaled the heights of Wallasey and finally checked in with a round of 77, which he considered about the worst he had played in Britain.

They made him a life honorary member of the club when he finished but he did not make a speech about how he loves the Wallasey fairways as he did at St. Andrews.

Police Sergeant Guards Jones.

A police sergeant with baton in hand led the huge mob which followed Jones over the Wallasey course. The Atlantan hit a perfect drive from the first tee, followed this with an accurate second and was down in an easy four.

Jones almost got a three at the second, where a 30-foot putt stopped inches from the cup. At the third his second found a bunker at the left of the green. He made a good recovery, but a nine-foot putt would not drop and he took a par five.

Jones just missed a two at the short fourth and took three. He had a four at the fifth when another putt ran around the cup. At the sixth he drove near the green, but was too strong with his approach and had a short chip left. He missed a three-foot putt and took five.

Jones's second shot was on a bank to the left of the seventh green and he failed to get on in his first attempt. He sent the next six feet from the cup and holed out for a 5.

He was short with an approach putt at the eighth and took two from twenty feet for a 6. At this hole spectators walked across the edge of the green and Bobby, about to putt, shouted:

"Please do not walk across the green."

At the ninth he was in the rough on the left of the green and strong with his chip but he holed a good putt for a 4.

Jones scored a par-4 at the tenth but bunkered at the short eleventh and took another 4 there. He took three putts at the twelfth for a 5.

Bobby played surprising golf—for Jones—for the conditions of play favored good golf and the gallery expected to see him run off a string of birdies. The spectators were amazed to see him take 5's and a 6.

AMATEURS PLAY TODAY IN MET. TITLE TOURNEY

Voigt and McCarthy Among the Starters in Qualifying Round at St. Albans.

Special to The New York Times.

ST. ALBANS, L. I., June 17.—With the exception of Jess Sweetser, who did not enter the event, most of the leading amateur golfers of the metropolitan section were at the St. Albans Golf Club today tuning up their games in anticipation of the annual metropolitan amateur championship, the qualifying rounds for which will be played tomorrow.

The event will signalize the first appearance of George Voigt in the district this season and his efforts will be watched with interest in view of his great showing in the British amateur championship, where he was a semi-finalist, carrying Bobby Jones to the last hole in that round.

It will also mark the first local appearance of Maurice J. McCarthy Jr. in amateur competition this year. McCarthy, who is the defending champion, played his first local golf of the season at Quaker Ridge and Fenimore on Monday, being one of the many who failed to qualify for the open championship.

Pitted against him in the fight for the title will be the newly-crowned champions of the three districts, F. Paul Anderson of New Jersey, Pennington Miller-Jones of Westchester and Eddie Driggs of Long Island. There is still some doubt about Driggs, but he is expected to answer when his name is called.

GREAT GOLF FIELD FOR U. S. OPEN PLAY

112 Selected in Sectional Qualifying to Supplement Exempted Entries.

WALKER AND HANCOCK LOSE

New York Provided Notable Failures, Among Them Brady, Cruickshank, Sweetser.

By WILLIAM D. RICHARDSON.

With the casualty lists comparatively small in the sectional qualifying rounds played in various parts of the country on Monday, another great field of amateur and professional golfers is eligible for the national open championship at the Interlachen Country Club, Hopkins, Minn., on July 10-12.

Looking over the results of the country-wide tests, one is impressed by the fact that the greatest blasting of hopes took place in the hills and dales of Westchester when 137 players vied for fourteen places.

Only one other section had a larger entry, approximately 170 seeking places in Chicago, but the calibre of players is much higher in the metropolitan area than in the Middle West, with the result that the failures were greater at Quaker Ridge and Fenimore than at the Briargate club, where the Chicagoans qualified.

Most Notable Failures.

The most notable failures in the local section were those of Cyril Walker, winner of the national open title at Oakland Hills in 1924; Bobby Cruickshank and M. J. Brady, both of whom have tied for the championship during their careers, and Jess W. Sweetser and Maurice J. McCarthy Jr.

So far as one could see, the only heavy casualty elsewhere was the failure of Roland Hancock, young professional, who came so close to winning the national title at Olympia Fields in 1928. Hancock, it will be remembered, had the title in his pocket, with two holes left to play, played them badly and lost by two strokes, Bobby Jones and Johnny Farrell playing off a tie, with Farrell the victor.

Except for Walker, who has not figured in the championship since he won his title, all the holders of the title since 1920 will be on hand when the field sets forth on the great adventure at Interlachen.

Vying with Jones, who is the defending champion by reason of his victory over Al Espinosa in the play-off at Winged Foot, will be Jim Barnes, who won the title in 1921; Gene Sarazen, the 1922 winner; Willie Macfarlane and Farrell, who hold play-off victories over Bobby, the former beating him at Worcester in 1925, and Tommy Armour, winner at Oakmont in 1927.

Many Exempted From Tests.

One reason for the slight casualty list is the fact that the majority of the leading lights in the golf field scored well enough at Winged Foot last year to exempt them from the qualifying ordeals. The first thirty-one in last year's championship did not have to qualify in the sectional rounds, nor did the members of this year's Walker Cup team. Eight places were left open for any foreign professionals who happen to be desirous of testing their steel against the Americans.

One hundred and twelve players survived the sectional tests, notable among them being Farrell, who fell outside the limits at Winged Foot last year; Joe Turnesa, who had a championship snatched out of his hands by Jones's sensational finish at Sciota in 1926; Bill Mehlhorn, Willie Klein, Johnny Golden, Jock Hutchison, Harry Cooper, Chick Evans, Al Watrous, Ed Dudley and Mortie Dutra.

Goodman Shows His Worth.

Mention should also be made of Johnny Goodman, Omaha amateur, who gained renown by defeating Jones in the first round of the national amateur championship at Pebble Beach last year. One year ago it was Goodman who blazed the trail among the qualifiers with a score of 140. Demonstrating that his victory was no fluke, Johnny scored 141 this year to lead forty-two players in his section.

This year's low qualifiers were Ben Coltren of Oakland, Cal., and Sid Harmon of Salt Lake City, whose totals equaled Goodman's score of last year. Harmon was aided by a hole-in-one. The scoring, however, means nothing, since the different sections qualified on courses varying in length and under different weather conditions.

Among those who made the grade were fourteen amateurs, the outstanding perhaps being T. Philip Perkins, former British amateur champion, who demonstrated his ability as a medal scorer by traversing Quaker Ridge and Fenimore in 149 strokes to tie with Farrell and Herman Barron, one stroke behind Rocky Rich, the local leader.

Unless some of the British professionals decide to enter and use the eight places allotted to visitors, the only international spice to the Interlachen event will be provided by Cyril Tolley, former British amateur champion.

DANN SOUTHERN MEDALIST.

Sets Course Record With 68 in Amateur Title Tourney.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 17 (AP).—A youth from Florida showed the way to the veterans today with a record round of 68 which won medalist honors in the qualifying round of the twenty-eighth annual Southern amateur golf championship.

Carl Dann Jr., 20-year-old representative of the Mount Plymouth Club of Orlando, Fla., conquered both intermittent showers and the hazards of the links to establish a new course record for the eighteen-hole Valley Brook layout. Par for the course is 70.

Dann's score was four lower than that of Wilbur Oakes of Chattanooga. Tom White, veteran Memphis golfer, followed a stroke behind.

Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Dow Golf Winners

Special to The New York Times.

RYE, N. Y., June 17.—Mrs. H. C. Dodge won from Mrs. A. N. Milne by default in the final of the first flight in the Westchester Country Club two-day golf tournament for its women members, which was concluded today. The winner of the second flight was Mrs. H. G. Dow, who defeated Mrs. J. J. Sinnott, 5 and 3.

MISS GLUTTING'S 84 TOPS MET. TOURNEY

20-Year-Old Girl Leads Field of 68 by Nine Strokes at Rock Spring.

Special to The New York Times.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., June 17.—A 20-year-old girl who gave up tennis last Fall to play her first round of golf scored an 84 over the Rock Spring Country Club links today to win low gross honors in a one-day tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association.

The winner was Miss Charlotte Glutting of Baltusroll, who played her first round of golf last Fall and scored a 98. She led the field of sixty-eight starters by nine strokes.

Miss Glutting had nine par holes on her round and set a women's record for the difficult Rock Spring course—a new circuit atop the Orange Mountain.

Mrs. James E. Smith of the old Country Club, Flushing, L. I., and Mrs. Theodore W. Hawes of Canoe Brook took the net prizes, each having a score of 79. Miss Glutting was not eligible for more than one prize, but she won the gross and net and also had the low score, 37, in the putting contest.

MRS. CRISP GAINS IN WOMEN'S GOLF

MISS HELEN HICKS WINS

Medalist Conquers Mrs. Sayre, 9 and 7—Mrs. Bassett Captures Close Match.

Special to The New York Times.

GLEN HEAD, L. I., June 17.—After a stirring contest that lasted for twenty holes, Mrs. V. D. Crisp of the home club conquered Miss Rosina Jones of Lenox Hills in the first round of the women's Long Island golf championship tournament at the Women's National Golf and Tennis Club today.

Mrs. Crisp advanced to the second round together with Miss Helen Hicks of Inwood, Mrs. N. K. Toerge of the Women's National, Mrs. V. Heckscher of Piping Rock, Mrs. J. L. Anderson of Cherry Valley, Mrs. J. A. Dryfoos of North Shore, Mrs. Leo Federman of Fresh Meadow and Mrs. William Bassett of the Engineers Club.

Mrs. Crisp took an early lead in her match with Miss Jones, capturing the second and third holes, after halving the first. On the fourth hole, Miss Jones cut her opponent's margin by scoring a 3 to Mrs. Crisp's 4, but fell behind once more on the fifth, when she three-putted for a 7. Mrs. Crisp got a 4 on this hole and a 5 on the next, which was halved.

Mrs. Crisp's Lead Reduced.

The seventh hole also was halved, but Miss Jones reduced her rival's lead on the eighth and finished the ninth 1 down.

After losing the tenth, Miss Jones staged a sensational rally to win the next three holes and take the lead for the first time in the match. Mrs. Crisp evened the count at the fourteenth, however, and the next two were halved. At the seventeenth, Miss Jones again forged ahead by scoring a par 4 while Mrs. Crisp had a 5, but the latter tied the score once more by winning the eighteenth.

Each player three-putted the nineteenth, which was halved, but, on the twentieth green, Mrs. Crisp obtained a par 4, one stroke below Miss Jones, and captured the protracted match.

LAMBS GOLF TEAM IS DEFEATED, 7 TO 1

Led by Johnny Farrell, Who Scores a 70, Motion Picture Club Wins at Glen Oaks.

Special to The New York Times.

GREAT NECK, L. I., June 17.—Led by Johnny Farrell, Quaker Ridge professional and former national open champion, who scored a 70, two under par, despite a heavy rain that swept the course during his entire round, the Motion Picture Club's golf team defeated the Lambs' Club, 7 to 1, in a special match which featured the eighteenth semi-annual golf tournament of The Film Daily over the Glen Oaks course today.

Gene Sarazen of the Fresh Meadow Club of Flushing led the Lambs' team with 74.

More than 185 golfers played in the tournament, and low gross went to Arthur W. Stebbins, who had 41—40—81. Charles Einfeld, with 89—19—70, proved the winner of low net honors.

Shells on Schuylkill to Carry Bumpers to Prevent Accidents

PHILADELPHIA, June 17 (AP).—The Schuylkill Navy, made up of all the rowing clubs along the Schuylkill River here, has voted to adopt a rubber bumper or some sort of buffer to be placed on the bows of all shells after the present season.

This action, taken at a meeting last night, is to avoid a recurrence of the serious result of the head-on collision last week when Ted Mendenhall of the Pennsylvania Barge Club was injured. Long splinters from the opposing shell entered his back. He is still in a serious condition but has a chance for recovery.

MISS SINGER BEATS MRS. FRASER, 2 AND 1

Defending Champion Gains in Westchester and Fairfield Association's Title Play.

Special to The New York Times.

HARRISON, N. Y., June 17.—Victories of Miss Catherine Singer of the Westchester Country Club, defending champion and winner of the qualifying round yesterday, and of Mrs. Thomas Hucknall of the Woodway Club, runner-up last year and holder of the Connecticut State championship, and the defeat of Miss Marie Jenney of the Hudson River Country Club, former metropolitan titleholder, were among the features of the first round of the Women's Westchester and Fairfield Golf Association's eighth annual championship tournament over the links of the Green Meadow Country Club today.

Miss Singer, who carded 39—44—83 to win the medal yesterday, advanced by turning back Mrs. Charles J. S. Fraser of Wykagyl by 2 and 1. The match ended on the seventeenth green, the longest encounter in the first round of the championship division.

Their cards:

Out—
Miss Singer	5 3 5 5 4 5 4 4 7—42
Mrs. Fraser	6 2 5 5 5 5 5 5 6—44
In—
Miss Singer	8 5 3 5 6 5 4 5
Mrs. Fraser	6 6 4 5 5 5 4 5

Mrs. Hucknall played brilliantly on the outgoing nine, bagging a 38, one stroke better than the 39 made by Miss Singer yesterday and only four over men's par, in vanquishing Mrs. Leila C. DuBois of Wee Burn, 4 and 3.

Six successive 4s, starting at the third hole and ending on the eighth, featured Mrs. Hucknall's outgoing 38. Such consistent play gave her a lead of 5 up at the turn.

Their cards:

Out—
Mrs. Hucknall	6 3 4 4 4 4 4 4 5—38
Mrs. DuBois	6 3 5 4 5 5 4 5 6—43
In—
Mrs. Hucknall	7 7 4 4 5 5
Mrs. DuBois	6 6 3 5 6 5

Miss Jenney was eliminated by Mrs. John H. Lapham of Woodway, 4 and 3, in a match featured by Mrs. Lapham's fine putting. Mrs. Lapham completed the first nine in 42 strokes and had a 4 up advantage over Miss Jenney, who hooked several of her shots.

Miss Singer won the approaching and putting contest in the afternoon with a 9, after a play-off with Mrs. Arnold Jackson, each having scored 8 in the regular contest.

ENGLAND IS VICTOR IN CRICKET TEST

LOSERS STAGE LATE RALLY

Bradman Scores 131 in Spectacular Innings—Winners Without H. Larwood's Services.

NOTTINGHAM, England, June 17 (Canadian Press).—In a fighting finish England won the first cricket test match from Australia at Trent Bridge today by ninety-three runs. When play opened this morning Australia required 369 runs to win and it looked to be an impossible task. The complexion of the match changed when Don Bradman, the Australian, played a fine innings.

At the tea interval Australia was only 112 behind the English total, with four wickets in hand. The English players, though weakened by the absence of Harold Larwood, star bowler, rose splendidly to the occasion and dismissed the balance of the Australian team for nineteen runs.

Bradman scored his third three-figure innings in test match cricket, making 131, a remarkable record for a player who is just over 21 years of age. He is the holder of the record for the highest individual scorer in first-class cricket, making 452 for New South Wales against Queensland last season. Today he played like a seasoned veteran, carefully taking no chances until he was set. His courage in the face of Australia's plight won him a great ovation when his innings ended.

Another young Australian to do well was Stanley McCabe, the youngest member of the team, who put up a stand with Bradman which looked at one time as if it might put Australia, if not in a winning position, at least headed for a drawn match. He scored 49.

WEISS OUTPOINTS TAYLOR.

Wins Main 8-Round Bout at 22d Engineers Armory.

Jack Weiss of the Army Base received the decision over Mickey Taylor of the 113th Infantry of New Jersey in the main eight-round bout at the Twenty-second Engineers Armory last night. Weiss weighed 179 pounds and Taylor 177½.

George Giacchino, 175, of the 106th Infantry, scored a knockout victory over Amedeo Grillo, 172, of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, when the bout was stopped after 2 minutes and 35 seconds of the sixth round of their eight-round semi-final.

Sailor Chester Matan, 197, of the U. S. Navy, knocked out Charley Wepner, 195, of the 244th Coast Artillery in 25 seconds of the sixth round of their eight-rounder. Jim Bennett, 189, of Fort Slocum, halted Pat Kenny, 183, of Fort Wadsworth, in 2 minutes and 45 seconds of the third round of another eight-rounder.

Joe Martin, 144, of the 369th Infantry, outpointed Joe Clucci, 148, of the Twenty-seventh Division Train, in six rounds.

QUEENSBORO BOUTS OFF.

Rain Postpones Long Island City Show Until Next Tuesday.

The rain last night washed out the boxing show scheduled for the Queensboro Stadium in Long Island City and, rather than conflict with the bouts at Ebbets Field tonight or take tomorrow or Friday night, Promoter Si Flaherty decided to postpone his card one week.

Next Tuesday night the program will be conducted, featuring a ten-round bout between Tony Canzoneri and Tommy Grogan, and two eight-round bouts in which the principals will be Nel Tarleton vs. Frankie Marchese and Joe Barbara vs. Lew Paluso. Canzoneri weighed in yesterday at 131¼ pounds and Grogan at 136¼. The other boxers likewise weighed in but, under the State Athletic Commission rules, all boxers must again weigh in next Tuesday.

English Cricket Results.

Glamorgan 194 and 217 (B. Davies 73, not out; Voce 4 wickets for 52 runs, Arthur Staples 4 wickets for 44 runs), Notts 346 and 68 runs for 3 wickets.

Essex won from Northamptonshire at Leyton by 114 runs, with scores of 180 and 234, against 96 and 214. Bakewell scored 110 for Northants.

Hampshire beat Gloucestershire at Southampton by 25 runs. Hampshire made 336 and 193 (Goddard 5 wickets for 43 runs) and Gloucester 316 and 188 (Boyes 6 wickets for 18 runs).

Surrey defeated the league leader, Lancashire, on the first innings. Scores were: Surrey 381 (Gregory 101), Lancs 339 and 249 for 4 wickets (Taylor 60, not out). They played at Manchester.

Worcestershire won from Warwickshire on the first innings at Dudley. Worcester made 346 and 23 runs for no wickets and Warwick 285 and 244 for 6 declared (Parsons 114, not out).

Sussex got the points for a first-innings lead over Leicestershire at Horsham. Sussex compiled 362 and 13 for 4 wickets (Wensley 50, Astill 5 wickets for 105) and Leicester 254 and 156.

Yorkshire defeated Middlesex at Lord's on the first innings. Yorks' scores were 266 and 208 for 6 wickets declared. Middlesex made 242 and 43 for 5 wickets.

Baker and Freeman Bout Tonight.

CLEVELAND, June 17 (AP).—The twelve-round bout between Tommy Freeman, Erie, Pa., welterweight, and Sergeant Sammy Baker of Mitchel Field, L. I., scheduled for tonight, was postponed until tomorrow night because of threatening weather.

Stribling Bout Postponed.

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP).—The ten-round bout between Otto von Porat and W. L. (Young) Stribling, scheduled for the Chicago stadium tomorrow night, was postponed today until Friday night due to an injury Stribling suffered in training.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 17.—Flushed with success over her defeat of the other America's Cup defense yachts yesterday, Weetamoe came out today in another unruffled condition of Long Island Sound and again showed the way home over a twenty-five mile triangle. She finished 54 seconds ahead of Enterprise in a rain squall more blustering in color than in strength.

Weetamoe fairly hurled through the darkened air, leading the fleet almost from the start and leaving the others in a rain of weeping astern of her. It was the third successive victory of Weetamoe over her America's Cup rivals.

In third place was Yankee, the Boston yacht, appearing in her initial race, so that six cup boats competed for the first time in history—all four new ones and the two veterans.

Sailed alternately by John S. Lawrence and C. Raymond Hunt, Yankee made a creditable showing for her first start. She finished only 1 minute and 50 seconds behind Enterprise and 51 seconds ahead of Whirlwind.

Weetamoe Wins at All Points.

Weetamoe won at all points of sailing. To windward Whirlwind was 23 seconds faster than Yankee. Vanitie and Resolute, the old boats, were beaten off, except that Vanitie beat Whirlwind 26 seconds running and Resolute outfooted Vanitie by 55 seconds on the wind.

The breeze was only five miles an hour south by east at the start, a mile east of Eaton's Neck. It increased twice to seventeen miles in squall threats. This gave a reach of nine miles to Crane Neck Point, at the easterly end of Smithtown Bay, a run of eight miles across the Sound to a buoy off Southport, Conn., and a close haul of eight miles back to the starting point.

The racers presented a gray and rather solemn but beautiful picture before the start as they wheeled about slowly for position in the light air. Rain squalls had been in the making over Long Island, and one patch of slate that came out over the water spilled a little rain. The clouds made shadows on the huge sails. The canvas of one would be dark for a moment, and then as she turned it would be blazoned with sunshine.

Just before the starting gun the breeze increased to seven miles. When the sextet of yachts made for the line, breaking out kites for the reach, Vanitie was in the lead. She had to bear off along the line to leeward to keep from crossing the line too soon. She passed ahead of Enterprise and got away first, right on the gun. Enterprise was second. Weetamoe was to weather of Yankee and Whirlwind, which were side by side, and Resolute trailed to windward of all of them.

Three Carry Ballooners.

Vanitie, Enterprise and Yankee carried ballooners. Whirlwind, Weetamoe and Resolute had large reaching jibtopsails. Weetamoe, however, had a jib and staysail also set. Vanitie laid the course, while the others held high to get in the way of wind that might come from the storm clouds.

Enterprise footed fastest for a time. Then Weetamoe began stepping out. Wind came out of the overcast patches, and Resolute, furthest in shore to the southward, felt it first. She heeled over and began scudding along. Weetamoe was next to get it. The extra breeze was only a creampuff, though, and didn't last long.

They straightened up again, but a few minutes later more puffs came. Weetamoe got one and walked past Enterprise to windward of her. These wind spasms spread out into a general freshening breeze that suddenly went up to seventeen miles. Yankee perked up in the livelier condition and moved up into third place.

Weetamoe rounded the mark first at 12:54:53 and promptly set her spinnaker for the run. She was 24 seconds ahead of Enterprise, which was 19 seconds ahead of Yankee. Whirlwind was 29 seconds behind the Boston boat.

Yankee's Spinnaker Fouled.

Enterprise and Yankee had trouble with their spinnakers. Enterprise's would not break out of stops. Yankee's pole whipped up and then the sail fouled on the stays. Enterprise lost a chance to blanket Weetamoe by not getting her kite out.

Just after the turn the wind hauled a little to the westward. All took in their spinnakers except Yankee. Then Enterprise set hers. The others, with the exception of Resolute, reset theirs.

There was less breeze as they crossed the Sound to Connecticut, running away from the squall area. Enterprise set after Weetamoe in an endeavor to get her wind and blanket her. Weetamoe held as high as she could to prevent it and still carry her spinnaker.

As a result both were high of the mark and the others followed them, excepting Yankee, which was to the eastward of the mark. Weetamoe took in her spinnaker and bore off for the mark. Yankee pointed up to it as her spinnaker was taken in.

Weetamoe turned the second mark at 1:32:32, with a 27-second lead over Enterprise, having increased her advantage three seconds on the run. Enterprise was 24 seconds ahead of Yankee, having outrun her by 5 seconds. Whirlwind was 45 seconds slower than Yankee off the wind.

As soon as they rounded the mark for the windward track, Enterprise split a tack with Weetamoe for a short hitch to windward. They began getting the better breeze as they headed back toward Long Island. With the breeze came more drops of rain. They made a long southwesterly close haul of it. The wind had changed to south by west. With them ran the floodtide, washing them along.

Weetamoe kept her lead. When all straightened out to lay for the mark it was a procesison to the finish. Weetamoe crossed the line at 2:12:05 to a tooting of whistles in recognition of her performance, which was a fast though damp one.

Summed up, she reached nine miles in 44 minutes 53 seconds, ran eight miles in 37 minutes 39 seconds and close-hauled on the wind eight miles in 39 minutes 33 seconds.

All except Weetamoe were towed to City Island afterward. Weetamoe went into Cold Spring Harbor. If the weather is clear tomorrow, the yachts will race under the auspices of the Stamford Yacht Club before heading for New London on Thursday on their way to Newport. When they head east they will not return to Long Island Sound waters again.

MEADOW BROOK POLO POSTPONED BY RAIN

Schedule Rearranged for Eastcott-Army and Shelburnes-Ramblers Matches Tomorrow.

Special to The New York Times.

WESTBURY, L. I., June 17.—Long Island polo was washed out of the picture today as a deluge swept the fields of the Meadow Brook Club. The matches between the Sands Point four and the Meadow Brook Fox Hunters and the United States Army team and the Eastcott combination were postponed.

The newly-arranged schedule calls for contests between the Army team and Eastcott on Thursday and between the Shelburnes and the Meadow Brook Ramblers the same afternoon, the former game at 4:30 o'clock and the latter at 5:30. The Shelburnes-Ramblers contest was to have been played tomorrow.

On Saturday Sands Point and the Fox Hunters are to meet. Two other games also will be played Saturday, all the matches to start at 5 o'clock on different fields at the Meadow Brook Club.

The only other match in the Westbury Challenge Cup tourney will bring together the Greentree four and the winner of the Army-Eastcott battle.

HARADA IS VICTOR, JAPAN CLINCHES SERIES

Jan Kozeluh Bows, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, and Czechoslovakia Loses in Davis Cup Tie.

PRAGUE, June 17 (AP).—Japan clinched its Davis Cup tennis series with Czechoslovakia today when Takeichi Harada defeated Jan Kozeluh, brother of Karl Kozeluh, 6—2, 6—3, 6—2. This gave the Japanese the necessary three victories and carried them into the European zone final, where they will oppose the Italians for the right to play the Americans in the interzone final.

The Japanese, with a well-balanced team, broke even in the first two singles matches, took the lead by winning the doubles and then made certain of success against Czechoslovakia by Harada's victory today.

PRINCETON VICTOR IN YACHTING SERIES

Scores 99 Points to Capture Intercollegiate Regatta at Southport.

CROW ANNEXES FIFTH RACE

Is Second in Fourth Contest and Fourth in Sixth—Yale Runner-Up With Harvard Third.

Special to The New York Times.

SOUTHPORT, Conn., June 17.—William Crow's skillful handling of his Princeton sloop won for the Nassau yachtsmen their second intercollegiate title in the past three years and again gave Princeton temporary possession of the trophy presented by W. B. McMillan, charter member of the Princeton Yacht Club, as the two-day series ended this evening off the Pequot Yacht Club. The George May Cup, competed for by Yale, Harvard and Princeton, also went to the winners.

Crow sailed his boat to victory in the fifth contest and placed second in the fourth and fourth in the sixth of the two others of the final three held today. The other Princeton skipper, P. H. Cummins, finished sixth in two of today's races and seventh in the other.

Princeton amassed 99 points, while Yale, in second place, finished with 91 points and Harvard, in third place, scored a total of 88.

The protest made by Yale against Harvard over the start of the second race yesterday was upheld by Briggs Cunningham, chairman of the racing committee, it was announced today, and instead of scoring a victory in that contest the Crimson was disqualified and lost twelve points. This loss greatly affected Harvard's final standing.

An Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association was formed after the final event. J. O. Pease of Princeton was elected chairman. Other officers will be selected later.

Shamrock V Triumphs Again, Winning Race by Half Minute

DUBLIN, June 17 (AP).—Sir Thomas Lipton's America's Cup challenger, Shamrock V, today added another victory to her growing list by winning an exciting race at Kingstown. Shamrock V beat White Heather by a half minute at the end of the second round of a race in which Lulworth and Cambria also competed.

LATZO AND JOHNSON WILL MEET TONIGHT

Box in Main Event of 10 Rounds at Ebbets Field—Okun and Smith in Semi-Final.

Larry Johnson, Chicago's hard-hitting Negro light-heavyweight, will oppose Pete Latzo, veteran Scranton boxer, who formerly held the world's welterweight title, tonight in the main ten-round bout at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn.

The rivals battled last Winter in Madison Square Garden, and, to the surprise of boxing followers generally, Latzo gained the decision. The outcome provided one of the major ring upsets of the year and caused much discussion.

Tonight Johnson will have an opportunity to reverse this setback and to qualify again as one of the dangerous contenders for the light-heavyweight title.

Harry Smith, Harlem Negro middleweight, and Yale Okun, east side boxer, are paired for the ten-round semi-final. In the first of three ten-round events Nick Palmer, National Guard middleweight, will engage Jackie Aldare of Brooklyn. A six-round bout and a four-round event also are scheduled.

Three eight-round bouts feature the card tonight at Mitchel Field, L. I. The principals well be Lew Pacion vs. Francisco Magnelli, Johnny Kerr vs. Dennis Golden and Pete Snitka vs. Jimmy Becker.

Boxing at the Coney Island Stadium will be ushered in tonight with an amateur tournament under the auspices of the Brooklyn Harriers' A. A. A program of fifteen bouts, among representatives of five classes, is scheduled as the first of a series of amateur tournaments planned by Promoter Charlie Henderson.

AMERICA NOT TO RACE.

Plans Abandoned Due to High Cost of Refitting Yacht.

Special to The New York Times.

PLYMIRE TRIUMPHS OVER WEISS AT NET

Stanford Entrant Puts Out Brown Player, 6-0, 6-1, in Eastern Intercollegiates.

VICTOR'S SERVICE STRONG

Holds Command From the Start at Crescent A. C.—Rain Forces Postponement of Other Matches.

By ALLISON DANZIG.

In the only match played yesterday in the Eastern intercollegiate tennis championship, Harold Plymire of Stanford University defeated Guerson Weiss of Brown at 6—0, 6—1, on the courts of the Crescent A. C., in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

With the score standing at 4—0 in the second set, rain began to fall and the turf soon became so unplayable as the downfall continued that the committee in charge decided to postpone the rest of the program until today.

Two defaults helped to complete the first round and to advance one player to the third. V. J. Brady of Fordham won by default from Robert Engleman of Lehigh and Harrison W. Cole of Harvard went to the third round through the non-appearance of W. E. Brooke of Union.

Plymire, a southpaw, won in comfortable fashion from Weiss. The Californian's severe service and ability at the net gave him command from the start and not until he had taken eleven games in a row did the Brown representative break into the scoring column.

Clifford Sutter and Maurice Bayon of Tulane, two of the strongest players in the tournament, arrived today from Cincinnati and will undergo their first tests today. Sutter, who beat Fritz Mercur at Pinehurst, will meet Mario Del Guercio of Fordham and Bayon will oppose E. Purcell, a team-mate of Del Guercio.

THE SUMMARIES.

Singles—First Round—Harold Plymire, Stanford, defeated Guerson Weiss, Brown, 6—0, 6—1; V. J. Brady, Fordham, won from Robert Engleman, Lehigh, by default.

Second Round—Harrison W. Cole, Harvard, won from W. E. Brooke, Union, by default.

ENGLISH PLANNING A NEW POLO CHANGE

Lacey Likely to Be Shifted to Back, While A. Roark Goes to No. 1 Position.

C. T. I. ROARK AT NO 2 POST

G. Balding at 3 Completes the Probable Line-Up for Next Test Match on Saturday.

LONDON, June 17 (AP).—Another probable shift in England's polo team line-up was forecast today after a practice game at Hurlingham where Lewis Lacey, who had been chosen for No. 1, proved quite weak in that position, according to observers.

Lacey never played No. 1 until recently and polo experts now see little likelihood that this star back will adapt himself to that position.

A rearrangement of the team which, it is believed, would strengthen England's side for the international matches in the United States in September would place Aiden Roark at No. 1; Captain C. T. I. Roark, No. 2; Gerald Balding, No. 3, and Lacey, back.

The next trial match for the prospective internationalists is to be played Saturday at Ranelagh but the teams have not yet been announced by Captain Charles Tremayne.

New Team Considered Stronger.

Followers of polo on both sides of the Atlantic were surprised by the shake-up in the ranks of the British international cup team announced on May 29 by Captain Tremayne. The change removed H. P. Guinness, Major C. H. Phipps-Hornby and Captain Tremayne himself and replaced them with Lacey, Balding and Aiden Roark. Pat Roark was the only member of the team as originally picked who retained his place.

The new team announced on May 29 was generally considered stronger than its predecessor. Lacey had not been regarded as a team candidate this year, although he captained the four and played brilliantly in the losing bid of England in 1924 and was also on the Argentine squad in 1928.

News of that shake-up in the British four brought forth from one official at the United States Polo Association headquarters the following statement:

"That's a fine team. With the proper training and preparatory matches this British four can lift the cup. It should provide a splendid series. It is the strongest four Great Britain has sent over since 1914."

There was marked surprise, however, that Lacey, a ten-goal man who always has been a back or 3, should be tried at 1.

JUDGES ARE PICKED FOR HORSE SHOW

Stewards Also Announced for National Competition in Garden Nov. 6-12.

5 FOREIGN NATIONS LISTED

European Teams Will Strive for Military Honors and Other International Prizes.

By HENRY R. ILSLEY.

Unusual interest has been shown in horse shows in all sections of the country this Spring and officers of the National Horse Show, which will be held in Madison Square Garden Nov. 6-12, believe that the approaching exhibition will be the greatest in its history.

This years' event will have a more international character than ever before and already invitations have been accepted by five foreign nations to send teams to compete for the famous international military trophy and the other events for which they will be eligible.

The selection of the judges has been done with unusual care and the association believes that it has been fortunate in securing a board of experts that will attract a record-breaking entry.

Announcement was made yesterday of the full list of judges and the stewards who will act with them in the ring. They are as follows:

Hackney Horse and Hackney Pony Breeding Classes—Judges: R. Lawrence Smith, New York, and William H. Wanamaker Jr., Philadelphia. Steward: J. Stanley Reeve, Philadelphia.

YANKS ROUT INDIANS; GAIN SECOND PLACE

GEHRIG GETS 18TH HOMER

Sherid Yields 7 Hits, While Team Makes 21 Off 4 Hurlers—8-Run Rally in 2d Decides Issue.

By JOHN DREBINGER.

Special to The New York Times.

CLEVELAND, June 17.—Being, after the manner of the great man who is their champion slugger, all good show men at heart the Yankees saved their mightiest demonstration for the last as they again crushed the Indians today by 17 to 2.

With this overwhelming triumph, the Ruppert forces headed for the East tonight secure in the belief that they had given the West a terrific jolt.

They had overwhelmed the Indians in three straight games, had rolled up a winning streak of five straight, during which they amassed the astounding total of sixty-nine runs, had brought their trip to a conclusion with the highly commendable record of having won nine of the twelve games played, and in addition to this had advanced themselves to second place, with the Athletics only one game away. The Senators and Indians, tied for second place yesterday, dropped to a third place tie as a result of the Yankee victory.

Despite the humiliating defeats suffered in the first two games, Cleveland's holiday spirit was still in evidence before the game today for, despite threatening skies, a gathering of 15,000, including a brass band, filed into the arena, confident that the Indians, swiftly and surely would make amends.

Yankees Move Swiftly.

Unfortunately, the Yanks moved just a trifle swifter. Inside of two innings they had the game torn apart with an 8-run explosion in the second that stunned the crowd and prostrated the band.

From then on the annihilation of the Indians continued with scarcely any interruption as Bob Shawkey's men pummeled four Cleveland hurlers for twenty-one hits.

Babe Ruth deigned to take only a minor part in the massacre, getting nothing more than a single, but Lou Gehrig hit his eighteenth homer of the season and his fourth of the series, along with a double and two singles. Rice chimed in with two doubles and two singles and Combs, beginning modestly with two singles, followed with a double and a triple.

From behind this violent offensive movement the tall, slender Roy Sherid pitched with seemingly not so much as a care in the world. He allowed seven hits and two runs, doubtless due to oversight.

Clint Brown was the first Indian victim. There had been thunderous applause for Clint in the first when, after Combs and Lary had singled, he fanned Ruth and Lazzeri, but Gehrig clipped him for a single and a run. This may have softened the young man considerably, for in the next round he went to pieces completely and Jablonowski was hurriedly called to his assistance.

Chapman Bats Twice in Second.

In this hilarious second frame Chapman, up twice, hit a double and a single, and Sherid, Combs, Lazzeri and Rice all singled. Gehrig contributed a double and in the general confusion the Indians committed three blunders in the field that helped to swell the total to eight runs for the inning.

BROWNS' SLUGGING DEFEATS SENATORS

Enter Eighth With 6-4 Lead on Goslin's Homer and Pile Up Six More Runs.

ST. LOUIS, June 17 (AP).—The St. Louis Browns won from the Washington Senators, 12 to 9, today in a game which developed into a free-hitting, free-scoring contest in the final innings. The victory gave the Browns the series, three games out of four.

The Browns went into the eighth inning with a 6-to-4 lead as a result of Goose Goslin's first homer since changing over to St. Louis and piled six more runs atop their lead. The Senators answered the challenge by scoring five runs in the ninth, just three short of a tie.

RED SOX TRIUMPH TO SWEEP SERIES

Hammer 3 White Sox Hurlers to Achieve Early Lead and Are Never Headed.

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP).—The Boston Red Sox defeated the White Sox, 8 to 5, today and swept the three-game series.

Three Chicago pitchers were ineffective in the first two innings, during which Boston scored six of its runs. Caraway worked the rest of the way. In all, Boston got fifteen hits. The White Sox touched Milton Gaston for eleven.

BRAVES TURN BACK REDS IN TWO GAMES

Frankhouse, Obtained From the Cards, Makes Debut and Helps Boston Take Opener.

RIXEY FAILS IN NIGHTCAP

Victors Erase Three-Run Lead and Hammer Three Cincinnati Hurlers for 16 Hits.

BOSTON, June 17 (AP).—Aided by Fred Frankhouse, who came here today from the Cardinals, the Braves managed to take a doubleheader from the Cincinnati Reds. The scores were 6 to 4 and 10 to 5.

Frankhouse, who came to the Braves with Sherdel in a trade which sent Burleigh Grimes to St. Louis, made his début in the sixth inning of the first game, which Bob Smith and Ed Brandt were letting slip away from them.

Eppa Rixey failed to hold a three-run lead in the second game, and the heavy-hitting Braves garnered sixteen safeties off three pitchers before the game was over.

GIANTS AND ROBINS CHECKED BY RAIN

By WILLIAM E. BRANDT.

Giants and Robins swung westward last night after rain blocked them from waging their farewell games at the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field with the Cubs and the Cardinals, respectively. The next local appearance of the high-flying Flock and the climbing McGrawmen is scheduled for the Fourth of July.

The scene will be the Polo Grounds and the splitting of the holiday doubleheader into morning and afternoon games for the first time in several years will very likely set a new Fourth of July attendance record for the local National League stadium.

The Robins left Flatbush three and a half games ahead of the second place Cubs, with the Cubs two and a half games in front of the Giants. Due to the sagging of the Pirates and Cardinals, the pennant race for the present features only these three clubs. The Brooklyn lead over the field is really quite seizable, if you compare it with conditions at the forefront of the American League steeplechase.

The deadline on intra-league trades was reached at midnight Monday night without any last-minute deals involving either the Giants or Robins. Both clubs are within the twenty-five-player limit.

The Cardinals left for home without Burleigh Grimes, who was expected to join the team yesterday. Burleigh sent word he would check in at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, on Thursday. Grimes was secured by the Cardinals in exchange for pitchers Bill Sherdel and Fred Frankhouse, the deal just barely getting in under the midnight deadline Monday night.

READING LOSES TO TORONTO

Leafs Get 16 Hits Off Bell, While Keys Drop Into Last-Place Tie.

READING, Pa., June 17 (AP).—Reading dropped into a tie for last place in the International League by losing to Toronto today, 10 to 2. George Bell, Chicago Cub farmhand, was touched for sixteen hits by the Leafs.

O'DOUL'S HIT WINS FOR PHILS IN TENTH

PITCHERS STAGE A DUEL

PHILADELPHIA, June 17 (AP).—Lefty O'Doul's tenth inning single broke up a pitchers' battle and gave the Phillies a 5-to-4 decision over the Pirates today.

Chester Nichols and Larry French engaged in the hurlers' duel and although hit hard at times, kept the batters' hits well scattered. The Phillies got twelve off the Pirates' southpaw while Pittsburgh got to Nichols for ten.

Chuck Klein, after going hitless the first three times at the plate, connected for a single in the eighth inning to run his consecutive game hitting to twenty-six. Pie Traynor put the ball over the fence for a home run in the sixth—the inning in which the Pirates scored all their runs.

O'Doul's single in the tenth scored Denny Sothern who led the round with a single and advanced to second on an infield out.

BISONS' 15 SAFETIES TURN BACK BEARS

Three Doubles and Two Triples Included in Buffalo's Total—Game Played in Rain.

Pounding out fifteen hits, including three doubles and two triples, the Buffalo Bisons had no trouble in defeating the Bears at Newark yesterday by 6 to 1. The game was played in a drizzling rain.

Ray Lucas of the Bears was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning. He was succeeded by Don Brennan. The latter allowed eight hits, but kept the Bisons in check. It was the second triumph for the Bisons in nine games with the Bears and the first of the year at Newark.

Cooney and Thomas led the attack for the Bisons, each getting four hits. Thomas drove in four of his team's runs. The box score:

Yale's Rally in Seventh Inning Turns Back Harvard Nine

DESROCHES IS KNOCKED OUT

Crimson Infielder Crashes Into Dugout Posts in Making Brilliant Catch—Nines Play Today.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 17.—Rallying in the seventh inning in a downpour of rain, Yale gained a 9-5 victory over the Harvard nine today in the annual commencement contest.

From the third to the seventh Harvard loomed as a winner, but a three-base hit by Ed Warren with two mates on the bases in the seventh turned the tide and gave Yale a lead of one, which was stretched to four later as three Crimson pitchers were sent into the box in an effort to check the Yale attack.

Warren divided the honors of victory with Ned Jennison, who, although he was pounded hard in the third and fourth innings, returned to commanding form and held the invading Crimson team scoreless until the end which came after nearly three and a half hours of baseball, played entirely in the rain and on a field which gained gradually in slipperiness.

Daring Play Is Made.

Emil Desroches, Harvard third baseman, showed gameness in perfecting a play which was pronounced by Joe Wood, Yale coach, as one which outranked all daring diamond feats he had seen in his long major league career. With second and third occupied, Desroches raced for Vincent's foul in the seventh and crashed at top speed into the cement posts of the dugout occupied by the Harvard players. He leaped part way to the roof, clinched the ball and automatically rolled it back to the infield as he lost consciousness from the terrific blow he had received. One run was scored on the play.

Desroches was revived after several minutes and insisted on continuing to play. The ovation he received from the throng of Yale alumni here for commencement week was a rare tribute.

Ben Ticknor started on the mound for Harvard. After allowing three runs in the first inning on a single, two errors and a pass, he held back Yale's desperate rallies until the seventh. McKenzie, in the third, led off with a triple and Ticknor then passed Fred Linehan, Yale's heaviest batsman. Ticknor forced the next three batsmen to roll infield grounders.

McGrath's Single Scores Two.

Harvard confined its scoring to the third and fourth innings. Sheldon opened the third with a single and Mays was hit by a pitched ball. Nugent sacrificed both runners along and then McGrath drove a single to left to score Sheldon and Mays.

The Crimson counted three times in the fourth. Wood and Devens singled and the bases were filled when Desroches was hit by a pitched ball. After Lupien fanned, Sheldon came through with a single to right, sending Wood and Devens across. On the throw to the plate Desroches went to third and Sheldon to second. Mays walked to fill the bases and then Desroches crossed the plate on Nugent's sacrifice fly. Sheldon tried to reach third after the catch and was caught.

Poor base running by the Elis aided Ticknor in the fourth. Maine and Beyer hit singles and Jennison's fly to right was followed by an attempt by Maine to leave second base too soon. He was called out.

After Booth and Walker had walked in the seventh and Warren's triple had given Yale its one-run lead, McHale was called into the box. He pitched to only one batsman, fanning Maine. McHale retired and will be Harvard's pitcher in the second game of the series in Cambridge tomorrow.

Samborski Hit Freely.

Samborski and Charley Deven divided the mound duties in the final inning. Samborski was wild and was hit freely and went to the outfield while Devens was pounded for Yale's final runs.

The fielding exhibition given by both nines on a slippery field was superb and the dramatic intensity of the contest stamped it as with few precedents in the longest collegiate baseball series which, begun in 1868, today swelled to 158 games with Yale now leading with 83 victories to 74 for Harvard and one tie.

YALE DEFEATS ARMY IN TITLE POLO PLAY

IGLEHART SCORES 6 GOALS

Phipps Plays Well, Making Three—Haskell and Wing Star for the Cadets.

By LINCOLN A. WERDEN.

Special to The New York Times.

RUMSON, N. J., June 17.—A powerful Yale polo four, with two of the international squad's young players in its line-up, crushed the Army by 13 to 2 in a semi-final round game of the intercollegiate championship at Herbert Memorial Field today.

With an attack that gained momentum after two opening periods which saw Army play its best polo, Yale swept ahead to triumph easily, and consequently will meet Princeton here Saturday afternoon in the final.

A light rain which fell during most of the game set a bleak gray background for the contest, but it did not darken the brilliant performance of the Yale team, nor slow the field, and the game which brought Yale into the championship for the first time against Army, Harvard's conquerer of Saturday, was filled with hard, fast polo.

Iglehart Is Star.

In the stunning offense to which each of the victorious four contributed a full share Stewart Iglehart, who with J. C. Rathborne is a member of the international squad, played an important rôle, and accounted for 6 goals. Crisp, accurate hitting by Michael Phipps at No. 1 resulted in three, while Rathborne and J. P. Mills, the No. 2, added to the scoring with 2 goals each.

Only in the first two periods did Army successfully press the Eli four, the score being 2-1 in Yale's favor at the end of the second period. Yale tallied 1 goal in the first chukker on Rathborne's shot under his pony, but the cadets kept the ball in their territory most of the period.

Excellent defensive play halted Army when J. F. Haskell's try for a goal was blocked in front of the posts and R. E. Beebe, the Army back, also lost a chance after a free hit resulting from a foul.

Haskell's Play Splendid.

Haskell, Army's No. 3, who played a splendid game throughout, tallied at the height of the attack to even the score at 1-1 in the following period, but Iglehart drove a long, high shot for a goal that sent Yale into the lead after Mills had set up the ball in a scoring position, and Yale stayed in front after that.

Yale's drive took form and aggressiveness in the third period. Rathborne, without his full string of ponies, gave way to substitute Hardie Scott in this period, but Yale began its spirited attack that lasted through the next three periods. Phipps scored 2 of Yale's goals and Iglehart the third.

After the rest period Rathborne returned to the line-up and Phipps and Iglehart scored in rapid succession. Haskell broke away for a short run, but Iglehart retrieved the ball. Iglehart tapped in a goal after the ball stopped dead at the posts, after a foul on Haskell gave Yale a free hit from the 40-yard line. Excellent hitting by Mills brought 2 more goals, the Eli player carrying the ball in with him from a mêlée, while he scored the other goal on a high shot through the posts.

Rathborne Makes Long Run.

Rathborne's long run, which culminated in a diagonal shot for a goal, featured the fifth period, and Iglehart tallied shortly after as a weak knock-in by Army left the ball close to the goal. Wing gave the cadets their second score on a pretty backhand shot, but Iglehart retaliated by backing in a pass for a goal that ended the scoring.

Yale altered its line-up in the final period when E. S. Potter replaced Phipps at No. 1 and S. P. Porter took Mills's post at 2. This was the only period in which neither side scored.

The line-up:

Yale (13).	Army (2).
1—M. Phipps	1—F. F. Wing Jr.
2—J. P. Mills	2—C. A. Brandt
3—S. B. Iglehart	3—J. F. Haskell

SCORE BY PERIODS.

Yale	1	1	3	5	3	0	—13

Goals—Yale: Rathborne 2, Iglehart 6, Phipps 3, Mills 2. Army: Haskell, Wing.

Substitutions—Yale: Hardie Scott for Rathborne, E. S. Potter for Phipps, S. P. Porter for Mills.

Referee—Captain J. Wesley White. Time of game—Six periods of 7½ minutes each.

YALE VARSITY CREW SLACKENS ITS WORK

Harvard Also Has Light Drill on Thames, Where Rivals Will Race on Friday.

ELI JAYVEES, CUBS TIMED

Junior Varsities and Freshmen Do Nearly All of Hard Rowing as Weather Improves.

By ROBERT F. KELLEY.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 17.—Gray and cloudy weather brought a change of wind to the Thames today and made for better water conditions for the crews of Yale and Harvard. It was still blowing pretty hard, but there was a let-up late this morning which allowed quite a bit of activity, and this evening the crews were again able to get out for long drills.

For the most part, today belonged to the lesser crews, the Yale junior varsity and freshman crews going over their courses against the watch this morning and creating most of the day's excitement.

Conditions for the Yale crews, which left their quarters about 10 o'clock, the hour of the race on Friday, were fairly good. Coach Ed Leader followed his juniors over the course and Fred Spuhn preceded them with his freshmen. Both were unpaced.

When the Yale crews had finished there was a rush for the road along the river again, but the Harvard freshmen, contrary to expectation, did not go over the course and the juniors contented themselves with a mile spurt.

Times Are Not Announced.

Times are no longer announced up here in either camp, both head coaches abandoning the practice of the past few years, when they followed each other during these workouts. But there were plenty of volunteer watchers today along the river bank. All of these caught two Yale boats under 10:30 for the two miles that they rowed.

The Yale juniors were two or three second faster than the Yale freshmen. The Harvard juniors in their mile spurt were caught at a bit more than 5:10, most observers agreeing on 5:11.

The Harvard freshman crew, still regarded as having about the best chance of a Harvard boat to win its race on Friday, has had one man added since its last race, when it won from M. I. T. and Penn last month. Swazey has taken the place of Rice at bow.

Jayvee Eight Rearranged.

Leader has been having some trouble with his junior varsity and it has been well shaken up since its arrival in training here. There was first the loss of Art Palmer, last year's varsity stroke, who was forced to quit rowing because of the illness of his father.

Irving, who stroked Yale to victory in the American Henleys, has moved into that seat and other changes have been made.

The Yale freshmen have improved down here to quite an extent. They are faced by what is apparently the hardest job of any of the Yale crews on Friday. They are rowing, with one exception, as they rowed at Princeton in mid-May in the Carnegie Cup regatta. The change has been the insertion of Penny in place of Keppleman at No. 4.

Both varsities took things rather easily today. Leader did not take his first crew out at all this morning and most of them were aboard launches watching the other eight.

It begins to appear that the first boats have finished most of their hard work and will content themselves with limbering-up work until the day of the race.

Yale may be a pronounced favorite for the main event, but there is apparently no slackening of interest. Every hotel in the city reports full reservations for the race days, and cots are being placed in single rooms to take care of the overflow.

COLUMBIA'S CREWS HOLD TIME TRIALS

Surprise Other Camps at Poughkeepsie by Braving Rough Water and Heavy Winds.

CALIFORNIA MEN SHIFTED

Workman Put at 2 and Woodward at 5—Thrasher Again Becomes Penn Varsity Stroke.

Special to The New York Times.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 17.—While coaches and oarsmen of the majority of crews in training here for the intercollegiate regatta on June 26, sat idly ashore, grumbling at the rough water and heavy winds which were their unhappy lot, Coach Richard J. Glendon's four crews rowed their way over the course for time trials today. This manoeuvre came as a complete surprise and left opposition camps dumbfounded.

It was late in the afternoon. "Will this rough water never end?" grumbled the coaches. Their queries were never answered. For out of the shadows in the centre of the river came the four Columbia boats, shooting swiftly upstream, unmindful of both wind and water. The stroke was high and smooth, as the shells, one by one, finished the surprising test.

Outside of Columbia's trial, actual water activity during the day was listless, mainly because of the unsatisfactory condition of wind and water. All crews were out at some time or other, but they stayed close to shore and made no attempt to approach anywhere near racing pace.

Several changes were made in California's first crew, Workman replacing Brinck at No. 2, and Woodward going in for Dally at No. 5. The California freshman crew also was shifted, Lackey going in for Luther at No. 4 and Neuman for Enemark at No. 5.

Rusty Callow engineered another Pennsylvania major shift, again replacing Voehringer with the heavier Thrasher as stroke oar in the first boat.

Coach Richard A. Glendon spent a quiet day at the Navy camp, venturing the opinion that this year would find more high-class crews at the starting line than ever before. He said the race lay among Columbia, Washington, California, Cornell and Navy. "It will be a great race," he promises.

Cornell, M. I. T. and Syracuse held workouts with unchanged crews.

WASHINGTON CREWS SWEEP THREE RACES

VARSITY SHELL SETS MARK

Beats Badgers by Two Lengths Over Two Miles in 10:14, Fastest Time Ever Made in Madison.

Special to The New York Times.

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—Three brilliant Washington crews left for Poughkeepsie at noon today to carry the challenge of the West to Eastern rowing supremacy. The Huskies, victorious in all three races with the Wisconsin eights, departed for new laurels on the Hudson with the cheers of 10,000 enthusiasts still ringing in their ears.

Washington, champion of the Pacific Coast, added Middle Western rowing honors to its list this morning by capturing the varsity, jayvee and freshman races on Lake Monona, with a drizzling rain and a twelve-mile wind whipping the waters of Monona into a rough sea.

Despite this fact, the Washington varsity skimmed over the two-mile route in 10:14, the fastest time ever made in Madison by any crew. The Huskies crossed the finish line a bit less than two lengths in front of the Badger varsity.

The first race of the day, the junior varsity, found the Huskies winning by five lengths in 10:32. Wisconsin's time was 11 minutes. The Washington jayvees took the lead at the start and pulled away throughout, to win without trouble.

The freshman crew of the visitors from the Pacific Coast won its race by stroking the distance in 10:36, as compared with 10:46 for the Badger yearlings. The Washington first-year boatload showed beautiful form, as it raced down the course with all the earmarks of a champion.

SUN BEAU ANNEXES BRAMBLE HANDICAP

Closes Strongly in Stretch to Beat Apple Cart by Length in Aqueduct Feature.

UNION CLAIMING TO ON TAP

Gains Early Lead and Wins by Four Lengths From Gay Past, With Timon Third.

By BRYAN FIELD.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sun Beau may be one of the greatest handicap stars of this or any other year, but two obscure horses which ran against him yesterday were unimpressed by his reputation and came very close to beating him in the Bramble Handicap, the day's feature at Aqueduct.

At the end of the mile and a furlong Kilmer's champion had a length the best of things, with the Greentree Stable's Apple Cart second and the Sage Stable's Bannerette only another three-quarters of a length away in last position.

Chicatie, from the Fair Stable, went to the post as a fourth starter, but was left and did not run with the field.

Sun Beau was 1 to 4 in the betting, giving some idea of what was thought of his changes of being beaten by Apple Cart, Bannerette and Chicatie. Any who supported the son of Sun Briar at these odds had many nervous moments, for Sun Beau was second at the sixteenth pole.

Coming out of the chute, onto the main track back stretch, Sun Beau was in a pocket. It is a long run down the back stretch and every foot of the way Sun Beau stayed in the pocket—Apple Cart running in front of Sun Beau and Bannerette just on the outside, locking Kilmer's horse in on the rail. The far turn found no slowing of Apple Cart's pace—which was a surprise in itself, as he had never run longer than six furlongs and was the 30 to 1 outsider in the betting.

Coltiletti on Sun Beau.

Half way around the bend, Frank Coltiletti, on Sun Beau, decided that he had better get out of the pocket, and that there was no getting out the front way, and he went out the back way.

He eased up, lost ground, and came around on the outside. When straightened out in the stretch, Sun Beau was third, but he had racing room.

Every one looked for Sun Beau to run over the two in front, but Coltiletti was seen to go to the whip, as Sun Beau evidently felt lazy. But one crack of the whip was not enough. Another and another hit Sun Beau and it was clear that he had a battle on his hands, for Apple Cart and Bannerette were going along in front with no sign of lagging.

At about the furlong pole, Sun Beau began to look as though he meant to go after the others. He ranged alongside in a few strides and went into the lead a sixteenth from home. He kept on going and was leaving the others fast at the wire. His time was 1:52 1-5 for the mile and an eighth.

Nine in Union Claiming.

In the richest race on the card, the Union Claiming Stakes, in which nine went to the post, J. H. Loucheim's On Tap, 6 to 5 favorite, was the winner of the purse of $4,775. On Tap rushed off to a long early lead and won by four lengths, with Jockey C. Waters looking back at the others.

Gay Past, slow to begin, made up a lot of ground and ran second, half a length ahead of Timon, also a slow breaker. Timon was the outsider in the race and was played from 20 to 1 down to 15 to 1.

Schmeling Flies to Endicott, Visits Training Camp Friends

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 17 (AP).—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, arrived at the Endicott Airport today after flying from New York City with a party of friends in a seven-passenger Junkers plane. Schmeling's visit to the scene of his training for the Jack Sharkey bout is purely a social one, his manager, Joe Jacobs, said.

"We are not interested in any fight for the championship at present," Jacobs said in commenting on reports that efforts would be made to sign Schmeling for a return bout with Sharkey in September.

GALAHAD CAPTURES SEDGWICK HANDICAP

Reuter Stable Entry Comes From Behind to Win in Stretch at Washington Park.

CHICAGO, June 17 (AP).—Galahad carried the orange and black colors of the Reuter stable to victory in the Robert Sedgwick Handicap at Washington Park today, coming from behind in a well-timed move to head the leaders in the stretch. The mile and a furlong was run in 1:51 2-5. Canaan, which made the pace, lasted to take the place from Ben Machree.

Galahad trailed the field for the first half mile, with Jockey E. Ambrose having him under stout restraint. As the field of five started around the last bend, Galahad moved up resolutely on the outside and caught Canaan an eighth from home. Stars and Bars, the favorite, weakened in the final drive. Galahad paid $7.00.

The form players suffered a setback in the third race when Boom, the heavily-played choice, fell as he was moving up to take the lead. Jockey Marcum was shaken up, but came back to fulfill his riding engagement. Islam, an outsider in the betting, won the race.

Sports of the Times

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

By JOHN KIERAN.

WITH pen, pencil and typewriter, Brooklyn fans have attacked the all-star Giant-Brooklyn team picked here about a week ago. It was to be expected. Loyal fans could do no less. Not only that, but the Brooklyn team being out in front, they took it as the height of insult to pick a greater number of players from a team lower in the race. The fact that the Giants are neighbors made it all the more bitter.

All Brooklyn belligerents insisted that Wright should have been picked for shortstop over Jackson. Perhaps so, but they are fairly close in batting and fielding, and the Arkansas Traveler has a stronger arm. There is no doubt, however, that Wright is more important to the Robins than Jackson is to the Giants. The recovery of Wright just about made the Robins what they are today, and it is to be hoped the Brooklyn fans are satisfied.

Some Brooklyn belligerents insist that Lopez should have been picked over Hogan for catcher on this mythical all-star team. No, no! Not with Hogan hitting so much higher.

But the burden of the main attack is that the team was picked in prejudice, and that the Giants are prime favorites in this corner while the Robins are considered just so many outlanders and miscreants for daring to step ahead of the proud Polo Grounders.

Say Not So!

Not guilty! There is no more quaint and kindly character in baseball than Uncle Wilbert Robinson. May his shadow never grow less. There would be a glow of pleasure in stepping up to Uncle Wilbert and congratulating him on winning a pennant. It would crown a great season.

Steve McKeever, Joe Gilleadeau and Frank York are Corinthians, lads of mettle. Dazzy Vance is a great pitcher, a good golfer and a raconteur fit to swap yarns with Irvin Cobb, Bob Davis and other tellers of marvelous tales.

They make heroes of novels of fellows like Glenn Wright. A fine-looking, upstanding young athlete who has made a wonderful come-back. He is a great player. He is smiling, cheerful, friendly. Who could help liking him?

There is Señor Adolfo Luque, the Cubanola Curver, one of the outstanding pitching stars of the year and one of the great baseball figures of the past fifteen years. His stamina is all the more wonderful in view of the fact that he has put his heart in every ball he pitched through all these years. A fierce little fellow on the mound and a fine little fellow off it. More power to him.

Herman the Magician.

That any one could harbor malice against the great Babe Herman is unthinkable. He is happiness personified. Like Sir John Falstaff, he is not only witty in himself but the cause of wit in others. He goes around stirring up laughs. He annoys no one except unhappy wights who are pitchers by profession. Probably he feels sorry for them. Three rousing cheers for Babe Herman, for he's a jolly good fellow (chorus), which nobody can deny.

Wally Gilbert, at third base for the Robins, is not only a steady-going, hard-hitting player but a gentleman and a scholar. He was a great college football player. He plays a cultivated game of bridge. Rube Bressler is a kindly chap and a walking baseball library. He has been in both big leagues, has been around for sixteen years, has seen a great deal and remembers everything he saw.

Johnny Frederick is quiet and courteous. Hank DeBerry is one of nature's noblemen. If honesty, hilarity and good fellowship had anything to do with the pennant race, the round Robins of Flatbush would be even further ahead than they are now.

Explaining a Puzzling Point.

If there is no prejudice and the Robins are in front, how did it happen that so many Giants were picked on that all-star team? Evidently, that puzzled the Robin rooters, but the answer is evident. It's pitching that makes the difference.

One team might have eight regulars slightly better than another team. In picking an all-star combination, the first team might sweep the nominations. But give the other team a stronger pitching staff, and it would run away from the parties of the first part.

That's an extreme case, picked for illustration. But something of the kind is found in comparing the Robins with the Giants as individuals and as a team. If the Robins continue to get the pitching, it won't be important that the Giants have a slim edge at certain positions, just enough edge to secure the nomination on a mythical all-star team.

In Vance, Clark, Luque and Phelps the Robins have more good pitchers than the Giants can muster at the moment. That tells the tale as far as the race has gone.

Time Enough for Cheering.

It is to be hoped that this explanation will cause a general unloading of the Brooklyn shotguns that were pointed in this direction. At the same time Robin rooters are cautioned against undue cheering too early in the year. Accidents may happen. September is some distance off. The strongest team doesn't always win, &c.

The Robins themselves dove down to the cellar before they began to climb. The St. Louis Cardinals rose from nowhere to lead the league through a magnificent winning streak and then plunged rapidly downward again. The Pirates dashed off in the lead and then hit the chutes. The Giants dashed up, were dashed down, and lately have been climbing again. When Hal Carlson died and Rogers Hornsby broke his ankle, the Cubs were practically counted out. That was the start of a winning streak for them.

When such things happen, who can guess the future? But let the Robin rooters cheer lustily. "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may," this being in the nature of a cheery salute and not a lugubrious warning. If Uncle Wilbert leads his round Robins to a pennant, the rejoicing in Flatbush may be louder than in this corner but not a whit more sincere.

ROYAL FAMILY SEES ASCOT RACES OPEN

King, Queen and Sons Present—Trimbon Wins the Royal Gold Vase With Ease.

BONNY BOY IS ALSO VICTOR

Lemnarchus Captures the Coventry Stakes From Sir Andrew, Owned by Woodward, American.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—An American horse, Sir Andrew, owned by William Woodward, failed by a length to beat Lord Ellesmere's Lemnarchus in the Coventry Stakes at the opening of the Ascot meeting today. The presence of King George, who was prevented by illness from attending last year's racing, made the meeting more brilliant than ever.

Sir Andrew swerved at the start leaving him with plenty of ground to make up. When he finally caught up with Lemnarchus, which had beaten off Pharian and Arthos, he found Lord Ellesmere's horse facing the bill with great resolution. He made a plucky effort to overtake the leader which finished very strongly.

Two other American-owned horses also were in the races but finished less creditably. A. K. Macomber's Brugeux ran in the day's most spectacular race, the Ascot Stakes which was won by M. de St. Alary's Bonny Boy. Second, after close running, was Lord Derby's Richborough. The favorite, Buoyant Bachelor, came in third.

Brown Jack, which was greatly fancied, finished a close fifth not more than neck behind the Aga Khan's Aftab which was fourth. This was the winner's first victory since he won the Ebor last year.

Schiff's Argonaut Second.

Mortimer L. Schiff's Argonaut finished second in the first race, the Queen Anne stakes which was won by J. A. Dewar's The Recorder despite the fact that the victor started from an outside position. This handicap was nullified by such a smart start that Jockey Clifford Richards was able to cross over and race nearer the stands.

Dewar inherited his horses from his uncle Lord Dewar. Last year Aristole won the Trial Stakes for Lord Dewar which race this year was renamed as a belated recognition of the founder of the meeting after 219 years. Queen Anne was responsible for the first Ascot race in 1711, but until today no race bore her name.

The weather was sunny and warm today. Men in their severe, correct attire, which was complete to gray toppers, envied the women in their flimsy, trailing frocks. The setting was all that could be desired, with the brilliant scarlet jackets of the royal postillions and outriders first seen against the background of green trees by the golden gate.

Signal for King's Arrival.

That was the signal for the arrival of the royal procession from Windsor Castle. The King, looking extremely well, sat in an open carriage beside the Queen, with their two sons, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Gloucester, facing their parents. The King doffed his gray top hat in acknowledgment of the acclaim of the crowd.

Princess Mary and her husband, Earl Harewood, and Prince George rode in the next carriage, followed by other members of the royal party. Almost directly after their arrival the horses went to the post for the first race.

Trimbon Pays 6 to 4.

LONDON, June 17 (AP).—While keen interest went to the stylists today, the famous Royal Gold Vase went to Colonel Charles Lambion's Trimbon, which won easily over J. A. Dewar's Brother-in-Law and Lord Harewood's Collinham, second and third, respectively, in a field of ten starters. The betting was 6-4, 6-1 and 100-8 in the order named.

THE FALL IN PRICES.

Resumption of the decline in prices of commodities, after two or three weeks in which the continuous downward movement seemed to have spent its force, has easily been the past week's outstanding economic tendency. Reductions have affected primarily, as they did at the beginning of the year, such agricultural products as grain and cotton. Wheat at 95¾ cents a bushel on Monday's Chicago market was distinctly at a "pre-war price"; it did not reach that figure even in the "deflation" of 1921, and has touched it only on one other day since the war. Cotton is still above the deflation price, but varies little from the average of the twelve months before July, 1914. The fall in prices has not stopped with the agricultural markets, however; it was possible to say at the beginning of this week that a dozen separate staple commodities of the first importance were selling at the lowest of the year, and some of them at the lowest since 1921. The list includes copper, zinc and silk. Steel, iron, tin, coffee and sugar had already reached the year's low price during June.

For this general decline the explanation is now evident. Half a dozen years of economic revival in the belligerent States of the great war had immensely enlarged the world's production, both mechanical and agricultural. The influence of depreciated currencies in creating the high wartime and post-war prices had been removed by the world-wide re-establishment of gold payments. Higher cost of rents and labor, combined with heavier taxation, remained as a sustaining influence on wholesale and particularly retail prices, but increasingly urgent competition largely offset even that. In England and a few other European countries the average of prices has been falling continuously since the Spring of 1928; elsewhere the existence of "boom times" in finance, with the consequently stimulated demand for goods and use of credit, kept prices generally on a fairly even level during the three years past. But last Autumn's world-wide financial reaction, decrease in consumption and reduced employment changed that part of the economic picture.

In many respects the fall of agricultural prices stands by itself. Cotton, to be sure, is peculiarly sensitive to sweeping changes of industrial demand. The recent "cotton-consumption report" of the Census Bureau has shown that, in the ten completed months since our own abundant cotton crop of 1929 began to be marketed, takings by our home spinners have decreased 644,000 bales from the preceding season and our cotton exports 1,187,000; whereas the undistributed "carry-over" last Summer was itself the largest since 1921. The wheat position has been familiar for a year. The world's harvest of 1928 was estimated to have exceeded by at least 300,000,000 bushels, or nearly 9 per cent, any previous post-war record, reaching a magnitude possibly 15 or 20 per cent beyond the highest annual pre-war yield.

One of the most careful studies of the unconsumed surplus at the end of the last wheat year placed it at 598,000,000 bushels for the world as a whole, against a maximum of 422,000,000 during the five preceding years. Of this the United States and Canada were estimated to hold 368,000,000, against a five-year maximum of 220,000,000. Substantially reduced North American harvests in 1929 were hastily reckoned on to relieve the pressure. But Europe's own production ran 100,000,000 bushels beyond the best previous achievement. Resisting the efforts of our own and the Canadian wheat pools to prevent the lowering of the price, Europe was able, with great economy in the home surplus, to cut down her wheat purchases on our continent so as largely to counterbalance the season's decreased American and Canadian production. It is doubtful whether any very important reduction has been made in the surplus here and in Canada during the past twelve months; and, meantime, the present signs indicate at least a good average yield this coming season in nearly all producing countries.

All this is a plain enough explanation of the fall in wheat. It is the market's all but automatic effort to enlarge consumption by offering a more attractive price, and particularly the endeavor of our own market to regain the lost volume of export trade. Both results will at some point be attained. Probably they would have been long before this but for the Farm Board's admittedly futile effort to hold up the price by brute force of government money. That unhappy experiment is apparently ending (as most experiments of the kind have done before it) in a wheat trade completely demoralized because of the interference with natural economic law.

CHICAGO'S POLICE TROUBLES.

New brooms in Mayor THOMPSON'S Police Department may be able to sweep cleaner than those which have been frayed in recent struggles with organized crime. The outstanding task of the successors of Commissioner RUSSELL and Detective Chief STEGE is to arrest those responsible for the murder of The Tribune reporter. But the real labor is to end the alliance between politics and crime. It includes a part of the police and puts the city under gunman rule. Whether this can be done by Mayor THOMPSON, who has eight months yet to serve, is doubtful. His Administration has not the confidence or respect of decent citizens. Whether the work can ever be done while prohibition is the law of the land the retiring Commissioner strongly questions.

Chicago, like other large American cities, is bitterly against the prohibition laws. The people want liquor, and there are plenty of bootleggers to sell it to them. High prices are charged because a portion of what is paid for each bottle goes (1) to politicians who arrange for protection; (2) to gun-gangs which keep off other gun-gangs. From this a sort of bandit rule has arisen such as existed in the Renaissance cities of Italy. It is more violent, more powerful and more vicious than that in other American cities because of the greed and ambition of the gang leaders there and the apparent more general venality of the politicians. In other cities police graft from bootleggers and speakeasies is not unfamiliar. In Chicago the money seems to find its way higher up. While our gunmen are cruel, cowardly killers according to the lowest tradition of their kind, Chicago gangsters seem to be further down in the scale of civilization. These are surface evidences, difficult to prove by chart or statistics. So long as violent and corrupt men have a racket like liquor-selling to ply, with its rewards running weekly in the millions, so long will all cities more or less experience the disorders which defy self-government in Chicago.

Because The Tribune reporter was a private citizen, presumably killed for going about a business that took him among the gangsters, his murder has aroused one of those periodical furors which the community always hopes will lead to something remedial. But part of the storm raised by LINGLE'S shooting is because he was a reporter. The inference is that gangsters of Chicago do not intend to permit the public to investigate them and their activities. That is a direct challenge to society, and as such it is being met in Chicago.

FROM OUR BEST CUSTOMER:

Canada is facing a general election, and the opening of the campaign was signalized by Prime Minister KING'S speech, in which he gave marked attention to the Dominion's trade relations with the United States. He explained that his government could not fail to follow with concern our tariff legislation. As is well known, the Parliament at Ottawa, observing that the Hawley-Smoot bill proposed to levy higher duties on many Canadian products, passed a measure for countervailing rates upon certain exports from the United States. Mr. MACKENZIE KING regretted the necessity of such tariff reprisals, but said that Canada had no other recourse. Without in the least pretending a right to protest against any law enacted by the Congress at Washington, embodying a trade policy which the United States must itself judge to be wise or foolish, the Canadian Government was resolved to show that commercial relations with this country "must not be one-sided." The Canadian Premier asserted that the Dominion is more than willing to "trade with "those who are equally prepared to "trade with us." But if the United States insists upon levying customs taxes in such a way as to cut off a part of Canadian exports, there is nothing left for Canada to do but to reply in kind. She has the additional powerful motive of seeking to enlarge her commerce with Great Britain, so as the better to enable the English market to take larger quantities of Canadian wheat.

Here we have the first and prompt indication that our besotted protectionists are of the kind that cut off their noses to spite their faces. Canada has for some time been the best customer of the United States. Our exports, now admitted by every one, even by a protectionist President of the United States, to be vital to our industry and essential to our prosperity, have steadily been going to the Dominion in a larger share than to any other country. American business shrewdness, American shopkeeping sense, must certainly appear to have fallen into stupidity, thus to alienate neighbors who have been the largest purchasers of our wares. Prime Minister KING is for the most friendly relations with this country, and, as a Liberal and former free trader, is himself desirous of putting no check upon the free flow of commodities between the two countries. From it both stand to gain, just as both are likely to lose from any artificial restrictions upon trade. However, the final word of the Canadian Government is that it is unable to consider questions of international commerce except upon "a reciprocal basis."

President HOOVER has expressed confidence that through the Tariff Commission he will be able to meet the protests of other nations. He should lose no time in taking up the case of Canada. The Dominion makes no protest, but states its own position in a way to give pause to all at Washington who made light of the warnings of American economists and manufacturers, to the effect that the higher tariff was certain to cut deeply into our foreign commerce.

THE MAINE PRIMARIES.

The vote in Monday's Maine primaries was curiously thin. In several of the smaller communities there were only three or four votes where there were from forty to one hundred two years ago. As former Governor BREWSTER, the again defeated candidate for Senator, said the other day, "the electorate "does not seem to be very pro-"foundly stirred." He himself is always profoundly stirred. He has been stirring and stumping most of the time for a year or more. His successful opponent, Mr. WALLACE H. WHITE Jr., had to win. The Second Congress District, which he has represented for thirteen years, is to be divided. Like Mr. BREWSTER, he is a Bowdoin man and a Dry. Mr. BREWSTER'S gravest charge against him was that he was out of the country when it was a question whether the eyes of Aroostook potatoes were to be gouged out or not.

To Republican disbelievers in him, Mr. BREWSTER is the Dirigo La Follette. He would have joined the Insurgents to fight the tariff bill if he had been in the Senate, according to Mr. WHITE. That is unjust to a tolerant and protean artist. He was for a duty on potatoes in Aroostook; a duty on cement in Knox County, where there are some cement plants; a duty on boots and shoes in the cities of Mr. WHITE'S district where there are manufacturers of them. Finally, he hammered the whole bill as a "monstrosity." He ran surprisingly well. He is a clever politician, always on "the go," always hand-shaking, addressing, campaigning. Two Senators being rather too much for Portland, he keeps his law office there, but moved his home to Dexter in Penobscot County. Forthwith he became the champion of Eastern and Northern Maine. Two years ago he supported the Democratic candidate for Senator against the present Senator GOULD. It is amusing to find that the very counties, Aroostook, Penobscot, Piscataquis, which might have been expected to resent this "betrayal" were strongest for him.

From his long service in Congress and a not inconsiderable experience in international conferences, Mr. WHITE is a fitter man for the post than Mr. BREWSTER. He is a grandson of the late Senator WILLIAM P. FRYE. So Maine is to have two hereditary Senators. A kind word should be given to Mr. DUGALD DEWAR, a Portland business man, whose fine old smoky name made him the appropriate Wet candidate for Senator. He received scanty encouragement at the polls and must be content with a hero's medal. Governor WILLIAM TUDOR GARDINER, who has given the State an excellent administration, was easily renominated over former Mayor WILSON of Bangor.

The renascence of Mr. BREWSTER, the swelling hopes of Mr. WILSON, were founded on last year's power export referendum, when the people, against the practically unanimous opinion of the political, business and educational chiefs, voted to keep the power at home. The Hon. SAMUEL INSULL of Chicago is the bogy that terrifies continually the grangers and a considerable part of the population in cities pent. Readers of Professor TURNER'S original and stimulating book, "The Frontier in American History," may be interested to trace the continuance of the frontier spirit in Maine from the Convention of 1787, through the camp-meeting fervors of the Maine law, past Greenbackism and SOLON CHASE'S steers, to these days of WILSON and BREWSTER. The individualism, the tendency to be "agin the Government," the hatred of "monopoly," the exaltation of leaders, the fondness for economic and financial nostrums, might be followed down East, without too much fancifulness; and Maine is still in some respects a frontier State.

HELPS FOR CLEANING STREETS.

Commissioner HAND'S prompt reorganization of the Street Cleaning Department suggests vigor in the pursuit of results. It implies that he is not deceived about the bad condition of the streets, and that he will not, like some of his predecessors, attempt to bamboozle the public into thinking that something is being done when it is not. His first steps have the approval of such a man as Dr. BERNARD SACHS, who, as chairman of the Committee of Twenty on street cleaning, has studied exhaustively the system here and in Europe and has made many suggestions based on his keen observations.

Good intentions and reshuffling the cards cannot alone insure success. The city is sorely in need of equipment, and the authorities have not yet seen fit to provide the needed money, despite the recommendations of Dr. WILLIAM SCHROEDER. Among the needed mechanical aids are more of the "vacuum" type of street-cleaning machines which suck up dust and dirt instead of scattering them to one side, as do the old-style rotary brushes. More of the latest style of covered trucks and garbage removers are needed so as to end the present unsanitary practice of overfilling open wagons.

For the lack of these things Mr. HAND is not to blame. Nor is he likely to sit by and make them his alibi for non-achievement. He is more fortunate than his predecessor in that he is stronger in political influence and so better able to get what he wants. Whatever the delays in the five-year program called for by Dr. SCHROEDER, there should be no further hesitation in supplying the equipment which he and Mr. HAND have reported to be indispensable.

How to educate the public to cooperation remains one of the unsolved problems. Dr. SACHS and others who have studied conditions in European cities have been struck with the readiness there to work with officials. We, by contrast, resent instructions how best to help keep the city clean. Perhaps the proposed sanitary police corps will help, but the greatest incentive is likely to be the sight of streets that are actually clean. Civic inefficiency invites private indifference.

A PEOPLE'S AMUSEMENT CAPITOL.

The "radio metropolis" which is to rise in the heart of midtown New York through the joint efforts of the Rockefeller and the Radio Corporation interests is a grandiose salute to the future both of invention and of the American people. The area between Fifth and Sixth Avenues and between Forty-eighth and Fifty-first Streets is commonly understood to have been acquired by Mr. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER Jr. as a site for the much-debated "new" opera house. But it seems that what New York's wealthy citizens could not afford is not too good for the plain American. In the face of financial uncertainties the providers of grand opera in New York may have decided that the old house on Fortieth Street can be made to do for some years to come. But no uncertainties attach to the financial future of the American people as a whole. So on the site intended for a greater Diamond Horseshoe there are to rise no less than four temples of democratic art —a variety theatre, a sound film theatre, a musical comedy theatre and a house for the regular drama. Planned to accommodate a joint audience of perhaps 25,000, these four auditoriums are primarily thought of as radio super-studios. Their programs are to be broadcast, no one can now say just how far; but there is mention in the prospectus of world-audiences.

It is this national character of the enterprise that will explain in part the selection of the particular location. Of the quarter billion dollars which Mr. ROCKEFELLER is prepared to invest in building the radio city, a good part could presumably be saved by going further away from Fifth Avenue. But New York business men have long been in the habit of paying handsomely for the advertising value of a Fifth Avenue address. It is even conceivable that millions of small-town and rural Americans would be a bit averse to getting their radio entertainment from Broadway, but would feel quite the other way about Fifth Avenue. Another factor contributing to the choice may be the change which has been passing over the region west of Fifth Avenue and south of Central Park. As a residential neighborhood it is gone. Business pushing in from the Avenue and from Broadway has made it certain that the new tall skyline of the Grand Central and Times Square zones will before long reach to the southern edge of the Park. The contemplated radio city obviously will set a standard for business architecture that smaller individual enterprise was not likely to give us.

Though the scheme has been outlined with sufficient clearness, it is not to be supposed that plans of such magnitude have been worked out to the last detail. One of the interesting problems is that of transit facilities, which at present would seem to be inadequate. The precarious Sixth Avenue "L" is the only rapid transit line passing the site. The new Fifty-third Street subway will be in operation three years hence, but as a sole feeder for the radio city on Fifth Avenue it will be obviously inadequate.

PIERS FOR GREAT LINERS.

Enlarged docking facilities in the Port of New York are essential if it is to retain commercial supremacy. There must be team-work between New York and New Jersey. The Regional Plan has estimated that by 1965 the port will need 200,000 more feet of wharf length than it has today. There is plenty of room for extension. Jamaica Bay alone could provide 175,000 feet, and seven other areas are available, including, according to the Regional Plan, Gravesend Bay, Flushing Bay, the Bronx East River waterfront, Arthur Kill, the New Jersey waterfront from Bayonne to Jersey City and the extensive shore lines of the Hackensack Meadows and the Newark-Elizabeth Meadows.

The pressing need at this time is piers for the great liners, whose passenger business has grown enormously since the World War. Many of them will require piers 1,000 feet in length at or near the centre of the city and along the Hudson River in close communication with the trunk line railroads. A Regional Plan report, published this morning, deals with this matter. The War Department engineers have not been favorably disposed toward extensions of present piers that might encroach too much on the Hudson channel, but have agreed to give consideration to a proposal of the Board of Commissioners and Pilots of New York to make balancing changes on the two shores that would have the effect of maintaining the width of the channel.

Between Duane and Christopher Streets piers are not adequate to accommodate 1,000-foot ships. The Port Authority is considering four big piers in Jersey City adjacent to the old Morris Canal basin. South Brooklyn and Staten Island have ample room for pier development. By widening the Bay Ridge channel off South Brooklyn the waterfront could be used for large steamers. Particularly is it important to bring about "direct interchange be-"tween rail and steamship on the "New Jersey side." Obviously the whole problem has economic aspects that the companies and the communities concerned will have to take into account.

MEDIOCRITY.

It is heartening to the rest of us to have a brilliant man like GEORGE E. VINCENT say a Phi Beta Kappa word in defense of mediocrity. It is found in 95 per cent of our nation, and probably the remaining 5 per cent have at least "a slight tinge of the average man" in them. Biologists are cited to the effect that in the wide zone of mediocrity the great majority of exceptional individuals are born. Thus it behooves democracy to provide for the education of the many lest the "gold children" be overlooked and their riches of mind lost to the State.

The photograph of the young men in Mr. COOLIDGE'S class of thirty-five years ago at Amherst is in marked contrast to the picture of the present undergraduates which Dr. VINCENT presents as drawn from the conclusions of certain indignant critics—"flashy clothes, coonskin "coats, hip flasks, high-powered "cars and cheer leaders." But Mr. COOLIDGE, who also knows about all this, is not disturbed by it. Dr. VINCENT'S comment is that things are by no means so bad as the "irascible critics" make out. Able young people, sane, generous-minded, with taste, ambition and serious purpose, are not completely submerged. Yet the conditions are not so congenial and stimulating for liberal education as they might be. The hope lies not in the exclusion of mediocrity from colleges, but in "the gradual shift of emphasis in "student opinion to higher levels of "thought and appreciation."

Liberal learning will not come about through concerted drives and systematic programs or clever devices. Nor is it to be wrought by the "magic of machinery." The process by which it extends itself in the medium of mediocrity is as old as civilizations in which the few, freed from manual labor by slavery, had all the leisure:

> Once more we catch a glimpse of SOCRATES, with an eager group about him. The give and take of talk, comradeship through books, the adventures of the laboratory, calm leisure, quiet contemplation, sensitive association with beautiful things, exercise of imagination and insight—for these there is no substitute, no short cut.

In a democracy with mass leisure and with mass mediocrity, this process of cultural diffusion still offers the only hope of reaching the highest satisfaction—the "good states of mind."

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

What Price Theatre Tickets?

A notice long enough to look like a regular business letter will be printed on all the theatre tickets of managers who are members of the League of New York Theatres, as soon as the plan for getting rid of speculation goes into effect. If you buy a pair of tickets from one of the reputable brokers you will get, in exchange for the box-office price plus 75 cents per ticket, instructions in the etiquette of cooperation with the League.

It sounds a little like the notice in taxicabs to call a policeman if the driver is not the man pictured in the little frame inside the cab. After July 19 you should not pay any one more than the legitimate advance of 75 cents over the printed price. If by chance you have desperately bought tickets from a shifty-eyed clerk tucked away in a dry-cleaning establishment and paid a double price, you are not to use them. They are "invalid and may be refused at the box office." You must send the evidence of your folly to the League so that they can catch the culprit.

Some of the rules just made public seem advantageous to the theatregoer, but objectionable to brokers, who will certainly not have so many tickets as formerly for the big hits. How the scheme will work can be discovered only by trying it. It should be better for patrons than the present lack of system, which enables a well-known broker to get $9 for a pair of seats to a $3 musical show whose backers boast of their freedom from undesirable connections.

Old Age Relief Extending.

Massachusetts has now joined California, Nevada, Montana, Wisconsin and New York in providing means of support for needy persons over 70 years of age. It was on the very last day of the 1930 session of the Massachusetts Legislature that the "old age pension bill" was passed. As signed by the Governor, it provides "adequate assistance to certain aged citizens." The legislation is an extension of previous poor relief provision made by towns, cities and the State.

There was already a mothers' aid law in Massachusetts, enacted in 1913. The new legislation makes it plain that the object is to extend aid to old people that "shall be sufficient to provide suitable and dignified care." The assistance contemplated "shall wherever possible be given to the aged person in his own home, or in lodgings, or in a boarding house."

It is estimated that 8,000 old people will be relieved in Massachusetts the first year. In New York, under the bill signed by Governor ROOSEVELT, the number receiving assistance has been reckoned as 51,000. In both States no fixed sum of money per month will be given. In New York the State will defray half the cost. Funds may be raised by loan and included in the tax levy.

New Trees for Burned.

Although the State Conservation Commissioners' decision to replace free trees on private forest plantations that are destroyed by forest fires will probably affect only a small proportion of the burned area in New York State each year, it is important as a possible precedent. It does not go so far as the European system of planting a tree for every tree that is cut, but it should, at least, encourage private planting.

The damage is usually from grass fires, as the young trees, only a few inches high, are easily killed by even a small blaze. To prevent the spread of grass fires the Conservation Commissioner suggests that a plow be run around the newly planted area so as to create a small fire-break.

The new policy of a tree for a burned tree is announced after a Spring during which forest fires in New York State were exceptionally frequent. The actual number reported ranges from 50 to 400 per cent more than normal. In fact, at no time has the need for protecting forests and for replacing trees burned or cut been greater.

Oh, the Difference to Them!

Words which are spelled the same in French and English seldom have identical meanings, though they are often similar enough to make their use understandable. Many have very different meanings, and to help travelers and translators these differences have been explained in a book by M. FELIX BOILLOT. Some of his examples of incorrect usage are as amusing as they must be embarrassing to those who make the errors.

In French "déportments" (it is generally used in the plural) does not include all kinds of behavior. It means misconduct. An English lady setting up a school for young ladies in Paris had a brass plate put on her house—"Ecole de Déportment." Naturally, her neighbors thought she was running a school for scandal, a training camp for baggages who would be Jezebels.

Meanings of familiar words change in French as they do in any language. The dictionary will show "écouteur" to mean listener, but nowadays the word has taken on a technical meaning superseding the old one. An Englishman who knew French, but was not aware of this change, was making an address from one of the Paris radio stations. He began, "Mes chers écouteurs," but his "dear listeners" did not understand him. According to M. BOILLOT, they understood: "My expensive earphones."

DIRECT PRIMARIES.

They Should Be Abolished in Favor of Conventions.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

I have read with interest THE TIMES editorial "Costly Primaries," and also Charles Willis Thompson's review of Owen Wister's recently published book on Roosevelt.

Mr. Thompson quotes Mr. Wister's description of a scene between Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Hughes in 1910, at which Governor Hughes persuaded Colonel Roosevelt to jump in and back his direct primary bill. Mr. Wister states: "What a small pond after all—one bill in one State—for one ex-President to notice; and then the pond flowed speedily into a brook, and the brook speedily into a river, and down the river he went toward a sea that neither he nor friend nor enemy dreamed of."

The costly primaries you condemn in your editorial are the direct result of the system which was fastened on the body politic by Hughes and Roosevelt in New York in 1910. But Mr. Wister is wrong in saying that neither Roosevelt nor friend nor enemy dreamed of the future results. Colonel Roosevelt asked me in 1910 why the Republican organization in New York State had opposed him that year, and I told him that we believed the direct primary would be destructive of representative government, and that he, without consulting any one connected with the organization, had lined himself up with Governor Hughes to force through the direct primary bill which we were opposing. He said he thought we took it too seriously, but we did not—and the results have proved we did not.

The amount of money spent in the direct primaries in Illinois and Pennsylvania and other States has been only one and not the most serious of the evils which have followed. It has gone a long way toward destroying the two-party system which is essential to the proper functioning of our representative form of government. As President Harding said, "There are now as many parties in Congress as there are Congressmen." It was because of the existence of the direct primary that the Anti-Saloon League was enabled by threats of opposition in the primaries to obtain the votes to pass the Eighteenth Amendment. The animosities engendered in an active primary campaign tend further to destroy party solidarity, already greatly weakened, with the result we see in the Congress today. The President, endeavoring to carry out the pledges the Republican party in its convention made the people, is openly flouted by so-called members of the Republican party who have obtained the nomination of a party they had no intention of representing or being loyal to by means of a direct primary.

Your suggestion of the remedy of costly primaries in an optional convention system does not go far enough. The convention system should be made mandatory and direct primaries abolished.

FORCES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

The Churches, It Is Held, Have No Monopoly of These.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Unless the conclusion of THE TIMES editorial "A Church Census" is subtly ironical, it is amazing. The apparent increase in church membership, you say, "admits the view that the forces of righteousness * * * go marching on." Do you really believe that the churches today have a monopoly of "righteousness," and that the majority outside the folds are lacking in that quality? Do you think that practically all the scientists, the great majority of college professors and, in fact, all men and women capable of thinking clearly, are outside the "forces of righteousness"? "The habit of crediting all the moral gains achieved through the ages to Christianity and of debiting unregenerate human nature with all its losses," as Dr. S. D. McConnell has well observed, "is unwarranted."

The point is worth making, because this loose habit of equating the Church with the "forces of righteousness," with ideals of decency, honesty, clean living, unselfish service to humanity is responsible for much of the evil that has come upon us—the most signal instance being the passage of the prohibition amendment. The fear of appearing to antagonize the "respectable" Church was at the bottom of the ratification of that amendment by many Legislatures; a product of cowardice and addle-headed stupidity. That fear is still the moving force behind the action of very many members of the Congress.

The Church, indeed, is in no sense representative of the "forces of righteousness." In so far as it concerns itself with ethics, the Church is most often representative of a malignant asceticism—for asceticism when roused to action is always and inevitably malignant. Righteousness—whatever one includes under that term—is not, and never has been, one of the differentia of Christianity. Today practically all the forces consciously striving toward an increase of "righteousness" in public and private life are not only outside the Church, but in many cases are being bitterly opposed by the Church, both as a body of organizations and in the attitude of its individual membership. It would be an aid to possible progress to recognize that fact.

Miss Peck's Air Tour.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

May I be permitted to amend one or two statements in the notice Saturday of my recent air tour of South America?

That I did not go primarily to make an air trip is an error. I made this tour in the hope that I might induce the many who are interested in aviation to follow in my footsteps or airsteps and employ this most agreeable and delightful method of seeing Latin America, a method as well suited to the middle-aged and elderly as to the young, though a man in Buenos Aires, on meeting me, said: "You ought to be twenty-five."

It is a mistake to refer to my ascent of Huascaran as the highest climb on this hemisphere. It is merely the highest ascent made by an American. Aconcagua, though far less difficult than Huascaran, surpasses the latter by 1,000 feet. It had been climbed by Englishmen and Swiss guides before my first visit to South America in 1903. I had hoped to find a more lofty mountain, but in that I was disappointed.

DISPUTING ADMIRAL FISKE.

Contrast Drawn Between Military and Civil View of World Peace.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

As stated in the editorial on Admiral Fiske's letter published in THE NEW YORK TIMES, he has omitted all reference to the Kellogg pact in relation to the recent conference on armaments. This ignoring of the pact was painfully obvious in the conference itself, and as a result we have a treaty on armaments which is very disappointing.

Another result of the neglect of the Kellogg peace pact is emphasized in a dispatch from Geneva which appeared in THE TIMES this morning and which brings out the fact that "in 1929 when the Kellogg peace pact became effective the world launched 50 per cent more cruisers than in 1913 and had three times more building than in the year before the war." In view of this blissful ignoring of the Kellogg pact the American people understand all too well "the issues before the London naval conference."

The Admiral's statement that the Washington conference "emasculated the defense of the United States in two essential particulars" is interesting and important, if true. He follows this up with the statement that "the more important" of these two particulars was the prohibition of more defenses for the Philippine Islands against Japan. How this could be "more important," if both were essential, he does not explain. He follows this ipse dixit by the revealing assertion that the General Board of the Navy did its best in the ten years following 1911 to fix "their attention on plans for preventing war with Japan by preventing her from capturing the islands." What an amazing admission have we here! It goes far to explain why the conference of 1921 became a necessity in order to prevent the threatened war; and the American people are newedly grateful for the success of that conference, which lifted the danger of the war which the Admirals of the three countries concerned did their best to precipitate.

The Admiral's statement that Secretary Hughes was guilty of three untruths in connection with the Washington conference may be safely left to the discernment of future historians; but it is palpably absurd to give to the agitation of our naval officers the credit of calling the Geneva conference in 1927, and the failure of that conference was ascribed by the American people to British and Japanese as well as to our own American naval officials. It is also historically incorrect to say that the calling of the London conference was due to the restlessness of the American people because of their suspicion that Great Britain and Japan had secured a great diplomatic and naval victory at Washington.

The fundamental difference between the point of view of the Admiral and his professional colleagues and that of the civilian champions of the peace of the world is strikingly brought out by the Admiral's statement that "the military subject concerns not only war and peace but (what is immeasurably more important) defeat in war or success in war." To the military mind defeat in war is thus conceded to be of immeasurably more importance than war and peace. The militarist wants to defend this country against defeat in war, while the civilian wants to defend this country against war itself.

GRAHAM OFTEN CHALLENGED

But Explorer Has Been Too Busy to Bother With Defense.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

You speak of Graham's climb of Kabru in the Everest region as having "been challenged." This is indeed true, for Graham is a natural-born explorer, adventurer and mountaineer, never staying at home to defend his work.

Classmate of the late Lord Curzon at Oxford, Graham was from the first a passionate and skillful climber of the most difficult Swiss peaks, and selecting three of the very best Swiss guides he tackled Kabru, one of the Everest peaks, reaching the top and reporting to the London Geographical Society, which published the report, with every detail of his achievement, triangulation, aneroids, &c.

An expert surveyor and mining engineer, he told me that his Italian instruments were the most accurate in the world. Alas! that I lent (fatally) this pamphlet report of the climb, and I cannot recall what height he reached, but mountaineers often challenged it. Stuart Vines (Aconcagua 23,080) asked me if I knew Graham's address, and said that his data were challenged. Finally, after many years, Sir Douglas Freshfield told me that they had been able to verify Graham's positions and that his report was no longer challenged.

If any one knows his address, the writer, a warm friend, will be grateful for the information. For some years he was buried in the wilds of Chihuahua. RICHARD WELLING.

IMMORTAL HOUR.

The way of man is one ungreened and bare;
Incomprehensible the way of God;
With sorrow-nurtured pain we all must share
Our lives, and unenlightened we must plod
Alone, to some invisible pale peace.
Each thing we touch is thorned. The rose that seems
Inviolate in beauty soon will cease
To be. The melodies we love are dreams.

But for each one an hour of loveliness
Is begged of Time's reluctant smile, to be
The recompense for Life's evasiveness,
The hurt-embittered hearts, the misery.
This lone hour out of all eternity
Will light the darkness to infinity.

ZIEGFELD'S NEW SHOWS.

Rehearsal Dates Set for "Tom, Dick and Harry" and "Follies."

Further information concerning Florenz Ziegfeld's previously announced musical productions, "Tom, Dick and Harry" and the "Follies," was given out last night by Mr. Ziegfeld's office. The producer, who is now in Hollywood supervising the talking picture version of "Whoopee," is expected to return to New York early next month.

"Tom, Dick and Harry," a musical comedy, with book by William Anthony McGuire and score by Vincent Youmans, is announced to go into rehearsal on Aug. 2, with Marilyn Miller and Fred and Adele Astaire heading the cast. The show will be presented in Boston before coming to Mr. Ziegfeld's theatre on Sept. 22.

On Labor Day, according to the announcement, the "Follies" will be placed in rehearsal. The Ed Wynn show, "Simple Simon," which recently ended an engagement at the Ziegfeld Theatre, will begin a road tour in Atlantic City on Labor Day.

65% of Princeton 1930 Class Finishes Out Four-Year Course

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 17.—A higher percentage of the men who entered Princeton in the Fall of 1926 as members of the class of 1930 received diplomas at the commencement exercises today than has been true of any recent class. A study of the figures revealed that 65½ per cent of the class was graduated today, as against 64 1-5 per cent of the class of 1929.

The class of 1930 also had the largest percentage of honor men of any class since the four-course plan of study was introduced in 1923. Of those who received diplomas today, 35.8 per cent won honors in their departments. Of the class of 1929, 30.8 per cent won honors.

ALICE NICHOLS TO BE LIEUTENANT'S BRIDE

TROTH TOLD AT A DANCE

Bride-to-Be Is a Member of Colony House Juniors—Her Fiance Is Son of Colonel Brunzell of West Point.

Dr. and Mrs. Carroll Leja Nichols of Brooklyn have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Nichols, to Lieutenant Robert Louis Brunzell, U. S. A., son of Colonel and Mrs. Otto Louis Brunzell of West Point, N. Y. The announcement was made at a supper dance given by Miss Nichols last night in the St. Regis roof garden for Miss Lorraine Heitman of Fort Meyers, Fla.

Miss Nichols went to the Parker Collegiate Institute of Brooklyn, was graduated from the Gardner School and also attended the American Academy of Dramatic Art in this city. She is a member of the Colony House Juniors and the Chiropean Juniors of Brooklyn.

Lieutenant Brunzell's forebears have been active in military life. His father is a Colonel of Field Artillery and is stationed at West Point as treasurer of the Military Academy. His great-grandfather was in a Kentucky regiment in the Civil War and his great-great-grandfather was in the War of the Revolution. Lieutenant Brunzell has spent several years in China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. He went to the University of Wisconsin and is a member of this year's graduating class at West Point.

Among the guests at the dance were the parents of Miss Nichols and her fiancé; also Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Mapes of Glen Ridge, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. William A. O. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Reed, Princess Levan Melikov de Somhite, the Misses Virginia B. Steel, Caroline Kennedy, Fanny Ingalls, Florence O'Malley, Virginia Reed, Jessica Biggs, Ellamae Hatton, Muriel Springsteen, Virginia Wing, Dorothy Fogwell, Edith Mapes and Jean Kelley. Also Reginald Wentworth, John Mudgett, Kenneth Meytrott, Charles Foster, John Watkins, Seaton Scott Jr., Edward O'Malley, Irving D. Jakobson, Harry Dagenhardt, Archibald D. Smith Jr., Emil Morosini Jr., Edward J. Boyd, Saxton Seward, Edward Nolanne, Paul Seward, Franklin Allen, Maxwell Ludlum Scott, Arnold Schramm, Randall Brahe and Lieutenant Franklin Wing.

Other Engagements

Littlefield—MacArthur.

Captain William Lord Littlefield, U. S. N., and Mrs. Littlefield of Washington, D. C., have announced to their friends here the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Ashmead Littlefield, to Bowman McCalla MacArthur, son of Mrs. Arthur MacArthur of Washington, D. C., and the late Captain MacArthur, U. S. N. Miss Littlefield's father is president general of the court-martial of the fourth naval district. He was awarded the Navy Cross and special letter of commendation by the War Department for service in the World War. Miss Littlefield is the sister of Poinsett A. Littlefield, now living in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. MacArthur is a nephew of Major General Douglas MacArthur, U. S. A., and the brother of Miss Mary E. S. MacArthur, Douglas MacArthur 2d, and Malcolm MacArthur. He is a member of this year's graduating class at Harvard, and belongs to the Chevy Chase Club. The marriage will take place on July 19 in Washington, D. C.

Lanterman—Johnson.

Special to The New York Times.

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J., June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Lanterman of East Orange have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel Lanterman, to William Elmer Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Johnson of Irvington.

TO HONOR NAHAN FRANKO.

Goldman Will Include Chopin Dirge in Concert Tonight.

At the Goldman Band concert this evening on the Mall in Central Park, Edwin Franko Goldman, the director, will play Chopin's "Funeral March" in memory of his uncle, Nahan Franko, who died on June 7. The late violinist and conductor was among the first to begin the vogue in this city of free outdoor concerts about two decades ago with concerts of his own string orchestra in Central Park. His nephew, who has carried on the idea, felt that he could pay tribute to his predecessor most fittingly by including this music on a program given where Mr. Franko had often played himself.

The program, as announced, includes items by Lake, Goldmark, Handel, Humperdinck, Rossini, Wagner, Puccini and Herbert.

Abraham Gorlin, Builder Dies.

Abraham Gorlin, pioneer builder of Jersey City, died yesterday. The funeral will be held today from the home, 615 Garfield Avenue, Jersey City, at 2 P. M. Burial will be in Baron de Hirsch Cemetery, Staten Island. He was born in Russia sixty years ago. He moved to Jersey City forty-five years ago.

John Millspaugh.

MRS. S. V. E. WHITE, 90, DIES

Widow of Civil War Officer Was of Old Virginia Family.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Mrs. Sarah Vernon Eskridge White, 90 years old, descendant of a historically prominent Virginia family and a resident of Washington for more than sixty years, died last night at her residence, 2,701 Connecticut Avenue. She had been ill since November, when she broke her pelvis in a fall.

Mrs. White, who came to Washington at the close of the Civil War, was born in Portsmouth, Va., the daughter of the Rev. Vernon Eskridge, a Chaplain in the United States Navy, and Mrs. Sarah Armistead Hope Eskridge. Her husband, Lieutenant William H. White of the Confederate Army, was killed at the Battle of Seven Pines.

Mrs. White was a direct descendant of George Eskridge, who as guardian of Mary Ball Washington, mother of George Washington, suggested a name for the first President.

Mrs. James Brattle Burbank.

Dog to Get Military Funeral; Saved Ohio Troops From Gas

DENNISON, Ohio, June 17 (AP).—Preparations were made today for the military funeral of "Bing," decorated for services with the American Expeditionary Force in France. Gas he inhaled in the trenches as a puppy nearly twelve years ago and his advanced age made it necessary to chloroform him.

"Bing" will be interred in the soldiers' plot in Urichsville Union Cemetery.

The dog had the added distinction of receiving a bonus from the government. To him was assigned $60 a month as a soldier's pension.

When "Bing's" nose scented gas in time to save the lives of many soldiers he was cited and decorated. He was born in a tent at Camp Sheridan and smuggled aboard a transport with the Thirty-seventh Division.

MITCHELL FUNERAL SET FOR TOMORROW

Former Actor, Soldier, Author, Consul and Sportsman to Be Buried at Hamilton, N. Y.

WAS FRIEND OF ROOSEVELT

Severely Wounded at San Juan Hill—Had Many Adventures in Long and Varied Career.

Funeral services for Charles Mason Mitchell, former actor, soldier, consul, sportsman, author and lecturer, who died on Monday of heart disease at the home of a friend, E. Vail Stebbins, 110 East Fifty-fourth Street, will be held at 11 A. M. tomorrow in the Protestant Episcopal Church in Hamilton, N. Y., his birthplace, where he will be buried.

Mr. Mitchell, who was 71 years old, was known on the New York stage in the '70s and '80s as Mason Mitchell. Since 1925 he had resided in Hollywood, Cal., where he appeared in several motion pictures and was connected with the office of Logan & Bryan, stock brokers. He had an attack of heart disease in Ithaca several days ago on his way here.

Mrs. Edna Ellis Mitchell, whom he married in San Francisco on Nov. 25, 1905, was with him at his death. They had no children.

After attending St. John's School, Manlius, N. Y., he went to Philips Exeter Academy and at the age of 18 made his stage début at the old Broadway Theatre here. Soon he was supporting such noted actors as Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett and John McCullough. Later he was leading man with Mme. Helena Modjeska and played with Rose Coghlin and Kyrle Bellew.

From 1883 to 1885, with Mary Anderson, Mr. Mitchell toured Great Britain, playing many important parts. In the Fall of the latter year, while he was playing at Winnipeg, Man., Riel's Rebellion, a revolt of half-breed French Canadians, began in that Province. Mr. Mitchell volunteered his services to the Canadian Government and during the seventy days of the campaign was in every engagement. He captured Big Near, a noted chief, and received a medal from Queen Victoria.

Mr. Mitchell returned to the stage for a time and then traveled through South America and the South Sea Islands, writing many travel articles. For some time he lived in Samoa, where he became an intimate friend of Robert Louis Stevenson. During this period he suffered a shipwreck on one of the Southern Pacific islands.

On his return to the United States he brought with him a number of native Samoans, who were exhibited at the Chicago World's Fair. Next he visited the Fiji Islands, whence he brought a number of cannibals, who were exhibited at the Midsummer Fair in San Francisco in 1894.

After his second voyage Mr. Mitchell became manager of the Garrick Theatre here for Richard Mansfield. He also supported Mrs. James Brown Potter and acted as leading man and business representative of Dion Boucicault.

When America went to war with Spain in 1898 Mr. Mitchell enlisted in Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's Rough Riders. He was severely wounded at San Juan Hill. In the years that followed Mr. Mitchell remained a fast friend of President Roosevelt and of his associate, Maj. General Leonard Wood. After the war he lectured, then went hunting in East Africa and Asia and brought back many specimens to the American Museum of Natural History, of which he was a patron. He was also a member of the New York Zoological Society.

In 1902 Mr. Mitchell was appointed American Consul at Zanzibar. In 1905 he became Consul at Chunking, China. In 1908 he was transferred to Apia, Samoa, remaining until 1920, when he became Consul at Queenstown, Ireland. In 1921 he became Consul at Malta. He retired from the consular service in 1924. Mr. Mitchtll was a member of the Lambs Club here.

RIDICULES FLYING AS DEAFNESS CURE

Dr. Cramp Tells Association for Hard of Hearing Air Stunts May Be Harmful.

WARNS AGAINST QUACKERY

Dr. Hayden Urges Examination of All School Children's Ears Every Two Years.

Airplane nose-dives undertaken in an attempt to relieve deafness were denounced as "utter folly" by Dr. Arthur J. Cramp of Chicago, director of the Bureau of Investigation of the the American Medical Association, speaking before a scientific session of the American Federation of Organizations for the Hard of Hearing, at the Hotel Roosevelt yesterday. Dr. Cramp has investigated nostrums and quackery for the American Medical Association for nearly twenty-five years.

"The utter folly of attempting to relieve deafness, due to organic causes, by aviation stunts is obvious to physicians," he said. "The freak attempts to cure deafness by this means have been not only futile but in some cases fatal. Colonel Levy M. Hathaway, chief of the Air Corps of the United States Army, and a flight surgeon, has definitely declared that there is no foundation in fact for the belief that airplane flights will aid in the cure of deafness."

Dr. Cramp said that on the contrary the medical profession has pointed out that defective hearing is common among aviators and is in fact an occupational disorder associated with aviation. Deafness, he asserted, may actually be caused and aggravated by flying.

"Of course," he added, "in cases of deafness of a purely psychological character airplane flights may seem to have curative results. So may carrying the left hind foot of a rabbit that has been caught in the churchyard at the dark of the moon."

Defines Three Types of Quack Cures.

Quack cures for deafness are usually one of three types, he said: mechanical devices, medicinal preparations and courses of treatment. The American Medical Association, in cooperation with the American Federation of Organizations for the Hard of Hearing, has been instrumental in passing legislation to prohibit the use of the word "cure" in all quack literature and advertising, he said, but many of them are able to convey the promise of cure through clever wording of their exploitation. He added that intelligent persons were swindled in this way about as easily as were the illiterate, though through a different approach.

In most cases deafness can be prevented, but the process demands a careful survey of its causes, Dr. Austin A. Hayden of Chicago asserted in his paper "Can We End Deafness?" The chief causes operative before a person reaches 40 years of age, he said, are meningitis, congenital defects, birth injuries and catarrhal deafness in children, caused by nasal obstructions, head colds, sore throats and infection caused by swimming pools. He made a plea for the scientific examination of school children' ears every two years by means of audiometers.

Oto-Sclerosis Causes Adult Deafness.

For persons of more than 40 years of age, he said, the chief cause is oto-sclerosis, a disease of the bones of the ear which is now the subject of special study. There is no question that eventually it will be controlled, he asserted.

As oto-sclerosis is highly hereditary, he advised against the marriage of those suffering from this disease.

Dr. James J. Reynolds, a district superintendent of schools in Brooklyn, said in a discussion of Dr. Hayden's paper that the examination of between six and seven thousand children in his districts since last April by means of the audiometer disclosed that 1 per cent of them were so badly afflicted by deafness as to need lip-reading instruction.

CORPORATIONS PAY STATE BACK TAXES

228 Firms Remit $267,271.21 Total for Annulment of Dissolution Proceedings.

Special to The New York Times.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 17.—The State has recovered more than $250,000 in back taxes paid by corporations for certificates annulling dissolution proceedings against them, it was announced today. The amount obtained from this source was $267,271.21 in back taxes, penalties and interest, Commissioner Thomas M. Lynch said.

In all, 228 reinstatement certificates were filed for the same number of corporations and it was estimated that Secretary of State Flynn collected $11,400 in fees in addition to the amount paid the Department of Finance and Taxation. The latter department issued 108 certificates from June 1 and twenty-eight of them were on the last day yesterday. To preserve their corporate existence several firms were obliged to wire the money to the Secretary of State.

The original list contained 84,000 corporations and these were ordered dissolved last December, the officers being given six months during which they could bring annulment proceedings to save the dissolution. All corporations that were reinstated paid back taxes, plus interest and penalties for a certificate which was presented to the Secretary of State together with a fee of $50.

The total expense of the dissolution proceedings was $20,000 divided between the Department of Taxation and Finance and the Department of State. The law which authorized these wholesale dissolutions was a profitable one for the State as the interest, taxes and penalty charges amounted to more than the entire expense to the State. It has also made several thousand names available for use by other business concerns.

"Many of the concerns dissolved," said Commissioner Lynch, "were small concerns that had been inactive for the past several years, but there were a number of large corporations that had failed to pay taxes and this law served as an excellent medium to add additional revenues which we might not have otherwise obtained."

MRS. BALLS QUITS IN JUDICIAL ROW

Criticizes Naming of Mack as She Resigns From Westchester Democratic Committee.

BREAKS WITH MRS. O'DAY

Declares Governor's Action Was Bad Politics and Will Hurt Organization.

Special to The New York Times.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 17.—With the resignation from the county committee today of Mrs. Teresa Balls of Rye and a strong expression of opinion from Westchester Democrats in behalf of Harry T. Foley, their leader, who resigned on Monday, it appeared that the appointment of John E. Mack of Poughkeepsie to the Supreme Court bench to succeed the late Justice Frank C. Young, would have far-reaching consequences.

Mrs. Balls has long been an active worker for the organization. She gave as a reason for her resignation the action of Governor Roosevelt in naming Justice Mack, but added that she had broken with Mrs. Caroline O'Day, national Democratic committeewoman, whose political confidant she had been for eleven years.

Mrs. Balls said she had handled practically all of the details of Mrs. O'Day's county work. The split between the two Rye women came as a result of a disagreement over whether or not Chairman Foley had refused to recognize Mrs. Balls as a proxy for Mrs. O'Day at the meeting of the county committee two weeks ago when John B. Coyle was endorsed for the post to which Justice Mack was appointed.

"Harry Foley is the best leader we have ever had," she said. "In my opinion the Governor's action was bad politics and will set back the work done by the Democratic organization in Westchester County ten years."

According to W. Burdell Banister, chairman of the Rye Town Committee and a supporter of Foley, a break with Tammany over Governor Roosevelt is seen as an almost positive result of the Mack appointment. Indications were today that the Westchester Democrats would withdraw support from the Governor.

Another protest to the Mack appointment is expected to be voiced at the Democratic convention for the Ninth Judicial District. The Westchester delegates with the majority of votes will probably stand out for the nomination of Coyle. Justice Mack probably will run for election in the Fall, as his term under the present appointment will expire in 1931. Some Democrats feel that the organization would be exposing Coyle, who has twice run for Supreme Court, to a third defeat. This faction seems to think Justice Mack should run since he is on the bench.

Stanley Church, head of the New Rochelle Common Council, was talked of as a possible successor to Mr. Foley. Mrs. O'Day, as vice chairman of the county committee, is acting as county leader.

LUTHERAN INQUIRY DEMANDED OF SYNOD

Plea for Survey of Church Headquarters Here Made in New Brotherhood of Laymen.

From a Staff Correspondent of The New York Times.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 17.—The lay delegates to the annual convention of the United Lutheran Synod of New York, in session at the Church of the Reformation here, organized today the Brotherhood of the United Lutheran Synod of New York of the United Lutheran Church in America.

The laymen held their meeting in the parish house while the clergymen were in executive session examining candidates for membership into the synod.

Before the clergymen and the laymen adjourned to meet separately resolutions were adopted unanimously by a rising vote commending the Rev. Dr. Samuel Trexler of New York, president of the synod, for the manner in which he had conducted its affairs during the first year and felicitating him on his completion of thirty years in the ministry.

One resolution was offered by the Rev. Dr. F. A. Kahler, pastor emeritus of Holy Trinity Church, Buffalo, who has been for fifty-six years a minister.

Dr. Trexler announced that the gavel with which he was moderating the convention had been recently presented to him for that purpose in observance of his thirtieth anniversary as a clergyman by the Church of the Messiah, Brooklyn, which he founded and of which he was pastor in the first thirteen years of his ministry.

The Rev. Paul Andrew Kirsch, who a year ago at the first meeting in Albany, when three synods were merged into one, was elected the salaried secretary for one year, was reelected today for a term of five years. Out of 280 votes cast Mr. Kirsch received 273.

Heiby W. Ungerer, lay delegate from the host church, was elected president of the new laymen's association, and Herbert C. Yeckel of Syracuse, vice president.

Hardly were the officers elected when Joseph M. Lotsch, lay delegate from the Church of the Epiphany, Brooklyn, offered a resolution calling for a "survey" by a paid firm of specialists of the Lutheran Church House, 39 East Thirty-fifth Street, New York City. The resolution also called for a committee of three laymen to supervise hereafter the Lutheran Church House. No action was taken.

Lutherans to Name Bell for Hoover.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—The name of President Hoover is to be perpetuated as the name of the largest bell of a $65,000 set of chimes being installed at Old Zion Lutheran Church in Franklin Square. The installation will be complete and the chimes dedicated on July 4. The spire of the ancient church is undergoing extensive repairs to carry the heavy bells. President Hoover has arranged to spend Independence Day in Philadelphia in order to be present at the dedication.

PRITCHETT RETIRES FROM CARNEGIE POST

Head of Teaching Foundation Will Be Succeeded Aug. 1 by Dr. Henry Suzzallo.

HAS SERVED FOR 25 YEARS

SUCCESSOR AIDS HOOVER

Will Soon Complete Government School Survey—Was Storm Centre in Seattle Row.

Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching during the entire twenty-five years of its existence, has asked to be relieved from active duty and will retire on Aug. 1, it was announced yesterday by the executive committee of the foundation. Dr. Pritchett, who is 73 years old, will be succeeded by Dr. Henry Suzzallo, formerly president of the University of Washington.

Dr. Pritchett held various high educational posts before he became president of the foundation. He was Professor of Astronomy at Washington University, St. Louis, from 1883 to 1897; superintendent of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey from 1897 to 1900, and president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology from 1900 to 1906.

During his tenure of office Dr. Pritchett, in conjunction with the executive committee, authorized many studies of an educational nature and other projects affecting teachers. Under his direction the foundation has granted pensions to university professors, authorized research in many fields and investigated American college athletics.

Suzzallo Leads Hoover Survey.

The report of the survey on college athletics attracted much attention because of its criticism of "the commercialization of intercollegiate competition" and of the "negligent attitude toward the educational opportunity for which the American colleges exist."

Dr. Suzzallo is director of President Hoover's national advisory committee on education, which is engaged in coordinating the educational activities of the government. The work is being financed by a donation of $100,000 from the Julius Rosenwald Fund and is expected to be completed by next month.

The government study by Dr. Suzzallo interrupted another work he had begun for the Carnegie Foundation, a study of the graduate school system of the United States.

Four years ago Dr. Suzzallo was the storm centre of a struggle between those who supported his educational program and the adherents of Governor Roland H. Hartley of Washington. The controversy lasted two years, in the course of which Dr. Suzzallo was asked by the regents to resign his post as president of Washington University. He refused, protesting that no reason had been given for his dismissal and that he had had no hearing, but the regents then gave him a leave of absence and appointed David Thomson, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, as president.

Is Trustee of Foundation.

Students held torchlight processions on the campus and agitated for a strike, but this was discouraged by Dr. Suzzallo. Governor Hartley's opposition toward the educator is said to have started when the latter, as chairman of the State Council of Defense during the World War, suggested an eight-hour day in Washington lumber camps. The Governor, who was a timber owner, opposed the proposal, but it was adopted by the government. Subsequently the Governor denied that this was the cause of his animus against the educator.

Dr. Suzzallo is 54 years old, a graduate of Stanford University and a Doctor of Philosophy of Columbia University. He has been a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation since 1919. He has served on many national and international bodies engaged in research, postal reform and education, and holds honorary degrees from various institutions. During 1926-1927 Dr. Suzzallo served as chairman of the board of the Carnegie Foundation. In the announcement concerning his elevation to the presidency it was said that "he brings to the foundation's educational problems an unusual knowledge of schools and colleges in this country and Europe."

POLICEMAN SHOOTS CLERK BY MISTAKE

Patrolman, Called to End Melee in Lefcourt Building, Takes Victim for Hold-Up Man.

Murray Malina, a 22-year-old messenger for the Normandie National Securities Corporation, was shot and seriously wounded yesterday morning by Traffic Patrolman Patrick Dillane in the lobby of the Lefcourt Building, 521 Fifth Avenue. Dillane mistook the messenger for a hold-up man.

Shortly after 9 o'clock, Malina, with three other employes of the Normandie Corporation, which has offices in the building, attempted to walk through the Fifth Avenue entrance to the lobby carrying two steel boxes containing securities having an estimated value of more than $1,000,000. They were halted by three porters, who demanded that they take the boxes through the side entrance and up the freight elevator.

An argument followed and then Malina grappled with the head porter, Henry Scott. At this point Samuel I. Kastle of 57 Remsen Street, Brooklyn, the cashier of the corporation, ran into the street and called Patrolman Dillane. He said there was a fight in the lobby which he feared was a hold-up.

Dillane, who had just been assigned to the Fifth Avenue and Forty-third Street post, ran into the building and, drawing his revolver called upon Scott and Malina to stop fighting. Malina paid no attention and the patrolman, believing he was dealing with a hold-up man, fired. The messenger, who lives at 258 Floyd Street, Brooklyn, dropped to the floor, the bullet having passed above his heart lodging under his right shoulder.

CANFIELD CLEARED BY GRAND JURY HERE

Treasury Notified That No True Bill Was Found on Near-Beer Permit Charges.

VINDICATION, SAYS LOWMAN

Capital Recalls Investigator's Statement He Would Easily Prove Himself Not Guilty.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Notice was filed with the Treasury Department today by Federal court authorities in New York that the Federal grand jury, after an exhaustive investigation, had not indicted Palmer Canfield, former prohibition administrator for Northern New York, who was suspended as a field investigator of the bureau pending an investigation into alleged irregularities in the issuance of a permit to a near-beer establishment.

Assistant Secretary Lowman of the Treasury said he considered the failure of the New York grand jury to indict as a vindication of Mr. Canfield. It was understood that Mr. Lowman had never taken the charges seriously.

Owing to an agreement between the Treasury Department and Attorney General Mitchell, there will be no change in Mr. Canfield's status from that of a suspended officer until the Prohibition Bureau is transferred to the Justice Department. The agreement was not made specifically as to Mr. Canfield's case, but applied to all personnel in the Prohibition Bureau.

No information was transmitted to the treasury by the New York Federal authorities except that no "true bill" had been returned and that the record in the case was being sent to Secretary Mellon. The record will be studied and probably turned over to the Justice Department. It was said to involve prohibition officials.

Prohibition Commissioner Doran refused to comment on the case pending the receipt of additional information. Mr. Canfield's suspension by Dr. Doran followed implied charges in a New York prohibition trial that he was involved in an irregularity relative to an application for a permit to operate a near-beer plant. The alleged transactions relating to a large bribe were said to have taken place between the time Mr. Canfield passed civil service examinations by which he qualified as a prohibition administrator, and the time he was appointed administrator in a newly created district in Northern New York, Jan. 1, 1929.

After a report on the case had been made to the Treasury, Mr. Canfield was called to Washington and suspended. At that time he declared that he would easily prove himself not guilty of wrongdoing, and demanded that the Federal grand jury in New York start an immediate investigation. An exhaustive study of the case was made.

PLAN DRIVE FOR FUNDS TO CLEAN VACANT LOTS

Heads of Civic Bodies and City Departments to Consider 'Tag Day' at Meeting Today.

The possibility of a "tag day" to raise funds to pay unemployed laborers for clearing away refuse from vacant lots and other spots not necessarily covered by the Sanitary Commission will be considered today at a conference of heads of civic organizations and a number of city departments to be held in the office of Dr. William Schroeder Jr., chairman of the Sanitary Commission.

Those who expect to attend include Dr. Schroeder, Health Commissioner Wynne, Commissioner of Public Welfare Taylor, Charles S. Hand, member of the Sanitary Commission, and Mrs. Arthur Claflin, president of the Outdoor Cleanliness Association of New York, Inc. It is Mrs. Claflin's suggestion that the tag day be held. It is expected that Commissioner Taylor will inform the conference whether his department can give a permit for the project.

Mr. Hand announced yesterday that he had received letters from Mrs. Claflin and Dr. Bernard Sachs, chairman of the Committee of Twenty on Street and Outdoor Cleanliness, offering their aid.

Dr. Sachs explained in his letter to Mr. Hand that his organization had for its purpose to assist rather than to criticize and that whatever criticisms it issued were meant to be constructive. Mrs. Claflin said her organization was planning to keep a systematic and watchful survey of all the streets of the city and would report from time to time to Mr. Hand on the conditions it found.

Mrs. Claflin announced that a meeting of the Outdoor Cleanliness Association would be held at 3:30 P. M. today at her home at 1,001 Park Avenue.

Elects Nelson Rockefeller.

Special to The New York Times.

HANOVER, N. H., June 17.—Nelson Rockefeller of New York City was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, today. The announcement was made at the Dartmouth commencement exercises.

SAYS COOLEY PAID, BUT BARRED SISTER

Probation Officer Testifies Ex-Chief Told Him to Keep Mrs. Lawler Out of Office.

SHE IS LINKED TO 3 JOBS

Worked in Drug Store Here While Getting City and Buffalo Salaries, Witnesses Swear.

A witness at the trial of Edwin J. Cooley, former head of the Probation Bureau in General Sessions, testified yesterday that Cooley had issued orders in May, 1929, to exclude his sister, Mrs. Marguerite F. Lawler, from the office although he kept her on the payroll for five months thereafter.

"I don't want her in the building; she has caused enough trouble," Cooley said at that time, according to the testimony of Patrick J. McShane, a probation officer. Cooley is charged with having fraudulently audited his payroll in that he certified Mrs. Lawler, his sister, for payments for which she rendered no service.

Mrs. Lawler was banned from the Probation Bureau after a row with Mrs. Eileen S. Coughlin, suspended first deputy probation officer, McShane testified. The defense contends that Mrs. Lawler, who is now in a sanitarium, was mentally unbalanced. The prosecution is trying to prove that the relations between Cooley and Mrs. Coughlin led to the quarrel and the subsequent ousting of Mrs. Lawler.

Says Mrs. Lawler Had Three Jobs.

It was also testified that Mrs. Lawler held three paying jobs at one time. An auditor in the Controller's office identified her paychecks as temporary chief probation clerk and a Buffalo school principal said she was being paid as a teacher in his school during the same period. In addition, Mrs. Lawler was working in a New York City drug store for a few days as a distributer of sample ice cream, it was asserted.

On the stand Mr. McShane first told of going to the Homestead Inn in Kew Gardens in April, 1929, with Cooley and a third person, whom he later identified as Mrs. Coughlin. Objections from George Z. Medalie, defense counsel, prevented him from telling details of the trip.

Mrs. Lawler worked in the probation bureau for a month, he said, but on May 3 she came into conflict with Mrs. Coughlin.

"They were fighting violently just outside Cooley's private office," he said. "Mrs. Lawler was endeavoring to get away from Mrs. Coughlin. They were struggling and screaming and Mrs. Lawler's hair was all unsettled. A court attendant divided them."

A few days later Mrs. Lawler returned to the office, but Cooley, according to Mr. McShane, exclaimed: "Take her out of the office and keep her out." Twice Mrs. Lawler came back again and begged Mr. McShane to intercede for her, but Cooley, he said, replied that "Mrs. Lawler could go back to her work in Buffalo and that I was too tender-hearted."

The witness said that later the probation chief asked his mother to have Mrs. Lawler committed to a sanitarium. Mr. McShane finally freed himself from Mrs. Lawler's affairs, he declared, by telling Cooley that he had not enough time for his regular job.

That Cooley made another effort to have his sister confined to an institution was brought out in the testimony of Dr. John Lo Pinto, a physician of 208 West Twenty-third Street, who said he told the probation director that while a sanitarium might do her good he did not think she should be forced into one.

Doctor Calls Telegram a Forgery.

Dr. Lo Pinto denounced as forged a telegram sent to the Buffalo school authorities over his signature on May 16, 1929, saying that Mrs. Lawler was unfit to serve as school teacher. This telegram, a Western Union operator testified, was telephoned over Cooley's private office wire. Mr. Medalie has told the jury that Cooley was unaware that Mrs. Lawler at this time was still on the Buffalo school payroll.

1,955,384 IN BOSTON AREA.

Metropolitan District Census Shows Gain of 271,510 in Decade.

BOSTON, June 17 (AP).—The population of metropolitan Boston is 1,955,384, a gain of 271,510, or 16.1 per cent, since 1920, partially revised census figures disclosed today.

The district, as defined by the State census records, includes fourteen cities and twenty-six towns, which for sewerage, water and park purposes come under the Metropolitan District Commission, a State body.

The largest city in the district is Boston, with a population of 783,451, an increase of 35,391. Among other large cities are: Cambridge, 113,650; Somerville, 103,604; Lynn, 102,293; Quincy, 71,965; Newton, 65,295; Medford, 59,700, and Malden, 58,483.

Other census figures issued yesterday by The Associated Press include:

ERIE, PA.—115,875; increase 22,503, or 21.1 per cent.
EVANSVILLE, IND. (revised)—103,151; increase 17,887, or 20.9 per cent.
ST. LOUIS, MO. (revised)—818,252; increase 45,355, or 5.9 per cent.
FLINT, MICH.—156,422; increase 64,823, or 70.77 per cent.
EL DORADO, ARK.—16,420; increase 12,533, or 322.4 per cent.

147,152 IDLE IN CHICAGO.

Census Enumerators Found 4.32 Per Cent Unemployment There.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Only 147,152 of Chicago's 3,373,753 inhabitants, or 4.32 per cent, are out of work, census supervisors announced today on the basis of statistics gathered in April.

Leaders of the Chicago Council of Unemployed appeared during the day before the City Council Judiciary Committee, and refused offers of jobs. One of them, Nels Kjar, said he preferred to continue as an organizer of the unemployed at a salary of $15 a week to working for $33 a week as a street cleaner.

Architect Sues Chrysler Building Company; Says $725,500 of $865,000 Fee Is Unpaid

A mechanic's lien for $725,000 against the W. P. Chrysler Building Corporation was filed yesterday in the county clerk's office by William Van Alen, 331 Madison Avenue, architect of the Chrysler Building, the city's loftiest structure. Mr. Van Alen alleges that a balance of $725,500 is due him on a fee of $865,000, representing 6 per cent of the $14,000,000 cost of the seventy-seven-story skyscraper.

Through his counsel, M. Carl Levine, Mr. Van Alen names as codefendants the Cooper Union for the Advancement of Art and Science as owner-in-fee of the property, and the Reylex Corporation, headed by former State Senator William H. Reynolds of Long Beach, as lessee. Mr. Reynolds sold his leasehold to Mr. Chrysler and associates.

Mr. Van Allen, who lives at 27 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, says in the court papers that he not only prepared the architect's plans, drawings and specifications for the building, which rises to a height of 1,046 feet above the street level at Forty-second Street and Lexington Avenue, but that he closely supervised construction of the building.

"Originally Senator Reynolds, who held the leasehold, had Mr. Van Alen prepare a set of drawings for a speculative office building and agreed to pay him a [illegible] amount," said Mr. Levine. "When Mr. Chrysler took over the leasehold he retained Mr. Van Alen to redesign the building, and Mr. Van Alen designed an altogether different type of structure. There was no specific agreement for the payment of the architect. When Mr. Van Alen rendered his bill he asked for the 6 per cent fee established by the American Institute of Architects. Many architects charge a fee of 10 per cent.

"Mr. Chrysler said he would not pay such a fee. He offered $175,000."

According to Mr. Levine, Mr. Van Alen, for his services in drawing two different sets of plans for the building, received about $140,000 to $145,000.

Before departing for Detroit last night Mr. Chrysler said:

"I have received no formal notice of the proceedings taken by Mr. Van Alen regarding the claim for services on the Chrysler Building. The propriety of any claims of Mr. Van Alen will doubtless be decided by some proper tribunal."

PUBLIC HEARING SET ON CITY PAY RISES

Aldermen Refer Resolution to Committee for Open Session at City Hall Tomorrow.

WOMAN'S CLUB PROTESTS

Citizens Union Secretary Says Move Provides Opportunity to Regain Public Regard.

Civic organizations and citizens who desire to make formal protests against the proposed increase of $519,000 in the salaries of 200 higher city officials will have an opportunity to do so at a public hearing of the Committee on Salaries and Offices of the Board of Aldermen tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at City Hall.

This was determined yesterday when the increased-pay resolution, adopted last Friday by the Board of Estimate, came up in the Board of Aldermen and was referred to the committee without any request for immediate consideration. These tactics of the leaders of the Democratic majority made it unnecessary for Alderman Joseph Clark Baldwin 3d, leader of the Republican minority, to object to immediate consideration.

Mr. Baldwin asked Alderman Edward W. Curley, chairman of the committee, if there would be a public hearing on the measure. Mr. Curley replied that the resolution would be on the committee's calendar tomorrow afternoon and added that the meeting would be open to the public.

Women's City Club Protests.

Alderman Murray Stand presided in the absence of Aldermanic President Joseph V. McKee, who attended the wedding of his sister and went later to the launching of the ferryboat Chelsea in Brooklyn.

The Women's City Club, in a letter to Mayor Walker, signed by Mrs. Robert W. Bruere, its president, protested against the salary increases as "a cynical disregard of budget procedure" similar to that the Board of Estimate showed in raising the salaries of its own members last December.

"It is the essence of orderly budget procedure that due notice of salary changes should be given the taxpayers of the city and that such changes should not take place between budget periods," Mrs. Bruere wrote.

"The Women's City Club therefore respectfully requests that you should withhold your signature to the proposed salary increases."

R. E. McGahen, secretary of the Citizens Union, recalled that the union had fought the increases for the Mayor and the other members of the Board of Estimate.

Sees Aldermen's Opportunity.

"The Aldermen have a rare opportunity," he said, "to raise themselves from the low state of public regard into which they have fallen, mainly on account of their habitual readiness to 'me-too' every suggestion coming from the other end of City Hall.

"Theoretically, the Board of Aldermen is an important factor in shaping the financial policies of the city. The pressure from beneath which the Board of Estimate yielded to last Friday was forecast by the Citizens Union when it fought the self-made salary boosts voted to themselves by the elected officials last December in defiance of common standards of decency.

"Taken together, these actions of the chief elected officials tend to make budgetary procedure and orderly financial planning mere travesties. The aspirations of the aldermen for larger remuneration were nipped in the bud; therefore, they are in a particularly good position to be critical of the latest proposal.

"The time when many individuals in private life are trying desperately to adjust themselves to curtailed or terminated incomes is especially opportune for the 'city fathers' to do some serious thinking and acting on behalf of their tax-paying children."

STOCK CLERK SEIZED IN $85,000 THEFT

HIS LOSS PUT AT $45,000

Crain's Aides Say Rest of Broker's Shares Were Impounded—Youth Faces Grand Jury Today.

Victor Curcio, 21 years old, of 218 Sunnyside Avenue, Long Island City, formerly a transfer clerk in the brokerage firm of Watson & White at 149 Broadway, was arrested late yesterday afternoon in the District Attorney's office, after he was alleged to have confessed to the theft of $85,000 in securities from his employers in the last year.

Assistant District Attorneys Hastings and Green said that the youth asserted he had used the securities as collateral in an account in the brokerage firm of Carreau & Snedeker at 63 Wall Street, in which he lost about $45,000 of the securities. The remaining $40,000 in securities were impounded, according to the prosecutors.

The securities were missed by Curcio's employers recently, and they called in representatives of the Fidelity & Deposit Company of Maryland, which provided a blanket bond for all the firm's employes. Suspicion was directed to Curcio, and, it was alleged, he confessed the theft of the $85,000 in securities to use in his stock speculating account, which he opened under the name of John Nicholas. It was alleged that when he was brought to District Attorney Crain's office he amplified this confession.

Curcio, according to Assistant District Attorney Green, said that a desire to enrich himself in the stock market led him to take the first batch of securities and place them as collateral in his account with the second brokerage. He added that he was receiving a weekly salary of $43 from Watson & White, and found this insufficient on which to maintain himself and his parents, with whom he lived.

He was taken to Police Headquarters by Detective Smith of the District Attorney's office, and locked up for the night. The two prosecutors said that the evidence against Curcio probably would be presented to the grand jury today with a view to obtaining at least one grand larceny indictment against the youth.

CONFER ON B. M. T. VALUE.

Walker and Transit Officials Make Progress Toward Accord.

City and State transit officials, in conference with Mayor Walker at the City Hall yesterday, continued their efforts to agree upon a basis for valuation of the B. M. T. subway and elevated lines expected to be included in a rapid transit unification plan. As was the case at a similar conference a week ago the chief discussion was on the basis to be used in valuing the company's elevated lines. It is understood that there is at least $50,000,000 difference between the values placed upon the lines by the company and the Transit Commission.

Mayor Walker said that definite progress was made yesterday and further progress was expected as the result of another conference to be held next Tuesday, when the Transit Commission will submit for discussion a complete summary of valuations, together with an outline of the general unification plan, showing how the B. M. T. lines are to be worked into a system linking them with the new city subways.

INSANE MAN HUNTED IN SECOND KILLING

Queens Shooting Is Linked to College Point Murder—Note Says 14 More Will Die.

LONELY ROADS GUARDED

Radio Man and Grocer Were Both Shot Dead in Parked Cars—Girls With Them Exonerated.

The body of Noel Sowley, 26 years old, of Bergen Beach, found yesterday with two bullet wounds in the left temple in his coupe in a lonely lane in Creedmoor, Queens, started the police on a search for a demented man. Sowley's death was definitely linked with the murder last Wednesday of Joseph Moyzynsky, a grocer, whose body was found in his automobile in the College Point section.

In Sowley's pocket the police found a newspaper clipping telling of the Moyzynsky murder and on the margin of the clipping was the notation, in pencil, "Here's how." This and a series of warning notes to a New York newspaper, advising that "another body" would be found in Queens and that "thirteen more men and a woman" would be murdered have convinced the police that the crimes are the work of an insane man.

Another factor tending to strengthen their theory is the proximity of the State Hospital for the Insane at Creedmoor, less than a mile from the spot where Sowley's body was found. So far as could be learned last night, however, no inmates have been reported missing from the asylum.

Girl Describes Murder.

Miss Elizabeth Ring, 20 years old, of Hollis, Queens, daughter of a policeman, was brought from her home to the Jamaica police station at 8 o'clock last night for questioning in connection with Sowley's death. She readily admitted, according to the detectives, that she was in the coupé with Sowley when a man crept up and fired the two shots that killed her escort.

The murderer, Miss Ring said, was about five feet six inches in height and apparently a foreigner. Before he fired the shots he muttered incoherently that he was "going to kill thirteen men and one woman" and as Sowley slumped over the steering wheel he began to search through the dead man's pockets. Whether he took anything Miss Ring could not see.

After Miss Ring had told her story the police drove her to Creedmoor and had her re-enact her part in the tragedy. She alighted from the police car, at Eighty-third Avenue and 246th Street, a desolate automobile dump overrun with dank growths, and indicated where Sowley's car had been. Then the police took her over the lane to Rocky Hill Road where she boarded the bus for Jamaica, after the shooting.

A somewhat similar story was told by Miss Catherine May, 19 years old, of College Point, who was with Moyzynsky when he was killed. She said that a man crept up upon her and the grocer in the dark, fired through the open window and then dragged her into the road and escorted her to a bus. Miss May is held under $50,000 bail as a material witness.

Commissioner Mulrooney spent most of the night on the case. He said he believed the killer was a religious maniac of the most violent homicidal type, and announced that hundreds of patrolmen from other boroughs might be called in tonight to help search for the man. Miss Ring later was taken to the Rogues Gallery in Manhattan to see if she could pick out Sowley's assailant.

Sowley was chief mechanic for the Cable Radio Tube Corporation at 90 North Ninth Street, Brooklyn. He lived, until June 1, with three other young men in an apartment at 196 Clinton Avenue, Brooklyn. He moved before his lease expired.

His parents and a married sister live at 2,105 East Forty-seventh Street, in the Bergen Beach district of Brooklyn. He seldom came home, according to the neighbors, but spent most of his time at Bayville and other seashore resorts, puttering around with canoes and motorboats.

When the police saw that the stories told by Miss Ring and by Miss May corresponded in all main essentials they immediately came to the conclusion that the women were not implicated in the shootings.

Letters Tell of Hunt for "Papers."

In the letters sent to the newspaper by the individual who foretold the finding of Sowley's body there were frequent references to "international papers," which the writer maintained were in the possession of the persons he had marked as his victims.

"I am the agent of a secret international order and when I met Moyzinski that night it was to get from him certain documents, but unfortunately they were not in his possession at the time," said one of the letters. And another part said, "We always get them through their women."

From the story told by Miss Ring, however, the police believe that the murderer did not know who his victims were. Miss Ring said that the man crept up on Sowley's car, pointed the pistol at the young mechanic and asked for his driver's license. Then, after scanning the name, he returned the license and said:

"You're going to get what Joe got."

He fired two shots. Sowley died instantly.

Inspecor Gallagher, who is in charge of detectives in Queens, believes that the murderer seeks his victims in the lonely lanes in Queens where young couples sit in parked cars during the late hours at night.

Under orders from Inspector Gallagher, scores of plain clothes men and patrolmen were sent last night to guard lonely lanes in Queens. The man who wrote the letters had boasted that he intended to kill another victim last night in College Point.

HAITIAN ELECTIONS OCT. 10.

Plebiscite on Constitutional Amendments Will Be Held Same Day.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, June 17 (AP).—The date of the national election was set as Oct. 10 by a political conference today.

Those attending, including Eugene Roy, temporary President; his Cabinet, the strongest Presidential candidates and party leaders, agreed on a plebiscite for the same date. This will be on a constitutional amendment which empowers the National Assembly, composed of Senators and Deputies, to amend the Constitution. An amendment now requires a plebiscite.

Will Rogers Helps Boston To Observe Bunker Hill Day

To the Editor of The New York Times:

BOSTON, Mass., June 17.—We been awful busy up here today celebrating Bunker Hill. Daniel Webster made the most famous Bunker Hill address, so I was really pinch hitting for him. He spoke good English, too. The Websters wrote all their own. You give me a chance to write my own dictionary and make a word mean anything I want it to, and I will show you some English.

They are a broad-minded people up here. They celebrate a victory that the British won, and the monument is not on Bunker Hill—it's on Breed's Hill.

But one thing they have got, and that's the old fighting ship Constitution—the only ship that has withstood every disarmament conference.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PRAYER BOOK A CLUE TO AN IRISH HEIRESS

Chance Scrawl May Give Aged Postmistress a Share in $4,000,000 Estate Here.

SONG FIRST POINTED TO HER

Lawyer Heard Her Daughter Sing Little-Known Ballad of John Whalen's Native Village.

An old Irish song and scrawls on the flyleaves of a dust-covered prayerbook may enable Mrs. Mary Holton, more than 80 years old, who is keeper of the postoffice at Malahide, a hamlet nine miles from Dublin, Ireland, to share in the $4,000,000 fortune left here by John Whalen, lawyer, banker and one-time corporation counsel of New York. Mr. Whalen died Dec. 31, 1926.

John Whalen left half of his property to Cardinal Hayes and the other half to relatives. Surrogate John P. O'Brien will set a date this week for the hearing of all arguments on the claims of a long list of first and sec- $2,000,000 which they are to divide. On the day set Mrs. Holton, represented by counsel, will seek to establish her claim to a large share in the fortune.

Nineteen Cousins in Agreement.

The will of John Whalen was admitted to probate Feb. 28, 1927, after an agreement reached between the executors, Nellie M. Mahoney of 557 West 124th Street and John D. Beals of 1,150 Fifth Avenue, and nineteen cousins, two first and seventeen second, for the disposition of the $2,000,000 to be shared by the relatives. The understanding at the time was that the two first cousins, Miss Anna McDonald of 16 East Ninety-eighth Street and Mrs. Margaret McDonald Cunningham of 195 Claremont Avenue, would receive substantial legacies and the seventeen accredited second cousins would get $25,000 each.

In January, 1928, however, a new group of claimants appeared. Twenty-two alleged relatives attacked the probate on the ground that Mr. Whalen, at the time the will was drawn, was incapable of testamentary action and that undue influence and fraud were used by persons unknown to the new claimants. Many of the contestants live in Ireland, and ever since the contest was filed American lawyers have been touring Ireland seeking documentary evidence to authenticate the claims of the contesting claimants.

Daniel J. McGrath, lawyer and partner of James H. Hickey, went to Ireland on business connected with the estate. He visited Mrs. Holton and her daughter Minnie, whom he had known of old.

Old Song Is First Clue.

One morning he heard Minnie Holton singing the old ballad to "Ballyporeen." It seemed curious to Mr. McGrath that Minnie Holdton should be singing the old ditty which he had often heard sung by the Whalens in America. John Whalen's admitted cousins, singing the same lilting ballad.

He asked Minnie and her mother whether they were related to the John Whalen who had died in New York more than a year before. They were not sure. But Mr. McGrath made inquiries and found that two Whalen brothers, Denis and Patrick, had been born in Ballyporeen and that both had emigrated to America. His investigations seemed to indicate that Denis Whalen was the father of John Whalen and that Patrick was the father of Mary Holton and grandfather to Minnie Holton.

Mr. McGrath asked Mrs. Holton and Minnie for old papers or documents to substantiate what seemed to him a legitimate claim. Mother and daughter hunted. They found an old Catholic prayerbook, which had been printed in Baltimore in 1851. It had been Patrick Whalen's. He had brought it back to Ireland with him in 1861. Three flyleaves in the old book had in the scrawl of old Patrick his address in America and bits of family chronology.

On the fourth page was this inscription: "Denis my brother died in America 1864."

Denis Whalen, who was John's father, did die in this country in 1864.

"It is one of the most interesting and romantic will cases that has ever come to my attention," said Mr. Hickey, Mr. McGrath's partner, yesterday. "There is no question in our minds that Mary Holton and the late John Whalen were first cousins. I think it will not be difficult to establish her true status."

SAILS FOR RADIO MEETING.

Dr. J. H. Dellinger to Represent American Experts at Conference.

Dr. J. H. Dellinger, chief of the radio section, United States Bureau of Standards, has been appointed official representative of the Institute of Radio Engineers at the seventh plenary meeting of the International Electrotechnical Commission in Copenhagen, Stockholm and Oslo, from June 27 to July 9, according to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. Lee De Forest, president of the institute. Dr. Dellinger sailed last night on the steamer France with Mrs. Dellinger, and will be away for about two months.

The announcement was made at a farewell luncheon to Dr. Dellinger yesterday by Dr. De Forest and radio institute members at the Fraternities Club, Madison Avenue and Thirty-eighth Street.

RADIO CITY PLANNING POST FOR STOKOWSKI

Symphony Auditorium "Under Consideration" in Rockefeller Centre Is for Conductor.

HE IS WON TO BROADCASTING

Philadelphia Leader Tried It Last October and Has Been Studying Technical Side.

ENGINEERS WORK ON MODEL

5th Av. Amusement Project Will Be Designed in Plastic Form Before It Is Reduced to Paper.

The symphony hall, which was officially announced yesterday as "under consideration" as part of the new entertainment centre between Forty-eighth and Fifty-first Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues, to be built by the Rockefeller interests and operated by the Radio Corporation of America and associates, is intended for Leopold Stokowski, at present conducting the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra.

It was learned that radio had captured Dr. Stokowski after repeated offers of opulent salaries from New York and the praise of critics had failed to move him. He experimented with broadcasting last October and was stimulated by the invisible audience in a way which, he said, was unimaginable until experienced.

He has been in Philadelphia since 1912, drilling the orchestra which is now regarded as one of the best in the world, and subjugating his audiences. He scolded his hearers for breaking up the artistic mood by applauding; he refused to seat them if they came late, or to permit them to leave early. Once in 1926, to show them how it felt, he had his musicians drift in and out during the performance of a number.

When he was finally persuaded last year by the experience of the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra here and others that radio had reached a stage of fine transmission which might be adequate for his orchestral effects, he told the radio audience at the close of the first concert:

"Write me; and if you don't like such music, say so, and we won't play any more radio concerts; for I will not play popular music."

The radio fans liked his programs so much that they said that if they could get seats they were going to hear his concerts in person. Dr. Stokowski was delighted. He said he had always maintained music was for the ear, not for the eye, and that the orchestra should be heard, but not seen. He has already spent three months studying the electrical technique of broadcasting, so that he may control his own tonal volume by apparatus on the conductor's stand instead of entrusting it to a broadcasting engineer in another room.

To fit the symphony hall into the scheme of development of variety, legitimate stage, musical comedy and sound motion-picture theatres, together with the battery of twenty-seven studios of the National Broadcasting Company, a new method of planning has been devised by Todd, Robertson & Todd, engineers in charge for Mr. Rockefeller.

A model is to be made in malleable clay, faithfully reproducing every element in the proposed skyscraper, the oval building on Fifth Avenue and the garden plaza between, on a scale of 1 to 50. When everything is adjusted and readjusted to the final satisfaction of architects, theatre operators, broadcasters and such civic societies as the Fifth Avenue Association, the plan is to be transferred to paper and the details elaborated. Usually the model is the result of plans. Owing to the size and complexity of the present project, it was explained, the plans will result from the model.

For the Fifth Avenue Association William J. Pedrick said yesterday that it should be understood that the theatres and entertainment enterprises were to be kept in the skyscraper on the Sixth Avenue side of the new development, and consequently they should be known as a Sixth Avenue project. "It is essential," he said, "that the high-class retail character of Fifth Avenue be preserved, and we can't do that with a theatre set down there in the middle of it."

JEWISH DRIVE AIDED BY OUTSIDE GIVERS

Gift of $5,000 From George Mac Donald Among Many Announced From Men of Other Faiths.

Among the contributors to the New York Allied Jewish campaign for $2,500,000 of the $6,000,000 being raised nationally for Jewish relief purposes are many persons of other religious faiths, it was announced yesterday. One of the largest donations from such persons was received yesterday from George MacDonald, a prominent Catholic and a Papal Marquis. Mr. Mac Donald sent a check for $5,000.

Other non-Jewish contributors are D. M. Forgan, who gave $1,000; Paul Cravath, $500; Edward J. Flynn, Secretary of State, $500; Earl H. Miller, Tax Commissioner; Albert H. Liebenau, Deputy Commissioner of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity; John A. Biglan, Deputy Registrar; Bronx Surrogate Albert Henderson; Assemblyman Nicholas Eberhart and Alderman William Sullivan, all of whom gave lesser amounts.

David M. Bressler, national cochairman of the campaign, announced that chapters of Hadassah, the women's Zionist organization, had raised $100,000 during the six-week period ending June 15. Other contributions received yesterday include one of $1,500 from Max Jonas of Borough Park and $1,000 each from Union Temple, Brooklyn, Max Siegel and Joseph J. Bach.

The list of contributors and their donations published yesterday contained several mistakes. The corect amounts reported by sectional chairmen on Monday are as follow:

Samuel A. Telsey, $40,000 for Brownsville; Senator Nathan Straus Jr., $80,000 for the upper west side, Manhattan; Justice Albert Cohn, $45,184 for the Bronx and Rabbi Nachman H. Ebin $13,000 for Bensonhurst.

City College Commencement Exercises to Be Held in Lewisohn Stadium Tonight

1,218 AT CITY COLLEGE GET DEGREES TONIGHT

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY

President Robinson to Confer 420 B. S., 258 A. B. Degrees and 28 Commissions.

ALL TO TAKE EPHEBIC OATH

Exercises to Be Held in Great Hall in Case of Rain—Group of Old Graduates Will Be Present.

SENIOR LEADERS AT CITY COLLEGE.

Sylvan Elias, Marshal of the Class of 1930 in the Commencement Procession.

The College of the City of New York will award degrees to the largest senior class in its history at its eighty-fourth commencement this evening in the Lewisohn Stadium, 139th Street and Amsterdam Avenue, when degrees, certificates and commissions in the Reserve Corps will be conferred on 1,218 students as compared with 1,183 last year. President Frederick B. Robinson also will award the annual prizes.

The degree of Bachelor of Science will be given to 420 graduates and 258 will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree. Other degrees, certificates and commissions will be granted as follows: Bachelor of Social Science, 179; degree in engineering, 30; Bachelor of Business Administration, 60; Master of Business Administration, 2; Bachelor of Science in Education, 46; Master of Science in Education, 46; diplomas in accountancy, 149; commissions, 28.

Procession Starts at 8 P. M.

The faculty in their robes and the graduates in cap and gown will assemble at 7:15 P. M. in the main building on the campus for the procession, which will start at 8 o'clock. Thousands of relatives of graduates, as well as their friends and friends and guests of the college, will attend the commencement exercises, for which tickets have been issued. In case of rain the exercises will be held in Great Hall, for graduates and their parents only, and tickets will not be recognized, it was announced.

The academic procession will be led from the main building to the Lewisohn Stadium by the City College Orchestra, under the direction of Assistant Professor William Niedlinger. The orchestra will play the "Coronation" march from "The Prophet," by Meyerbeer. The procession will be organized as follows:

FIRST DIVISION—Candidates for degrees. Class Marshal S. Elias, '30.

SECOND DIVISION—Classes graduated more than fifty years ago. Alumni Marshal Max W. Kraus, '76.

THIRD DIVISION—Class of 1880. Class Marshal Harry W. Mack.

FOURTH DIVISION—Class of 1905. Class Marshal A. E. Horn.

SIXTH, SEVENTH AND EIGHTH DIVISIONS—Officers and guests of the college.

The audience will sing "America" and then the Rev. Mr. Hogenauer will pronounce the benediction. As a recessional, the City College orchestras will play Parker's "American Legion."

The Rev. A. Stewart Hogenauer of the class of '20, field secretary for religious education in Newark of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will deliver the invocation and pronounce the benediction. The City College orchestras will play the national anthem.

Justice to Administer Oath.

Dr. Frederick C. Ferry, president of Hamilton College, will deliver the commencement address, followed by the administration of the Ephebic Oath to the graduating class by Supreme Court Justice Peter Schmuck, '93. The oath follows:

"We men, graduated by the College of the City of New York in 1930, do this day, after the manner of the Athenian youths of old about to enter public life, take this oath of devotion to the City of New York: We will never bring disgrace to our city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the city's laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those about us who are prone to annul them and set them at naught; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty; and thus in all these ways, we will strive to transmit this city not only not less but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

The audience will rise and sing "Lavender," following which President Robinson will confer the degrees, present the commissions and award the prizes.

Old Graduates to Attend.

Nearly a score of the oldest graduates of City College, men who received their sheepskins a half century or more ago, are expected to attend the commencement exercises, and they will have a place of honor in the stadium. The oldest is George C. Lay, '69, St. Paul, Minn. Another member of the class of '69 will be Edward C. Bridgman of Stapleton, S. I. Other "old grads" will be: Allen L. Smidt, '70; Julius J. Frank, '71; Dr. Frank Huber, '73; Benno Lewisohn, '73; Abraham Salomon, '73; Walter B. Atterbury, '75; William Prager, '76; J. W. Davis, '76; Max Krass, '76; Nathan Ulman, '76; Louis S. Burchard, '77; Magnus Gross, '78; Herman Boehme, '78; A. R. Mischlica, '79, and Edward D. Geratie, '79.

Train, Herbert Waterman.

MRS. AKELEY IS HONORED.

Mount Union College Gives Degree to Explorer and Author.

MOUNT UNION, Ohio, June 17.—Mary L. Jobe Akeley, author and explorer, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature at the Mount Union College commencement exercises here today "in recognition of her literary work and her great achievements in research and exploration on two continents."

Dr. W. H. McMaster, president of the college, praised Mrs. Akeley's accomplishments in the African jungle, her mapping of the unknown areas in the Canadian Northwest and her work in the American Museum of Natural History.

PRINCETON CONFERS DEGREE ON WILBUR

Secretary of the Interior Is Honored With Seven Others at Commencement.

HIBBEN EXTOLS GRADUATES

Says Scholarship of Class Was Highest in Recent Years—Prize Winners Announced.

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 17.—Under threatening skies from which a few fine drops of rain fell from time to time the 183d annual commencement exercises of Princeton University were held this morning on the steps of historic Nassau Hall. Degrees were conferred upon 435 seniors and 100 graduate students, while eight men of distinction in various fields received honorary degrees, among them Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, who was made a Doctor of Laws.

As the seniors in cap and gown trooped across the platform to receive their sheepskins from President John Grier Hibben and their kinsfolk and friends on the crescent-shaped benches applauded, a note of more than the usual proud happiness was evident, for this class graduated a larger proportion of its members, and taking more honors, than any other in recent years.

Of the 664 men whose names appear on the class rolls 65½ per cent received diplomas today. Departmental honors were bestowed upon 172 of these, the largest number, university authorities pointed out with satisfaction, since the much-debated four-course plan of study was introduced with the class of 1925. The new plan of study has been under fire from some alumni and undergraduates as "too difficult."

Dr. Hibben Extols Class.

"It is a credit to you and to Princeton that so many of you are graduating with honors today," said Secretary Wilbur to the graduates. "Continue serving and striving as you have done here and you will win. Education is a privilege offered to selected men so that they can take part in the problems of civilized men—and these problems are very great. The men of this graduating class will make contributions to American life and American life needs it.

"This is a period of shifting standards and of the loosening of the bonds of old traditions and of morals. You have studied here in the firm foundation of Princeton. Take with you the best part of its tradition into the world which needs this stabilizing force. We must keep the best; you men represent the best; now be the best in the world outside."

Dr. Walter Lowrie, rector of St. Paul's American Church in Rome, who was made a Doctor of Divinity, pronounced the invocation. Charles Halsey Lindsley delivered the Latin salutatory oration, while his classmates dutifully laughed and applauded at the designated passages. Wilson Farrand, clerk of the board of trustees, then announced the awards of fellowships, scholarships and prizes.

President of Class Honored.

Among those to receive prizes were Benjamin Van Doren Hedges, president of the class and Olympic high jumper, who got the '01 medal given annually to that senior who is considered by his classmates to have done the most for Princeton; William B. Barfield, football and wrestling star for three years and honor student; William Henry Swift, baseball letterman, and Garret Coerte Voorhees, stroke of the 150-pound crew.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon 277 seniors, the degree of Bachelor of Science upon 132 and the degree of Bachelor of Science in Engineering upon 26. Eighty-eight of the new graduates then laid aside caps and gowns to step forth in the uniforms of second lieutenants in the United States Army and receive their commisisons in the officers' reserve.

Honorary Degrees Bestowed.

The candidates for honorary degrees were presented to President Hibben by Dean Augustus Trowbridge of the Graduate School. The citations delivered by Dean Trowbridge were as follows:

Master of Arts.

John Hinsdale Scheide of the class of '96. Enlightened organizer and supporter of preventive and curative agencies in the campaign against tuberculosis. To the bibliophile he is known as the discriminating collector of a fine library of manuscripts and rare editions. To the worker for the advancement of human welfare through religious, social and educational agencies, he is known as an enlightened patron.

Doctor of Music.

Arthur Whiting, pianist and composer. Founder and manager of the university concerts of Harvard, Yale and Princeton, through which for twenty years he has fostered in college audiences an appreciation and increasing love of music. He has held aloft the fine and steady flame of classical beauty, the beacon which marks the solid rock of artistic achievement through the ages.

Doctor of Letters.

John Leighton Stuart, founder and president of Yenching University in China. Born in the ancient empire of the Orient and influenced early by its culture rich in the knowledge of human nature, he came for his later training to Virginia, cradle of Western democracy.

Returning to China in 1905, he won widely recognized leadership in the Christian educational movement in the Far East. Through long association with the leaders in China he is giving effectual help in the perplexed and momentous affairs of the young republic.

Doctor of Divinity.

Walter Lowrie of the class of '90, for the last twenty-three years Rector of St. Paul's American Church in Rome.

Before undertaking parochial duties, he spent the greater part of a decade in study in the theological schools of Germany and in research in early Christian archaeology in Rome. His archaeological handbook is of high value to the secular student of the last phase of Graeco-Roman art and is indispensable to the student of church history. As a writer on New Testament exegesis, he is critical, philosophic and yet deeply religious, as a preacher he is vigorous, trenchant and eloquent.

In 1890 he was presented to your illustrious predecessor, Dr. Patton, for a degree in recognition of four years' faithful study. Today I present him for a degree in recognition of forty years of productive scholarship and of ministry to the spiritual needs of his countrymen in a foreign land.

Doctor of Science.

Karl Taylor Compton, Brackett professor of physics in Princeton University and now President of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

His career, crowded with achievement in a difficult science, has illustrated alike the brilliancy of his powers and the soundness of his professional training. His researches have furnished the first adequate explanation of the phenomena observed in the electric arc, now more than a century ago. His long series of investigations in the general field of electrical discharge has furnished invaluable material to guide hypothesis as to the structure of the atom. Engrossed in an ardent pursuit of knowledge, he has been unsolicitous of the high repute which now is his. He merits honors the more because he counts them less than the satisfaction of work well done.

William Berryman Scott of the class of '77, Blair professor of geology in Princeton University, who today becomes professor emeritus after fifty years of distinguished service.

Brilliant contributor in the field of vertebrate paleontology, not only as author of standard works and expositor of the theory of evolution but as organizer, and interpreter of the results of, expeditions sent out by Princeton University. His brilliant monographs, descriptive of new fossil forms found in our own Western country and in Patagonia, are broadly philosophical in scope and spirit and have won him international reputation. Honored by universities and academies at home and abroad as an investigator, his own university also honors in him the gifted teacher, lucid and inspiring to all his students.

Doctor of Laws.

John Van Antwerp MacMurray of the class of '02, for over twenty years in the diplomatic service of the United States and lately our Minister in Peking, now director of the School of International Relations at the Johns Hopkins University.

As a graduate student, his self-impelling mind urged him adequately to prepare himself, without haste and without waste, for his notable career. Secretary, counselor and chief of important missions abroad, and at home in charge of divisions of the Department of State, author of the authoritative work on our foreign policy regarding China, he has honorably and most capably maintained the interests and dignity of his country and has advanced the cause of international understanding and friendship.

Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of the President of the United States.

First attaining distinction in the field of education as professor of physiology, Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and President of Stanford University, his academic mother: then, still in early manhood, vigorous and wise in council, answering the call of his country in time of war to direct most skillfully the conservation of the nation's food supply.

Now, in full maturity of tested power, supervising the relation of government to public education, safeguarding the interest of the nation's wards, guarding for posterity our undeveloped material resources.

He is finding and following newer and wider outlets for his abounding energy, well aware that the best achievement measures only a stage of advance and discloses the need of still further progress:

"Nil actum reputans dum quid superesset agendum."

Koren in Valedictory.

The valedictory oration was pronounced by William Koren Jr., voted by his classmates the most brilliant and the most scholarly senior. Dr. Hibben pronounced the benediction, and the seniors sang "Old Nassau." With a "locomotive" cheer for the class and another for the university, their graduation was over.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

PRESTES TO RECEIVE U. OF P. DEGREE TODAY

Brazilian President-Elect and Son Will Be Made Members of Liberty Bell Society.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—Senhor Julio Prestes, President-elect of Brazil, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws tomorrow morning at the commencement exercises which will mark the close of the 190th academic year of the University of Pennsylvania. Nine honorary degrees will be conferred and 1,684 graduates from nearly every State and twenty-three foreign countries will receive academic degrees.

The exercises will be held in the Palestra on the university campus and will be presided over by Dr. Josiah H. Penniman, provost of the university. Dr. Cheesman A. Herrick, alumnus and trustee of the university and president of Girard College, will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws and will deliver the address to the graduates.

The remaining seven honorary degrees will be conferred as follows:

Doctor of Laws upon Judge John Marshall Gest of the Philadelphia Orphans' Court and Dr. Clarence Griffin Child, Professor of English at the university.

Doctor of Science upon Dr. Alexander von Lichtenberg, Professor of Urology at the University of Berlin and Chief of the Urological Department of St. Hedwig's Krankenhaus, and Edward Ellis Allen, director of the Perkins Institution of Watertown, Mass.

Doctor of Letters upon Dr. Cyrus Adler, president of Dropsie College.

Doctor of Music upon James Francis Cooke, president of the Presser Foundation of Philadelphia, and Henry Gordon Thunder, organist, composer and choral leader in Philadelphia.

Hoover Will Be Represented.

Senhor Prestes will be accompanied by Senhor Gurgel do Amaral, Brazilian Ambassador; Warren D. Robbins, representing President Hoover, and Senhor Fernando Prestes, son of the President-elect, with a group from the diplomatic service and the army and navy of Brazil.

The party will arrive at 10:55 in Philadelphia and will be greeted by a group from the university and the army and naval forces stationed in the city. The President-elect will receive the salute of the First City Troop of Philadelphia, which will escort him to the Palestra. The entire Brazilian party will participate in the commencement exercises.

Following the commencement, the Provost and trustees will give a luncheon in honor of Senhor Prestes, at the conclusion of which he will be taken to Independence Hall for a reception under the auspices of the Order of the Liberty Bell. An honorary membership in the order will be conferred upon him. This carries with it the decoration of the order and has been bestowed thus far only on General John J. Pershing. Life membership will also be bestowed upon the President-elect's son and upon the Brazilian Ambassador. The ceremonies will be in charge of Provost Penniman, who is Grand Commander of the order.

18 TO BECOME ENSIGNS.

Harvard Graduates Will Get Naval Commissions Today.

Special to The New York Times.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 17.—Eighteen seniors in Harvard College will graduate tomorrow in the course in naval science and tactics, and will receive the first commissions given by the navy to graduates of this course. Harvard is one of six colleges throughout the country where this ceremony is being enacted for the first time.

Captain Walter N. Vernou, commanding the Northampton, until recently Chief of Staff of the China station, will commission the eighteen men as ensigns in the Volunteer Naval Reserve. The officers attached to the Department of Naval Science and Tactics, including Captain B. G. Wygant, in charge, will be present at the ceremony.

The eighteen are:

HENRY B. BASSETT, Pittsburgh.
JAMES T. BALDWIN of Brookline, Mass.
MORRIS R. BROWNELL of Fairhaven, Mass.
ARTHUR P. BUTLER Jr. of Southwest Harbor, Me.
OLIVER S. CHUTE of Boston.
PERCY H. CLARK Jr. of Cynwyd, Pa.
HAROLD T. CROSS of Hyde Park, Mass.
STEPHEN D. FULLER of South Orange, N. J.
GEORGE P. HAMLIN Jr. of Boston.
JOHN G. LEWIS of Cedarhurst, N. Y.
ALBERT L. LOWE of Peabody, Mass.
LIONEL P. MARKS of Cambridge.
JAMES H. PAYNE Jr. of Alston, Mass.
ABBOT PETERSON Jr. of Brookline.
ROBERT E. ROSS of Greenwich, Conn.
MALCOLM F. STEWART of Jamaica Plains, Mass.
RICHARD H. THOMPSON of Marblehead, Mass.
WALTER J. H. TURNBULL of Cambridge.

WHEATON GRADUATES 105.

Carnegie Corporation Gives $15,000 to the Library.

NORTON, Mass., June 17.—Presentation of the Bachelor of Arts degree to a class of 105, the largest class ever graduated by the college, marked the conclusion of Wheaton's ninety-fifth commencement program today.

Frances Lester Warner, author and educator, delivered the commencement oration on "Construction Ahead."

The Anne Elizabeth Scott Prize, awarded for the highest grade for the four years of college work, was won by Lucile E. Eames of Holden. The Catherine Filene Dodd Cup, awarded for excellence in athletics, went to Katherine Carlisle of Winchester. The Catherine Filene Dodd prize in science was awarded to Helen Louis Wilbur of Waltham.

The oldest living alumnae, Mary E. Allen, '61, of Chartley, attended the exercises.

Among the gifts was one of $15,000 to the library from the Carnegie Corporation.

ADD TO BROWN FACULTY.

Authorities Announce Appointment of Sixty-one New Members.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 17 (AP).—Brown University authorities today announced the appointment of sixty-one new faculty members, the promotion of twenty-three professors and instructors and the retirement of three veteran teachers, one of them dean of the university for a number of years.

The three men who are retiring because they have reached the age of 70 are Dean Otis E. Randall, Professor Walter G. Everett of the philosophy department, and Dr. H. L. Koopman, librarian of John Hay Library.

Among the new appointees to the Brown faculty are Professor Herbert N. Couch of the University of Illinois, Professor Ralph M. Blake of the University of Washington and Professor Robert B. Lindsay of Yale University.

Princeton School Graduates 141.

Special to The New York Times.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 17.—The Princeton Junior School held its commencement today. The presentation of certificates to 141 students was made by Miss Mabel T. Vanderbilt, superintendent of the Princeton school system and prizes were awarded by B. Woodhull Davis, principal of the junior school. Students who participated in the program included Arthur Logan, Elma Van Nest, Charles Stryker, Francis Warren, Shirley Johnson, Marjorie Hoffman, Jane Clayton, Walter Hunlock, Lillian Waiver and Paul Corson.

SENIORS' PRESIDENT ILL

Marsters, Football Hero, Is Marshal—John D. Rockefeller Jr. Attends the Exercises.

Special to The New York Times.

HANOVER, N. H., June 17.—Dartmouth held its 161st commencement today and President Ernest Martin Hopkins awarded diplomas to 418 seniors, the second largest graduating class in the history of the college.

Eight honorary degrees were bestowed. That of Doctor of Laws was given to Charles Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister to the United States, while William Gillette, famous as the creator of the rôle of "Sherlock Holmes," received the Degree of Doctor of Letters.

The commencement procession formed on the campus and wound past the historic Dartmouth elms to Webster Hall, the somber black gowns of the graduates contrasting sharply with the brilliant hoods of the faculty and the uniforms of the Governor's staff.

Dean Cravin Laycock of Dartmouth College was the marshal of the procession, immediately following him being President Ernest Martin Hopkins and Governor Charles Tobey of New Hampshire. Leading the seniors was Al Marsters, the football hero, who was elected by his classmates to be their marshal.

Class President Ill.

The president of the senior class, John French Jr. of New York City was unable to march in the procession with his classmates. He was taken to Dickhalls House, the college infirmary, last night with a high temperature. He was resting comfortably today.

Another well known graduate was also unable to march in the line. Bart McDonough of Woburn, Mass., captain of the baseball team, was so injured in the Cornell-Dartmouth game yesterday that he was allowed out only on crutches. His ankle was seriously sprained.

Among the commencement guests were Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire, a Dartmouth graduate; John D. Rockefeller Jr., whose son, Nelson, was a graduate; Mrs. Rockefeller and John D. Rockefeller 3d.

Mrs. Edward T. Collins, wife of the Philadelphia Athletics ball player was also present, as her son, Paul, is a student at Dartmouth.

Honorary Degrees Conferred.

These honorary degrees were conferred:

Doctor of Laws.

CHARLES VINCENT MASSEY of Toronto, Canadian Minister to the United States.
THOMAS NELSON PERKINS of Boston.
THOMAS WILLIAM PROCTOR of Boston.

Doctor of Letters.

WILLIAM GILLETTE of Hadlyme, Conn.
TIMOTHY COLE of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

BECK HALL TO BE SOLD.

Famous Private Dormitory at Harvard Up at Auction Tomorrow.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 17 (AP).—The college home of Theodore Roosevelt, J. P. Morgan, John Jacob Astor and James A. Stillman, famous old Beck Hall, a privately owned dormitory for well-to-do students at Harvard for more than half a century, will go under the hammer at public auction Thursday.

The Beck Hall Trust, an organization of alumni which bought the hall from the Chauncey Stillman estate, has been forced to abandon the intention of erecting a modern apartment building on the site, and will sell to the highest bidder.

YALE GIVES DEGREES TO 438 MORE TODAY

Professional and Graduate Schools Will Bring Total for Year to 1,145.

707 SENIORS GET DIPLOMAS

Saunders MacLane Sets a New Scholarship Record for Yale College, Winning $500 Prize.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 17.—Yale University will confer 438 professional and graduate degrees tomorrow, completing the university's commencement exercises and bringing the total number of degrees awarded to 1,145. Today exercises were held for the 707 seniors in Yale College and the Sheffield Scientific School who received degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Philosophy.

An outstanding feature of the undergraduate exercises today was the announcement by President James Rowland Angell that all past Yale scholastic records had been broken by Saunders MacLane of Norwalk, Conn., who led the class of 1930 throughout his course. MacLane, who is the son of a clergyman and a former holder of the New York Yale Club scholarship, obtained an average of 389 out of a possible 400.

Wins Prize of $500.

MacLane was announced as the winner of the Alpheus Henry Snow prize of $500, which is awarded annually to the Yale College senior who, "through the combination of intellectual achievement, fine character and personality, shall be adjudged by the faculty to have done most for Yale by inspiring in his classmates an admiration and love for the best traditions of high scholarship." The prize was established in 1923.

Two other awards for Yale College seniors were announced by President Angell. Herbert Gordon Dyke of Larchmont, N. Y., won the DeForest prize of $100, established in 1823 and awarded to the senior "who shall write and pronounce an English oration in the best manner." The Warren Memorial High Scholarship Prize, established in 1922 for award to the candidate for the Bachelor or Arts degree who has the highest rank in scholarship, went to Alfred Hayes Jr. of Greenwich, Conn.

Twenty-five Classes in Reunions.

More than 2,000 alumni, the younger graduates in blaring, colorful outfits of fantastic design, the older in variations of the traditional blue and white, held their field day and annual parade incident to the Yale-Harvard baseball game.

Marching from the campus to Yale Field, twenty-five classes, headed by as many bands, were viewed by thousands of citizens and visitors.

For more than an hour before the game they made Yale Field look a riot of color as they marched and counter-marched over its surface in view of the 9,000 spectators who filled the stands.

The class of 1915, Sheffield Scientific School, wore a striking color combination of Irish gentry suits, made up of light green coat, buff knee breeches, black stockings and high black hats, true to the historic Irish design.

A mimic cornerstone was laid at second base and a large sign hoisted which read "Sheff Quad Foundation."

The 1915 Sheff pageantry eclipsed that of most classes. At the home plate pigs were let loose and were captured by the "Spalpeens." As one of their signs declared them, giving a realistic Irish foreground to the commencement landscape.

One of their clever signs read "I Hear You Colleen Me," and others were "We Have a Few Corned Beefs and a Few Irish Stews Left," and "We Made the Irish Rose Wild."

The class of '65, four strong, with an average age of 86, rode in an automobile which halted at the Yale players bench long enough to inform Captain Johnny Beyer that the Yale-Harvard series was not begun until 1868, three years after they graduated, and that they were rooting for Yale to win as wildly as if they had all won "Y's" in '65.

President Angell, who sat alongside the Yale bench, together with a throng of distinguished commencement guests, was cheered by the '65 alumni lustily, and the Yale president smilingly waved his hat and led a cheer for the oldest alumni in line.

One by one the classes halted in front of President Angell and united in a remarkable ovation to the chief executive of the university.

Prof. Phelps to Present Candidates.

The exercises tomorrow will bring to a close the institution's 229th year. Professor William Lyon Phelps will present the candidates for honorary degrees, and the deans of the respective schools will present the candidates for academic degrees.

The 438 graduate and professional degrees to be awarded include:

HUNTER TO CONFER 661 DEGREES TODAY

Commencement Will Be Held in Carnegie Hall to Accommodate the Crowd.

FOUR TWINS WIN HONORS

Chinese Girl Also Among the Winners of 53 Prizes to Be Awarded by Dr. Kieran.

Hunter College will award degrees to 661 students at its sixty-first commencement in Carnegie Hall this morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. James H. Kieran, president, will confer the degrees. It was decided to hold the exercises in Carnegie Hall because the auditorium of Hunter College was inadequate for the anticipated crowd.

The graduating class includes 180 seniors from Manhattan, 206 from the Bronx, 157 from Brooklyn, 42 from Long Island and 7 from Staten Island.

The Rev. Helmer Halvorson of Zion Lutheran Church, Brooklyn, will deliver the invocation. Addresses will be made to the graduates by Mrs. Maxwell Hall Elliott, president of the Associate Alumnae of Hunter College, and Dr. Harry P. Swift, president of the board of trustees.

Dr. William Boylan, president of the new Brooklyn College, will deliver the baccalaureate address.

The Hunter College choir under the direction of Alfred Y. Cornell and the Hunter College Orchestra led by Mrs. Flora Rubin Kotlarsky, will provide a musical program.

In addition to the diplomas, most of which are for the degree of bachelor of arts, President Kieran will award fifty-three prizes to seniors and undergraduates for conspicuous merit in various fields of college activity. Among the prize winners are Florence Hwang, a Chinese girl, and Hermine and Sara Jacobus, twins, who are elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Another set of twins winning honors in the graduating class are Florence and Frances McCormack.

117 ARE GRADUATED AT SARAH LAWRENCE

Dr. J. H. Finley Terms Class the 'Jeanne d'Arcs of a New Order of Individual Beauty.'

Special to The New York Times.

BRONXVILLE, N. Y., June 17.—Sarah Lawrence College, the first junior college for girls in New York State, graduated a class of 117 here this afternoon. This is virtually the first class to be graduated as last year there was only one degree given. The address was given by Dr. John H. Finley, who termed the graduates the "Jeanne d'Arcs of a new order in which individual beauty of life is put above mass efficiency and material possessions."

Dr. Constance Warren, president of the college, announced several gifts to the institution, including one of $10,000 from the Carnegie Corporation for the library, and a gift of books on sociology from Mrs. George A. Sheffield of Providence, R. I., who has made several donations.

In addition, a flagpole permanently provided with a flag was given by Miss Ruth Harvey of the graduating class and the newly formed Alumnae Association pledged itself to provide a scholarship.

The names of the members of the graduating class follow:

SENIOR ORATOR HITS HARVARD TEACHERS

Walter Warburg of New York, in Class-Day Speech, Calls 'Lack' of Them 'Lamentable.'

BLAMES STUDENT NUMBERS

And Says Tutors Mainly Seek Ph. D. Degrees—College Holds Its Traditional Exercises.

Special to The New York Times.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 17.—Harvard was criticized by Edward M. Warburg of New York City, the senior orator at the Class Day exercises today, as "lamentably lacking in teachers and rather overloaded with authorities."

It was the seniors' own day of all the year, devoted to them, their relatives and friends, and divided between solemn rites in Appleton Chapel and Sanders Theatre and gay festivities in the yard and at the stadium.

In the class oration, delivered as part of the forenoon exercises in Sanders Theatre, Mr. Warburg said:

"Through Harvard's sudden growth in size it has scarcely been possible to reorganize fast enough to keep its educational system up with the needs of the undergraduates. For example, in its attempt to keep up its prestige as far as other colleges and the outside world are concerned, Harvard finds itself lamentably lacking in teachers and rather overloaded with authorities.

"The type of teacher, rather than lecturer, as exemplified in Harvard's own tradition by such men as Agassiz, Norton and Wendell has been lost in the present large system. The time of stimulating discussions between student and professor in the class room is a thing of the past.

Tutors Held Inadequate.

"The reason, of course, is again the tremendous size of the classes, and Harvard, realizing this, has instituted the go-betweens, the section man and the tutor.

"But who are these section men and tutors upon whom the main responsibility of stimulating the interest of the student rests? Too often they are simply young men whose main aim is working for their doctor's degree or doing research for a future book.

"This is not so peculiar, since, after all, they depend on their books or their Ph. D.'s for recognition and promotion and not on their ability to teach. One can only hope that the future will lead to the recognition of teachers in distinction to authorities."

The influence of the college upon the students, however, had been such as to weld them into a solidarity of interest, the orator declared. Recalling the start of college life together, he said:

"Gradually in this huge melting pot of over 900 boys a certain order could be discerned. Groups began to appear and these groups were based not, as has often been said, an any tendency toward snobbism but on similar education and similar interests."

Assails Relations With the Press.

Concluding his criticism of Harvard, Mr. Warburg charged bungling of relations with the press.

"Above all, let us try not to base our knowledge of Harvard on the newspapers," he said. "During our own four years here there have been several unfortunate misunderstandings between Harvard and the press.

"These have been largely the university's own fault. Its unwillingness to give the outside world information concerning its activities has led to competitive guesswork on the part of the newspapers.

"Harvard must learn that in an organization as large as it now is, publicity ceases to be advertisement and becomes instead an expository defense against possible misconception on the part of outsiders."

The exercises at Sanders Theatre were opened by a prayer by Dean Williard L. Sperry of the theological school, chairman of the college board of preachers. Besides the class oration the other parts given included the class poem by Douglas P. Adams and the class ode first read by its author, Eugene Schoen-Rene of New York City and then, to the tune of "Fair Harvard," sung by the assemblage under the direction of Bernard D. Hanighen, class chorister.

Bliss Perry Speaks at Chapel.

Both to Sanders Theatre and to Appleton Chapel, earlier in the morning, the seniors marched in their caps and gowns. The final chapel service of their college career was open only to the seniors and the principal address was delivered by Professor Bliss Perry of the English department, who retires from teaching this year.

Early in the afternoon the yard was closed to all but the seniors, their guests and the alumni. While the seniors gathered in an obscure corner for their tree exercises, at which Edward M. M. Warburg was the orator, the alumni, headed by bands and clad in fantastic class costumes, began the march to the stadium.

Confetti Battle at Stadium.

Pausing on Soldiers' Field a moment to plant their ivy, the seniors marched, last of all, into the stadium bowl to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

Following massed cheering for different classes, athletic teams, President Lowell and "the ladies," and singing by the Glee Club, Wallace R. Harper, first marshal of the graduating class, presented the class banner to Robert Saltonstall Jr., president of the freshman class, and Albert G. Churchill, ivy orator, delivered the ivy oration.

The exercises ended with the singing of "Fair Harvard," and then the time-honored giant confetti battle was on. Long flaring streamers and multi-colored bits of paper filled the air as the graduates and seniors on the ground exchanged showers with the ladies and other guests in the stands.

In the evening, after the supper spreads, the yard was illuminated with long strings of Japanese lanterns strung about between the trees. At 9 o'clock the Glee Club gave its Class Day concert from the steps of the Widener Library.

Dancing in Memorial Hall, Hemenway Gymnasium and at all of the clubs lasted until midnight. Then the guests departed, the lights were dimmed and the seniors emerged from the ancient yard dormitories for the traditional plunge into the fountains, which, as well as the tree exercises, initiates them into the vast body of Harvard alumni, whom they will join when they get their sheepskins at commencement on Thursday.

URGE STAGE UNIONS TO CUT STOCK DEMANDS

Repertory Managers Point to Talkie Competition in Request for Smaller Working Units.

Immediate cooperation on the part of theatrical unions to lessen the cost of operating stock companies was requested at yesterday's meeting of the Theatrical Producing Managers' Association at the Hotel Pennsylvania. It was decided at the session, which was open only to members, that in view of present conditions the unions be asked to modify their regulations pertaining to stock. Those involved are the scenic artists, the stage hands and musicians' union and Actors' Equity Association.

In explaining the reasons for requesting these concessions, George Julian Houtain, general counsel for the association, said:

"Stock managers are forced to do this by reason of the economic conditions now prevailing. They find that there is a great demand throughout the country for the return of the spoken drama, but the talking pictures are providing such lavish entertainment at so little money that it becomes necessary on the reduced gross receipts to have the expenditure and the employment diminished accordingly. The stock managers also feel that, through the kind aid and cooperation of the unions in these matters, within a few months there will probably be 200 stock companies working, which will produce plenty of employment for all the allied branches of the stage, instead of sixty operating companies as there are now."

Mr. Houtain announced that the following changes would be sought from the unions:

"Scenic Artists—That in the future the stock manager would post one week's bond and the scenic artist would require only one week's notice.

"Stage Hands—That in the future stock managers will only require and hire three stage hands, to wit., an electrician, a property man and a carpenter, and that if additional stage hands are to be hired it shall be done at the option of the manager himself and not because of any demands of the stage hands' union.

"American Federation of Musicians—That the stock managers express their sympathy with the musicians in their efforts to 'come back,' but that hereafter the stock manager is to determine the number of musicians he is to employ, if any, and the number is not to be fixed by the musicians' union.

"Actors' Equity Association—That this organization be requested to modify the dramatic stock contract with actors so that only one week's notice of the closing of the company would be required instead of the present requirement of two weeks' notice which carries with it two weeks' guaranteed salary."

It is the intention of the Theatrical Producing Managers' Association, in the event that no action is taken on the foregoing requests, to refrain from using scenery, stage hands and scenic artists, and as an alternative employ drapes in the productions made by members.

William H. Harder, president of the Theatrical Producing Managers' Association, presided at yesterday's session. The three-day convention will be brought to a close today after the annual election of officers.

Arliss and Winthrop Ames Arrive.

George Arliss, actor, and Winthrop Ames, producer, will arrive tomorrow morning from Hollywood, where Mr. Arliss completed work in a screen version of the play "Old English." Mr. Ames was an "interested bystander," having gone to Hollywood to "watch the picture being made." Mr. Arliss will probably appear on the stage here and then return to California to make another picture for Warner Brothers. It is known that Booth Tarkington was asked to submit a story that would be suitable as a screen vehicle for Mr. Arliss.

CANADA. CANADA.

The story of Evangeline goes back to 1755. Yet today, after a hundred and seventy-five years have passed, you find the same quaint pastoral scenes. For Evangeline's people again dwell along the Acadian shore.

Nova Scotia

THE Land of Evangeline . . . the delightful west coast of Nova Scotia . . . of undying charm and fragrant memories. Here, beside the Basin of Minas, stretch the lush-green meadows of Grand Pré. Its ancient willows and aged well were mute witnesses of the tragic banishment of the Acadians. But, besides its historic romance Nova Scotia is a Sportman's Paradise. You sail there in 16 hours from Boston on the palatial "Yarmouth," (or 24 hours direct from New York on the "Evangeline") . . . to camp and fish with guides and canoes . . . to ramble through ripening orchards and peaceful villages. Too, you find excellent golf courses and motor roads . . also a gracious hospitality and moderate prices.

The All Expense Tours will help you in your planning. Travel Series, from $50. Fishing Series, from $80. up. So write

4 OPERA NOVELTIES FOR METROPOLITAN

Deems Taylor's 'Peter Ibbetson' and Lattuada's 'Le Preziosa Ridicole' in Gatti's Repertory.

JERITZA IN 'BOCCACCIO'

Wagner's 'Flying Dutchman' Among Revivals—Two Americans Among Eight New Singers.

Eight operas to be added to the repertory of the Metropolitan Opera Company next season were named yesterday with other announcements by Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general director. The works new to the Metropolitan repertory are, first, the second grand opera of Deems Taylor, "Peter Ibbetson," after the novel of du Maurier, the libretto by Constance Collier, responsible for the dramatization of the novel, and Mr. Taylor himself; "Le Preziosa Ridicole," lyric comedy in one act by Arturo Rossata, after Molière, the music by Felice Lattuada; "The Fair at Sorochinsk," comic opera in three acts, after Gogol, text and music by Modeste Moussorgsky, the opera being performed in Italian, and in the revised and completed version of Cherepnine; and "Boccaccio," comic opera in three acts, libretto by F. Zell and Richard Genée, music by Franz von Suppé. In this latter opera Mme. Jeritza, in male attire, will have the leading rôle.

The revivals will be Wagner's "Flying Dutchman," with a new stage setting by Soudeikine; Mascagni's "Iris," which Mr. Gatti rates as Mascagni's finest opera; Rossini's "William Tell" and Verdi's "Forza del Destino." The last opera comes by courtesy rather than by actual title under the category of Metropolitan novelties, because it has been in the repertory of the Metropolitan at frequent intervals since the début of Rosa Ponselle in the title rôle in 1918. But it has been more than two decades since Metropolitan patrons have witnessed a performance of "The Flying Dutchman," the early and romantic opera of Wagner's, which invites a stage setting by an imaginative and modern-minded artist. "Iris" was in the Metropolitan repertory in the season of 1914-15. "William Tell," in Metropolitan annals, dates from 1922-23.

The opera of Deems Taylor, which, like his first work for the stage, is a subject of special interest, has been completely composed, but not yet orchestrated. Lattuada, the composer of "Le Preziosa Ridicole," is a new figure in opera for Americans. He was born in Morimondo, and studied at the Milan Conservatory. He gained his graduate's diploma in 1911 with his "Sinfonia Romantica." He has composed chamber music and two other operas besides "Preziosa Ridicole," which had its première in 1925. His other works for the musical stage are the incidental music to Shakespeare's "Tempest" (1922), a one-act opera, "Sandha" (1915), and a four-act opera, "Don Giovanni" (1924).

The Metropolitan makes a wider departure in the direction of opera comique and comic opera than it has for many years in mounting the two short works of Moussorgsky and Suppé. Moussorgsky's opera was sketched but incomplete when he died. Two versions of this posthumous score are known. The one by Cherepnine, the elder, which will be given here, saw the light as late as 1923. Cherepnine, where a few measures of music are lacking, has filled them out with other music by Moussorgsky, and he is responsible also for the orchestration of the score. Folksongs of Southern Russia, where the scene of Gogol's story is laid, are incorporated in the music. The work of Suppé, frankly comic opera, is not without a precedent in Metropolitan history. This precedent is the delicious revival of "Fledermaus," accomplished by Conried in 1907-1908, when the greatest artists of the company did not disdain to confer their utmost upon the sparkling measures of Johann Strauss. It is to this genre that "Boccaccio" belongs. Mme. Jeritza's performance should be of special interest, since she sang in light opera in Vienna before she was exclusively a star of opera of the grand and tragic character.

Two American Sopranos.

New singers added to the company this season are eight in number, with, it is said, a new contralto in the offing as offset to the departed Mme. Matzenauer. Two of these, Miss Beatrice Belkin, soprano, and Miss Myrna Sharlow, soprano, are Americans. The first-named gained experience as a singer in Roxy's moving picture theatre and in other auditoriums more specifically devoted to opera and song. The second, Myrna Sharlow, made first appearances with the Boston Opera Company under Henry Russell in Boston and in Paris. Since then she has sung with the Chicago Civic Opera Company and with other organizations has toured this country.

The French tenor of last season, Trantoul, will be replaced by Georges Thill, French tenor of the Paris Opéra, La Scala, and the Colon in Buenos Aires, where he is now singing. He is very well spoken of. Lilly Pons is a French coloratura soprano who was an actress in the Varietes, among other Paris theatres, before studying opera, a young woman, a reputed beauty. Faina Petrova, the Russian mezzo-soprano, born in Nijni-Novgorod, is a graduate of the Moscow Consevratory in piano and singing, a singer until recent years at the Moscow Grand Opera House, also student of dramatic action with Stanislavsky of the Moscow Art Theatre. She has given two song recitals in this city. Claudio Frigerio, an Italian-American baritone, made his début at the Carcano Theatre in Naples in 1927. Last in the list but far from least, is Ivar Andresen, the young Norwegian bass, graduate of the opera school at Stockholm, member of the company of the Stockholm Opera House, where he made his début in 1919; since then a singer highly praised, at Baireuth for three seasons and in other German and European opera houses.

German Wing Strengthened.

The German wing of the Metropolitan will be considerably strengthened by him, if past accomplishment and reputation in Europe are of account, and it will be as strong in the first part of the season as in the second, out of consideration of the Wagner operas of the repertory, which are now so eagerly patronized by the public. Mr. Bohnen, another highly esteemed member of this division of the company, will return. Mary Lewis will not.

PUBLIX TO SHOW FOX FILMS.

Theatre Chain of About 1,031 Houses to Offer Rival Productions.

The Fox Film Corporation yesterday announced through James R. Grainger, vice president in charge of sales and distribution, that the Publix Theatres had contracted to exhibit the entire Fox output of forty-eight pictures in houses throughout the country next season. The Fox films will be shown in these Paramount theatres, of which Publix is the subsidiary, in every city where there is not a competing Fox house. The number of such theatres is estimated to be 1,031.

Although it is common practice for large companies to exhibit pictures of competitors in places where the latter have no show houses, this contract is notable because of the number of theatres involved and is probably the largest of its kind ever effected. Fox, in this country alone, will be showing pitcures in at least 2,031 cinema theatres, of which 1,000 are controlled by the Fox company, in the season 1930-31.

FRIARS TO GIVE 'ROAD SHOW'

Parade to Precede Performance in Atlantic City on July 6.

Under the auspices of the Friars Club the "Friars Road Show" will be staged at the Apollo Theatre, Atlantic City, on Sunday evening, July 6. Announced to appear in the "road show," which will be the first to be presented since 1916, are George M. Cohan, Walter C. Kelly, Lester Allen, Arthur (Bugs) Baer, Joe Laurie Jr., Irving Caesar, Georgie Price, Smith and Dale, J. C. Flippen, Dave Stamper and Milt Gross. The show, which will be staged by S. Jay Kaufman, will be preceded by a parade headed by Mr. Cohan on the Altantic City Boardwalk.

It is expected that after its engagement in Atlantic City the Friars entertainment will play a Sunday night engagement in Asbury Park.

Schwartz Players in Buenos Aires.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BUENOS AIRES, June 17.—Maurice Schwartz arrived today from New York with a company of Jewish players who will give several performances at Buenos Aires and then tour South America.

SCREEN NOTES.

"With Byrd at the South Pole," the pictorial record of the Byrd expedition to the Antarctic, will be shown to the public for the first time tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock at the Rialto. There will be no reserve seats at the first performance and the picture will continue daily thereafter.

"Swing High," the Pathe film featuring Helen Twelvetrees and Fred Scott, will have its premiere at the George M. Cohan Theatre on the evening of June 26.

CARROLL TO ERECT $1,000,000 THEATRE

Producer to Demolish Present House at 7th Avenue and 50th Street Immediately.

NEW ONE READY IN 1931

Additional Land to Allow Building of 2,800-Seat Structure—Loan of $1,450,000 Placed.

Extended negotiations were concluded yesterday by Earl Carroll and associates for the demolition of his theatre at the southeast corner of Seventh Avenue and Fiftieth Street and the erection in its place of a new 2,800-seat playhouse for musical shows.

The deal involved a $4,000,000 lease and the placing of a loan of $1,450,000 with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, as well as the transfer of title to three adjoining properties formerly held by Mr. Carroll and destined to be a part of the site for the new building.

The Earl Carroll Realty Corporation and W. R. Edrington, who has operated the present theatre, transferred to the 755 Seventh Avenue Corporation the property at 154-158 West Fiftieth Street. The corporation, which owns the theatre site, then obtained the $1,450,000 loan on the entire plot, and made a new lease with the Carroll interests running to Aug. 31, 1952, the aggregate rental being about $4,000,000 plus taxes and other charges.

Counsel for the Carroll interests was William D. Tucker of Stoddard & Mark, and for the 755 Seventh Avenue Corporation Justin L. Miner and William B. Symmes Jr. Brown, Wheelock: Harris, Vought & Co. acted as brokers.

Plans for the new building already have been drawn by George Keister in conjunction with Thomas Lamb. The theatre will be "the most massive and most beautiful of its kind," it was said at the Carroll offices yesterday, and will embody several new ideas in playhouse construction. It will occupy 100 feet frontage on Seventh Avenue and 200 feet on Fiftieth Street. New equipment will allow quick shifting of scenery and elaborate lighting effects for spectacular productions on a stage 100 feet wide and of great depth.

Demolition of the theatre and three four-story apartment houses on the adjoining land will be started immediately, so that the new building may be completed in the Summer of 1931, it was announced. The office building fronting on Seventh Avenue will remain for a while longer. The new theatre and the site will represent an investment of about $3,000,000 and the building itself will cost more than $1,000,000. The size of the auditorium will allow the staging of musical shows at a top price of $3, in line with a plan for lower prices which Mr. Carroll is said to have entertained for several years.

The producer had said several months ago that he intended to erect a new theatre in Broadway and to enlarge his present theatre for talking pictures. For this purpose he acquired nearly a year ago a long lease on the property at 161 West Fifty-first Street. The Radio-Keith-Orpheum lease on the theatre has been terminated by mutual agreement.

Warner Brothers Add 12 Theatres.

Warner Brothers yesterday widened their theatre purchasing activities with the acquisition of the Appell chain of twelve houses in Pennsylvania. The circuit includes the Strand, Capital, Rialto, York and Scenic in York; the State, Opera House and Strand in Hanover; the Majestic in Gettysburg, the Lion in Red Lion, the Dallas in Dallastown and the Seltzer in Palmyra.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

"Hotel Universe" will end its engagement at the Martin Beck Theatre on Saturday night after a run of ten weeks.

Charles Lawrence has replaced Franker Wood in "Mystery Moon," opening next Monday at the Royale Theatre.

Fred Keating, the magician, has joined the cast of "Tattle Tales," Alexander Leftwich's revue, which is now in rehearsal. Val and Ernie Stanton and Odette Myrtil will also be in the show.

Jack Haskell will stage the dances and Alonzo Price will direct the book of Arthur Hammerstein's musical version of "The Bird of Paradise."

Jack Donahue, it is announced, may present another play by Belford Forrest, who wrote "Lost Sheep," in the current production of which Mr. Donahue is interested. The new play is called "On the Third Day."

The Hebrew Kindergarten and Infants Home will hold a theatre party tonight at the Biltmore Theatre, where "Let and Sublet" is the attraction.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—A low pressure system of ill-defined character covers the lower lake region and Middle and South Atlantic States with apparently little eastward movement.

Pressure is also low over Saskatchewan, with a trough extending southward over the Rocky Mountain region. Pressure is high and rising over the Canadian Maritime Provinces, is relatively high over the Hudson Bay region and is high on the extreme North Pacific Coast.

The outlook is for a continuation of overcast, showery and generally cool weather in the Washington forecast district Wednesday and possibly Thursday.

COUNTRY-WIDE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

In the following record of observations at United States Weather Bureau stations yesterday the temperatures given are the highest during the twelve hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. and the lowest during the preceding twelve hours, from 8 P. M. to 8 A. M.; the barometer reading and condition of weather are those recorded at 8 P. M. and the rainfall is for the twenty-four hours ended at 8 P. M.

Domestic Demand Increasing

The increasing consumption of electricity for domestic purposes is serving to substantially augment central station output. During the first quarter of this year domestic consumption increased 395,000,000 kilowatt hours, a gain of 14.4 per cent over the corresponding quarter last year.

We recommend the senior securities of well-established electric light and power companies for conservative investment.

Recovery in Day's Financial and Agricultural Prices—Changes in Stocks Irregular.

The unusual violence of Monday's decline in prices, both on the Stock Exchange and in many commodity markets, brought an upward reaction yesterday. It was not at all of sweeping character. The day's advance of 2 cents a bushel in wheat and of a little over ⅛ cent a pound in cotton was small when measured against the losses of the five or six preceding days, and the stock market, despite very general recovery at midday, presented more net declines than net gains when business closed. But the fact that resistance had been shown to the general decline was itself the important consideration. Even silver bullion, which had reached on Monday a new low price in its history, gained ground fractionally yesterday.

As a matter of fact, the pace of Monday's decline in general prices could not well have been continued, unless as a result of unexpected and distinctly unfavorable news or by way of correcting such a price structure as was built up in the extravagant days of 1920, for instance. But there had been no news in the past week which essentially changed the situation of any industry, and the declines of the past week occurred from a level of prices which was already relatively very low. Undoubtedly there must have been some special cause, not visible to the market, which brought about so violent a further readjustment in so short a time. It is most likely, however, to have been the sudden reaching by many participants in the various markets of the decision, tentatively postponed, to liquidate their holdings. When the example is set at such a time by some large holder, the others who had been hesitating are often apt to follow hurriedly.

Movements on the Stock Exchange were marked by great irregularity and at times by much uncertainty. It is not even possible to say how much of yesterday's fresh buying power represented actual support of the market, and how much merely buying-in of speculative contracts for the Fall. The second influence must have been considerable. It occasioned moderate advances for a number of stocks, and it brought late recoveries which cut down the losses of shares that actually ended with net declines. Transactions were less than Monday's but, except for that day, were the largest since the culminating day of the early May decline.

Under all the circumstances, the Federal Labor Department's report of increasing unemployment in May caused little surprise. The report is admittedly imperfect, so far as regards actual summary of employment in all occupations, because its data cover neither the building industry nor road construction, in each of which directions the National and State Governments have been endeavoring to create more work even than that of normal times. But the picture presented by manufacturing industries is not agreeable. The percentage index of employment in these declined 1½ per cent further last month. It is now 11⅝ per cent below last September. Since 3,546,658 employes were covered by the establishments reporting that month, the decreased employment percentage would indicate something more than 400,000 reduction in the working forces in the eight subsequent months. But this calculation obviously fails to cover the whole field, even in manufacture, where the total increase of unemployed might easily run to 600,000 or 700,000. As to what the actual offset has been in trades under special stimulus of government orders, estimates would be only guesswork.

WARNS OF BANK CHAINS.

Hect Describes Growth to Institute of Banking at Denver.

DENVER, June 17 (AP).—Delegates attending the convention of the American Institute of Banking were warned today against the growth of financial monopolies and were asked to organize to reduce the acreage of farm products now being overproduced.

Thomas G. Wilson of Conway, Ark., said overproduction of agriculture could be stopped by curtailing credits to farmers.

"The urgent need of agriculture today is not for more credit, but for some method of getting farmers out of debt," Mr. Wilson said. He blamed the condition of agriculture to overexpansion of credit facilities, failure of farmers to ascertain their costs and failure to diversify their crops and adopt modern farming machinery.

Rudolph S. Hect of New Orleans characterized the development of group and chain banks as the most outstanding change in the financial world of modern times.

"There are now about 270 well-defined groups or chain banking systems in the United States," he said. "They comprise about 2,000 banks and more than $15,000,000,000 in aggregate resources. The country, therefore, is facing the necessity of deciding whether our national banking policy shall be group and branch banking."

S. W. Straus to Increase Stock.

Stockholders of S. W. Straus & Co., Inc., of Delaware approved yesterday an increase in capital stock from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 shares of no-par value. Nicholas Roberts, president, said the new stock would be used now only for dividends where stock was desired instead of cash.

TOPICS IN WALL STREET.

News, Comment and Incident, On the Stock Exchange and In the Financial Markets.

Still badly shaken as a result of Monday's violent decline, the stock market moved nervously and irregularly yesterday. Many issues on the Stock Exchange list were depressed again, but the selling movement lacked the vigor of the day before, and some of the market leaders made partial recovery. Among these was United States Steel, which closed 2½ points above the final level of Monday. Other pivotal stocks that made headway on the day were American Can, Allied Chemical, Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio and Air Reduction. A longer list, however, sold off rather sharply in the late dealings, canceling earlier gains and ending the day with sizable losses. The price of most active stocks showed a moderate decline, the losses ranging from a fraction to 5 points. Transactions on the Stock Exchange totaled 5,018,600 shares.

The Effect on Business.

Wall Street, in appraising the effects of the disastrous declines of the recent past, gave thought yesterday to the possible retardation of business recovery resulting from the unsettlement in the securities and commodities markets. It was the prevailing opinion that the market reaction, supposed to have sprung from a fear of a further business setback, may prove to be damaging not only to the morale of the business community, but also to trade and industry more directly.

Taxes and Money Market.

As the Treasury presented yesterday the checks which had been received in payment of taxes, the money market quickly felt the firming effects of the process. Banks which had drawn down their reserves at the close of last week in anticipation of the extra credit liberated by the customary Treasury overdraft at the Federal Reserve Bank had already absorbed that access of funds to the market in evening up their balances so as to be able to show the requisite reserve deposits yesterday. The result was a marking up of the official call-money rate at the money post of the Stock Exchange from the renewal figure of 2½ per cent to 3 per cent. Despite the increase in the official rate, however, outside funds were available at 2½ per cent in the afternoon. The overdraft, which amounted to somewhat over $100,000,000 on Monday, was reduced yesterday and probably will be cleaned up quickly.

Declined With Thanks.

Bill dealers continued yesterday to show marked coldness to the invitation of the Federal Reserve Bank to reduce rates, implied in Monday's lowering of the bank's buying rate. A few dealers suspect that all the banks would be too pleased to see the rates come down and might take advantage of the change somewhat precipitously to dispose of some of their bill holdings to the dealers. The latter have still a sorry recollection of the events of the last tax date when, under the temporary influence of an overdraft of $200,000,000, money became extremely easy and bill rates were hurriedly cut to 2½ per cent from 3⅛ per cent. When the subsequent readjustment was completed dealers found themselves holding a good many bills bought at rates a full one-half of 1 per cent below the market.

As if Anybody Knew.

The state of mind in which many investors in stocks now find themselves was illustrated by a story which was making the rounds in brokerage circles yesterday of a small investor who, having subscribed to several investment services, appealed to them for advice on how to proceed in the market this week. The advice in substance was to take profits and to go slow in making new commitments. Customers' men were scarcely able to enlarge upon this, to the great perplexity of the investor. Finally he sought out a partner of a brokerage house and propounded his question. "Take your profits and wait for a reaction before buying in again," was the crisp advice. "But," remonstrated the perplexed investor, "I haven't any profits."

What the Bankers Think.

In marked contrast to the state of affairs when security prices were last at their present levels is the attitude of bankers toward the market. For the most part the men of money profess only a mild academic interest in the fluctuations of the prices of common stocks. A few state frankly that they feel the matter has been overdone on the bear side, while one or two assert that the present soggy behavior of the market is no more than to be expected in view of the state of business and the speculative excesses of last year and the early Spring. One and all are agreed that there is no present occasion for that "banking support" of which the "Street" is so fond of gossiping.

Trust Asset Values.

Investment trust statisticians did a lot of figuring yesterday to see where they stood in the relation of the asset value of their common stock to the market value of that stock at present. The general opinion is that investment trust stocks as a group fell much more sharply than the average of the market. In this case, the discount between the asset value and the market value of investment trust stocks is probably greater than at any other time this year.

Commodities Generally Higher.

With the exception of copper, lead, zinc and sugar, commodity prices were slightly higher yesterday, and the improvement in security prices early in the day was ascribed to this development. Later, however, without any special weakness developing in commodities, the stock market turned downward. Copper was reported to have been offered as low as 11½ cents a pound, the lowest level since 1921, and 6½ cents lower than the 18-cent price at which the metal was pegged during the year ended April 15. The weakness in the price of the metal caused heavy selling of copper shares throughout the day, and Anaconda, Kennecott and other leading issues in this group declined to the lowest prices reached in several years.

MONEY.

Tuesday, June 17, 1930.

Moderately heavy withdrawals by out-of-town banks tightened market for Stock Exchange day loans, the rate moving to 3 per cent in late afternoon after renewals had been arranged at 2½. Street money, however, continued on offer at 2½. Time money remained steady and unchanged. Acceptances and commercial paper likewise ruled quiet at prevailing discounts.

Coupon Bonds in denomination of $1,000, registerable as to principal and interchangeable with fully registered Bonds. Fully registered Bonds in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $50,000.

The issue and sale of these Bonds have been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, CORPORATE TRUSTEE

Albert H. Harris, Esq., Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, has furnished us with the following statement regarding these Bonds:

PROPERTY The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company's lines consist of 2,693 miles of railroad, of which 1,693 are owned, 875 are held under lease or contract and 125 miles are trackage rights over other railroads. The Company's line from Cleveland to St. Louis is the main line of the New York Central System between those cities. Other lines give access to large traffic centers of the Middle West and comprise an important part of the New York Central System.

LEASE As one of the steps towards the unification of its System, The New York Central Railroad Company, which owns over 98% of the Company's Common Stock and over 85% of its 5% Preferred Stock, has leased the Company's properties for a term of 99 years from February 1, 1930.

Under the provisions of the lease the New York Central is obligated to the Company to pay the principal and interest of the Company's obligations (including Bonds of this issue), maturing within the term of the lease, and is also obligated to pay dividends at the rate of 5% on the Company's Preferred Stock and 10% on the Company's Common Stock not owned by the New York Central. This lease and the assumption thereunder by The New York Central Railroad Company of liability in respect of the Company's obligations now outstanding, including the Bonds of this issue, have been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Attorney General of the State of New York has given an opinion dated April 24, 1930, that, based on the statement of the Company that the financial record of the New York Central satisfies the requirements of the Savings Bank Law, the Bonds of The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, including the Bonds of this issue, are by virtue of the obligation of the New York Central under the terms of the above-mentioned lease, legal investments for Savings Banks in the State of New York.

SECURITY These Bonds are secured under the Company's Refunding and Improvement Mortgage executed to Guaranty Trust Company of New York and Frank L. Littleton, Trustees, under date of June 27, 1919. The Mortgage covers as a direct lien 1,693 miles of railroad owned and the Company's interest in 328 miles of railroad held under lease or contract, a total of 2,021 miles of railroad, exclusive of trackage rights. After giving effect to the issuance of these Series E Bonds, there will be outstanding in the hands of the public $60,052,600 Refunding and Improvement Mortgage Bonds and $5,000,000 Twenty-Year 4½% Gold Debentures of 1911 and not exceeding Fcs. 6,120,000 of the Company's Twenty-Year European Loan of 1910 Bonds equally secured under the Mortgage.

Debt secured by prior liens upon the mileage owned in fee is outstanding in the hands of the public to an aggregate amount of less than $64,000,000. Upon the issuance of these Series E Bonds the total debt secured by mortgage upon the owned mileage and outstanding in the hands of the public will be equivalent to about $76,900 per mile of road.

In each of the five fiscal years prior to the above-mentioned lease the Company's income applicable to fixed charges amounted to more than twice its fixed charges.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE These Bonds have been issued and sold to provide for payment by the Company of indebtedness incurred for the purpose of retiring $15,000,000 principal amount of its Ten-Year 6% Refunding and Improvement Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A, which matured on July 1, 1929, and to reimburse the Company's treasury in part for expenditures for additions and betterments to its owned and leased lines heretofore made and not previously capitalized.

THE ABOVE BONDS ARE OFFERED, SUBJECT TO PRIOR SALE AND TO THE CONDITIONS STATED BELOW, AT 98% AND ACCRUED INTEREST FROM JULY 1, 1930, TO YIELD 4.60% TO MATURITY.

The right is reserved to reject any or all applications, and also, in any case, to allot a smaller amount than applied for. All orders will be received subject to the delivery to us of the Bonds as planned, and to approval by counsel of the form and validity of the related documents and proceedings.

The amounts due on confirmed sales will be payable at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., in New York funds to their order, and the date of payment (on or about July 2, 1930) will be stated in the confirmations of sale. Definitive Bonds are to be delivered.

SAYS HOOVER SET FOREIGN LOAN CURBS

State Department Comments on Senate's Request for Explanation of Legal Basis.

POLICY ORIGINATED IN WAR

Government Supervision Was Continued as Important in Debt-Funding Days, It Is Said.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Although Secretary Stimson has not yet received from the Senate the resolution offered by Senator Glass of Virginia as to the State Department's policy in reference to foreign loans in the American market, it was indicated at the department today that the practice of American bankers in consulting the department before undertaking the flotation of foreign bond issues was based on a desire for the cooperation of the bankers with the government.

The resolution asks for an explanation as to the authorization of law for the practice. It also seeks to learn the legal basis for the State Department "to direct the action of the Federal Reserve Board or banks with respect to their lawful powers concerning the business of banking in foreign countries or the investment of these banks in foreign securities offered in the money markets of the United States."

As for the latter request, it was pointed out today that when Secretary Stimson on May 16, 1929, announced that no official of the Federal Reserve System would be permitted to select American representatives or serve as member of the Bank for International Settlements in connection with German reparations he was stating a policy not for the State Department alone but as administration spokesman for the American Government as determined upon by President Hoover after consultation with all the departments interested.

Traces Origin to World War.

The origin of the idea of government supervision of foreign loans dates back to the so-called capital issues committee during the World War. Following the Armistice, it was pointed out today, it became increasingly desirable that the State Department should know what was going on in the field of international loans, even though the capital issues committee had ceased to function. When the question of the funding of the various allied debts to the United States came up, and difficulties were encountered in reaching agreements, the need for some sort of government supervision of foreign loans became increasingly evident.

In 1921 President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes summoned a number of bankers to Washington and told them the State Department desired to be consulted in the matter of loans and on March 3, 1922, the policy that has since been followed was announced as a voluntary one between this government and the bankers.

Senator Glass in discussing his resolution incorporated into the record a table of loans passed upon by the State Department during the past two years. Of some 100 transactions appearing in the table but one was objected to by the department. This was a loan of $6,500,000 for the Burbach Potash Company of Germany, which Dillon, Read & Co. attempted to float in February, 1929.

New Policy Inaugurated.

This loan was considered by the Cabinet, according to a letter to Senator Glass from Joseph P. Cotton, Under-Secretary of State, and the State Department objected on the ground that it was a government-fostered monopoly.

Originally, the objection of the administration to proposed loans was limited to three principal grounds: whether the country seeking the loan had refunded its war debt to the United States; whether the proceeds of the loan were to be used for fostering militaristic enterprises, and whether the funds might be used to foster certain monopolies of raw products for which the United States had need.

Last Summer, however, the State Department inaugurated a new policy with respect to loans, and began the practice of taking into consultation more frequently officials of the Treasury and Commerce Departments when the question of approving or disapproving loans was up.

The old bases of approval were retained, although there was no longer occasion for considering war debts, since all of them were funded except that of Russia, and two additional points were to be considered: whether the country seeking the loan had ever defaulted on its foreign obligations, and whether the government in question had a balanced budget.

READING R. R. JOINS BUS NET

Railroad Enters Transcontinental System Serving 42 States.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17—Through a working alliance with the Colonial-Atlantic-Pacific stage system and connecting lines, the Reading Company tomorrow will enter the transcontinental motor bus field, covering forty-two States and Eastern Canada with its service, it was announced tonight by E. D. Osterhout, the railroad's passenger traffic manager.

Modern bus terminal facilities will be provided by the complete remodeling of the lower floor of the present Reading Terminal Building on Market Street. This work is expected to be completed by July and will result in one of the largest motor coach terminals and transfer points in the East, officials said.

From the terminal all motor coaches will be dispatched.

The operating agreement with the bus companies, which resulted from six months' of negotiations, besides the Reading includes the Jersey Central Transportation Company, a subsidiary of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey.

Connections are established with routes as far South as Miami and New Orleans, while on the Pacific Coast the system extends from Vancouver, B. C., to San Diego, Cal.

Bank Office Moves After 40 Years.

After more than forty years at 81 Fulton Street, the Market and Fulton office of the Irving Trust Company will open today at 150 William Street, corner of Fulton Street. The old building, erected by the Market and Fulton National Bank in 1889, is to be razed to make room for an extension of the Royal Building, into which the branch is moving.

FOR ECONOMIC LAW IN UTILITY REGULATION

Sloan, Opening Power and Light Sessions at San Francisco, Deplores Demagogic Action.

Special to The New York Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—A demand for the application of domestic principles through laws protecting the public without penalizing the utilities was voiced today by President Matthew H. Sloan of the National Electric Light Association in opening the annual convention of the association here.

Mr. Sloan, as well as other speakers and offocials before the gathering of 5,000 persons, referred to efforts being made by "certain politicians" to "make the utility issue a feature of the coming political campaign." The reference brought applause from the delegates, who included scores of the heads of the major utility corporations of the country, while facetious allusions by "Amos 'n' Andy" in a broadcast from Chicago for the convention drew much laughter.

Mayor Rolph welcomed the convention in a brief speech preceding the address by Mr. Sloan.

"Public utility laws and the machinery of public utility regulation are being recast amid a clamor of extremist theories, demagogic attacks and political manoeuvrings," Mr. Sloan said. "The utility issue as a feature of the coming campaign is eminently undesirable and not in the public interest. * * * What is needed now and for the future is not heat or hate or demagogy, but an application of economic laws which will command and reward the confidence of the investor without robbing the consumer."

A survey of the power and light industry showed that $1,046,000,000 would be expended this year for extensions of service facilities, he reported.

Fred N. Sargent, president of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad; Merle Thorpe, editor of Nation's Progress; Harry Reid of the National Electric Power Company and Paul S. Clapp, managing director of the association, were other speakers.

Owen D. Young, who will speak at a later session, was among those attending the convention.

UTILITY EARNINGS.

Statements for Various Periods Issued by Public Service Corporations.

Interborough Rapid Transit.

Gross revenue of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company in May was $6,287,149, bringing the total for eleven months to $66,915,834. Expenditures for operating and maintaining the property were $3,879,238 in May, and for the eleven months $41,586,032. After deducting rentals, bond interest and other charges the company reported net profits of $87,072 for May and $614,229 for the eleven months to May 31. However, after deducting the amount required for the full dividend rental at 5 per cent on the Manhattan Railway stock, payable if earned, the company would have shown a net loss of $144,799 for May and $1,936,350 for the eleven months.

The operating expenses include a tentative reserve for depreciation at the rate of $50,000 annually for the Manhattan division and $1,000,000 yearly for the subway division. For the eleven months' period $176,173 also was included in the operating expenses to cover expenses in connection with the fare litigation and charged to the subway division.

EXPANSION IN VIEW BY MANHATTAN CO.

Board Proposes $5,000,000 Rise in Authorized Capital to Total of $45,000,000.

PREPARES FOR ACQUISITIONS

Officials Indicate, However, That No Further Mergers Are Pending at Present.

Stockholders of the Manhattan Company, holding company which controls the Bank of Manhattan Trust Company, the International Acceptance Bank and affiliated banks and trust companies, were notified yesterday of a proposal to increase the authorized capital of the company by $5,000,000. The increase would raise the authorized capital stock from $40,000,000, represented by 2,000,000 shares of $20 par value, to $45,000,000, represented by 2,250,000 shares of $20 par value. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for June 21 to vote on the proposal.

In recommending the increase in capital, P. A. Rowley, president of the Manhattan Company, explained to stockholders that all the available shares of the company had been utilized in connection with the recent acquisitions of 98 per cent of the shares of the New York Title and Mortgage Company and all the stock of the Central National Bank, which has just been merged into the Bank of Manhattan Trust Company. The present expansion in the authorized capital stock is required, Mr. Rowley's letter states, in order to acquire the remaining 2 per cent of the stock of the New York Title and Mortgage Company, should the directors deem it advisable, and to make possible further acquisitions.

The new shares are to be made available for issuance to "such persons or corporations, upon such terms, whether for money or property, and for such purposes as may be determined from time to time" by the directors.

In view of the fact that the amount of New York Title and Mortgage stock which has not as yet been exchanged for Manhattan Company shares is of negligible proportions, it was assumed yesterday that the additional stock is primarily designed for the acquisition of other banking institutions. Officials of the bank said yesterday that no definite object was in view, and that for the moment the additional stock would probably not be utilized, but that it was desired to place the company in a position to take advantage of any opportunity that appeared.

Since the shares are not to be sold to stockholders and the increase is merely in authorized capital no rights or other privileges will accrue to shareholders as a result of the increase.

GAIN FOR CHRYSLER.

Increase in Output and in Share of Total Motor Business Shown.

In the first five months of this year, the Chrysler Corporation not only increased its output from month to month but enlarged its share of the total motor car business, Walter P. Chrysler, chairman of the board of the corporation, reported yesterday.

"Chrysler Corporation May sales for this year compared with last, exclusive of cars in the lowest price bracket, namely Plymouth, Chevrolet and Ford, showed the highest percentage of any of the large producers in the automobile industry," Mr. Chrysler said.

"May car registrations are now available for eighteen States and indicate that automobiles are selling at retail at about 75 per cent of the same month last year. Chrysler Corporation May sales account for 14.6 per cent of the total automobile business, exclusive of Ford, compared with 13.2 per cent last year.

"Chrysler Corporation increased its output in May 8½ per cent compared with April, and this without increasing the net number of cars on hand with dealers. The automobile industry as a whole on the other hand shows an approximate decrease in output for May of 7 per cent compared with April. Exclusive of Ford production the industry's May production shows a decrease of 7½ per cent for the balance of the industry."

SALES LOWER IN MAY BY GENERAL MOTORS

Total of 131,817 Compares With 142,004 in April and 169,034 Year Ago.

Customers accepted delivery of 131,817 cars from General Motors dealers in the United States in May, according to figures made public yesterday by Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of General Motors Coporation. This number compares with 142,004 delivered in April and 169,034 delivered in May, 1929. Sales by the manufacturing divisions of the corporation to dealers in May were 136,169 cars, compared with 132,365 in April and 175,873 in May, 1929.

The following table gives comparisons of individual dealer sales for the first five months of 1930 and 1929:

Bank to Change Name and Move.

Shareholders of the Washington Square National Bank have voted to change the name to the Washington National Bank of New York. In connection with the change in name the bank plans to move in August from the Washington Square district to 385 Fifth Avenue, at Thirty-sixth Street. The bank was opened for business last November.

New Issue

$4,000,000

Central German Power Company
of Magdeburg
(Mitteldeutsches Kraftwerk Magdeburg Aktiengesellschaft)

Four-Year 6% Gold Note

Guaranteed principal and interest by German General Electric Company (AEG), Dessauer Gas Company and George Von Giesche's Heirs Mining Company.

Dated June 1, 1930 To Mature June 1, 1934

Represented by Participation Certificates of Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, New York

A substantial portion of this offering has been withdrawn for sale in Holland by Hope & Co. and Warburg & Co. of Amsterdam; in Switzerland by Crédit Suisse of Zurich; and in Germany by M. M. Warburg & Co. of Hamburg and the Berliner Handelsgesellschaft of Berlin.

The Central German Power Company of Magdeburg was organized in 1929 by the Dessauer Gas Company (Deutsche Continental-Gas Gesellschaft, Dessau) Giesche and the City of Magdeburg, (population about 300,000), who together have subscribed for its entire RM. 10,000,000 capital stock. The first unit of the Company's generating plant is now being constructed at Magdeburg by the German General Electric Company. Two-thirds of its initial capacity has been contracted for by the three organizers over a long period of years. In the opinion of Dr. Wellmann, chief construction engineer of the Berlin City Electric Company, the rates provided for in the existing contracts with its three stockholder-customers are sufficient to enable the Company, from these sources alone, to pay satisfactory dividends on its capital stock beginning with the first year of normal operations.

This Four-Year Note is the direct obligation of the Company and the Company has agreed that, prior to the maturity of the Note, it will not create any lien upon any of its property or income.

The Note bears the joint and several unconditional guarantee, as to both principal and interest, of the German General Electric Company (AEG), Dessauer Gas Company and Giesche.

Average net profits of the German General Electric Company (AEG), available for management participations and dividends, as reported by it, for the three years ended September 30, 1929, were approximately $3,700,000 per annum.

Net profits of Dessauer Gas Company, available for management participations and dividends and for allocation to free reserves, as stated by this company, for the years ended December 31, 1927 and 1928 and as estimated for the year ended December 31, 1929, averaged approximately $2,075,000 per annum. Net profits of Giesche, available for management participations and dividends, as reported by this company, for the years ended December 31, 1927 and 1928 and as estimated for the year ended December 31, 1929, averaged approximately $875,000 per annum.

The foregoing has been summarized from a letter from officials of the Company, dated June 7, 1930, copies of which may be obtained from the undersigned, and is subject to the more complete information contained therein. This offering is made subject to prior sale for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of counsel. All conversions from German into United States currency have been made at the rate of 4.20 Reichsmarks to the dollar.

Price 98¼ and interest, yielding approximately 6.50%

It is expected that application will be made to list this issue on the New York Curb Exchange

CORPORATION REPORTS.

Results of Operations Announced by Industrial Concerns for Various Periods.

Canadian Marconi.

The Canadian Marconi Company reports for 1929 a net profit of $162,807 after depreciation, Federal taxes and write-off of $137,500 on patents and patent rights account, equivalent to earnings of 3 cents a share on the outstanding stock. In 1928 net profit was $172,664, equivalent to 4 cents a share on the stock.

General Electric of Great Britain.

The General Electric Company, Ltd., reports for the year ended on March 31 a profit of £1,179,007, against £1,084,078 in the preceding year. After provision for interest, depreciation, directors' fees and pension fund, net profit was £714,604, against £630,080 in the previous year.

General Rayon Company.

The General Rayon Company, Ltd., and subsidiaries report for 1929 a net profit of $625,584, after interest, amortization, Federal taxes and other charges, equivalent, after preferred dividend requirements, to earnings of 46 cents a share on the combined Class A and Class B common stocks.

Gleaner Combine Harvester.

The Gleaner Combine Harvester Corporation reports for May a profit of $346,695 after charges but before depreciation and Federal taxes, against $385,526 in May, 1929. For the nine months ended on May 31 profit before depreciation and Federal taxes was $1,259,490, against $838,153 for a similar period ended on May 31, 1929.

Underwood Elliott Fisher.

The Underwood Elliott Fisher Company earned more than $3 a share on its common stock in the first five months of this year, according to an announcement yesterday. This is approximately 25 per cent more than necessary for the first six months' dividend requirements. Cash on hand is approximately $9,000,000. More than $500,000 has been added to reserves.

McKesson & Robbins.

McKesson & Robbins, Inc., exclusive of eight minor subsidiaries for which figures were not available, reports for the four months ended on April 30 sales of $47,657,893, compared with $46,904,223 in the corresponding period of 1929. Commenting on this report, F. D. Coster, president, said: "In view of the poor conditions throughout the country and particularly the South, we feel quite encouraged about the results obtained and rather optimistic about the future if general conditions improve. Our subsidiaries report that retailers' inventories are at a low ebb, that retailers are inclined to buy from hand-to-mouth, and with an improvement of conditions there should be a sharp upturn in sales as soon as dealers begin to replenish their depleted stocks."

International Cigar Votes Split-Up.

Stockholders of the International Cigar Machinery Company approved yesterday a two-for-one split of stock by increasing authorized shares from 300,000 to 600,000.

INTERCONTINENTS POWER COMPANY 6%

BUENOS AIRES
The commerce of many cities and towns served by Intercontinents Power Company passes through this port.

Invest Now in South America's Future

THE public utilities of South America today are generally considered to be at the same stage of development as were those of the United States two decades ago.

Each day finds new users of electricity in the homes, new applications of power to the diversified industries of these fast growing countries.

Encouraged by these conditions, Intercontinents Power Company, serving 112 cities and towns in Argentina, Brazil and Chile, looks forward to the next few years as a period of continued growth and progress in the development of South America's public utilities which will exceed anything in the past.

Investors in the securities of Intercontinents Power Company have an unusual opportunity to share in the increasing earnings of the company, and in the prosperous future of these important South American republics.

What every thoughtful man ought to know ....

When contemplating speculation, remember that while it may be all right to speculate with your money, it is hardly fair to speculate with your future, or your wife's, or children's.

Some substantial part of your resources should be placed in securities equal in safety and income to National Title Guaranty Company's Guaranteed 5½% First Mortgages or Certificates.

Thoughtful men should write for a booklet:

ALL LIBERTY BONDS GO TO YEAR'S HIGHS

Most Securities of Domestic Corporations Decline on Stock Exchange.

FOREIGN LOANS ARE LOWER

Chinese Railway 5s Fall to Fresh Bottom of 22½—German Issues Sag.

All Liberty loans attained new high prices for the year yesterday on the Stock Exchange, while issues of domestic corporations suffered sharp declines on the average. Many foreign loans were lower, but the leading issues, as a rule, closed with advances and declines about evenly distributed.

In the government group Liberty 3½s and first Liberty 4¼s closed at high marks for the year to date, up 2-32 and 5-32, respectively. The actively traded fourth Liberty 4¼s touched a new peak at 102 26-32, but finished at 102 23-32, off 1-32 for the day.

In the foreign list Chinese Railway 5s fell to a new low price of 22½, closing ⅛ point above the level, with a net loss of 4⅞ points, reflecting political conditions in China. The new German International 5½s held at 90, while the German 7s of 1949 moved off ¼ point. Most German provincial and corporation issues closed easier.

The domestic convertible issues with few exceptions closed lower in sympathy with stocks. Atchison, Topeka & Sante Fé convertible 4½s reached a new loan for the year at 124, finishing a point above this figure with a loss of 2 points. Warner Quinlan convertible 6s fell 6 points to 84 and Allegheny Corporation convertible 5s of 1949 duplicated the previous low for the year at 99.

Most active industrial issues finished lower. Amusement bonds, especially, were off. Loew's, Inc., 6s tumbled 5 points, Pathe Exchange 7s fell 2 points and General Theatres Equipment 6s of 1940 recorded a new low at 95½, closing at 96, off a point. Warner Brothers Pictures 6s made a new low mark at 100¾, although a late rally sent the price up to 101½, off ¾ point for the day.

Sugar bonds were weak and many active oil and rubber issues closed lower.

Although the railroad bond group was punctuated with several gains of a point or more, the market was easier, several issues selling at their lowest prices for the year to date.

BOND FLOTATIONS.

Foreign and Domestic Securities to Be Placed on Market by Bankers.

Central German Power Company.

Offering of $4,000,000 Central German Power Company of Magdeburg 6 per cent notes, due on June 1, 1934, will be made today in the form of participation certificates of the Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, priced at 98¼, to yield about 6.50 per cent. The notes will be offered by a group comprising A. G. Becker & Co., the International Manhattan Company, Inc., and the Berliner Handelsgesellschaft of Berlin.

A substantial part of this offering has been withdrawn for sale in Holland by Hope & Co. and Warburg & Co. of Amsterdam; in Switzerland, by the Credit Suisse of Zurich and in Germany by the Berliner Handelsgesellschaft and M. M. Warburg & Co. of Hamburg. The issue is guaranteed as to principal and interest by the German General Electric Company, the Dessauer Gas Company and George von Giesche's Heirs Mining Company. Application will be made to list the issue on the New York Curb Exchange.

Central Arizona Light and Power.

New financing for the Central Arizona Light and Power Company, totaling $7,500,000, has been underwritten by a banking group composed of the Security-First National Company, Harris, Forbes & Co., and E. H. Rollins & Sons. The financing consists of first mortgage 5 per cent bonds, series due in 1960. The proceeds will be used to provide funds for retiring all funded debt outstanding and for reimbursement of the company for expenditures for additions to property.

Erie Railroad.

The Erie Railroad Company, subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, has awarded a new issue of $6,690,000 4½ per cent equipment trust certificates to Drexel & Co. The certificates, issued under the Philadelphia plan, will cover part of the cost of new standard railway equipment, the balance to be paid by the railroad.

APPROVE STOCK INCREASE.

Porto Rican American Tobacco Shareholders Vote on Proposal.

Stockholders of the Porto Rican American Tobacco Company at a special meeting yesterday approved the plan for the increase in the stock of the company, announced by the directors some time ago.

The plan is to increase the authorized Class A stock to 500,000 shares of no par value from the present 150,000 shares of $100 par value and the issuance of two of the new shares for each one of the present held. The Class B stock under the plan will also be increased to 500,000 shares from the present 300,000 shares.

FINANCIAL NOTES.

Bonner, Brooks & Co., Inc., have moved their office in Detroit to 1317 Penobscot Building.

F. E. Kingston & Co. have issued a special report on the Aetna Fire Insurance Company.

Sulzbacher, Granger & Co. have installed an electric quotation board with a capacity of 420 stocks.

The Bankers Trust Company has been appointed co-agent with Security First National Bank of Los Angeles for the payment of Associated Telephone Company Series A coupons.

The Hibernia Trust Company has been appointed registrar for the common and participating Class A stock of the Cumberland Natural Gas Corporation.

The Chase National Bank has been appointed transfer agent for capital stock of American Machine and Metals, Inc.

Smith, Graham & Rockwell have prepared an analysis of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey.

$54,787,000 New Securities On Today's Investment Lists

New securities totaling $54,787,000 will be placed on the market today by New York banking houses and syndicates. Of this amount, $30,162,000 will consist of bonds, and the remainder of preferred stock.

The new bond issues are classified as follows:

Railway	$24,000,000
Foreign	4,000,000
Municipal	2,162,000

MUNICIPAL LOANS.

Plainfield, N. J.

The city of Plainfield, N. J., has awarded a new issue of $1,032,000 improvement bonds, due on June 1, 1931, to 1958, at an average price of 101.52, to a syndicate headed by the Guaranty Company of New York and including the First National Old Colony Corporation, H. L. Allen & Co. and Kountze Brothers. The bankers bid for the bonds as 4⅛s, naming a price of 101.95 for $589,000 improvement bonds and 100.95 for $443,000 improvement assessment bonds.

The second highest bid for the larger block of bonds was 101.86 by the First National Bank of Plainfield, and the second highest tender for the smaller was 100.735 by C. A. Preim & Co. The Guaranty syndicate will place the issue on the market today at prices to yield 3.25 to 4.20 per cent. The city reports an assessed valuation of $62,023,911 and net bonded debt, including this issue, of $5,714,058.

Springfield, Mass.

The city of Springfield, Mass., awarded yesterday a new issue of $960,000 4 per cent public building bonds, due on July 1, 1931, to 1950, to R. L. Day & Co. The second highest bid, that of 102.08, was made by Harris, Forbes & Co. The issue will be reoffered today at prices to yield 2.75 to 3.70 per cent.

Chicago, Ill.

Details of the issue of $18,970,000 of bonds announced last week by the city of Chicago for sale on June 30 were revealed yesterday. Of the total, $8,715,000, due on Jan. 1, 1932, to 1950, will be for improving Ashland Avenue; $6,140,000, due on June 1, 1932, to 1950, for improving Western Avenue, and $4,115,000, due on June 1, 1932, to 1950, for the improvement of North La Salle Street. The assessed valuation of the city, as of June 1, 1930, is given as $3,650,351,135 and the total debt as $115,800,005, with the unexercised debt incurring power, as of June 1, 1930, amounting to $66,717,550.

Victoria, B. C.

The city of Victoria, B. C., has awarded an issue of $4,000,000 nine-months bills to a group of Canadian banks on a 4.25 per cent basis. It is understood that the issue is being reoffered on a 4.00 per cent basis, chiefly in the Canadian market.

Nashville, Tenn.

Award of a new issue of $250,000 city of Nashville (Tenn.) 4½ per cent park bonds, due on July 1, 1957, to 1960, was made yesterday to Caldwell & Co. The bankers paid a price of 102.86.

Hamilton County, N. Y.

Lehman Brothers and the Manufacturers' and Traders'-People's Trust Company of Buffalo obtained yesterday the award of an issue of $170,000 Hamilton County (N. Y.) bonds, due from 1934 to 1951, at their joint bid of 100.62 for the bonds as 4¼s. The issue will be placed on the market today at prices to yield 4.10 to 4.25 per cent.

BANKERS TO OFFER $24,000,000 BONDS

PARTLY FOR REFUNDING

Securities Priced to Yield 4.60 Per Cent—Guaranteed by New York Central.

A new issue of $24,000,000 refunding and improvement mortgage 4½ per cent gold bonds of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company will be offered today at 98 and accrued interest, to yield 4.60 per cent. by a syndicate headed by J. P. Morgan & Co. and including the First National Bank, the National City Company and the Guaranty Company of New York.

The bonds are dated July 1, 1927, and will be due on July 1, 1977. They will be redeemable as a whole at the company's option on July 1, 1947, or on any interest date thereafter prior to maturity at the following prices and accrued interest: On July 1, 1947, at 105 per cent; thereafter and to Jan. 1, 1972, at 102 per cent; thereafter and to Jan. 1, 1977 at 100 per cent. They are in denomination of $1,000. The issue has been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The bonds are to provide for payment by the railway company of indebtedness incurred in retiring $15,000,000 of its ten-year 6 per cent refunding and improvement mortgage gold bonds, series A, which matured on July 1, 1929, and to reimburse its treasury for expenditures made and not previously capitalized.

The bonds are issued under the company's refunding and improvement mortgage executed to the Guaranty Trust Company of New York and Frank L. Littleton, trustees, dated June 27, 1919. The mortgage covers as a direct lien 1,693 miles of railroad owned and the company's interest in 328 miles of railroad held under lease or contract. After the distribution of these bonds there will be in the hands of the public $60,052,600 refunding and improvement mortgage bonds and $5,000,000 twenty-year 4½ per cent gold debentures of 1911 and not more than 6,120,000 francs of the company's twenty-year European loan of 1910 equally secured under the mortgage.

The New York Central, as one of the steps in the unification of its system, has leased the company's properties for ninety-nine years from Feb. 1, 1930. The New York Central, which owns more than 98 per cent of the company's common stock and more than 85 per cent of its 5 per cent preferred stock, is obligated to pay the principal of and interest on the company's obligations including the new bonds. The Attorney General of New York has given an opinion that by virtue of the obligation of the New York Central the bonds are legal investments for savings banks in New York State.

Spencer Williams Off to Moscow.

Spencer Williams, who recently was appointed Russian representative of the American-Russian Chamber of Commerce, sailed last night on the Europa to take over the chamber's office in Moscow. He will make stops in London, Paris and Berlin to gain information on Russian trade in those countries. He is a native of Utica, N. Y.

BOND & SHARE UNIT INCREASING CAPITAL

American & Foreign Power Co. to Put Out Today 250,000 Shares of Preferred Stock.

BUSINESS ABROAD WIDENS

Financing Will Give Concern $24,625,000 for General Corporate Purposes.

Offering will be made today of 250,000 shares of no-par cumulative $6 preferred stock of the American and Foreign Power Company, Inc., by a syndicate headed by Bonbright & Co., Inc., at $98.50 and accrued dividends a share, to yield about 6.09 per cent. Others in the syndicate are Dillon, Read & Co.; the National City Company, White, Weld & Co.; the Guaranty Company of New York, Lee, Higginson & Co.; the Chase Securities Company, the Bankers Company of New York, the First National Old Colony Corporation and W. C. Langley & Co.

The proceeds will be used by American and Foreign Power for general corporate purposes. The stock, which is callable as a whole or in part at $110 a share, will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

American and Foreeign Power is controlled by the Electric Bond and Share Company, which owns a majority of its stock. Among the countries in which it supplies electric power and light and other public utility service are Cuba, Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Guatemala, Venezuela, Costa Rica, Panama, Ecuador and Colombia. The financing will provide the company with approximately $24,625,000.

C. E. Groesbeck, president of Electric Bond and Share, was quoted yesterday in San Francisco as having said the foreign business of American and Foreign Power was expanding and that additional extensions, which he was not now at liberty to disclose, were being considered.

FORM DERY COMMITTEE.

Bondholders Act When Amalgamated Silk Serves Default Notice.

A protective committee was formed yesterday for holders of first mortgage twenty-year 7 per cent sinking fund gold bonds of the D. G. Dery Corporation. The action was taken when the Amalgamated Silk Corporation, which has assumed payment of principal and interest of these bonds, gave notice that it would be unable on Sept. 1 to meet either the interest or the sinking fund payments then due.

Bondholders have been requested to deposit their bonds with the Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company. Thomas O. Thatcher of Redmond & Co. is chairman of the committee, which includes M. H. Sterne of Ward, Sterne & Co. and Frank Wolfe of the Hanover Bank. William C. Ruth is secretary.

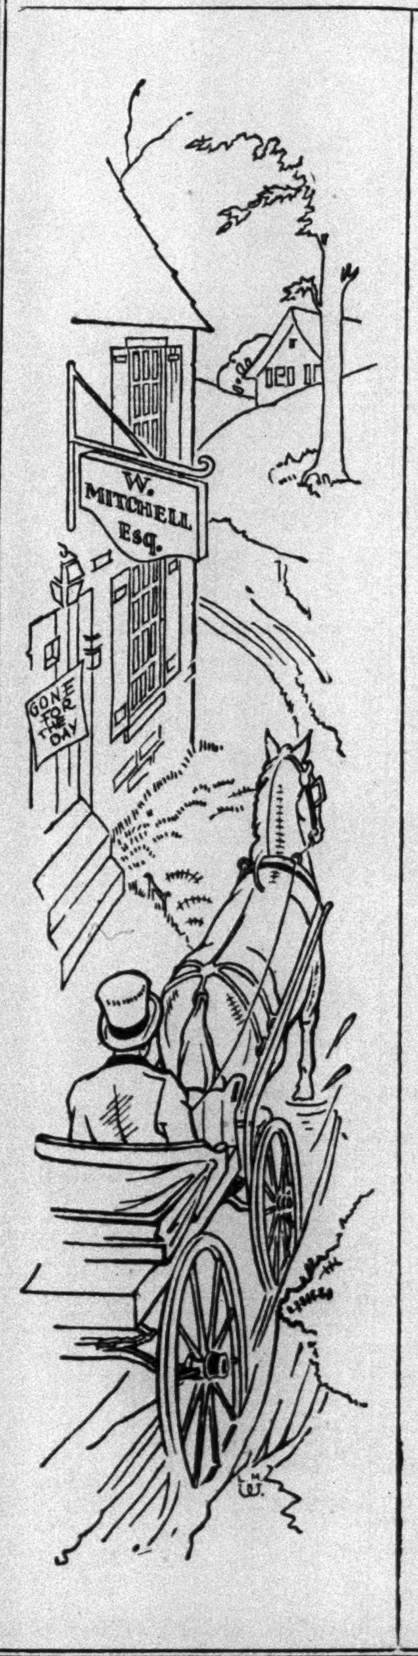
Number Two of a Series

Out of an "exasperating journey"

—was born the Ætna (Fire) Insurance Company



JOSEPH MORGAN, forbear of a famous family that has achieved eminence in the annals of American finance, was one of a group of gentlemen who, early in 1819, gathered at "Morgan's Coffee House" in Hartford. Mr. Morgan was righteously wrathful. He had desired to take out a fire insurance policy on his Coffee House and several times had made the "exasperating journey" to Wethersfield—a trip along a clayey road swamped by rains—only to find the usual "Gone for the day" sign hung over the door of Mr. Mitchell, who was the agent for the Insurance Company. Mr. Thomas K. Brace joined the general indignation—and out of this revolt grew the Ætna Insurance Company, with Mr. Brace as its first President. Mr. Morgan took the first policy.

America was truly young in those days. There was not a single mile of railroad in the country. Pennies were objects of respect and Isaac Perkins, the Company's first Secretary, carefully noted the only loss to March, 1821—a "counterfeit two dollar bill." But the character of the Company's officers and directors was unimpeachable and their will to succeed with their new undertaking unshakeable. Slowly but surely the Ætna grew with the youthful nation, bravely facing and conquering the obstacles that threatened it throughout its formative years. The record of the growth of Ætna Fire is eloquently spoken in these figures:

GROWTH OF BUSINESS

Net risks	$1,807,454,585	$3,693,845,220	$6,181,111,156
Total adm. assets	24,730,603	40,872,541	62,540,763
Capital stock	5,000,000	5,000,000	7,500,000
Surplus	7,584,516	10,214,910	19,109,255

The Company has followed a profitable but conservative investment policy, as is shown by its holdings at the end of 1929. At that time it had 56.5% of its assets in sound bonds, 7.3% in Railroad stocks, 9.5% in Public Utility stocks, 17.3% in Bank stocks and 9.4% in miscellaneous Common stocks. All of these investments were broadly diversified.

The opportunity presented by the stock of Ætna Insurance Company is exceptional. Guided by a management which enjoys universal confidence and by a policy that spells both protection and constant appreciation for the stockholder, we can, without qualification, recommend the purchase of this outstanding insurance stock for permanent investment.

Our Latest Report on Ætna Insurance Company will be sent upon request.

TWENTY-SIX Representative Investment Trust stocks were selling on the market at an average of only 84.73% of their net asset or liquidating value according to figures published in the New York Times, Sunday June 1st. Since the assets of a well managed Investment Trust, one that could be called representative, consist of cash and marketable securities, the meaning of this is that $100 worth of cash and securities figured at current market quotations could actually be purchased for $84.73, or $1000 worth for $847.30 or $10,000 worth for $8473.

NATIONAL RE-INVESTING CORPORATION, an Investment Trust which invests in the bonds, preferred stocks and common stocks of other Investment Trusts is taking advantage of such opportunities every day and has been taking advantage of them ever since the reaction of November last brought about this unusual situation. The market prices of Investment Trust stocks and the market prices of Investment Trust holdings have shifted to and fro but this differential between market price and net worth has existed in varying degrees all through the year to date—a golden opportunity for the selective buyer.

Published lists reveal that leading Investment Trusts own large blocks of securities in the Nation's greatest Industrial, Public Utility, Railroad or Financial organizations and the management of NATIONAL RE-INVESTING CORPORATION maintains that you cannot go wrong buying an equity share in "Industrial America" at present deflated levels and that you certainly can make no mistake when you buy such equities at a substantial discount off present market levels.

Through ownership of shares in more than 50 seasoned and proven investing and holding companies, NATIONAL RE-INVESTING CORPORATION offers the investor a certain participation in the future prosperity of American industry and in foreign industry as well since many of these companies operate internationally. Not more than 5% of total resources is invested in any one security.

MARKETS IN LONDON, PARIS AND BERLIN

English Exchange Opens Weak on Wall Street News, but Rallies in Afternoon.

FRENCH STOCKS DECLINE

Many Break Sharply, While Trading Is Dull—Selling Movement Halted on German Boerse.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, June 17.—Almost every department of the London Stock Exchange was hit by the new Wall Street slump, but a rally late in the afternoon made up for the worst of the day's losses. Not only Anglo-American shares but even the gilt-edge securities felt the shock. A certain amount of liquidation continued all day as a result of increasing nervousness over European as well as American markets. Virtually no buying was anywhere in evidence until the afternoon when investors plucked up courage and prices tended to improve.

Among the gilt-edge securities the war loan was steady at £102⅝, but the funding loan fell ⅛ to £88½. The new German reparations loan weakened sharply, falling 9-16 to ¾ discount.

The internationals bore the brunt of the Wall Street decline. Colombia Graphophone closed 7-16 down at £3 23-32, while His Master's Voice Gramophone slipped 5-32 to £3 25-32. General Electric fell 1s 6d to 49s despite record profits of $5,985,035. Hydroelectric fell a point to $41 after $39½. Brazilian Traction, which declined to $39⅝, recovered later to $40½, with a net loss of 1½. International Nickel, after falling sharply to $22½, rallied to $23½.

Courtaulds closed unchanged at £2 3-16, while Coats fell a shilling to 57s. Ford rose a shilling to 65s 6d, but other automobiles were weak. Cunard fell 3d to 20s 3d, but Royal Mail was steady at £18. Cable and Wireless was steadier, with the A ordinary at £37. Oils were uniformly weak, Royal Dutch closing at £31⅞ and Shell Transport at £4⅝. De Beers was weaker at £7½, while Rio Tinto declined ½ to £33¼.

Money was easier in Lombard Street owing to slack demand. The overnight loan rate fell to 2 per cent, while the three-month bill rate kept steady at 2½ per cent. Persistent weakness of the Spanish peseta continued, but sterling exchange hardened to $4.85 13-16. France bought £605,000 of South African gold in the open market, while India took the balance of £43,000.

Prices Decline in Paris.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PARIS, June 17.—Affected by yesterday's slump in Wall Street, the Bourse weakened today. Nearly all stocks declined, a large number of them sharply, while trading remained inactive. The Bank of France dropped 420, Credit Foncier 95, Rio Tinto 40, Pechiney 85, Liquid Air 43 and Royal Dutch 35.

There was considerable talk in financial circles of the passage of the new American tariff bill, which in some quarters is credited with causing the Wall Street recession. Little optimism is expressed here as regards the prospects for the immediate future.

Rentes showed resistance, but in some instances registered losses. They closed as follows: the 3 per cents, 86.60; 1918 4s, 101.40; 1920 amortizable 5s, 133.75; 1928 5s, 100.75; 1920 6s, 100.70; 1927 amortizable 6s, 104.75.

Berlin Recovers After Losses.

Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BERLIN, June 17.—The Wall Street break in prices had a depressing influence on today's session of the Boerse, which opened considerably weaker, with losses ranging from two to nine points. The international stocks, Deutsche Linoleum, Polyphon, beer and spirits, and Salzdetfurth of the potash group were much offered and considerably lower. Dyes Trust, artificial silks, Celanese, Reichsbank and the electricals also were softer.

Due to the bank's intervention and speculative purchases, the selling movement came to a standstill in the second hour and most issues were able to regain part of the day's losses.

The money market was easy. Call loans were 2½ to 4½ per cent.

RESERVE OF EXCHANGE AT REICHSBANK RISES

Week's Increase 42,452,000 Marks—Large Reduction in Bank's Note Circulation.

BERLIN, June 17 (AP).—The Reichsbank report as of June 14 shows the following changes, in reichsmarks:

Gold coin and bullion	inc.	6,000
Reserve in foreign currencies	inc.	42,452,000
Bills of exchange and checks	dec.	259,691,000
Silver and other coins	inc.	20,677,000
Notes on other banks	inc.	4,842,000
Advances	dec.	12,049,000
Investments	dec.	20,000
Other assets	inc.	7,198,000
Notes in circulation	dec.	293,936,000
Other maturing obligations	inc.	88,532,000
Other liabilities	inc.	8,819,000

Total gold holdings are now 2,618,787,000 gold marks.

	1930.	1929.	1928.
June 6	2,618,781	1,764,424	2,040,776
May 31	2,591,135	1,764,529	2,040,781
May 15	2,577,665	1,764,785	2,040,811

The gold holdings of Jan. 7, 1929, at 2,729,345,000 marks were the highest in the Reichsbank's history. The gold holdings of June 22, at 1,764,327,000 marks, were the smallest of 1929.

The following is the Reichsbank's outstanding note circulation in thousands of reichsmarks:

	1930.	1929.
June 14	4,440,559	4,191,840
June 6	4,734,495	4,372,539
May 31	4,974,220	4,606,388
May 26	4,207,520	4,006,198
May 15	4,358,026	4,167,321

The note circulation of Dec. 31, 1929, at 5,043,677,000 marks, was the largest since the reform of the currency in 1924. Prior to that date the high record was 4,930,020,000 marks, on Dec. 31, 1928. In gold values this was the largest since the war, although in terms of the old depreciated paper the circulation reached 496½ quintillions of marks, or 496½ billion billions, on Dec. 31, 1923.

ARGENTINE PESO DROPS.

Exchange Value Falls to Lowest Level Touched This Year.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

BUENOS AIRES, June 14.—The exchange value of the Argentine peso, which has been falling steadily for two weeks, took a sudden drop today which brought the peso to the lowest level it has touched this year. The dollar closed on Monday at 118.35 and opened this morning at 119.55, remaining at that level throughout the day. The sterling exchange reached 41⅜.

STEEL MERGER TRIAL SET.

Suits of Opponents to Bethlehem-Youngstown Union June 25.

Special to The New York Times.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, June 17.—Trial of the suits seeking to block the merger of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company and the Bethlehem Steel Corporation will begin June 25 before Common Pleas Judge David G. Jenkins of Mahoning County, it was decided today. The actions were filed by Myron C. Wick Jr. and the International Share Corporation, controlled by Cyrus S. Eaton of Cleveland.

A motion demanding that the Bethlehem corporation produce documents, records, correspondence, charts and writings covering a six-year period ending Dec. 31, 1929, will be argued Thursday morning.

Canada Outside of Electric Deal.

LONDON, June 17 (Canadian Press).—That the Canadian market was not included in the recent agreement on spheres of operation concluded by the English Electric Company with the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Company and its foreign arm, the Westinghouse International Company, was made plain in a statement issued today by English Electric. This means that the English Electric Company of Canada will retain the Canadian field for the distribution of products of the parent company in England.

Imports of crude and refined oils at the principal United States ports for the week ended on June 14 totaled 1,919,000 barrels, a daily average of 274,143 barrels, compared with 2,065,000 barrels, a daily average of 295,000 barrels for the week ended on June 7, and a daily average of 285,071 barrels for the four weeks ended on June 14.

Receipts of California oil, crude and refined, at Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports for the week ended on June 14 amounted to 405,000 barrels, a daily average of 57,857 barrels, compared with 390,000 barrels, a daily average of 55,714 barrels for the previous week and a daily average of 48,643 barrels for the four weeks ended on June 14.

PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE CUT.

Reductions of 5 to 10 Cents a Barrel on All Oil Grades Posted.

The South Penn Oil Company reduced yesterday the posted prices of Pennsylvania grades of crude oil 5 to 19 cents a barrel. The 10-cent cut applied to oil in the lines of the National Transit Company, the Southwest Pennsylvania Pipe Line Company and the Eureka Pipe Line Company, making the new prices $2.20, $2.15 and $2.05, respectively. The reduction of 5 cents applied only to oil in the Buckeye Pipe Line, which was posted at $1.90.

In the Bradford district a reduction of 15 cents a barrel to $2.25 was made by the Bradford Transit Company. On May 16 the South Penn Oil Company discontinued posting crude oil price schedules in that area.

Since July 1, 1929, the prices of Pennsylvania crude oil have been steadily declining. On that date the highest grade of Pennsylvania crude was posted at $4.10 a barrel, compared with $2.25 under yesterday's new schedule. The last previous general change was on May 16 last, when a reduction of 25 cents a barrel was announced.

The weakness in Pennsylvania crude prices is attributed partly to the steady increase in production, especially in the Bradford field.

Improved refining processes have also played an important part in the decline of Pennsylvania crude prices. The recent weakness in gasoline prices is another factor.

Gasoline Stocks Reduced As Refineries Run Steadily

Gasoline stocks at refineries representing 95.8 per cent of the refining capacity of the country declined 415,000 barrels to 52,482,000 during the week ended on June 14, according to the American Petroleum Institute. During that week the refineries operated at 75.7 of their capacity, as in the previous week, running 18,690,000 barrels of crude oil to stills compared with 18,701,000 in the week ended on June 7.

Gasoline and fuel oil stocks increased 832,000 barrels to 139,221,000 barrels.

Oil Refinery Reconstructed.

Reconstruction of the refinery on the Houston Ship Canal in Texas, purchased from the Galena-Signal Oil Company more than a year ago, has been completed by the Texas Company, quadrupling its capacity, or raising it from 5,000 barrels daily to 20,000 barrels.

STOCKS IRREGULAR IN COUNTER TRADING

Strength After Early Weakness Followed by Declines in Last Hour—Bank Shares Lower.

The over-the-counter securities market closed irregular yesterday. Opening prices were generally lower, but strength developed and carried many stocks above the prices of the preceding day. Weakness developed again in the last hour and some gains were wiped out.

The general trend in the bank stock group was downward, although there were gains for Guaranty, Manhattan and Chase. Other principal issues, including Bank of United States, Chemical, Liberty, City, Corn Exchange, American Union, Public, Chatham Phenix, Manufacturers and Continental were lower.

Activity in the insurance list continued small and prices were slightly lower, with no significant gains. The industrial group moved lower in dull trading. Dry Ice and American Manufacturing were among the issues which declined. Preferred utility issues held their own well, while there was little interest in the common stocks. Chain stores, sugars, communications and bonds were dull and showed only slight fluctuations.

STOCK INCREASES RATIFIED.

Houston Oil and Houston Pipe Line Enlarge Capitalizations.

Stockholders of the Houston Oil Company, meeting in Houston approved yesterday a reduction in the par value of the common and preferred stocks from $100 to $25 a share and the exchange of one old share for four new shares. They also approved an increase in the company's capitalization of $2,500,000 to pay a 10 per cent common stock dividend.

Houston Pipe Line's stockholders also approved an increase of $10,000,000 in the authorized capital stock of $100 par, bringing that company's capitalzation to $25,000,000. The additional capital will be used, in part, it is understood, for extension of the company's system.

Upon completion of the changes, Houston Oil will have authorized 1,340,000 common shares, of which 1,098,618 shares will be outstanding after the payment of the stock dividend. The authorized preferred stock will consist of 400,000 shares of $25 par, of which 357,904 shares will be outstanding.

LATE SALES NULLIFY RALLIES IN COTTON

ONE SPURT OF $2 A BALE

Deficiency in Exports Is Largest of Season as Certificated Stock Increases.

After declining steadily for two weeks prices on the Cotton Exchange rallied $2 a bale at one time yesterday. Covering operations in both July and new crop months were influenced by steadier stock and grain markets, and July recovered from 13¼ cents on Monday to more than 13¾ cents before the supply of contracts increased. Selling was resumed in the last hour, wiping out virtually the entire improvement and closing the list at the bottom, with a loss of 2 to a gain of 8 points on the day.

Trading was the most active in several months and the frequent execution of large orders indicated the broader interest being taken in the course of prices. Several spot houses sold July against later deliveries owing to the limited demand for raw material. Exports are now 1,280,000 bales behind those at this time last season, the heaviest deficiency so far.

Though foreign prices broke sharply in response to Monday's late decline on this side, Liverpool had recovered the greater part of the loss before the local opening.

The certificated stock of cotton increased to 721,000 bales, of which cooperative associations took 575,000 on the May delivery. Just how extensive the deliveries on July will be remains to be determined on the first July notice day a week from today.

INDIA CUTS COTTON STOCK.

Supply Smaller Than in Last Two Years as American Total Rises.

Although world stocks of American cotton are being reduced at much less than the normal rate for this time of year, the supply of Indian cotton in India is being run down at a high rate, according to the New York Cotton Exchange Service. In consequence, it is said, the world stock of American cotton is materially larger than one or two years ago, but the stock of Indian cotton in India is smaller than either last year or the year before.

"Indian spinners have been consuming their own staple at a very high rate this season," says the Exchange Service. "During the first nine months of this season, from Aug. 1 to April 30, they used 1,780,000 bales, against 1,435,000 in the same period of last season and 1,493,000 two seasons ago. Exports of Indian cotton continue large. During the first nine months of this season they totaled 3,003,000 bales, against 2,811,000 in the same portion of last season and 2,163,000 two seasons ago.

"Estimates of the 1929-30 Indian crop, as issued by the Indian Government and by large firms in the Indian trade, differ not only as to absolute size but also as to whether it was larger or smaller than the previous crop. We feel that the best estimate is that it was about equal to the previous crop of about 5,858,000 bales."

Stock Revision Plan Ratified.

Stockholders of International Salt Company yesterday approved the plan of the directors of the company to exchange each share of the present $100 par value stock for three new shares of no par value and to offer rights to purchase new shares at $36 on a basis of one additional share for each three shares of the new stock held.

ALL GRAINS GO UP, PESSIMISM FADING

SALES OF OATS INCREASE

Large Shipping Demand Is Factor in Corn's Upturn—Trading in Rye Is Light.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 17.—The feeling in the grain markets today became much less pessimistic, with improvement in the cash demand and a let-up in the drastic liquidation that had been in evidence for a week. Wheat buyers were more confident and the finish was at net gains of 2⅛ to 2¾ cents, December leading. Buying of the latter against sales of September by spreaders widened the difference.

Winnipeg led the advance and closed 3⅝ to 3⅞ cents higher. Reports of high winds in Alberta and of the worst dust storms of the season, combined with buying to remove hedges against immense sales abroad, were the dominating influence in the Canadian market. Liverpool lost only ⅜ to ½ penny for the day. Buenos Aires was ⅛ cent lower to ⅛ cent higher at the close, a break of ¼ point in the exchange rate having considerable influence.

Foreigners apparently were satisfied with the prevailing level of wheat prices, and about 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 bushels were sold in all positions, the bulk of it being Manitobas. Winnipeg contended that as much as 20,000,000 bushels had been sold in the last five businss days, the largest sales in a long time, and equal to around two weeks' requirements of European importers. Supplies abroad have been permitted to run down to a great extent, and it has been 15 years since buyers were able to get wheat so low.

Some selling of futures at times was laid to reports that yields in the Southwest were running well above expectations, some fields in Texas and Oklahoma returning 15 bushels an acre, or about double what had been anticipated.

A Winnipeg line elevator house in its weekly report made the condition of wheat in Alberta and Saskatchewan 87 per cent, showing losses of 2 to 4 points in the last week, as the improvement from recent rains has not had time to be reflected. Showers over the three provinces were forecast.

It was felt generally that today's rally was only natural as the six-day decline had carried prices off about 12 cents within a week.

Primary receipts were 554,000 bushels; a week ago 420,000 and a year ago 876,000. Shipments respectively were 1,105,000, 1,186,000 and 547,000 bushels.

Removal of hedges against shipping sales of 225,000 bushels of cash corn, the best demand in some time, combined with short covering, lifted corn futures sharply and with light offerings the close was 1¾ to 2⅛ cents higher. The recent decline cleaned out most of the open stop losses in both corn and oats. The present feeding ratio of 13 to 1 between hogs and corn is a profitable basis. Weather conditions were favorable for the new crop.

Primary receipts of corn were 634,000 bushels; a week ago 632,000 and a year ago 878,000. Shipments respectively were 777,000, 585,000 and 512,000 bushels.

Oats closed 1 to 1¼ cents higher, with cash interests taking the July. Shipping sales of 260,000 bushels were the best in some time. Shorts took the deferred futures.

Trade in rye was much smaller, with the finish 2½ to 2⅝ cents higher as a result of short covering and in sympathy with wheat.

Prices for the principal grains were as follows:

INCREASE IN EXPORT OF GRAIN LAST WEEK

Nearly Equal to Year Ago—Wheat Shipments Exceed Those of 1929.

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP).—Grain exports last week from the United States were 1,863,000 bushels, against 1,087,000 bushels the week before and 2,091,000 bushels the same week last year.

Commerce Department figures today gave the following comparisons between last week's exports and those of the previous week: Wheat, 1,603,000 bushels, against 1,031,000 bushels a week ago and 1,570,000 a year ago; oats, 1,000, against 8,000 bushels; corn, 219,000 bushels; against 48,000 bushels; barley, 40,000 bushels, against none.

Canadian grains exported last week from United States ports amounted to 1,127,000 bushels, against 1,450,000 bushels the week before, while last week's exports of North American wheat flour were 158,000 barrels, against 167,000 barrels the previous week.

RALLY IN CURB STOCKS BRINGS RECOVERIES

Many Issues Regain Part of Previous Days' Losses—General Price Movements Mixed.

Price movements were mixed yesterday on the New York Curb Exchange, although a rally in the second hour of trading helped many issues to recover part of their losses of the preceding days. In few cases were closing prices at the high for the day, but in practically all cases they were considerably above the lows.

Utility issues attracted the greatest amount of attention and there were several notable recoveries. American Superpower, Electric Bond and Share, Brazilian Light and Traction and United Light and Power closed substantially higher, while American Gas and Electric, Associated Gas and Electric and Niagara Hudson closed with losses for the day.

There were losses in practically all the oil issues. All the members of the Standard Oil group, along with Humble, Houston, International Petroleum and Vacuum closed lower, failing to hold progress made earlier in the day. Missouri Kansas Pipe Line, however, recovered more than 3 points of its heavy decline of Monday.

Cities Service again attracted heavy trading and closed with a gain for the day. St. Regis Paper and International Salt also closed higher, while Fox Theatres, Deere and Driver Harris closed off. In the investment trust and holding company group Pennroad closed higher, while Goldman Sachs, United Founders and Transamerican were lower at the close.

To Enlarge Tractor Plant.

The Caterpillar Tractor Company has let a contract for the construction of a new building to cost about $200,000 as an addition to its Minneapolis plant, it was announced yesterday.

CHANGES IN CORPORATIONS.

R. S. Hall Named Vice President of Republic Steel.

R. S. Hall, formerly president of the Bourne-Fuller Company has been named a vice president of the Republic Steel Corporation with which the Bourne-Fuller Company was merged, and will have charge of operations and sales of the Upson Nut division.

William Howard Schubart and H. J. Rogers, vice presidents of the International Acceptance Bank, have been elected directors of the National Bank of Nicaragua. Mr. Schubart has also been elected a director of the Pacific Railroad of Nicaragua.

Philip J. Roosevelt has been elected a trustee of the Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company.

Matthew S. Sloan, president of the New York Edison Company, has been elected a director of the American Surety Company.

Robert C. Ream, president of the American Reinsurance Company, has been elected a trustee of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company to fill the vacancy caused by the death of S. Brinckerhoff Thorne.

Thomas L. Chadbourne will be elected a director of the Butterick Company at the next meeting, it was announced yesterday.

Sydney Spofforth has been appointed resident manager of the office of Bonner, Brooks & Co., Inc., in St. Paul.

VOTES HOLIDAY ON JULY 5.

Hide Exchange Board Decides to Grant Three-Day Closing.

The board of governors of the New York Hide Exchange, Inc., voted yesterday to declare July 5 a holiday, and accordingly the Exchange will be closed from the close on July 3 to the regular opening time on July 7.

The petition of the members of the New York Stock Exchange asking that July 5 be declared a holiday yesterday had 484 signatures, or more than one-third of the entire membership.

D. G. DERY CORPORATION

First Mortgage Twenty-Year 7% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

(payment of the principal and interest of which has been assumed by Amalgamated Silk Corporation)

To the Holders of D. G. Dery Corporation First Mortgage Twenty-Year 7% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds:

Having been advised by Amalgamated Silk Corporation that it will be unable, on September 1, 1930, to meet either the interest or sinking fund payments then due on the aforesaid bonds of D. G. Dery Corporation under the terms of the mortgage securing the same, the undersigned, at the request of the holders of a large amount of said bonds, in order to obtain unified action, have consented to act as a Committee to represent and protect the interests of the holders of said bonds, pursuant to the terms of a Bondholders' Agreement, dated as of June 12, 1930, between Thomas O. Thacher, M. H. Sterne and Frank Wolfe, constituting the Protective Committee and such of the holders of said bonds as shall become parties thereto in the manner therein provided, which has been executed and filed with the Depositary named below. The Bondholders' Agreement vests in the Committee plenary powers and authority with respect to deposited bonds.

Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, 70 Broadway, New York City, is acting as Depositary. Copies of the Bondholders' Agreement may be obtained from said Depositary, from the Secretary of the Committee or from any of the undersigned.

In order that the Committee may act promptly and effectively on behalf of the said bondholders in any situation which may arise, you are requested to deposit your bonds immediately with the Committee by forwarding the same to the Depositary with all interest coupons maturing on and after September 1, 1930, attached. Upon the deposit of bonds registered certificates of deposit will be issued.

FINANCIAL NOTICES.

REORGANIZATION OF

Punta Alegre Sugar Company

To the Holders of Convertible Debentures (and Certificates of Deposit therefor issued by The Commercial National Bank and Trust Company of New York), 6% Gold Notes and Capital Stock of Punta Alegre Sugar Company:

Receivers of the assets of Punta Alegre Sugar Company have been appointed by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. The undersigned Committee has intervened in the New York receivership proceedings and has submitted the Plan of Reorganization for the approval of the Court. An order has been entered by the Court fixing July 3, 1930, as the date for a hearing on the Plan.

As was pointed out in the letter from the Committee to the Company's security holders, dated May 9, 1930, it is absolutely necessary to arrange for bank credits to cover the dead season requirements of the Company's subsidiaries, now estimated at approximately $3,600,000. In view of the critical condition of the sugar industry, the imminent maturity of the Company's gold notes and the amount of the bank indebtedness of the Company's subsidiaries guaranteed by the Company, it became apparent that such arrangements could not be made except through a receivership. For this reason receivership proceedings were consented to by the Company and by the undersigned Committee, the Debenture and Note Holders Committee and the Stockholders Committee.

The Committee believes that the receivership proceedings will not interfere with the carrying out of the Plan. Approximately 81% of the gold notes, 66% of the convertible debentures and 57% of the capital stock of the Company have been deposited under the Plan. Because of the very substantial support the Plan has received from the holders of all classes of the Company's securities as well as because of the Committee's belief in its fairness, the Committee hopes that the Plan will be approved by the Court. Such approval should permit the prompt consummation of the Plan. Upon such consummation, depositors will receive the stock or warrants and the subscription rights of the New Company, provided for in the Plan, whereas non-depositing security holders will receive only their proportionate share, if any, of the proceeds of a judicial sale of the Company's assets. The Committee believes that the securities issuable to any depositor under the Plan will be of materially greater value than the proportionate share, if any, of the proceeds of any such sale to which he would be entitled had he not deposited.

The Committee has extended the time for deposit to and including July 3, 1930, so that all security holders of the Company may be given a final opportunity to deposit. Security holders who have not yet deposited are, therefore, urged to deposit their securities immediately with the Depositary, The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, 18 Pine Street, New York City, in order to protect their interests and to participate in the benefits of the Plan.

ADVERTISING STANDARDS

ADVERTISERS in The New York Times are held strictly to The Times standards, which maintain advertising in its columns at a high level. Despite the exclusion of thousands of dollars' worth of objectionable announcements monthly, The Times, month by month and year by year, holds supremacy among all New York newspapers in total volume of advertising published.

The great care exercised by The New York Times over its advertising columns benefits both advertiser and reader. The advertiser obtains results; the reader feels confidence in responding to announcements in The Times.

OUTPUT AND PRICES AWRY IN FURNITURE

Industry Is Strangling Itself, Dr. Haake Tells Meeting of Producers Here.

PLAN QUALITY STANDARDS

Campaign Under Way for Minimum Specifications—Market Prospects Held to Be Good.

The furniture industry is strangling itself through its practices of overproduction and price slashing, Dr. A. P. Haake, managing director of the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers, warned 100 local producers at a meeting in the Knickerbocker Furniture Club yesterday. So far this year, he added, 215 manufacturers throughout the country have failed, another 200 can be expected to fail by July 1 and an additional 200 before the close of the present year. The normal number of annual failures, he said, was fifty.

In an attempt to cure the present evils and create greater stability in the trade, Dr. Haake continued, the association has undertaken a campaign to create minimum standards of quality for all furniture. Upholstered products will be dealt with first, he explained, and case goods next.

"Overproduction in this industry has created a competitive condition of which price cutting has been the natural outgrowth," he continued. "Quality has been cut as far as possible in order to meet a price and later the price was cut in order to meet the figure of a competitor. Nobody made any profit and failures resulted.

"By establishing minimum standards and specifications we will overcome the condition to a certain extent. So far it has been suggested that upholstered davenports be made with a minimum width between arms of 62 inches and a minimum length over-all of 72 inches. Upholstered arm chairs should have a minimum width between arms of 18½ inches.

"Furniture manufacturers have shown a willingness to cooperate in the plan and we believe that the standards will be established and in effect in the near future."

Dr. Haake, in concluding his talk, said he believed prices of furniture had touched bottom and should start upward from now on. He predicted that the trade opening scheduled to start here next Monday would find a large number of buyers in the market and eager to place orders for merchandise.

"Retail stocks throughout the country are the lowest they have ever been and a return to normal buying can be expected," he said. "In my opinion the recovery will be well under way by September."

Prices Ease in Gray Goods Market.

Trading in the gray goods market yesterday was described as erratic. Various prices on standard print cloths were quoted and it was difficult to determine exactly what were the ruling quotations. On the whole, the market was slightly more active than on the previous day. Numerous orders were filled at levels ranging below Monday's quotations, although some sales were made at prices prevailing for the past week. On 38½-inch 60-48s the basis varied between 4¾ and 4⅞ cents. The 38½-inch 64-60s also eased and orders were filled at 5½ to 5¾ cents. The price range for 39-inch 68-72s was 6⅜-6½ cents. On 39-inch 80 squares, most buyers would not exceed 8⅜ cents for spot delivery and 8¼ cents for future shipments. There was a lull in sheeting activity.

Freight car loadings for the week ended June 7, according to the American Railway Association, amounted to 935,647 cars, or less than 1 per cent under the preliminary estimate of 942,000 cars used as the basis for the computation of the adjusted index of freight car loadings, as given in last Sunday's TIMES.

On the basis of these final figures, the adjusted index of freight car loadings for the week ended June 7 is 89.1, as compared with 89.4 for the week ended May 31 and 88.9 for the week ended May 24, making the second week in which the index has fluctuated within a narrow range at a level close to the lowest reached since the major decline of last Fall. A year ago the index stood at 101.5.

As a result of this revision the combined weekly index of business activity for the week ended June 7 now stands at 92.3, as against the preliminary figure of 92.5 published last Sunday. The change brought about by the revised car-loadings index, though slight in itself, nevertheless establishes the combined index at a new low point on the gradual minor downswing which began with the second week in April.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Loadings of revenue freight for the week ended on June 7 totaled 935,647 cars, the American Railway Association announced today, an increase of 75,398 cars above the previous week, due to the observance in that week of Decoration Day, but a reduction of 120,121 cars below the same week in 1929, also a reduction of 59,923 cars under the same week in 1928. Increases were reported in all commodities except coke.

The car loadings in detail were:

	Week Ended June 7.	Change From Prev. Week.	Change From Same Week, 1929.
Miscellan's freight	369,442	+27,980	—50,840
Merch'dise less than carloads	243,753	+28,018	—16,607
Coal	135,858	+ 8,311	—14,000
Forest products	50,975	+ 959	—19,018
Ore	63,450	+ 4,691	—16,004

AID AGAINST FAILURE FRAUD

Fence Bill Would Provide New Weapon, Counsel Tells Credit Group

Passage of the so-called "Federal fence bill," now before the Senate Judiciary Committee, would provide a new weapon in the fight against fraudulent bankruptcy, Maxwell S. Mattuck, counsel for the fraud prevention department of the National Association of Credit Men, told members of the credit protection committee at a meeting of the association yesterday at 1 Park Avenue.

"The root of the commercial crime evil is the 'fence' who receives stolen goods," Mr. Mattuck said. "We have had repeated instances of 'fences' in New York and Philadelphia engineering fradulent failures in other States. As the law stands now, the criminal receiver of stolen goods in such cases can be prosecuted only under the bankruptcy statutes. Where no bankruptcy proceeding is instituted, there is no way of going after the 'fence,' even though his guilt is apparent."

Mr. Mattuck was chairman of the special committee of the National Crime Commission, which sponsored the bill.

NEED MORE ON TARIFF BODY

Importers' Council Says Commission Must Be Increased.

An increase in the personnel of the Tariff Commission will be necessary if that body is to function in the way the President hopes it will, the National Council of American Importers and Traders, Inc., declared in a statement on the new tariff issued yesterday.

"The National Council feels that the membership of the Tariff Commission should have been increased by adding to it a representative of the consumer, a representative specifically to give attention to our foreign trade requirements and one to give special attention to our home trade requirements," the statement continued.

Some of the rates in the new bill are characterized as excessive and others as prohibitive by the importers' organization. The importers expressed gratitude to the President for forewarning merchants of his intention to sign the measure thereby giving them time to remove from bond merchandise affected by substantial increases.

THE BUSINESS WORLD

COMMERCIAL PAPER.

Yesterday—3½ to 3¾ per cent for the best names.

Monday—3½ to 3¾ per cent for the best names.

The quotations are for 4 to 6 months' paper.

Fewer Buyers in the Market.

The number of buyers registered in the market during the week ended yesterday showed a decrease under the number reported for the previous week and for the same period last year, according to the lists published in THE TIMES. For the past week 634 buyers were listed, as against 721 for the preceding week and 714 in the corresponding week a year ago. Buyers in town yesterday were less than for last Tuesday, 238 being reported, as compared with 282 for a week ago.

Bracken Again Heads Export Club.

Roger Bracken, export manager of the Millers Falls Company, yesterday was re-elected president of the Export Managers' Club of New York, Inc., at the club's annual meeting in the Hotel Pennsylvania. Paul C. Rowe of the Lunkenheimer Company and W. W. Crowel of the Bonney Forge and Tool Company were elected members of the board. All other officers of the organization were re-elected. In recognition of his ten years' service as club treasurer, C. E. Thomas of the United States Steel Corporation was presented with a motion picture camera and projection machine by the members.

New Pocket Color Card Out.

The new pocket color card featuring the ten basic colors for Fall selected by the color coordination committee of the National Retail Dry Goods Association in cooperation with the Textile Color Card Association made its appearance yesterday. The shades are shown on both silks and woolens. They comprise Manila, bison and Salvador browns; rubytone and winetone reds, cricket and marble greens, admiralty and "bluglory" blues and copperglo, a red-brown shade. The card, the first of its kind sponsored by retailers, is for the guidance of buyers, purchasing offices and merchandising executives and department heads.

Fibre and Grass Rug Sales Up.

In direct contrast to the slow conditions prevailing in both hard and soft surfaced floor coverings lines, manufacturers of Summer specialty rugs of grass and fibre have enjoyed one of the most profitable seasons in years, it was reported in the trade yesterday. Wholesale buying, which is expected to end within the next two weeks, has cleaned out fibre rug stocks and has given grass rug manufacturers a volume almost as great. Fibre rugs have been most popular in the retail ranges of $10 and $15 for the 9-by-12 sizes.

Dress Alterations Increase.

Insufficient material at the seams and skimpiness at the hips were cited yesterday as the outstanding causes of the increase in alterations needed on better-grade dresses, according to the report of a study on alternation causes and costs issued by the merchandise managers' division of the National Retail Dry Goods Association. The new silhouette, it was pointed out, has tended to increase both the number and cost of alterations. Seventy per cent of the stores supplying the data on which the report is based said that it is necessary to alter 50 per cent or more of dresses selling above $35, while 53 per cent of the stores alter over 75 per cent of these dresses. The average alteration cost this year is from $3 to $5, against $2 to $4 in 1929.

Chinchillas Regaining Favor.

Early operations in children's coats for Fall indicate a greater degree of confidence in chinchillas for that season. A year ago these staples were under the handicap of a sudden shift of interest to camel's hair and other fleece garments, a trend furthered by the belief that the latter types of garments would afford a better profit margin. Continued consumer demand in addition to unexpectedly keen competition in the fleece types, however, resulted in chinchillas recovering favor to a considerable degree.

Rayon Demand Continues Quiet.

The general demand for rayon has continued rather quiet. Seasonal business has been tapering off for some weeks and Fall orders from the consuming trades have been developing slowly. Leading producers are said to be operating at from 65 to 70 per cent of capacity, although some units are working below this point. Interest in dull finished yarns continues keen and there has been a steady gain in the acetate yarn trade, although this continues a small part of the business with the bigger producers. The trade is watching the Viscose move to establish quality standards through trade mark and specification control.

Ordering Fall Electrical Goods.

Buyers representing both wholesalers and retailers of household electrical goods are in the market this week for Fall merchandise. Although there are fewer of them here, buyers have shown a disposition to purchase in normal quantities and are showing considerably more interest than selling agents expected. With prices levels about the same as they were when Spring purchases were made, the average order at present is much larger than was the case last January, it is claimed. Chromium plated ware continues more popular than any other types.

Men's Sport Hose Reorders Strong.

Reorders for men's sport and golf hose are coming in strongly, and the volume of business for the season is expected to surpass that of last year. Cotton golf hose is the best seller, it was said, with lisle and wool materials following. The popular designs this season are in both large and small patterns, such as checks, blocks and argyles. Colors meeting the most favorable response are tans, grays and black and whites. On the average, prices are 15 per cent below last year's levels.

STEEL OPERATING RATE SHOWS DECLINE AGAIN

Both Leading Interest and Independents Share in Decrease of 3 Per Cent.

Operations of steel mills continue to decrease, according to statistics announced yesterday for the last week. Production is 3 per cent lower than in the preceding week, according to the reports, making the average operations for the whole industry 68 per cent of theoretical capacity.

The mills of the United States Steel Corporation are operating at about 72 per cent of capacity, compared with 75 in the two weeks preceding, and those of the independents at about 64 per cent, compared with 67 and 67½, respectively. The average for the industry, 68 per cent, compares with slightly better than 71 per cent in the preceding two weeks.

A year ago the United States Steel Corporation's mills were operating at capacity, with the independents at about 94 per cent, making the industry's average above 96 per cent. Two years ago the Steel Corporation was operating at 76 per cent and the independents at 70½.

SEES STEEL MARKET GAIN.

Special to The New York Times.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 17.—Speaking before more than eighty members of the National Association of Flat Rolled Steel Manufacturers today, E. P. Thomas, vice president of the United States Steel Corporation, stated that in his opinion manufacturers should prepare now for the future, as recent recessions are over and business is on the eve of immediate improvement.

"Perhaps the hectic expansion and abnormal prosperity of last year created a mirage of potentialities which it will take some years to translate into actualities," he said.

"Nevertheless, this great surplus reservoir of capacity over demand presents an intriguing challenge to engage, through our best efforts, that capacity, and maintain and increase employment for our labor."

COPPER SALES MADE AT 11 1-2C A POUND

Custom Smelters Cut Price to Lowest Since 1921, but 12c Is Maintained by Producers.

INCREASE IN MAY OUTPUT

Sales of copper at 11½ cents a pound, the lowest price quoted for the metal since 1921, were reported to have been made yesterday by custom smelters. Despite the price cutting by the custom smelters, producers generally maintained their price of 12 cents a pound, and no change was made in the quotation of Copper Exporters, Inc., which remained at 12.30 cents c. i. f. European base ports.

The amount of copper offered by custom smelters at 11½ cents was limited to a few hundred tons, it was reported. Early in the day some custom smelters cut their price to 11¾ cents, but the reduction failed to result in much demand for the metal.

Sales of copper for export on Monday amounted to 3,250,000 pounds, but were much smaller yesterday.

World copper production amounted to 147,352 short tons in May, compared with 144,298 tons in April and 192,589 tons in May, 1929, according to the monthly estimate of the American Bureau of Metal Statistics.

The daily output last month was 4,753 tons, the lowest daily output since January, 1928. The daily average in the full year 1929 was 5,853 tons.

The following table gives the copper output in short tons from the principal producing centres, as estimated by the American Bureau of Metal Statistics, for the last three months:

CUTS LEAD PRICE 10 POINTS

American Smelting Quotes 5.40c—Zinc at New Low for 1930.

The American Smelting and Refining Company announced yesterday a reduction of 10 points in the price of lead, making the new quotation 5.40 cents a pound. This is the lowest price for 1930.

Zinc continues weak in the New York market and yesterday it established a new low price for the year to date when quoted for prime Western at 4.47½ cents a pound f. o. b. St. Louis. Sales are small in volume. For some time zinc has been selling at the lowest price in more than five years. In 1929 the low was 5.45, in 1928 5.40, 1927, 5.60, and 1926, 6.70.

LIVE STOCK IN CHICAGO.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Hog prices dropped 15 to 50 cents today to the lowest figures since Jan. 17, and sold within 25 to 35 cents of the inside level of the year. Receipts of 31,000 were liberal for a Tuesday, and most sales in midsession and later were at losses of 35 to 50 cents, with demand good at the decline. The top was $10.10, a drop of 30 cents from Monday, while the average was 30 cents lower at $9.65. The majority of sales were at $9.35 to $9.90, with 200 to 350 pound butchers at $9.50 to $10, 160 to 250 pound averages $9.60 to $10.10, and packing sows $8.50 to $9.10. Packers bought 27,300 and shippers 4,000, with 4,000 left over. Estimates for tomorrow are 24,000. The five leading Western points expect 67,500 tomorrow, against 53,800 a week ago.

Demand for cattle was slow again, the bulk of the offerings being unsold at noon and bids generally 25 cents under offers. Strictly choice steers sold at $12.65, with few bringing better than $11. Most sales were $9 to $10.50. Receipts were 7,500. Lambs sold readily, with prices 15 to 25 cents higher. Most natives brought $12.25 to $12.50 with a top of $12.75. Idahos sold as high as $12.75. Sheep were weak at $2.50 to $3.25. Receipts were 8,000.

LIVE STOCK AND MEATS.

These prices were reported yesterday in the New York and New Jersey markets by the United States Department of Agriculture:

SUGAR, COFFEE, COCOA.

Sugar.

Refined sugar presented the unusual spectacle for the New York market yesterday of being quoted at variant prices by two groups of refiners. Most of the refiners were quoting 4.60 a pound, an increase of 10 points over the Monday price, while a smaller group was quoting 4.70. Both quotations were regarded as nominal in the market, however, as requirements for the next thirty days had been filled at the 4.50 price, in the interval between the announcement of the increase and the date they went into effect.

Raw sugar took a wholly unexpected turn on the news of the signing of the new tariff bill. After showing strength and rising to 3.37 a pound, duty free, raw sugar was sold before the close at 3.27 and after the close there was plenty available at this price. This is the lowest price at which raw sugar has ever sold, the new tariff, making it equivalent to 1.27 cents a pound, c. and f. Cuba, as compared with the previous low of 1.36, c. and f., established on a small lot last May.

All months in the futures market touched new low prices, and for the first time all old crop positions were under 1.50 a pound, with new crop positions selling at 1.50 at the close. Sales were 65,800 tons.

Total sugar melt of fifteen United States refiners from Jan. 1 to June 7 was 2,055,000 long tons, compared with 2,255,000 long tons during the corresponding period of 1929, according to the report of the American Sugar Institute made public yesterday. Deliveries during the same period of 1930 amounted to 1,840,000 long tons as compared with 2,030,000 long tons in the corresponding period of 1929.

Special to The New York Times.

TORONTO, June 17.—C. L. Burton, past president of the Board of Trade, told delegates to the National Retail Credit Association convention that the United States was defeating its own ends by the creation of tariff restrictions against the products of Canada and by its insistence on collection of war debts with interest from Great Britain. A majority of his hearers are citizens of the United States.

Mr. Burton referred to the large trade between Canada and the United States with the warning: "If we are to continue to buy from you to an increasing extent you can afford to adopt measures which will promote our spending power and our ability to buy the things you have to sell us.

"You have created a market here for your wares and proceeded virtually to slam the door in the face of your best customer.

Calls Policy Short-Sighted.

"We hear that such measures are for the realm of politics, over which men like yourselves haven't any control, but there is a growing opinion in this country that if you, as individuals, really showed sufficient interest you could control and influence the direction of your political action.

"I am sure that in a matter of this kind, if judged by men who would have in mind the prosecution of legitimate business, they would realize that the progressive and increasing restriction against our trade with you in natural products is a short-sighted policy on the part of your country.

"If you are interested in having that work for your growing body of unemployed and are interested in speedy economic reconstruction, then it would appear to us here that both in your antagonistic tariff policy against Canada and your insistence on the payment of war debts, which you do not need, you will in the aggregate cause a loss of earning power to your own people many times greater than the entire amount you will receive from war debts or from the alleged advantage you give certain of your own producers when you shut out Canadian wheat, &c."

Scientific Distribution Urged.

Nearly 1,000 delegates, representative of every type of retail business in Canada and the United States, were present for the opening of the session.

In an address, H. C. Dunn, chief of the domestic commerce division of the United States Department of Commerce, emphasized the necessity for the development of a scientific distribution policy.

He warned, too, of the necessity for careful supervision of the extension of credit, as he showed that the total of retail sales on the instalment plan amounted to between $4,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 in the United States last year out of a total retail sales volume of $40,000,000,000.

RECEIVERS' NOTICES.

PUNTA ALEGRE SUGAR COMPANY

To creditors and stockholders of Punta Alegre Sugar Company and to all persons who have any interest in the estate of said corporation in the hands of James R. Sheffield, William C. Douglas and Irving Trust Company, as Receivers.

By virtue of the following orders of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, in the cause therein pending between J. Z. Horter Company as Complainant, and Punta Alegre Sugar Company as Defendant, namely:

(a) An order dated June 3, 1930,

(b) An order dated June 16, 1930,

notice is hereby given:

(1) That by said order dated June 3, 1930, James R. Sheffield, William C. Douglas and Irving Trust Company have been appointed Receivers of said Court of Punta Alegre Sugar Company and of its business, assets, and property, and that they have given bond as Receivers as directed by said order and are now acting as such Receivers.

(2) That Eugene V. R. Thayer, Richard F. Hoyt and E. B. Parry as a committee, by their petition in said cause verified June 12, 1930, have submitted to said Court a Plan of Reorganization and a Reorganization Agreement (together constituting a Plan of Reorganization of said Corporation) for the approval of the Court, and that there has been filed with the Clerk of said Court a certified copy of said Plan of Reorganization and a certified copy of said Reorganization Agreement, and also, in connection therewith, a certified copy of a Debenture and Note Holders Deposit Agreement as signed by Charles Hayden and Louis Curtis, Jr., as a Debenture and Note Holders Committee, and a certified copy of a Stockholders Deposit Agreement as signed by J. Bradford Hardon, James D. Callery and E. R. Tinker as a Stockholders Committee. Copies of said Plan of Reorganization, Reorganization Agreement, Debenture and Note Holders Deposit Agreement, and Stockholders Deposit Agreement may be obtained from the secretary of the Reorganization Committee, John A. Dunlop, 31 Nassau Street, New York City, or from the secretary of the Debenture and Note Holders Committee, Raymond B. Hindle, 25 Broad Street, New York City, or from the secretary of the Stockholders Committee, Timothy F. Murphy, 25 Broad Street, New York City.

(3) That the complainant in the above-entitled cause, by its petition verified June 12, 1930, has made application for a decree of said Court directing the sale of all the property and assets of the said corporation and for the distribution of the proceeds thereof and for other relief.

(4) That on July 3, 1930, at Court Room No. 235, Old Post Office Building, New York City, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has directed that any person who has any interest in said receivership estate will be heard with reference to any matter affecting its administration; and that at the said time and place the aforesaid Committees representing the holders of said corporation's Debentures and Notes and of its stock will be required to report what progress has been made looking toward a reorganization of the affairs of said corporation; and that at the same time and place the Court will hear objections to the fairness, timeliness and equitableness of the said Plan of Reorganization of the said corporation and of the offers contained therein to its creditors and stockholders, and will hear and determine said application of the complainant for a decree of sale and for other relief. All persons who shall not appear at the time and place aforesaid to be heard with respect to the above matters shall be barred and restrained from doing so thereafter. And the Receivers have been directed, on or before June 26, 1930, to file in said cause a preliminary report as to the properties, assets and cash in their possession, as to the liabilities of the defendant known to them, the character of each such claim and the security, if any, therefor, whether such claim is admitted or disputed by them, and also showing the estimated receipts and cash requirements of the property for the next three months.

JAMES R. SHEFFIELD,
WILLIAM C. DOUGLAS,
IRVING TRUST COMPANY,
By PAUL E. MEAD,
Vice-President,
Receivers.

Industry Is Strangling Itself, Dr. Haake Tells Meeting of Producers Here.

PLAN QUALITY STANDARDS

The furniture industry is strangling itself through its practices of overproduction and price slashing, Dr. A. P. Haake, managing director of the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers, warned 100 local producers at a meeting in the Knickerbocker Furniture Club yesterday. So far this year, he added, 215 manufacturers throughout the country have failed, another 200 can be expected to fail by July 1 and an additional 200 before the close of the present year. The normal number of annual failures, he said, was fifty.

In an attempt to cure the present evils and create greater stability in the trade, Dr. Haake continued, the association has undertaken a campaign to create minimum standards of quality for all furniture. Upholstered products will be dealt with first, he explained, and case goods next.

"Overproduction in this industry has created a competitive condition of which price cutting has been the natural outgrowth," he continued. "Quality has been cut as far as possible in order to meet a price and later the price was cut in order to meet the figure of a competitor. Nobody made any profit and failures resulted.

"By establishing minimum standards and specifications we will overcome the condition to a certain extent. So far it has been suggested that upholstered davenports be made with a minimum width between arms of 62 inches and a minimum length over-all of 72 inches. Upholstered arm chairs should have a minimum width between arms of 18½ inches.

"Furniture manufacturers have shown a willingness to cooperate in the plan and we believe that the standards will be established and in effect in the near future."

Dr. Haake, in concluding his talk, said he believed prices of furniture had touched bottom and should start upward from now on. He predicted that the trade opening scheduled to start here next Monday would find a large number of buyers in the market and eager to place orders for merchandise.

"Retail stocks throughout the country are the lowest they have ever been and a return to normal buying can be expected," he said. "In my opinion the recovery will be well under way by September."

Prices Ease in Gray Goods Market.

Trading in the gray goods market yesterday was described as erratic. Various prices on standard print cloths were quoted and it was difficult to determine exactly what were the ruling quotations. On the whole, the market was slightly more active than on the previous day. Numerous orders were filled at levels ranging below Monday's quotations, although some sales were made at prices prevailing for the past week. On 38½-inch 60-48s the basis varied between 4¾ and 4⅞ cents. The 38½-inch 64-60s also eased and orders were filled at 5½ to 5¾ cents. The price range for 39-inch 68-72s was 6⅜-6½ cents. On 39-inch 80 squares, most buyers would not exceed 8⅜ cents for spot delivery and 8¼ cents for future shipments. There was a lull in sheeting activity.

Freight car loadings for the week ended June 7, according to the American Railway Association, amounted to 935,647 cars, or less than 1 per cent under the preliminary estimate of 942,000 cars used as the basis for the computation of the adjusted index of freight car loadings, as given in last Sunday's TIMES.

On the basis of these final figures, the adjusted index of freight car loadings for the week ended June 7 is 89.1, as compared with 89.4 for the week ended May 31 and 88.9 for the week ended May 24, making the second week in which the index has fluctuated within a narrow range at a level close to the lowest reached since the major decline of last Fall. A year ago the index stood at 101.5.

As a result of this revision the combined weekly index of business activity for the week ended June 7 now stands at 92.3, as against the preliminary figure of 92.5 published last Sunday. The change brought about by the revised car-loadings index, though slight in itself, nevertheless establishes the combined index at a new low point on the gradual minor downswing which began with the second week in April.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Loadings of revenue freight for the week ended on June 7 totaled 935,647 cars, the American Railway Association announced today, an increase of 75,398 cars above the previous week, due to the observance in that week of Decoration Day, but a reduction of 120,121 cars below the same week in 1929, also a reduction of 59,923 cars under the same week in 1928. Increases were reported in all commodities except coke.

The car loadings in detail were:

	Week Ended June 7.	Change From Prev. Week.	Change From Same Week, 1929.
Miscellan's freight	369,442	+27,980	—50,840
Merch'dise less than carloads	243,753	+28,018	—16,607
Coal	135,858	+ 8,311	—14,000
Forest products	50,975	+ 959	—19,018
Ore	63,450	+ 4,691	—16,004
Coke	9,745	— 415	— 2,645
Grain & grain prod.	38,524	+ 3,145	— 450
Live stock	23,900	+ 2,709	— 557

Car loadings for the week ended on June 7 compare with those in previous weeks as follows:

	1930.	1929.	1928.	1927.

AID AGAINST FAILURE FRAUD

Passage of the so-called "Federal fence bill," now before the Senate Judiciary Committee, would provide a new weapon in the fight against fraudulent bankruptcy, Maxwell S. Mattuck, counsel for the fraud prevention department of the National Association of Credit Men, told members of the credit protection committee at a meeting of the association yesterday at 1 Park Avenue.

"The root of the commercial crime evil is the 'fence' who receives stolen goods," Mr. Mattuck said. "We have had repeated instances of 'fences' in New York and Philadelphia engineering fradulent failures in other States. As the law stands now, the criminal receiver of stolen goods in such cases can be prosecuted only under the bankruptcy statutes. Where no bankruptcy proceeding is instituted, there is no way of going after the 'fence,' even though his guilt is apparent."

Mr. Mattuck was chairman of the special committee of the National Crime Commission, which sponsored the bill.

NEED MORE ON TARIFF BODY

Importers' Council Says Commission Must Be Increased.

An increase in the personnel of the Tariff Commission will be necessary if that body is to function in the way the President hopes it will, the National Council of American Importers and Traders, Inc., declared in a statement on the new tariff issued yesterday.

"The National Council feels that the membership of the Tariff Commission should have been increased by adding to it a representative of the consumer, a representative specifically to give attention to our foreign trade requirements and one to give special attention to our home trade requirements," the statement continued.

Some of the rates in the new bill are characterized as excessive and others as prohibitive by the importers' organization. The importers expressed gratitude to the President for forewarning merchants of his intention to sign the measure thereby giving them time to remove from bond merchandise affected by substantial increases.

THE BUSINESS WORLD

COMMERCIAL PAPER.

Yesterday—3½ to 3¾ per cent for the best names.

Monday—3½ to 3¾ per cent for the best names.

The quotations are for 4 to 6 months' paper.

Fewer Buyers in the Market.

The number of buyers registered in the market during the week ended yesterday showed a decrease under the number reported for the previous week and for the same period last year, according to the lists published in THE TIMES. For the past week 634 buyers were listed, as against 721 for the preceding week and 714 in the corresponding week a year ago. Buyers in town yesterday were less than for last Tuesday, 238 being reported, as compared with 282 for a week ago.

Bracken Again Heads Export Club.

Roger Bracken, export manager of the Millers Falls Company, yesterday was re-elected president of the Export Managers' Club of New York, Inc., at the club's annual meeting in the Hotel Pennsylvania. Paul C. Rowe of the Lunkenheimer Company and W. W. Crowel of the Bonney Forge and Tool Company were elected members of the board. All other officers of the organization were re-elected. In recognition of his ten years' service as club treasurer, C. E. Thomas of the United States Steel Corporation was presented with a motion picture camera and projection machine by the members.

New Pocket Color Card Out.

The new pocket color card featuring the ten basic colors for Fall selected by the color coordination committee of the National Retail Dry Goods Association in cooperation with the Textile Color Card Association made its appearance yesterday. The shades are shown on both silks and woolens. They comprise Manila, bison and Salvador browns; rubytone and winetone reds, cricket and marble greens, admiralty and "bluglory" blues and copperglo, a red-brown shade. The card, the first of its kind sponsored by retailers, is for the guidance of buyers, purchasing offices and merchandising executives and department heads.

Fibre and Grass Rug Sales Up.

In direct contrast to the slow conditions prevailing in both hard and soft surfaced floor coverings lines, manufacturers of Summer specialty rugs of grass and fibre have enjoyed one of the most profitable seasons in years, it was reported in the trade yesterday. Wholesale buying, which is expected to end within the next two weeks, has cleaned out fibre rug stocks and has given grass rug manufacturers a volume almost as great. Fibre rugs have been most popular in the retail ranges of $10 and $15 for the 9-by-12 sizes.

Dress Alterations Increase.

Insufficient material at the seams and skimpiness at the hips were cited yesterday as the outstanding causes of the increase in alterations needed on better-grade dresses, according to the report of a study on alternation causes and costs issued by the merchandise managers' division of the National Retail Dry Goods Association. The new silhouette, it was pointed out, has tended to increase both the number and cost of alterations. Seventy per cent of the stores supplying the data on which the report is based said that it is necessary to alter 50 per cent or more of dresses selling above $35, while 53 per cent of the stores alter over 75 per cent of these dresses. The average alteration cost this year is from $3 to $5, against $2 to $4 in 1929.

Chinchillas Regaining Favor.

Early operations in children's coats for Fall indicate a greater degree of confidence in chinchillas for that season. A year ago these staples were under the handicap of a sudden shift of interest to camel's hair and other fleece garments, a trend furthered by the belief that the latter types of garments would afford a better profit margin. Continued consumer demand in addition to unexpectedly keen competition in the fleece types, however, resulted in chinchillas recovering favor to a considerable degree.

Rayon Demand Continues Quiet.

The general demand for rayon has continued rather quiet. Seasonal business has been tapering off for some weeks and Fall orders from the consuming trades have been developing slowly. Leading producers are said to be operating at from 65 to 70 per cent of capacity, although some units are working below this point. Interest in dull finished yarns continues keen and there has been a steady gain in the acetate yarn trade, although this continues a small part of the business with the bigger producers. The trade is watching the Viscose move to establish quality standards through trade mark and specification control.

Ordering Fall Electrical Goods.

Buyers representing both wholesalers and retailers of household electrical goods are in the market this week for Fall merchandise. Although there are fewer of them here, buyers have shown a disposition to purchase in normal quantities and are showing considerably more interest than selling agents expected. With prices levels about the same as they were when Spring purchases were made, the average order at present is much larger than was the case last January, it is claimed. Chromium plated ware continues more popular than any other types.

Men's Sport Hose Reorders Strong.

Reorders for men's sport and golf hose are coming in strongly, and the volume of business for the season is expected to surpass that of last year. Cotton golf hose is the best seller, it was said, with lisle and wool materials following. The popular designs this season are in both large and small patterns, such as checks, blocks and argyles. Colors meeting the most favorable response are tans, grays and black and whites. On the average, prices are 15 per cent below last year's levels.

STEEL OPERATING RATE SHOWS DECLINE AGAIN

Both Leading Interest and Independents Share in Decrease of 3 Per Cent.

Operations of steel mills continue to decrease, according to statistics announced yesterday for the last week. Production is 3 per cent lower than in the preceding week, according to the reports, making the average operations for the whole industry 68 per cent of theoretical capacity.

The mills of the United States Steel Corporation are operating at about 72 per cent of capacity, compared with 75 in the two weeks preceding, and those of the independents at about 64 per cent, compared with 67 and 67½, respectively. The average for the industry, 68 per cent, compares with slightly better than 71 per cent in the preceding two weeks.

A year ago the United States Steel Corporation's mills were operating at capacity, with the independents at about 94 per cent, making the industry's average above 96 per cent. Two years ago the Steel Corporation was operating at 76 per cent and the independents at 70½.

SEES STEEL MARKET GAIN.

Special to The New York Times.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 17.—Speaking before more than eighty members of the National Association of Flat Rolled Steel Manufacturers today, E. P. Thomas, vice president of the United States Steel Corporation, stated that in his opinion manufacturers should prepare now for the future, as recent recessions are over and business is on the eve of immediate improvement.

"Perhaps the hectic expansion and abnormal prosperity of last year created a mirage of potentialities which it will take some years to translate into actualities," he said.

"Nevertheless, this great surplus reservoir of capacity over demand presents an intriguing challenge to engage, through our best efforts, that capacity, and maintain and increase employment for our labor."

COPPER SALES MADE AT 11 1-2C A POUND

Custom Smelters Cut Price to Lowest Since 1921, but 12c Is Maintained by Producers.

INCREASE IN MAY OUTPUT

Sales of copper at 11½ cents a pound, the lowest price quoted for the metal since 1921, were reported to have been made yesterday by custom smelters. Despite the price cutting by the custom smelters, producers generally maintained their price of 12 cents a pound, and no change was made in the quotation of Copper Exporters, Inc., which remained at 12.30 cents c. i. f. European base ports.

The amount of copper offered by custom smelters at 11½ cents was limited to a few hundred tons, it was reported. Early in the day some custom smelters cut their price to 11¾ cents, but the reduction failed to result in much demand for the metal.

Sales of copper for export on Monday amounted to 3,250,000 pounds, but were much smaller yesterday.

World copper production amounted to 147,352 short tons in May, compared with 144,298 tons in April and 192,589 tons in May, 1929, according to the monthly estimate of the American Bureau of Metal Statistics.

The daily output last month was 4,753 tons, the lowest daily output since January, 1928. The daily average in the full year 1929 was 5,853 tons.

The following table gives the copper output in short tons from the principal producing centres, as estimated by the American Bureau of Metal Statistics, for the last three months:

CUTS LEAD PRICE 10 POINTS

American Smelting Quotes 5.40c—Zinc at New Low for 1930.

The American Smelting and Refining Company announced yesterday a reduction of 10 points in the price of lead, making the new quotation 5.40 cents a pound. This is the lowest price for 1930.

Zinc continues weak in the New York market and yesterday it established a new low price for the year to date when quoted for prime Western at 4.47½ cents a pound f. o. b. St. Louis. Sales are small in volume. For some time zinc has been selling at the lowest price in more than five years. In 1929 the low was 5.45, in 1928 5.40, 1927, 5.60, and 1926, 6.70.

LIVE STOCK IN CHICAGO.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Hog prices dropped 15 to 50 cents today to the lowest figures since Jan. 17, and sold within 25 to 35 cents of the inside level of the year. Receipts of 31,000 were liberal for a Tuesday, and most sales in midsession and later were at losses of 35 to 50 cents, with demand good at the decline. The top was $10.10, a drop of 30 cents from Monday, while the average was 30 cents lower at $9.65. The majority of sales were at $9.35 to $9.90, with 250 to 350 pound butchers at $9.50 to $10, 160 to 250 pound averages $9.60 to $10.10, and packing sows $8.50 to $9.10. Packers bought 27,300 and shippers 4,000, with 4,000 left over. Estimates for tomorrow are 24,000. The five leading Western points expect 67,500 tomorrow, against 53,800 a week ago.

Demand for cattle was slow again, the bulk of the offerings being unsold at noon and bids generally 25 cents under offers. Strictly choice steers sold at $12.65, with few bringing better than $11. Most sales were at $9 to $10.50. Receipts were 7,500.

Lambs sold readily, with prices 15 to 25 cents higher. Most natives brought $12.25 to $12.50 with a top of $12.75. Idahos sold as high as $13. Sheep were weak at $2.50 to $3.25. Receipts were 8,000.

LIVE STOCK AND MEATS.

These prices were reported yesterday in the New York and New Jersey markets by the United States Department of Agriculture:

VEALERS AND CALVES.

Vealers in light supply, fairly active, steady on local vealers, easier on Southerns. Good to choice $11 to $13. Mediums $8 to $10. Medium Southerns up to $8.50. Cull and common $6 to $7.50.

SHEEP.

Lambs in fairly liberal supply, slow, better grades steady. Mediums 25c to 50c lower. Good to choice $12 to $12.50. Mediums $10.50 to $11.50. Common $9 to $10. Ewes steady to 50c lower. Medium to good mostly $3 to $3.50.

SUGAR, COFFEE, COCOA.

Sugar.

Refined sugar presented the unusual spectacle for the New York market yesterday of being quoted at variant prices by two groups of refiners. Most of the refiners were quoting 4.60 a pound, an increase of 10 points over the Monday price, while a smaller group was quoting 4.70. Both quotations were regarded as nominal in the market, however, as requirements for the next thirty days had been filled at the 4.50 price, in the interval between the announcement of the increase and the date they went into effect.

Raw sugar took a wholly unexpected turn on the news of the signing of the new tariff bill. After showing strength and rising to 3.37 a pound, duty free, raw sugar was sold before the close at 3.27 and after the close there was plenty available at this price. This is the lowest price at which raw sugar has ever sold, the new tariff, making it equivalent to 1.27 cents a pound, c. and f. Cuba, as compared with the previous low of 1.36, c. and f., established on a small lot last May.

All months in the futures market touched new low prices, and for the first time all old crop positions were under 1.50 a pound, with new crop positions selling at 1.50 at the close. Sales were 65,800 tons.

Total sugar melt of fifteen United States refiners from Jan. 1 to June 7 was 2,055,000 long tons, compared with 2,255,000 long tons during the corresponding period of 1929, according to the report of the American Sugar Institute made public yesterday. Deliveries during the same period of 1930 amounted to 1,840,000 long tons as compared with 2,030,000 long tons in the corresponding period of 1929.

CANADIAN WARNS OF TARIFF DANGER

C. L. Burton Tells Credit Men at Toronto United States Is Defeating Own Ends.

ASSAILS WAR DEBT POLICY

Commerce Department Aide Urges Delegates to Develop Scientific Distribution.

Special to The New York Times.

TORONTO, June 17.—C. L. Burton, past president of the Board of Trade, told delegates to the National Retail Credit Association convention that the United States was defeating its own ends by the creation of tariff restrictions against the products of Canada and by its insistence on collection of war debts with interest from Great Britain. A majority of his hearers are citizens of the United States.

Mr. Burton referred to the large trade between Canada and the United States with the warning: "If we are to continue to buy from you to an increasing extent you can afford to adopt measures which will promote our spending power and our ability to buy the things you have to sell us.

"You have created a market here for your wares and proceeded virtually to slam the door in the face of your best customer.

Calls Policy Short-Sighted.

"We hear that such measures are for the realm of politics, over which men like yourselves haven't any control, but there is a growing opinion in this country that if you, as individuals, really showed sufficient interest you could control and influence the direction of your political action.

"I am sure that in a matter of this kind, if judged by men who would have in mind the prosecution of legitimate business, they would realize that the progressive and increasing restriction against our trade with you in natural products is a short-sighted policy on the part of your country.

"If you are interested in having that work for your growing body of unemployed and are interested in speedy economic reconstruction, then it would appear to us here that both in your antagonistic tariff policy against Canada and your insistence on the payment of war debts, which you do not need, you will in the aggregate cause a loss of earning power to your own people many times greater than the entire amount you will receive from war debts or from the alleged advantage you give certain of your own producers when you shut out Canadian wheat, &c."

Scientific Distribution Urged.

Nearly 1,000 delegates, representative of every type of retail business in Canada and the United States, were present for the opening of the session.

In an address, H. C. Dunn, chief of the domestic commerce division of the United States Department of Commerce, emphasized the necessity for the development of a scientific distribution policy.

He warned, too, of the necessity for careful supervision of the extension of credit, as he showed that the total of retail sales on the instalment plan amounted to between $4,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 in the United States last year out of a total retail sales volume of $40,000,000,000.

RECEIVERS' NOTICES.

PUNTA ALEGRE SUGAR COMPANY

To creditors and stockholders of Punta Alegre Sugar Company and to all persons who have any interest in the estate of said corporation in the hands of James R. Sheffield, William C. Douglas and Irving Trust Company, as Receivers.

By virtue of the following orders of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, in the cause therein pending between J. Z. Horter Company as Complainant, and Punta Alegre Sugar Company as Defendant, namely:

(a) An order dated June 3, 1930,
(b) An order dated June 16, 1930,

notice is hereby given:

(1) That by said order dated June 3, 1930, James R. Sheffield, William C. Douglas and Irving Trust Company have been appointed Receivers of said Court of Punta Alegre Sugar Company and of its business, assets, and property, and that they have given bond as Receivers as directed by said order and are now acting as such Receivers.

(2) That Eugene V. R. Thayer, Richard F. Hoyt and E. B. Parry as a committee, by their petition in said cause verified June 12, 1930, have submitted to said Court a Plan of Reorganization and a Reorganization Agreement (together constituting a Plan of Reorganization of said Corporation) for the approval of the Court, and that there has been filed with the Clerk of said Court a certified copy of said Plan of Reorganization and a certified copy of said Reorganization Agreement, and also, in connection therewith, a certified copy of a Debenture and Note Holders Deposit Agreement as signed by Charles Hayden and Louis Curtis, Jr., as a Debenture and Note Holders Committee, and a certified copy of a Stockholders Deposit Agreement as signed by J. Bradford Hardon, James D. Callery and E. R. Tinker as a Stockholders Committee. Copies of said Plan of Reorganization, Reorganization Agreement, Debenture and Note Holders Deposit Agreement, and Stockholders Deposit Agreement may be obtained from the secretary of the Reorganization Committee, John A. Dunlop, 31 Nassau Street, New York City, or from the secretary of the Debenture and Note Holders Committee, Raymond B. Hindle, 25 Broad Street, New York City, or from the secretary of the Stockholders Committee, Timothy F. Murphy, 25 Broad Street, New York City.

(3) That the complainant in the above-entitled cause, by its petition verified June 12, 1930, has made application for a decree of said Court directing the sale of all the property and assets of the said corporation and for the distribution of the proceeds thereof and for other relief.

(4) That on July 3, 1930, at Court Room No. 235, Old Post Office Building, New York City, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has directed that any person who has any interest in said receivership estate will be heard with reference to any matter affecting its administration; and that at the said time and place the aforesaid Committees representing the holders of said corporation's Debentures and Notes and of its stock will be required to report what progress has been made looking toward a reorganization of the affairs of said corporation; and that at the same time and place the Court will hear objections to the fairness, timeliness and equitableness of the said Plan of Reorganization of the said corporation and of the offers contained therein to its creditors and stockholders, and will hear and determine said application of the complainant for a decree of sale and for other relief. All persons who shall not appear at the time and place aforesaid to be heard with respect to the above matters shall be barred and restrained from doing so thereafter. And the Receivers have been directed, on or before June 26, 1930, to file in said cause a preliminary report as to the properties, assets and cash in their possession, as to the liabilities of the defendant known to them, the character of each such claim and the security, if any, therefor, whether such claim is admitted or disputed by them, and also showing the estimated receipts and cash requirements of the property for the next three months.

Dated New York, N. Y., June 17, 1930.

JAMES R. SHEFFIELD,
WILLIAM C. DOUGLAS,
IRVING TRUST COMPANY,
By PAUL E. MEAD,
Vice-President,
Receivers.

REVIEW OF THE DAY IN REALTY MARKET

Volume of Sales in Manhattan Shows Largest Gain in Several Weeks.

DEALS WIDELY SCATTERED

Activity Ranges From Greenwich Village to the Washington Heights Area.

There was a noticeable increase in volume of real estate trading in Manhattan yesterday, when for the first time in several weeks many sales of property were reported. A fair volume of activity was also reported from New Jersey, Westchester and Connecticut. Manhattan's trading was widely scattered and involved holdings from the downtown area to Washington Heights.

In the Greenwich Village section the five-story tenement house at 381 Bleecker Street, 23 by 62 feet, was resold by the John Henry Realty Corporation to a client of Crist & Herrick, brokers.

A five-story loft building at 176 Front Street, 47 feet south of Burling Slip, was purchased by Isaac Hyman, attorney, for a client. The building is on a lot 19 by 87 feet.

Max Kambach sold for Amelia Adelmann to Fred Arndt and resold to Theresa Krebs the property at 241 First Avenue, adjoining the northwest corner of Fourteenth Street. The property has been in the selling family since 1888.

The four-story building at 786 Sixth Avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Streets, has been sold by Harry N. Wessel to the Henshaw Floral Company, which occupies the store in the building. The building is on a lot 25 by 91 feet.

The Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament of St. Jean the Baptist Church, at Lexington Avenue and Seventy-sixth Street, has purchased for improvement from the Schulte Real Estate Company the property at 194, 196 and 198 East Seventy-sixth Street, 85 by 102 feet. The Keegan Company Real Estate, Inc., represented the purchasers.

On the upper west side, a three-story dwelling at 305 West Seventy-eighth Street was sold by Joseph Simonaitus to the North Star Company, Inc. The house is on a lot 16 by 69 feet, adjoining the northwest corner of West End Avenue. The Raymond P. Quinn Company acted as broker in the deal.

The Schulte Real Estate Company sold the six-story apartment house at 517 West 161st Street, between Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue, on a plot 50 by 100 feet. The house contains eighty-three rooms and was sold through Abraham Saffir, broker.

I. M. Kalt of 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, purchased from the Iskam Holding Corporation, Israel Kammerman, president, the two six-story apartment houses at 72 to 88 Wadsworth Terrace. The houses are on a plot 235 by 84 feet and were sold through Isaac Portman and Herman Feinberg, brokers. The buyer will take title to the property on July 1.

Astoria Waterfront Site Sold.

The waterfront property owned by William Corcoran at the foot of Remsen Street, Astoria, containing about 25,000 square feet fronting on Pot Cove, East River, has been sold by George J. Brown, broker. The purchaser, it is said, will improve the property at once.

LEASEHOLDS LISTED.

Eleventh Avenue Block at 43d Street in Stock Deal.

For a consideration of $548,320, represented by 54,832 shares of the capital stock, the 607 West Forty-third Street Corporation has bought from the New York Manufacturers Real Estate Company, Edward J. McDonnell, president, the lease of almost all the block between Eleventh and Twelfth Avenues, Forty-third and Forty-fourth Streets, the exceptions being the 25-foot lot on the northwest corner of Forty-third Street and Eleventh Avenue and the half block fronting on Eleventh Avenue at the southwest corner of Forty-fourth Street, 100 feet deep. This lease was made by Eugene Higgins to Conrad Hubert on Dec. 1, 1905, sold by him to the Charles E. Ellis Real Estate Company on Sept. 1, 1906, and sold by the latter to the New York Manufacturers Real Estate Company on March 10, 1909. The unexpired term is for seventy-four years and seven months to Jan 1, 2005.

A lease of the northwest corner of Eighth Avenue and Forty-eighth Street, which expires Sept. 30, 1940, with a $4,000 security deposit, has been sold by the R. B. L. Cigar Company, Inc., A. Levy, treasurer and secretary, to Herman Wangrow of 28 Forsyth Street.

The Pennsylvania Lunch Company, Inc., sold its lease of 413 Eighth Avenue, ending on April 30, 1934, to the West Eighth Avenue Corporation.

Lingro Food Shops, Inc., sold its lease of 645 Sixth Avenue to John F. Trommer and Benjamin Gottfried.

Emil Goldmark has taken a lease of 269 West Ninetieth Street, through Carstens & Linnekin, Inc.

Llewellyn Powell of Tefft & Co. took a lease of 66 East Seventy-eighth Street. Adelaide J. Pendergast was the broker.

Sidney L. Warsawer, broker, leased for the Kesbec Company a part of the plot at Seventh Avenue, Greenwich Avenue and West Eleventh Street to the White Tower System for the sale of foodstuffs.

The Robert R. Rainey Company rented for John J. Naugle, trustee, to Joseph S. Costa the building at 216 Fulton Street between Church and Greenwich Streets for fifteen years. The Rainey company sold for Budd & Coffee the lease on the one-story building at 196 Eleventh Avenue to Matthew Clark.

MAPS EAST SIDE PLAN.

First Avenue Group Aiding City in Development Program.

Property owners of Manhattan's upper east side are supporting Mayor Walker's plan for a City Planning Department, according to Clarke G. Dailey, chairman of the First Avenue Association's Planning Committee, which has begun the work of mapping out a development program for the district from Twenty-third to Ninety-sixth Street, between Second Avenue and the East River.

The committee conferred this week with George B. Ford, director of the Regional Plan Association, in order to coordinate its work with that of the Regional Plan for the expanding residential section on the upper east side.

RECORDED MORTGAGES.

The National City Bank of New Rochelle has taken a mortgage for $35,000, due June 13, 1933, at 6 per cent, on a plot 100 by 100 feet on the north side of West 219th Street, about 147¼ feet east of Broadway, owned by the Norman Cleaners & Dyers, Inc., Louis Motakin president.

A mortgage for $30,000 given to the Dry Dock Savings Institution by Frederick Rose on 32 East Sixty-fifth Street, has been consolidated with another mortgage held by the bank to make one lien of $65,000, due according to the bond. Mr. Rose has just purchased this property from Oswald S. Lowsley.

A mortgage for $43,750 given to the New York Title and Mortgage Company by the A. D. Winston Construction Corporation, Jacob M. Schoenfeld, president, has been combined with another mortgage held by the title company to make a single lien of $240,000, due June 13, 1933, at 6 per cent, on the six-story apartment at the southeast corner of Fort Washington Avenue and 173d Street. The mortgagor bought this property in July, 1919, from William Laue.

On the northwest corner of Broadway and Cummings Street, 101½ by 120 feet, the Broadway Cumming Street Company, Inc., Louis Rosenberg, president, gave a mortgage for $47,500 to the Dollar Savings Bank. This is consolidated with another mortgage held by the bank to make one joint first lien of $190,000 on this plot, due Nov. 1, 1935, at 6 per cent, with $1,900 to be paid off on the principal each half year.

When James S. Clifford of Weehawken bought from the Fifty-third Street Operating Corporation, John R. Kilpatrick, president, the two four-story buildings at 308-10 East Fifty-third Street, the former gave back a purchase money mortgage for $20,000, due June 16, 1933, at 6 per cent, subject to a first mortgage of $11,000 and to a second of $49,000.

The Centown Realty Corporation, Frank J. Cassidy, president gave a mortgage for $10,000, due May 1, 1933, at 5½ per cent, to James T. Horn on 158 East Forty-ninth Street. This is combined with another mortgage to make one first lien of $30,000 on the property.

Rudolph M. Raan gave a mortgage for $80,000, due June 1, 1935, at 6 per cent, to the New York Trust Company on 574 Fifth Avenue, subordinate to prior mortgages for $395,000. This corrects an instrument recorded in the Register's office on June 11, in which it was erroneously stated that this mortgage covered 590 Fifth Avenue.

A mortgage for $120,000 held by the Union Dime Savings Bank of 152-54 West Forty-fourth Street, owned by the Rosoff Corporation, Arthur B. Cohn, treasurer, has been extended to May 1, 1930, at 5½ per cent. Max Rosoff, who holds a lease to these premises, subordinates the lease to this mortgage.

New London Terrace Flats Planned to Cost $3,000,000

Additional units in the London Terrace development of the Mandel Companies were provided for by the filing of plans yesterday in the Manhattan Bureau of Buildings for four eighteen-story houses on the block bounded by Ninth and Tenth Avenues, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Streets. The cost of the four buildings was estimated at $3,000,000.

The plans were filed by Farrar & Watmough, architects, for the London Terrace Corporation, owner of record of the site. The Twenty-three-Twenty-four Corporation, Henry Mandel, president, is the lessee of the property.

SALES IN NEW JERSEY.

Jersey City Apartment Is Traded for Other Parcels in County.

Joseph H. Rudiger of Jersey City has bought for investment the five-story elevator apartment house for thirty-two families at 136-38 Manhattan Avenue, between Hudson Boulevard and Summit Avenue, Jersey City. Salvator Giordano, the seller, received in part payment several other Hudson County parcels. The total value of the realty in the deal is put at $275,000 by J. I. Kislak, Inc., the broker, in conjunction with George Laurer.

The apartment house was built on a plot 50 by 138 feet last year by Mr. Giordano. His new holdings include a three-story store and apartment structure at 752-54 Hudson Avenue and 227 Twenty-first Street, West New York, on a plot fronting fifty feet on Hudson Avenue and running through to Dewey Avenue, including a three-car garage; a two-family house on a plot 25 by 90 feet at 110 Summit Avenue, Union City, and two four-family houses on a plot 50 by 100 feet at 712-14 Twenty-sixth Street, Union City.

The Flakeice Company, manufacturer of ice-making equipment, leased for operation in conjunction with its Brooklyn plant a one-story building in the group at 574 Ferry Street, Newark, from the Bassick Company, a division of the Stewart-Warner Company. Feist & Feist, Inc., arranged the deal.

Benjamin S. Gorlin took title to the four three-story frame buildings with stores on a plot 71 by 101 feet at 225½ to 231 Monticello Avenue, corner of Reed Street, Jersey City, which he purchased at a foreclosure sale.

Frank T. Abbott bought a two-family frame dwelling, 244 Fowler Avenue, Jersey City, from George Barry.

Rosanna M. Brophy purchased for occupancy a two-story frame dwelling, 99 Crescent Avenue, Jersey City, from Charles A. Krieg.

Mrs. Friedericke Schaller sold a two-story frame store and dwelling, 628 Park Avenue, West New York, to Nestor Jaquin of North Bergen.

The Sussman Realty Company (Aaron P. Sussman, president) obtained from the Guild Corporation a loan of $95,000, due June 1, 1931, at 6 per cent, for the construction of a two-story brick store and office building on a plot 50 by 123 feet at the northwest corner of Broadway and West Twenty-third Street, Bayonne.

The City Housing Corporation announced the sale of the house at 8 Aberdeen Place, Radburn, N. J., to Herbert C. Yahraes, formerly of Baton Rouge, La., and the house at 12 Bancroft Place to George K. O'Connor, formerly of 45-08 Middleburg Avenue, Long Island City.

WESTCHESTER DEALS.

White Plains Business Corner Sold to Investor.

A large business plot at the southwest corner of Mamaroneck and Bryant Avenues, White Plains, has been sold by Robert Carrigan of White Plains to Mrs. Grace R. Wise of New York City, who acquired the property as an investment.

The parcel fronts 118 feet on Mamaroneck Avenue and 100 feet on Bryant Avenue. Mr. Carrigan took over from Mrs. Wise in the deal her wooded acreage holdings in Sheldon Road, adjoining the lands of Helen Gould Shepard and the estate of H. K. Browning, and will subdivide this property for residential development. The brokers were Eisner-Morehouse and E. H. Rapaport.

Elliott C. Brown has leased his furnished residence in London Woods, Rye, for the season to J. Christopher Meyer of Brooklyn, through Prince & Ripley.

Kenneth Ives & Co. have rented for the Summer to Dr. Edwin Beer of New York City the roperty of Miss Lillian C. Weaver at Tarrytown, N. Y., known as "Andrebrook," consisting of ten acres, with historic old Colonial house, garage, riding ring and stables.

BROOKLYN SITE PURCHASED

LAUNCH FERRYBOAT FOR CITY'S SERIVCE

Officials Attend Ceremony at Tebo Yards for Chelsea, New Electric Carrier.

MAYOR'S SISTER SPONSOR

Program Is Broadcast to Radio Audience—Municipal Craft Has Capacity of 80.

Delayed but a moment when the supports failed to give way, the municipal ferryboat Chelsea slid down the ways at the Tebo yard of the Todd Shipbuilding Company yesterday while several hundred guests and employes in the yards cheered, the Police Department band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and harbor craft extended a greeting with shrill whistles.

Mrs. Nan Walker Burke, sister of Mayor Walker, broke a bottle over the prow of the boat as it started to slip away, cameras clicked and a word picture of the scene was broadcast to the radio audience over the municipal station WRNY. Mayor Walker was detained by a conference at City Hall and Borough President John A. Lynch of Richmond served as his representative. Commissioner Goldman of the Department of Plant and Structures and Fire Commissioner Dorman and William H. Todd, president of the shipbuilding company, also were in attendance.

The launching ceremony started at 1 o'clock to conform to the demands of the radio program and when the boat had settled in the water the broadcasting continued with talks by Mrs. Burke, Mr. Lynch and Commissioner Goldman. Later, at a luncheon at the Hotel Bossert, at which 500 persons were guests of Mr. Todd, Mr. Goldman served as toastmaster and Joseph V. McKee, president of the Board of Aldermen, arriving late, was among the speakers.

Mr. Goldman praised the work of the Todd company in completing the boat three months before schedule and Mr. McKee said that on a quality basis of work he favored the construction of all municipal boats by the Todd yards. During the luncheon Mr. Todd presented a diamond-studded bar pin to Mrs. Burke and a mechanical smoking bear to her young son. Dr. William A. Boylan, president of Brooklyn College, and Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, Commissioner of Health, also spoke.

The new ferryboat is a double-ended steel-screw Diesel electric boat, the first of this type to be built by the city. It is 101 feet 6 inches long, 26 feet 4 inches wide and 11 feet 10 inches deep. It has one central teamway for nine vehicles and two side passenger cabins with a total seating capacity of eighty.

MORE AT WORK ON SHIPS.

"Substantial Improvement" Seen as Construction Engages 19,812.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Reports from four American shipbuilding companies constructing vessels for foreign commerce with the aid of government loans, the Shipping Board announced today, indicate "substantial improvement in employment conditions in the different yards concerned."

The four companies, the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, New York Shipbuilding Company and Sun Shipbuilding Company, were employing, in the aggregate, 19,812 men on May 1, 1930, as compared with 16,349 on July 1, 1929.

"These figures," the board said, "are regarded as particularly noteworthy in view of the fact that they do not take into consideration the further increases in numbers employed at the New York Shipbuilding Company, where two $11,000,000 ships are about to be built for the United States Lines, and also at the Bethlehem and Newport News companies, each of which has recently been awarded contracts for constructing three $3,425,000 vessels."

The total ship construction and ship improvement programs which have been undertaken so far amount to about $125,000,000.

BOY, 17, SWIMS A MILE TO SAVE HELPLESS SHIP

Youngest Sailor on Lake Michigan Fruit Boat Reaches Shore After Another Fails.

MILWAUKEE, June 17 (AP).—After another sailor had failed, Donald Aiken, 17 years old, youngest sailor on the sixty-ton fruit boat Mary Margaret of St. Joseph, Mich., today swam a mile to shore, and obtained help from the Coast Guard to save the disabled ship from the rocks off Milwaukee.

oLaded to the gunwales with Michigan strawberries, the boat was fog bound and its propellor was stripped by a rock. It carried no lifeboats or rafts.

For an hour Captain Philip R. Eaglesfield struggled with the wheel trying to avoid the rocks, but a swell was carrying the boat to destruction. The captain called for volunteers to swim ashore. Ambrose Stump of St. Joseph, went over the side. He had to give up in the cold water. Aiken then took to the water and won the shore. The Coast Guard boat towed the Mary Margaret to a dock.

Racing Schooner Hauled Off Shore.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 17 (AP).—The schooner Bluenose, champion racer of the North Atlantic fishing fleet, which has been ashore at Point Roche in Placentia Bay, Newfoundland, was hauled off early today by the Canadian Government steamer Arras. The Marine and Fisheries Department was told that the schooner was not damaged seriously. The Arras took the schooner in tow for Burin, forty miles away.

All this Thrill – with Safety

THE voyageurs in birch canoes once shot these rapids at risk to life and limb. Indians headed for the trading post at Montreal would brave a roaring torrent in the gathering dusk rather than sleep with the fear of facing it at dawn. But today everybody shoots the rapids in safety.
Black rocks, like tusks in the foaming mouth of a mad dog, still threaten as of old, but a deep channel—known only to experienced pilots—carries your ship through without the slightest danger.
You board the S.S. "Rapids King" or "Rapids Prince" at Prescott, Ontario, and in a nine-hour sail shoot a series of eight rapids to the still waters of Montreal Harbour. This is but one feature of your trip from Niagara to the famous Saguenay River.
IMPORTANT—Our ships sail from the head of the Great Lakes down the St. Lawrence River, through the Saguenay Canyon, nearly 2000 miles of beauty and grandeur. The river varies from roaring rapids to a vast expanse of blue water 18 miles wide. Steamers may be boarded at Lewiston, Rochester, Duluth or Detroit in the U.S.A., or at Queenston, Toronto, Montreal or Quebec in Canada.

Including first class accommodations and meals on ship and at hotel. Also series of interesting sight-seeing tours, etc.
This year the "Veendam," chartered from the Holland-America Line, joins the motorship "Bermuda" for the popular vacation trips to Bermuda.
Whichever ship you take, "Furness" service insures a glorious time on sea in true Transatlantic style. The all-expense rate includes first-class accommodations on either vessel as well as hotel maintenance, interesting carriage drives, steamboat excursions and admission to all the principal points of interest.
Bermuda is at the height of its beauty in summer. All activities are in full swing. Far out at sea, it is breeze-swept on all sides and the average summer temperature is only 77°.
Sailings every Wednesday on the S. S. "Veendam" and every Saturday on M.S. "Bermuda," commencing June 28.
IMPORTANT TO NOTE: "Veendam" and "Bermuda" sail from Manhattan Pier 95 (west 55th St.) and go direct to dock at Hamilton Bermuda thus avoiding inconvenience of five mile transfer from anchorage.

S. S. "PRESIDENT WARFIELD"
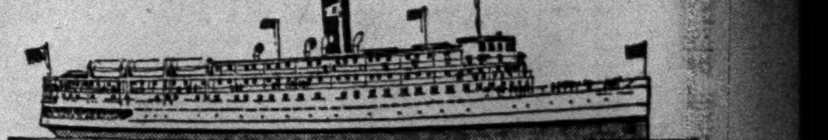
supplements their service to Boston on MONDAYS—WEDNESDAYS—FRIDAYS at 6 P. M. Daylight Time



BEGINNING JUNE 23
The necessity for a "second section" is a tribute to this famous service. Passengers who wish to leave the city an hour later on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays are assured of a cool stateroom to Boston . . . with the same excellence of service that characterizes all Eastern Steamship sailings. Like the "Boston" and "New York", the "President Warfield" has rooms with real beds . . . private baths . . . large rooms for family use, or rooms en suite. All staterooms have hot and cold running water. Of course, there is an orchestra to provide music for dancing . . . and the food is delicious.

URGES OPEN INQUIRY INTO TEACHERS' ROW

First Witness Before O'Shea Repeats Charges, but Refuses Names in Pension Fight.

HIS REQUEST IS DENIED

Woman Teacher, to Be Heard To-day, Backs Move to Sift Charges at Public Hearings.

When Superintendent O'Shea's private inquiry into charges of irregularities during the recent school pension campaign began yesterday the first witness, Dr. Calvin V. Campbell, teacher at the Thomas Jefferson High School, urged that "the only sure way of getting at the truth of the whole matter" was to make the investigation public.

The superintendent declared he would deny the request, but Mrs. Johanna M. Lindlof, president of the Kindergarten to 6B Teachers' Association, who is scheduled for appearance before the superintendent today, supported Dr. Campbell's stand, and announced that she also would ask that the inquiry be changed to an open one.

Dr. O'Shea declared that he considered his private inquiry "sufficient" to obtain the required information. He is making the investigation on the instruction of George J. Ryan, president of the Board of Education, and the report containing the testimony of "witnesses" would be made public, the school head said.

After the "private conference" with the superintendent, at which three of his official aides were present, the witness declared that he had repeated his charges of "colonization of voting teachers," "ballot stuffing," "partisan use of official equipment" and "official coercion." He said he had declined to make charges against specific individuals, holding that it was the function of an open investigation to fix guilt after determining the truth of the alleged irregularities.

At the request of the superintendent, who had asked for the "names of individuals * * * guilty of conduct prejudicial to the good order of the service," Dr. Campbell submitted a written statement in which he said in part:

"Obviously, it is not incumbent upon me to find out who was responsible for the occurrences of the irregularities. The fixing of responsibility must precede the determination of guilt. That responsibility cannot be determined except after these matters have been fully reviewed.

"Permit me then respectfully to suggest that the only sure way to get at the truth of this whole matter is to make it the subject of a public investigation.

"By a 'public investigation' I mean an open investigation at which all minutes are officially kept as public records and at which all necessary witnesses, summoned, if need be, by compulsory process, are called upon to offer testimony under oath."

In his demand for an inquiry, Mr. Ryan had not specified whether it was to be public. But he emphasized the seriousness of the charges and directed the superintendent to give the matter "precedence over all others."

Dr. O'Shea said after the interview with Dr. Campbell that the latter had "modified" his complaints, in that "he was careful not to make charges against anybody," and had denied he had "personal knowledge" of the irregularities. But the teacher declared that he had insisted that "irregularities had occurred, even at public meetings—irregularities which cannot be questioned." Dr. Campbell said he had thanked the superintendent for the "great courtesy" of his manner of conducting the inquiry.

The superintendent also interviewed Mrs. Kathleen R. Sharman, secretary of the association, and will question today William Hendrie and Berthold I. Lippert, in addition to Mrs. Lindlof.

The charges were made originally by the supporters of Miss Anna E. Lawson, who won her campaign for re-election to membership in the Teachers' Retirement Board, against the backers of her opponent, Mrs. Bridget Peixotto.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ELECT.

Benn Kenyon Chosen Grand Commander at State Conclave.

Special to The New York Times.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 17.—The Grand Commandery Knights of Templar of the State of New York at a meeting here today chose Auburn as the convention city next year. Benn Kenyon, former District Attorney of Oneida County, a member of Holy Cross Commandery of Auburn, was elected Grand Commander.

Other officers elected were: Arthur L. Lee, Jamaica, Deputy Grand Commander; Jerome L. Cheney, Syracuse, Grand Generalissimo; Clarence C. Porter, Hornell, Grand Captain General; Charles H. Hadlock, New York, Grand Senior Warden; George F. Argetsinger, Rochester, Grand Junior Warden; the Rev. G. Sherman Murrows, Buffalo, Grand Prelate; George A. Newell, Medina, Grand Treasurer; John B. Mullan, Rochester, Grand Recorder; Walter A. Delamater, New York, Grand Standard Bearer; Everett R. Tomlinson, Batavia, Grand Sword Bearer, and Chauncey C. Thayer, Gloversville, Grand Warden.

Woman Killed in Fall From Train.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 17.—Miss Elizabeth Knittee, 20 years old, of Philadelphia, was killed today when she fell from a fast-moving Pennsylvania Railroad train bound from Long Branch to Trenton. The train was passing the Allaire crossing, several miles west of here, when the woman either fell or jumped from the platform of the last car.

HABERDASHER QUERIED IN PERTH AMBOY BLAST

Part of Floor in Cellar of Razed Shop Removed as Evidence—Man Once in Liquor Business.

Special to The New York Times.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., June 17.—David Fass, Smith Street haberdasher, whose business place was ruined by an explosion late Sunday night, appeared before investigators today accompanied by his attorney, David T. Wilentz, Democratic leader in Middlesex County. The explosion and fire cost two lives, injured twenty persons and did damage estimated at more than $250,000. The investigators, led by Prosecutor John E. Toolan, will call about thirty witnesses.

The prosecutor is being assisted by insurance company representatives and Detective Rothenberg of the Newark police bomb squad.

Fass was the sixth to be questioned today. He and his attorney stayed for about an hour. The clothing man was also questioned for an hour early yesterday morning, while the firemen were still fighting the blaze which had started on his premises.

Prior to prohibition, Fass was engaged in the liquor business about two blocks from where his present business has been conducted.

The questioning of witnesses will continue for some time, it is believed, and the work of clearing out the Fass cellar is being continued. The police are watching the débris, and part of the cellar floor has been taken to the station house for evidence.
